

THE SOUTH CAROLINA COURT OF APPEALS

The State, Respondent,

v.

Larry Durant, Appellant.

Appellate Case No. 2016-001264

RECEIVED
SEP 02 2016
SC Court of Appeals

The Honorable Roger M. Young, Sr.
Sumter County
Trial Court Case No. 2014GS4300947

MOTION TO REINSTATE AND MOTION TO BE RELIEVED

The Appellant, by and through undersigned counsel, hereby moves before this Honorable Court for an Order reinstating this matter. On May 26, 2016, Larry Durant was found guilty of Criminal Sexual Conduct with a Minor 2nd Degree in General Sessions Court. On May 27, 2016 counsel for the Defendant filed a Rule 59 Motion and Request for Emergency Hearing. The Honorable Roger M. Young, Sr. heard Defendant's Motion on June 8, 2016 (copy of Motion attached) and verbally denied Defendant's Motion. Counsel for the Defendant immediately filed Defendant's Notice of Intent to Appeal on June 8, 2016 (copy attached). Defendant timely filed his Notice of Intent to Appeal and, therefore, would request that his above referenced appeal be reinstated.

Although Shaun C. Kent represented Larry Durant on his State level charges, he has not been retained and will not be representing Mr. Durant in his appeal efforts. Therefore,

Shaun C. Kent respectfully requests that he be relieved as counsel of record in this Court for Larry Durant.

LARRY DURANT,

Defendant.

Defendant's Rule 59 Motion and Request for Emergency Hearing

On May 26, 2016 Defendant Larry Durant was convicted of one count of Criminal Sexual Conduct with a Minor 2nd Degree. He was sentenced to 20 years. The Court allowed Mr. Durant ten (10) days to bring all post-trial motions. Now on his behalf his counsel requests a new trial as well as an expedited hearing based upon the following information:

On his way home at approximately 7:35 p.m., defense counsel received a call from Roland McRae, the ex-husband of Ulanda McRae (aka Vlanda McRae; aka Volanta Riley). Mr. McRae was curious as to the results of the trial. He expressed regret that he was neither contacted nor utilized as a witness. During the course of the conversation he was further concerned that Ms. McRae's prior criminal record was not utilized against her as she took the stand. Perplexed, defense counsel inquired further about her criminal record. Mr. McRae detailed criminal charges that he personally knew that his ex-wife had acquired during the course of their marriage. On May 27, 2016 defense counsel utilized the online search tool "SLED Catch" to verify Mr. McRae's assertions, a copy of which is enclosed.

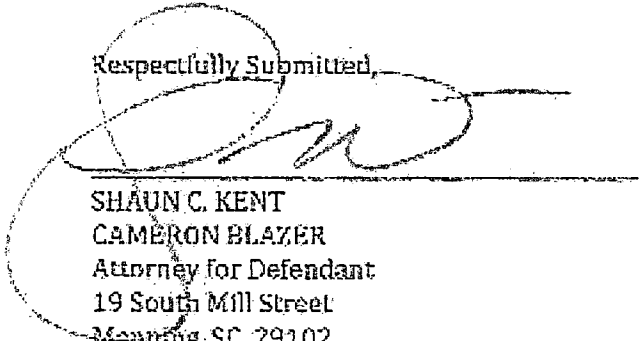

During the course of the trial, Ulanda McRae was utilized as the State's "outcry" witness. She testified without any mention of her criminal record. More importantly, no criminal record of Ms. McRae was ever turned over to the defense (On January 14, 2014 defense counsel served discovery requests on the Attorney General's office. In Section 13 of its discovery requests the defendant specifically requested the criminal records of all State potential witnesses. Copy enclosed). During the course of the trial, the State of South Carolina provided criminal records on several of their own witnesses (for example, the State called Lizzie Johnson to the stand. Immediately before she took the stand, the State gave her criminal record to opposing counsel. What's more, the State also told the court of Ms. Johnson's prior criminal record and inquired whether or not it would be usable. This singular event heightened the defense's already lofty expectations that all reasonable and discoverable evidence had been or would be turned over) as well as some of the defense's. The defense had no knowledge of any criminal records of any witness who appeared on behalf of the State of South Carolina. As the court is aware, the defense must rely on the State providing information on their own witnesses. It is the belief of the defense that this is a Brady/Rule 5 violation.

The crux of this entire case was based upon the credibility of the witnesses who testified. As the court is aware, there was no corroborating physical evidence to support the allegations levied by the State's witnesses. Additionally, the State of South Carolina argued vehemently in its closing argument that you must trust the information given by its victims because it was overheard by Ulanda McRae (this witness testified under the name Ulanda McRae. The criminal charge which was levied against her was under the name Ulanda Riley. This individual's name on the State's Witness List was Ulanda McRae). What's more, one of the convictions that the defense was not told of was for "obtaining signatures under false pretenses". As the court is aware, this was the central theory of Mr. Durant's legal defense. If the credibility of the state's "outcry" witness could have effectively been challenged, a different result may have occurred.

Understanding the various spellings of this witness's name, it would be difficult if not impossible for the defense to properly run a records check. Therefore, it is the request of the defense for an emergency hearing to inquire why this information was not properly turned over. The defense would further request the presence of the individual who runs the records checks on behalf of the State of South Carolina.

Respectfully Submitted,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'SK', is written over a horizontal line. The signature is enclosed within a large, hand-drawn circle.

Subject: RE: State v. Larry Durant

Counsel,

Judge Young will hear this motion in Sumter on Wednesday, June 8th at 1:30 pm. Ms. Abee would you please email me a transport order for Judge Young to sign, or if it's easier have a local judge sign the same - either way please let me know.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Daniel P. Ranaldo
