"Respondents' Designation of Matter to be Included in the Record On Appeal" cites irrelevant matter in violation of Rule 210(c), SCACR (excerpted in part, emphasis added):

RULE 210 RECORD ON APPEAL

(c) Content. The Record on Appeal shall include all matter ... provided, however, that the portion of a pleading showing verification or service shall not be included unless relevant to the appeal. ...

Consequently, Appellant moves for exclusion of such Designation of Matter (DOM) from the Record on Appeal (ROA), and respectfully requests a stay of deadline date for ROA filing.

"Brief of Respondents" makes no direct reference to any of these documents listed in DOM:

5. Affidavit of Plaintiff in Support for Preliminary Injunction dated April 26, 2019;
6. Defendant's Opposition to Plaintiff's Motion to Emergency Injunction dated May 21, 2019;
7. Order denying Motion for Emergency Injunction dated May 23, 2019.

Content of documents is therefore irrelevant, and immaterial; they may not be included in the ROA. Any contention that a motion for "Injunction" has any relevancy or bearing on the granting of Summary Judgment is unfounded, since denial of this-Appellant's motion was not based upon its merits, but rather upon: "... that there is an[other] adequate remedy at law ...".

Appellant prays for an Order GRANTING this Motion to preclude abuse of Rule 210(c), SCACR, and also prays for specification of a new deadline date for filing of a ROA, after disposition of this Motion.

Dated this 29th day of May, 2020.
