

The Supreme Court of South Carolina

Terron Gerhard Dizzley, Petitioner,

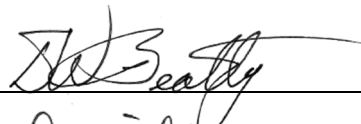

v.

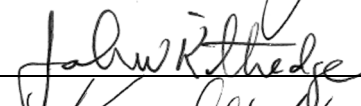

State of South Carolina, Respondent.

Appellate Case No. 2020-000253

ORDER

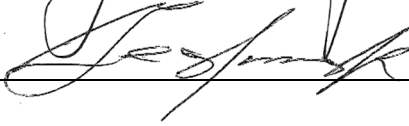

Petitioner has filed a Motion to Show Lack of Jurisdiction and Fraud Upon the Court; a Motion for Discovery; and a Motion for Immediate Release. By order dated April 16, 2020, Petitioner's counsel was relieved and Petitioner was advised he had twenty days to inform the Court whether he wished to proceed pro se, which has been extended by order to May 26, 2020. See Operation of the Appellate Courts During the Coronavirus Emergency, 2020-03-20-01 (S.C. Sup. Ct. Order dated Mar. 20, 2020) (providing "the due dates for all Appellate Court filings due on or after the effective date of this order are hereby extended for twenty (20) days"). Petitioner has not informed the Court of his decision, but he filed the aforementioned motions pro se. Therefore, the Court shall treat his filings as notification that Petitioner has elected to proceed pro se. The motions are denied. The South Carolina Commission on Indigent Defense, Division of Appellate Defense (Appellate Defense), is associated for the limited purpose of paying for any necessary transcript(s) and providing copies of the petition, appendix, and briefs. Appellate Defense shall arrange for payment of transcripts within thirty (30) days of the date of this order.
