Dear Ms. Burns,

Relative to my Notice of Appeal, please be advised that I never received written notice from either the Clerk of Court nor the opposing attorney that the order had be filed.

Along with my Notice of Appeal that I sent your court, I sent a copy of a letter from the South Carolina Supreme Court excusing me from electronic filing.

Accordingly, I never receive notice of anything from the Courts. By chance, I noticed on the Court's File that the Order had been entered of record on July 3, 2020 and I obtained a filed copy to send to your court.

Under separate cover, I will send the filing fee of $250.00 by returned mail.

Michael F. Talley
