

The Supreme Court of South Carolina

John Stritzinger, Petitioner,

v.

South Carolina, Respondent.

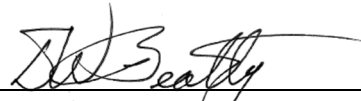

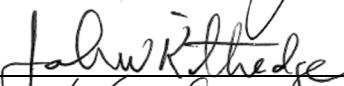

Appellate Case No. 2019-001852

ORDER

Petitioner has filed a Notice of Appeal, received by this Court on March 20, 2020, and a Motion for Miscellaneous Final Relief Before Appeal to United States Supreme Court, dated July 8, 2020. Because the remittitur was properly sent on November 4, 2019, this Court no longer has jurisdiction over this matter. See Wise v. S.C. Dep't of Corr., 372 S.C. 173, 174, 642 S.E.2d 551, 551 (2007) (holding when the remittitur was properly sent, the appellate court no longer has jurisdiction over the matter). Accordingly, we refuse to accept the documents filed by Petitioner.

Further, in an order dated January 15, 2020, this Court noted Petitioner is currently prohibited from filing any litigation pro se based on conservatorship and guardianship orders issued by the Richland County Probate Court. See In re Stritzinger, 2019-GC-40-00037 (Prob. Ct. Richland County 2019) (Belton, J.); In re Stritzinger, 2019-GC-40-00052 (Prob. Ct. Richland County 2019) (Belton, J.). This Court, therefore, required Petitioner to provide reasons why the Court should not prohibit him from filing documents in the courts of this state that are not submitted by an attorney and approved by his conservator and guardian. Because Petitioner has not provided sufficient reasons, we hereby prohibit Petitioner from filing any document in any courts of this state unless the document is submitted by an attorney and approved by Petitioner's conservator and guardian, James R.
