SC Court of Appeals

On May 18th 2020 I was sentenced to 18 months in the South Carolina Department of corrections by Judge Henderson. I just received my appeal letter today on June 22, 2020. I would like to appeal the decision based on the following reasons. Reason one my attorney tricked me into pleading guilty by telling me I would get a ninety day sentence after I already told him I was not accepting the offer of 18 months the day before he promised me a new 90. Also the solicitor made his recommendation based on someone else's NCIC background and even said it wasn't my background during court and apologized to the judge. I would never accepted the plea they offered me knowing for sure that was the offer. I feel that justice wasn't served in my case because the evidence suggest that I was only guilty of petty larceny and the previous solicitor was going to drop my Burglary III charge for my cooperation in that case. Thank you for your time.
