SC Court of Appeals

Associated Receivables Funding, Inc., Respondent, vs.

Dunlap, Inc.; James Stephen Dunlap, an Individual; Dunlap Industrial Coating Services, Inc.; Dunlap Industrial Services, Inc.; Classic Industrial Services, Inc.; and Mark Buerle, an Individual, Defendants,

Of Which, Classic Industrial Services, Inc. is Appellant.

MOTION FOR ENLARGEMENT OF TIME

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE THAT, pursuant to Rule 240, SCACR, the undersigned counsel for Classic Industrial Services, Inc., Appellant, is respectfully requesting an enlargement of the time within which to file and serve its initial opening brief, as well as its initial designation of matter for the record on appeal. In furtherance of this Motion, Appellant would respectfully advise that:

1. The undersigned counsel for Appellant is diligently working toward the filing of his client's initial opening brief and designation of matter for the record on appeal, but is experiencing a significant volume of work as a consequence of the courts, and the economy generally, reopening;

2. Prior to filing this Motion, the undersigned counsel consulted with counsel for Respondent, who has graciously consented to the enlargement herein requested; and,

3. This is the second request for enlargement that Appellant has made in this case.

Presently, Appellant's initial opening brief and designation matter for the record on appeal are due to be filed on Thursday, June 11, 2020. Appellant is respectfully requesting a 30-day extension of the deadlines as to those filings. If this request is granted, Appellant's initial opening brief and designation of matter for the record on appeal will be due on Monday, July 13, 2020 (note: a thirty-day extension results in the filings having a deadline of Saturday, July 11, 2020).

WHEREFORE, with the consent of Respondent's counsel, Appellant respectfully requests the extension herein made. It is Appellant's understanding that a filing fee for this Motion is not required at this time.

Respectfully,

Steven Edward Buckingham (S.C. Bar No. 0075089)
