Re: M&T Bank v. Tyrone Davis, et al Appellate Case No. 2019-001682

Dear Clerk of Court:

On 4/23/2020, the Appellant filed initial reply brief. On 5/13/2020, the Clerk of Court mailed a deficiency letter stating caption/title, cover and spacing did not comply with Rule 267(a,c) SCACR. The letter required the Appellant to serve and file an amended initial reply brief with corrections within ten (10) days of the date of the deficiency letter.

On 5/19/2020, the Appellant served and filed an amended Appellant's initial reply brief. The text was not changed in the body of the amended initial reply brief. The amended initial reply brief included corrections required to comply with Rule 267(a,c). see deficiency letter dated 6/08/2020.

According to the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR), If the text has not been changed in the body of the amended initial reply brief, the Appellant is not required to file a motion to amend initial reply brief to correct, the caption/title, cover and spacing to comply with Rule 267(a,c).

Very truly yours,

Bobby J Bellamy
