Appellate Case No. 2012-212897

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

I am writing in hopes that you can provide me with some clarification on an issue I am having with the preparation of Respondents' Final Brief for the above-captioned claim. Our initial Respondents' Brief was filed on December 28, 2012. On February 6, 2013, Respondents' filed a supplemental citation pursuant to SCARC, Rule 208(7). On February 19, 2013, I received the Record on Appeal from opposing counsel, so our final brief is now due on March 11, 2013.

I understand that pursuant to SCARC, Rule 211(b)(2), no changes are allowed to the final brief with the exception of the correction of typographical errors and misspellings. My question at this time is whether I am supposed to add the supplemental citation to my table of authorities and reference the page numbers for the arguments the citation supports, or if there is another manner in which I am supposed to include the supplemental citation as part of my final brief.

I greatly appreciate your attention on this matter, and I look forward to your response.

Very truly yours,
