Case No. 2014-CP-32-02548

v.)

ORDER STRIKING APPLICANT'S PRO SE MOTION

State of South Carolina,)
_____)

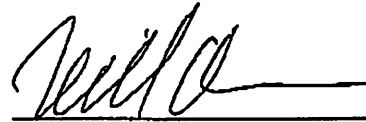

This matter comes before this Court by way of Applicant's post-conviction relief application filed July 10, 2014. Andra B. Jamison (Applicant) is currently represented by Glenn Walters, Sr., Esquire. On November 8, 2018, Applicant filed a document captioned: "Motion to Amend 59(e) Alter and Amend Judgment of All Issues Here In." Respondent submitted its Motion to Strike said amendment on or about November 27, 2018, requesting the pro se motion be stricken for violating Rule 11, SCRPC.

This Court finds Applicant's pro se motion filed on November 8, 2018, shall be stricken. Rule 11, SCRPC, requires every pleading, motion, or other paper of a party represented by counsel to be signed by at least one attorney of record who is an active member of the South Carolina Bar. If a pleading, motion or other paper is not signed, "it shall be stricken unless it is signed promptly after the omission is called to the attention of the pleader or movant." Rule 11, SCRPC.

Here, Applicant's pro se motion consists of arguments directly written by Applicant. Indeed, this pro se motion was submitted directly to this Court by Applicant himself. There is no indication that counsel prepared, researched, drafted, or reviewed these pro se filings before Applicant submitted these documents to the Clerk of Court for filing. Therefore, this pro se motion shall be stricken for violating Rule 11, SCRPC.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that, the Clerk of Court shall strike the pro se motion filed by Applicant on November 8, 2018 from the record.

AND IT IS SO ORDERED this 10 day of December, 2018.
