FOR THE FOURTH CIRCUIT

APPEAL FROM LEXINGTON COUNTY
Common Pleas Court

Alison Renee Lee, Presiding Judge

Case No. 2016-CP-32-01385

Appellants Case No. 2018-002157

Richie D. Barnes,

Respondent,

v.

MOTION TO BE REHEARD
ON RECORD OF APPEAL

Response and Reply Brief

James Reese,

Appellant.

RECEIVED

AUG 10 2020

SC Court of Appeals

I, James Reese, comes before this court in good faith and with clean hands to require this superior competent court holding Article 1, Section 2, Subdiv. 3, Judicial powers, to aid in the unclogging of my, James Reese, substantial equitable rights and clothed me with the opportunity to be heard so that justice may be done by wholes and not by halves. Due to the unforeseen ongoing pandemic which has caused extreme disabilities, I have be incapable of meeting the required rule of law which my substantial rights are now in conflict and variance with.

Some of the disabilities I, James Reese, have suffered due to this pandemic are in the many forms, such as community services institutions like public library's and other business that are either limited in operation hours or is currently suspended or closed to the public. I, James Reese, depend on these community services institutions and business to aid me, James Reese, in the self administration and preparation of my defense and claims in this cause of action for I, James Reese, am without a computer, tablet, printer, and all other electronic devices capable of meeting my needs.

Let it be known to this court of the facts that I, James Reese, as well as my wife are both being of elderly age, am afraid for my life and health during this health crises, with extreme caution and knowledge of my increased chances of being infected with the COVID-19 virus. Also due to my recent contact with a specific person who later was found to test positive for COVID-19, I, James Reese, went into "self-quarantine" between the dates of June 15th-June 30th 2020.

PRAYER TO THE COURT

I, James Reese, now require this court of competent jurisdiction to preserve my substantial rights of civilian due process and not allow the rules of at law to prejudice my rights and interest protected by the constitution of the united States of America, but grant in favor of myself, James Reese, the right to be heard on the record of appeal due to the unforeseen circumstances and disabilities.
