Thank you for the acknowledgement. However, it appears that the Rule 59 Order was file stamped as having been received today, June 26, 2020, instead of June 25, 2020, like the rest of the documents that were filed via email yesterday. Is this a mistake? If so, could you please change the filing date to show the correct date instead?

Also, if an appellate file number has been assigned, please let me know so that I can show it on the filing fee check that I intend to mail to you today.

Sincerely,
John R. Cantrell, Jr.

Attached for filing please find a notice of appeal in the above case, which is also being served via email simultaneously upon counsel for the Respondents as is noted in the attached certificate of service. As is required by the current coronavirus appellate court rules, a check for the filing fee will be mailed to the court within 5 days, unless there is a way to pay this electronically, in which case the undersigned requests information on how that may be done at this time. Also attached are the orders being appealed. Please acknowledge receipt of this email by reply email, since this is the first time that I have filed an appeal in this way.

Sincerely,
