Motion For Extension of time

SC Court of Appeals

Defendant moves before this Honorable Court requesting an Extension of time to file Anders Brief (Pro Se brief) pursuant to the a boved matter.

In the Process of filing with the Court a Pro Se Brief, it has become Apparent that do so within the forty-five (45) days allotted by the Court is impossible. There are several issues that contribute to this matter. The first being with the Institution in which I am incarcerated. The Broad River Correctional Institution has neglected to make available the necessary access to the Law Library. This deprives me of my Constitutional right to research and assemble, Law and Case Law helpful for presenting my Case. Secondly I do not have my case file, which contains all documents relevant for filing my Pro Se brief addressing all issues to be considered by the Court. In light of these matters, I humbly request an Extension of thirty (30) business days, so that I can properly prepare to submit a Pro Se brief. Also along with this request for an extension.

I have attached a copy of my letter addressed to my appointed Counsel requesting the complete files for my Case. Case (No) 2019-001234

Re: The State v. Pedro A. G. Torresshaw because these issues impede upon my ability to respond via Pro Se brief, to address any issues I believe should be considered. I think the Court should allow for an Extension.

Respectfully Yours,

Pedro A. Grado Torresshaw, 380821.
