I am pleading with the court to please appointment for court appointed appellate attorney. I am under a doctor's care I am including a note from my doctor with this email / motion to please help with appointing an attorney for myself.

I am not able to afford an attorney. I am requesting in this motion at the court please appoint me Council for this case number 202-000-0629. I have reached out to local eviction attorney attorneys who told me they do not do appellate courts I cannot afford an attorney. I applied with SC legal application number 20-0682960 I was told by telephone but I would not get an attorney with this Corporation. I need an attorney desperately for this case to move forward. I am on a time-sensitive basis. Therefore I am pleading with the court to please appoint me an attorney. I cannot afford one myself. I only received $783 per month SSI income. I am disabled in the state, and I am under a doctor's care. I am cluding document from my doctor also MRI report on my recent spinal cord injuries. I am also including proof of my yearly income SSI award letter / statement or 20/20. I am pleading with the court for an emergency motion for an attorney. Thank you for your consideration.
