

MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT

In Support of the Motion To Supplement Record, Appellant states as follows:

Appellant seeks to submit for the Record and this Court's review correspondence from the South Carolina Department of Probation, Parole and Pardon Services, dated July 24, 2020. This such correspondence is extremely significant as it does in fact provide further enlightenment of understanding of men of common knowledge with regard of the novel issues which this case sub Judge explores and encompasses.

Appellant would submit that this written letter of correspondence is in fact material and does further illuminate the necessity of this Court's equitable understanding and adjudication in this novel and humane case and issues presented.

WHEREFORE, Appellant prays this Court would grant leave to supplement the Record and would further acknowledge and consider this supplementary document as the Court adjudicates in the interest of justice, equity, and equality.

Respectfully submitted,

Alonzo C. Jeter, III
