Re: Patricia Ford v. Tarheel Capital
Appellate Case No. 2020-001187

Dear Counsel:

We received the notice of appeal filed by your client. Pursuant to Rule 264, SCACR, you remain counsel of record on appeal unless withdrawal is approved as provided by the Rule. Furthermore, pursuant to the prohibition on hybrid representation, we cannot accept pro se filings from a represented party. The case has been assigned the appellate case number that appears above. Please use this number on all future correspondence relating to this matter.

All parties to this matter are advised that all filings must comply with the requirements of Rule 267 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR). The SCACR are available online at www.sccourts.org/courtreg. Additionally, any filings submitted by counsel admitted in South Carolina must include counsel's bar number.

The attention of the parties is directed to the order relating to the inclusion of personal data identifiers and other sensitive information in documents filed with the Supreme Court of South Carolina and the South Carolina Court of Appeals. The order can be found at www.sccourts.org/courtOrders/displayOrder.cfm?orderNo=2014-04-15-02. Please note that the responsibility for insuring that information is redacted or sealed as required by this order rests with counsel and the parties. This office will not review filings for redaction or to determine if materials should be sealed.

Very truly yours,

V. Claire Allen
