RE: - Billy W. McIntosh v State
Appellate Case No. 2020-000741

Dear Ms. Kitchings.

I filed a second request for the Trial Record in the above captioned case July 22, 2020, and August 14, 2020, received a notice from your office that I should have already received the Trial Record, because the Court Reporter in the case had not received an extension of time. Upon reviewing my case file and previous requests for the Trial Record, I realized that I had the wrong address for the S.C. office of Court Administration. The address I had is 1015 Sumpter St. Suite 200; apparently an old address. Therefore, it must be concluded that Court Administration and the Court Reporter never received my request for the Trial Record.

Because I made a good-faith effort to comply with the rule but had the wrong address for S.C. office of Court Administration, I am asking the Court to allow me to correct the mistake and proceed? Enclosed for filing in your office is a request for the Trial Record — using the address for Court Administration your office provided me in your notice dated August 11, 2020.

Please notify me if Appellate Court Rules do not allow me to correct the mistake and proceed, and I will attempt to file my Initial Brief if it is not too late to do so.

Because I am a pro se litigant that acted in good faith, this appeal should not be dismissed. The issues involved are too important to me and the State.

Enclosed is a copy to be date stamped and returned to me.
