In Re: David McElveen v State – 2020-000104

Dear Ms. White:

I am in receipt of your letters regarding the transcript requested in this matter since February 24, 2020. As we have discussed, Ms. Kelly has already advised your office that she was not the court reporter for this case. You have also checked with the Clerk's office to determine if Ms. Kelly was the court reporter assigned to Judge Benjamin on the date in question, July 16, 2018. We have always agreed that she was assigned to Judge Benjamin on that date; however, this matter was not heard or recorded by Ms. Kelly. I would appreciate your determining which date this proceeding was heard so that we may resolve the transcript request issue. As you know, we have had difficulty with Ms. Kelly's records, which has caused significant delays in assigning those records to other court reporters to prepare transcripts your office has requested. I am hopeful that you can determine the correct date that this matter was heard so that we will be able to locate what we need to have the transcript prepared. I look forward to hearing from you with another date that we can check. Thank you.

Respectfully,

Desiree Allen
