Dear Mr. Nix:

Your letter dated July 6, 2020, was forwarded to me for response. In your letter, you are requesting the name of the court reporter assigned to Judge Cole on January 27, 2020. Our records reflect that the proceedings that day were held in our digital courtroom. This information is reflected as "DCRP" on the calendar you enclosed with your letter. If you will complete the attached Transcript Request Form and send to us at the email address on the form, upon receipt it will be assigned to a court reporter for transcript production. Prior to preparing it, the court reporter will contact you regarding cost and estimated delivery date. Upon receipt of the payment, transcript production will begin.

RE: Follow up on transcript request: case number 2019-CP-10-01496, Appellant Case No. 2020-000676

Ms. Kohn.

I sent the attached letter to you back on 17 June 2020 related to obtaining the name of the court reporter for Judge Cole on 27 January 2020. Since it has been nineteen days since I mailed that letter, and I haven't received a response from you yet, I'm following up with you on that issue again so no Person can remotely validly claim I haven't tried my best to obtain this information in a timely manner. This issue is obviously even more important given the numerous disagreements about what has and hasn't happened, and why, related to this case starting in late December 2019 when Charleston County / Charleston County Clerk of Court started rejecting motions I attempted to file in this case because they asserted that Mr. Wilson's and Ms. Murphy's "ORDER ENJOINING THE PLAINTIFF FROM RE-FILING THIS MATTER AND IMPOSING SANCTIONS UPON THE PLAINTIFF" from case 2018-CP-10-03315 also somehow applied to this case.

Please provide some type of response to this issue by the end of this week.

Best regards,

Alan Nix

RE: Transcript Request: case number 2019-CP-10-01496, Appellant Case No. 2020-000676

Ms. Kohn.

I still need the name of the court reporter for the hearing on 27 January 2020, case number 2019-CP-10-01496. A copy of your own website for that date is below. As you can see, it appears that Judge Cole is the only judge that didn't have a court reporter assigned that week. I guess that is one reason Cole and Earhart and Overstreet still haven't updated any of their orders to show the court reporter's name that day.

Another possible reason is that all this ongoing intentional infliction of emotional distress and malicious prosecution, has caused me to experience another bout of actual physical illness, not to mention all of that apparent exhibits very erratic behavior, I apparently suffer from, compounded with the ongoing fraud and Public and Judicial Corruption and conspiracy involved in all of these matters, has apparently gotten me so confused that I have completely and utterly forgotten settling this matter. I'm hoping to see another doctor about this new condition in the near term, once I can get enough money to afford to see a doctor. In the meantime, I've asked Michael Timbes and David Pearlman to send me everything they have on how this happened to assist the Dr. in trying to help me remember what I did to settle this.

Ms. Abbott-Kitchings.

In the mean time, please consider this me ordering, or at least attempting to order, a transcript for the hearing on 27 January 2020 for case 2019-CP-10-01496. And, I'm still missing at least two stamped copies of responses I've mailed in the last thirty or so days....
