SC Court of Appeals

RE: Deborah G. Duggans v. SCDMH
Appellate Case No.: 2019-000393

Dear Ms. Allen:

Please be advised the parties have agreed to resolve the above-captioned appeal. The terms of this settlement have now been reduced to a Consent Order, which we intend to submit to the South Carolina Workers' Compensation Commission for adoption/approval.

In view of this fact, would it be appropriate for the appeal to be held in abeyance pending submission of the Consent Order to the Commission and then formally request dismissal of this appeal once the filed Order has been received from the Commission?

I would appreciate your advising as to whether this plan of action is satisfactory to the Court. If not, I will be happy to pursue an alternative process per your instructions.

Thank you for your consideration.

With kindest regards, I am

Very truly yours,

Andrew N. Safran
