Re: The State vs. Kevin Herriott
No. 2019-000969

Dear Clerk:

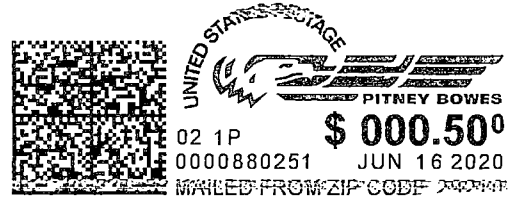

I hope this letter meets you doing well. Anyway, I, as the Appellant in the above-reference matter putting this Court on notice that I am asking the S.C. Supreme Court to intervene when my case action is being prolonged creating inordinate delay.

The Appellant Herriott was ordered by the Court on April 29, 2020, to provide proof he has served his initial brief and designation of matter on Respondent, Mr. William M. Blitch, Jr., Esquire. The order also instructed the Respondent shall serve and file its initial brief and designation of matter within (30) thirty days of service of Appellant's initial brief and designation.

However, on the 05th day of May, 2020, the Appellant has served notice of proof upon the Court and a copy of his initial brief - clocked - stamp upon the Respondent. However, the Respondent Mr. Blitch has failed to respond and the Appellant asks that this Court to rule appropriate. Accord 208(a)(2); 208(a)(4). SCACR
