APPEAL FROM FAIRFIELD COUNTY
Court of Common Pleas

Brian M. Gibbons, Circuit Court Judge

---

Case No. 2014-CP-20-349

---

RECEIVED

Aug 20 2020

SC Court of Appeals

Broadriver Campground, LLC.....Appellant,

v.

Jenkinsville Water Company, Inc.....Respondent.

---

RESPONSE TO MOTION TO DISMISS

---

The order granting summary judgment on the Respondent’s renewed motion for summary judgment was filed on April 30, 2020. Counsel for the Appellant was hospitalized with a serious illness from April 24 – May 5, 2020 during which time he underwent three surgeries. Following discharge from the hospital counsel was under the influence of heavy intravenous and other medications and was essentially incapacitated. See affidavit of counsel attached as Exhibit 1.

The Motion to Alter or Amend the order of April 30, 2020 was filed on May 27, 2020. Judge Gibbons was aware of counsel’s medical condition. Based on Judge Gibbons’ e-mail (see Exhibit 2) counsel assumed that Judge Gibbons excused the late filing of the Motion to Alter or Amend pursuant to Rule 60(b)(1), SCRPC and then denied the motion “on substantive grounds” rather than the procedural ground of untimely filing. Moreover, the Court of Appeals, pursuant to Rule 60(b)(1), SCRPC may grant relief from the late filing under these circumstances, which clearly qualify as mistake, inadvertence or excusable neglect. Furthermore, the Supreme Court’s order on March 20, 2020 extended the due dates for filings by 20 days and forgave any procedural defaults. The Appellant should not have its appeal dismissed under these circumstances.

Counsel, I have never been provided a copy of the Motion to Alter/Amend as required by Rule 59. In addition, it appears the motion was not timely filed. Even if it was, however, the motion would be denied on substantive grounds.

Mr. Goddard, please prepare an order setting forth the above and upload to my eFiling. Thank you.

Judge Gibbons,

Attached is the Plaintiff's Memorandum in Opposition to the Defendant's Renewed Motion for Summary Judgment. I wanted to thank you and counsel for your consideration during the last few weeks. I just recently got out of the hospital and am still recovering. I do appreciate and thank everyone for their patience. I will hand deliver a flash drive with the exhibits on Monday.
