MOTION FOR EXTENTION OF TIME
_____

I, Ashley Tucker, Appellant, respectfully request an extension of time pursuant to SC Rule 240(a). Appellant has made numerous attempts to get the contact information of all present court reporters during my court proceedings all to no avail. The Respondent's Counsel Elizabeth A. Blackwell has not provided me with the contact information. Today I am filing a notice with the Court Reporters management in hopes to get retrieve the necessary information that I may finally order all related transcripts for my case in reference.

Good afternoon, Ms. Tucker:

Pursuant to your request today via phone, I have attached a copy of the letter we sent you in December regarding the court reporter for the foreclosure hearing. Based on what I can find, I believe this was the same court reporter who was present at the previous hearing in June of 2019. Please inquire with this company with respect to all of the continued hearings when you ask for the October transcript.

I am copying your bankruptcy attorney, Ms. Atkins, on this email so that she is aware that you called today regarding the previous foreclosure. As I mentioned on the phone, communications need to go through your attorney. This ensures that everyone is in the loop and that there are no ethical violations with respect to direct communication. Thank you in advance for your compliance with this request.

Best regards,

Good afternoon,

Just wanted to give you an update. We will have the estimate for your deposition transcript taken on 6-17-2019 tomorrow, June 17, 2020.

The only other transcript that our reporters were hired to take was on 9-8-2016.

Have a good evening.

Kindest regards,

Dale Boisture
