

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

Gregory Pencille, #312332, Appellant,

v.

South Carolina Department of Corrections, Respondent.

Appellate Case No. 2019-001410

ORDER

---

On March 12, 2020, after reviewing Appellant's objections to Respondent's initial brief and designation of matter, this court issued an order accepting Respondent's initial brief, granting Appellant's motion to compel Respondent to clarify Respondent's designation of matter, and accepting Respondent's amended designation of matter. Appellant subsequently filed a motion to strike Respondent's brief and designation of matter. Because this court has already considered Appellant's objections to Respondent's initial brief and designation of matter, we decline to take any action on the motion. See Rule 240(i) and 221(c), SCACR. Further, this court will not accept any further motions or objections from Appellant relating to Respondent's initial brief or designation of matter.

As set forth in this court's letter of June 5, 2020, Appellant shall serve and file an amended record on appeal that includes all documents listed in both parties' designations of matter within ten days of this order.
