

The Supreme Court of South Carolina

Win Myat, Petitioner,

v.

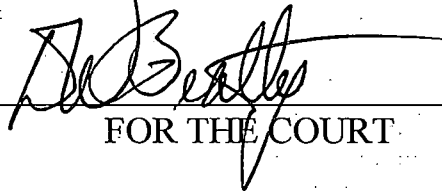

Tuomey Regional Medical Center, Respondent.

Appellate Case No. 2019-001757

ORDER

Petitioner seeks a fifteen-day extension of time to serve and file his reply brief. By Order dated June 3, 2020, petitioner was granted a twenty-day extension of time to serve and file his petitioner's brief, which exhausted the extensions permitted in matters filed under Rule 242 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR). See RE: Extensions in Cases Seeking a Petition for a Writ of Certiorari to Review a Decision of the South Carolina Court of Appeals, S.C. Sup. Ct. Order dated June 16, 2014 (providing a party may be granted extensions totaling no more than twenty days during the proceedings before this Court under Rule 242, SCACR, unless the party provides evidence of the existence of "extraordinary circumstances such as illness or other circumstances beyond the control of the movant [that] warrant the granting of the extension").¹

Because petitioner has failed to show the existence of any extraordinary circumstances, the motion for an extension is denied.
