MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME
IN WHICH TO FILE APPELLANTS' INITIAL
BRIEF AND DESIGNATION OF MATTER

Counsel for the Appellants hereby moves for a sixty (60) day extension of time in which to file the Appellant' Initial Brief and Designation of Matter. The Appellants base this Motion on the following:

- (1) At the time Appellants' counsel received the transcript from the Court Reporter, on or about Monday, February 11, 2013 (a date much sooner than anticipated), counsel had no fewer than four (4) contested hearings scheduled over the next three (3) weeks in the Family Court and Circuit Court, each of which hearings required multiple days of preparation;
- (2) In addition, counsel had previously scheduled a four (4) day trip out of state to visit his Mother, on the occasion of her 85th birthday;
- (3) John Farrell, an associate in the firm who had tried the original matter before the Court, is no longer with the firm, due to family matters, and informed the firm that he was unavailable to assist in the preparation of this appeal;
