Dear Clerk:

I hope this letter meets you doing well. Anyways, I, am the Appellant in the above-reference matter requesting to correspond with the S.C. Court of Appeals, who is prolonging this case action creating inordinate delay.

The Appellant Herriott was ordered by the S.C. Court of Appeals on April 29, 2020 to provide proof he has served his initial brief and designation of matter on Respondent, Mr. William M. Blitch, Jr., Esquire. The order also instructed the Respondent shall serve and file its initial brief and designation of matter within thirty (30) days of service of Appellant's initial brief and designation.

However, on the 05th day of May, 2020, the Appellant served notice of proof upon the S.C. Court of Appeals and a copy of his initial brief upon the Respondent. However, the Respondent Mr. Blitch has failed to respond and the Appellant ask that this Court intervene. Accord 208(a) (4), SCAER; 204(b) SCAER.

Yours Truly,

K. E. Herriott
