Dear Ms. Allen:

In your letter dated July 17, 2020, you noted that the Initial Brief of Appellant and Designation of Matter were due no later than June 29, 2020. On June 29, 2020, we requested a thirty-day extension until July 29, 2020, in which to file the brief and designation of matter in this case. I have attached a copy of that extension request as "Exhibit A." I have also attached a screenshot from my computer showing confirmation that this extension was filed on June 29, 2020. See Attached "Exhibit B." I have also attached the email service on opposing counsel, Melody Brown, dated June 29, 2020 as "Exhibit C." Finally, we have confirmed from the Attorney General's Office through Angela Brown today that opposing counsel, Melody Brown, was served with a copy of this extension request on June 29, 2020.

Given the above, I am respectfully requesting that the Court issue an extension order granting me an extension until July 29, 2020, in which to file the Initial Brief of Appellant and Designation of Matter in this case. If any formal motion is required given these circumstances, please let me know.

Thank you very much for your consideration of this documentation that the extension request was timely filed. Please let me know if you have any questions or concerns.

Sincerely,

Robert M. Dudek
Chief Appellate Defender

Re: The State v. Kierin Marcellus Dennis
Appellate Case No. 2019-001486

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

The Initial Brief of Appellant and Designation of Matter in the above-referenced case are due to be served and filed with the Court today, June 29, 2020. However, due to my heavy workload, I am requesting a thirty-day extension until July 29, 2020, in which to serve and file this brief. The Court has granted one previous extension.

Opposing counsel Melody J. Brown, Esquire, has graciously consented to this extension.

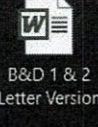

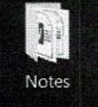

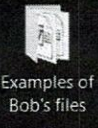

Sincerely,

Robert M. Dudek
Chief Appellate Defender
