Mr. Shearouse – I am certainly aware and review each order issued by this Court regarding the impacts of the pandemic. I mistakenly believed that the most recent order that set an expiration date on the automatic extensions would have applied to the deadline for Petitioners' Reply. I now see that was not correct and apologize to Mr. Widener and the Court. I rarely, if ever, object to opposing counsel requests for extensions. However, in this case, I must respectfully maintain my objection based on the repeated and multiple requests for extensions. The timeline in my letter of June 17 sets for the delays. There have been multiple requests for extensions in addition to those set forth in the letter, including the 15 day request for extension on the Petition for Certiorari. Respondents respect whatever the Court's decisions are on extensions but would reference the restrictions on such set forth in this Court's Order dated July 16, 2014. Thank you.

Mr. Shearouse:

Respondent is apparently unaware of the Supreme Court's orders on appellate procedures and timelines during the COVID-19 pandemic. The automatic 20-day extension in the first order extended the deadline for Petitioner's Reply to June 15. The current requested extension is for 10 days to June 25.

Please advise whether Petitioner should send a formal letter or other response to Respondent's letter.

Sincerely,

Robert L. Widener
