Appellate Case No. 2019-001981

Trial Court Case Nos. 2017GS4007158, 2017GS4007162, 2017GS4007165, 2017GS4007166

The State, Respondent,
v.
Charles Barham, Appellant.

MOTION FOR EXTENSION

The defendant through counsel requests additional time in which to file the Appellant's Initial Brief which is currently due to be filed June 12, 2020.

Counsel was not the defendant's trial counsel so is new to the case. The trial transcript is lengthy in this matter totaling 1,220 pages. Counsel has only met with the defendant at Kirkland Correctional Institution one time, and that was prior to the receipt of the transcript of the trial, and was not able to meet again because of the COVID-19 pandemic.

The defendant is currently at McCormick Correctional Institution, and on information and belief, counsel is not able to consult with the defendant since the prison is closed due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Even if counsel were able to visit the defendant, he would not be willing to do so at the present time because of a risk to counsel's health. Counsel recently turned seventy-four (74) years of age which places him in a high risk category. Counsel will have to consult with the defendant prior to writing the brief to give the defendant input on the issues presented to the Court.

Since the future of visits with a defendant are unknown at the present time, counsel requests a sixty (60) day extension from June 12, 2020 to file the Appellant's Initial Brief.

Counsel has consulted with Senior Assistant Deputy Attorney General Melody J. Brown who has no objection to this request.
