Re: Terry Capone v. City of Columbia (3)
Appellate Case No. 2020-001133

Dear Mr. Capone:

This office is in receipt of your letter dated August 19, 2020, concerning review of a decision of the South Carolina Court of Appeals. The method to challenge a decision of the Court of Appeals is by petition for a writ of certiorari under Rule 242 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR), which may be accessed on the internet at <https://www.sccourts.org/courtReg/>. I am also enclosing a copy of Rule 242 for your reference.

Please note that any petition for a writ of certiorari must meet the requirements of Rule 242(d), SCACR, and be served on opposing counsel and filed with proof of service with the Clerk of the Court of Appeals and the Clerk of the Supreme Court within thirty (30) days after the petition for rehearing or reinstatement was finally decided by the Court of Appeals. Example forms are available at <https://www.sccourts.org/forms/> under the "appellate" forms section. Please utilize the above case number in any documents you file with this Court.

Finally, under the Supreme Court's order titled "Operation of the Appellate Courts

During the Coronavirus Emergency (As Amended May 29, 2020),"¹ you are not required to file an appendix, and you are also not required to file additional copies of your petition or other documents.

Very truly yours,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to be the initials 'JBY' with a large, sweeping flourish that extends to the left and loops back under the letters.
