Re: Jeane Whitfield v. Dennis K. Schimpf, M.D. and Sweetgrass Plastic Surgery, LLC
Appellate Case No.: 2019-1716
C/A No.: 2017-CP-10-2578
SW File No.: 10007.0030

Dear Mr. Sanchez:

We are in receipt of your Initial Brief and Motion for Leave to file out of time in this matter. We are writing to request that you conform your Initial Brief to comply with S.C. Appellate Court Rule 208(b) that requires you to make intelligible citations to the “transcript, pleadings, orders, exhibits, or other materials which may properly be included in the Record on Appeal [see Rule 210(c)] to support the salient facts alleged.”

Your Initial Brief does not contain intelligible references to the record, instead it relies on empty parentheses, which appear on the page as “(R.____).” Your failure to comply with Rule 208(b) prejudices Respondents in their ability to evaluate your contentions and to prepare their Brief. Please conform your Initial Brief to Rule 208(b) and provide intelligible citations by this Friday, July 3, 2020, or Respondents will file a Motion to Dismiss this Appeal for your failure to comply with the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules. Respondents request that you do so this week because Respondents and their undersigned counsel have a short time in which to prepare Respondents’ Brief.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Kevin R. Horton
