then valuing the image and likeness at zero to discredit Buchanan and Pope; failing to stop overstatement of James Brown's deductions by $3 million in the estate tax proceeding; accusing Buchanan and Pope of a the felony of overstating Brown's assets by $79 million to get a large fee without even reviewing the $4.7 million valuation; failing to consider the Estate of Harland Howard; and otherwise abusing the authority of the high office of the AG for the private benefit of AG Jones and Tommie Rae, and the facts supporting these actions are found within the testimony of Pope and the testimony (deposition) and documents of Governor McMaster, AG Wilson, Solicitor General Cook, and others in this case.

148. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that in Orders of February 20, April 1, July 14, 2008 the Circuit Court and Court of Appeals approved and directed the Christie's sale which took place on July 17, 2008, and the testimony, hearings and orders, along with the Estate/Trust's motion of August 24, 2008, detail propriety of the sale as well as the interference of the Levenson clients, advisors to Cannon and Dallas, Forlando Brown, Powell Goldstein (PG), Jacqueline Hollander, including the motion filed in the S.C. Court of Appeals by Dallas on July 9, 2008 to try to stop the sale, and efforts of Dallas and Darren Julien, who had made contact with the media about the claimed $20 million value of James Brown's 10,000 items of tangible personal property, to discredit Plaintiff.
149. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that in early 2008 Terry and Forlando Brown, with Romunzo Brown, and all aligned with Cannon and Dallas, filed 6 false grievances against Levenson in Georgia and SC, even claiming the Levenson forged a signature on his January 2008 contract with Forlando and other family, and also sought to disqualify Levenson in the Will/Trust challenges he had filed for family.
150. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that a March 2008 Circuit Court Order found that Forlando – not Levenson – had changed positions, and that the acknowledged family's $150,000 + 30% contract with Levenson executed on January 8, 2007 contemplated the Will/Trust contests he brought on December 26, 2009.
151. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that the testimony and documents of rebuttal witness AG auditor Sandra Matthews show that Darren Julien, then-co-worker of Laura Woolley, like Jacqueline Hollander and Forlando,, helped Cannon and Dallas fabricate complaints to chill the Christie's sale to deflect attention from the $17 million Cannon had taken from Brown, and other wrongdoing by Cannon and Dallas.
152. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that Julien submitted an affidavit claiming that Dallas was honest and Pope dishonest, which Dallas provided to AG Jones and AG Jones sent to AG Auditor Matthews.
153. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that like many Dallas documents, the Julien affidavit incorporated by reference an email dated the day after the affidavit was "signed."

154. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that after a full hearing with all Interested Persons represented, in the Order of April 8, 2008, the Circuit Court detailed the entire history of the service of Buchanan and Pope as both SAs and PR/Trustees, and found both their appointment and all service from March 7, 2007 until April 8, 2008 to be both ethical and appropriate, and that nobody sought reconsideration of, or appealed, the findings and conclusions of the Circuit Court.
155. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that filings and orders of 2008 show that Buchanan and Pope projected a realistic budget for defending what they believed were extremely weak challenges to the estate plan; the Circuit Court discussed the deplorable condition in which the Cannon PR/Trustees had left the estate; and virtually every detail of the administration was reported to the Interested Parties; reviewed and approved by the Court; and never challenged, even within the 1-year statute of limitation, by the AG, Tommie Rae or the acknowledged family
156. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that, although tens of millions of dollars of legal fees have been unnecessarily wasted in the process, it is now clear that the Will/Trust challenge of the Levenson clients was wholly without merit, now settled for a "nuisance" payment of $37,500 each, instead of the $750,000 - $1 million per year and quarter of assets proposed by the August 10, 2008 settlement brokered by the AG, through AG Jones.
157. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that Tommie Rae's settlement in 2016 in which she gives up any claim at all to James Brown's estate and 65% of her Termination Rights, if she is finally determined to be Brown's spouse, make clear that the August 2008 proposal to give Tommie Rae $750,000 - $1 million per year and a quarter of the "I Feel Good" Charity's assets was unreasonable and properly rejected by the South Carolina Supreme Court in Wilson v. Dallas.
158. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that the record shows that the April 8 Order was prepared with the cooperation of Alan Medlin, Esq., one of Tommie Rae's lawyers, who, along with Levenson, had nominated Pope as SA; approved, with the Levenson clients, her appointment as PR/Trustee; and praised Buchanan and Pope for submitting their PR/Trustee contract to the Circuit Court for approval when the Will/2000 Trust would have allowed them to simply make the contract without Court approval.
159. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that in a March 2008 Order the Circuit Court (Heirs Determination Order) approved the plan of Buchanan and Pope, consented to by the 11 Levenson clients, to advertise for heirs and conduct a critical (and proper) heirs determination under both State and Federal law, the most critical first step for The James Brown "I Feel Good" Charity to create an heirs baseline to protect its 900 copyrights, and unpublished works when published, from unnecessary dissipation from improper and/or premature efforts by claimed heirs to exercise Termination Rights and take the U.S. royalties applicable to a particular copyright.

160. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that, with the Estate's official DNA Protocol in place, 3 heirs under the Copyright Act already acknowledged, and DNA testing costing only $300 per person, the cost of a proper heirs determination under the Copyright Act, if not stopped by the AG in his August 10, 2008 agreement with Tommie Rae and 5 Levenson clients, could easily have been completed worldwide in less than a year.
161. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that in June 2008 Buchanan and Pope engaged of Clemson graduate, Georgetown law Graduate, former examiner at the U.S. Patent and Copyright Office, and lifelong music enthusiast Wm. Jeffrey Smith, Esq., to work with Pope, Ray Gonzalez, Esq., entertainment counsel, on Termination Rights issues which would come into play by 2012, and the engagement gave Brown's "I Feel Good" Charity at least two years to complete the ongoing proper heirs determination and implement its "DNA & Dignity" strategy to protect its 900 copyrights, including by "splitting heirs", a technique coined in 2011 by Smith and Pope in Private Foundations, Copyright Heirs and Musical Millionaires: why the James Brown "I Feel Good" Trust doesn't...
162. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that Pope was qualified without objection as an expert in the James Brown settlement hearings; has expertise in Estate, Probate, Fiduciary Litigation, Fiduciary Income Taxation, Estate Taxation, Creation and Operation of Charitable Foundations, including the filing of 990PFs, which require an annual valuation, and has, since at least 2011 expanded her expertise to include the protection of Charities and other entities in connection with Termination Rights, and the interrelationship between State Law and the Federal Copyright Act, and should have been qualified in each of these areas at trial.
163. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that Wm. Jeffrey Smith should have been qualified in the Termination Rights area, and that the testimony of IP Expert Wallace Lightsey, Esq., confirms that expertise in Termination Rights, especially the protection of Charities, is interdisciplinary, combining litigation skills, Probate skills and IP skills.
164. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that where a person has been engaged by and Estate and Trust his or her expertise; has exercise and expanded that expertise in the course of his or her fiduciary service; and is denied compensation for the services by the Estate and Trust, it would be manifestly unjust to rule that the expert could not demonstrate his or her expertise, and how it was used, in support of the unpaid fee and commission claim.
165. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that the Circuit Court Orders, Appellate briefs in the Cannon and Dallas appeals, prepared by Tressa Hayes, Esq., and the record and orders contained in those appeals, as well as the December 2008 attempt to force Judge Early to recuse himself, and the 7-year record in Federal Case No. 3:08-cv-00014-

- WOB, with the testimony and filings of Levenson, demonstrate just how powerful and skillful Dallas and Cannon, but especially Dallas, were in enlisting others, including the AGs of Georgia and SC, and a former Ga. Supreme Court Judge, with two powerful Atlanta firms, to launch meritless attacks on Judge Early, Buchanan, Pope and anyone standing in the way of their attempt to conduct a $100 million "fire sale" of Brown's music empire; cover up the $17 million Cannon took; and pay Dallas $5 million; Cannon $5 million; GT $5 Million and Frank Copsidas $15 Million, and they include the false Grammy© claim planted with an Atlanta law firm by Forlando and Bell in January 2011 and which was noted by the Supreme Court in 2013.
166. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that the Circuit Court orders and testimony of AG Jones (deposition) show that between March 2008 and August 2008 Buchanan and Pope, aided by Philanthropist John Rainey, repeatedly and respectfully urged now-Governor Henry McMaster, who was then AG, to address the alliance AG Jones had formed with advisors to the Cannon PR/Trustees, and Governor McMaster took certain action, including approving Buchanan and Pope as permanent Trustees of the 2000 Trust on July 30, 2008 and working with them to appoint a third Trustee, but AG Jones' problematic alliances continued, and increased, until long after May 8, 2013.
167. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that the failure of Bauknight and his spouse Beth Bauknight, CPA, both accountant and custodian of the Estate's records, to collect the file of resigned Court-appointed CPA, allowing it to be destroyed as unclaimed after more than six years, caused the loss of valuable information about the work of Buchanan and Pope to obtain IRS approval of the "I Feel Good" Trust, with minor amendments, prior to the September 2008 filing of the estate tax return, which was critical to the $80 million charitable deduction taken for assets passing to the "I Feel Good" Trust; the extensive work of Buchanan and Pope, with Bauknight, to secure an IRS liaison to address years income and corporate tax problems caused by Farr and Cannon, including understatement of Brown's income by more than $3 million a years, a substantial amount of which was corrected by the filing by Farr of amended tax returns for 2003 – 2006 which are in the ROA in Wilson v. Dallas and on file in the circuit court, and the entire file related to the James Brown estate tax return.
168. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that the record shows that immediately upon appointment, Buchanan and Pope asked both the SC Department of Revenue, Rick Handel, Esq., and IRS to assign a person to work with them to untangle the mess that had been caused by the underreporting and jumbled reporting; the IRS assigned Mr. Goodlett who was working with Buchanan and Pope when the "stand down" direction came from Tommie Rae and the AG on August 12, 2008 and still working with them after January 2009 when the Circuit Court limited the appointment of Bauknight to recommendations about the settlement, where the AG had wanted him to take over full operation of the estate, and that the fact that virtually all of James Brown's assets were now "paid or permanently set aside" for the "I Feel Good" Charity allowed Buchanan and Pope to present a persuasive case that the IRS had not been severely harmed by all of the underreporting and misreporting.

169. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that the record shows that Buchanan and Pope hand-delivered their First Semi-Annual Report as PR/Trustees dated May 20, 2008 to AG McMaster and delivered it to all interested persons in May 2009, and that no complaint or objection was made to the Report by the AG or any other person within the 1-year Statute of Limitations.
170. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that The First semi-annual report recounted some of the Buchanan/Pope successes as SAs, including:
 1. Central Location of 80+ boxes of James Brown records for review by all Interested Parties, preventing spoliation by the Cannon PR/Trustees
 2. Prevention by Buchanan and Pope of a $100 million "fire sale" of the music Empire under the "October 18 letter" which would have covered Up Cannon's takings and paid Cannon $5 million; Dallas $5 million; Frank Copsidas $15 Million and Greenberg Taurig (GT) $5 million
 3. Immediate and Permanent Resignations of Cannon, Dallas and Bradley, all of whom challenged their resignations in appeals which Buchanan and Pope had to brief and which lasted until 2010 or later.
 4. Return of $350,000 of the $900,000 taken by Cannon in 2006
171. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that while the resignations of Cannon and Dallas were accepted while Buchanan and Pope were SAs, the Cannon/Bradley attempt to withdraw its resignation began on November 30, 2007 and continued until 2010, and the full history of the that litigation, and the more than 40 filings which ended favorably for the Estate/2000 Trust in 2010 and later are contained in the Custody Receipt signed by Bauknight on June 22, 2009.
172. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that the projections in the first Semi-Annual Report were only partly tied to the sale of 350 items of James Brown's personal property on July 17, 2008, and when the funds came in in September 2008 the most critical problem facing the Estate/ 2000 Trust was the claim of the AG, through AG Jones, of the right to shift $1.5 million - $2 million a year of income and half of the assets Brown left the "I Feel Good" Charity from Brown's Charity to Tommie Rae and 5 Levenson clients, and give the other ½ of the income and assets to the AG's (New) Charity which, by 2018 had not, according to public records, been established.
173. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that the First Semi-Annual Report noted, on May 20, 2008, that the Estate/2000 Trust had entered into a substantial contract for a Musical Tribute to James Brown, which was correct, because entertainment counsel Ray Gonzalez, Esq., with Neal Israel, had entered into the contract for a 75th Birthday Tribute to James Brown early in 2008, with the hope to fund the project in time for

Brown's birthday, but the AG was supporting the Dallas/Cannon/Forlando challenges to Buchanan's and Pope's authority, as exhibited by the February 7, 2008 television appearance of AG McMaster with Forlando, and the producers asked for the AG's approval of the contract.

174. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that Buchanan and Pope urged AG Jones to give the AG's approval on this important project, but the AG did not approve the project until late April 2008, just days before the originally scheduled TV show.

175. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that when the First Semi-Annual Report was issued, the original date for the 75th birthday Tribute was clearly no longer available, but Buchanan and Pope were working with Gonzalez and Israel to conduct the James Brown Tribute at a later date.

176. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that On August 12, 2008, when the AG and Tommie Rae announced their settlement, directing Buchanan and Pope to "stand down" and "stop administering the estate", Buchanan and Pope urged the AG and Settling Parties to appoint Levenson or another person as liaison to take advantage of opportunities to exploit Publicity Rights opportunities, but they declined to work with Buchanan and Pope, as is shown by a voluminous record and the rejection by the AG of the Corbis/GreenLight 2-year Publicity Rights contract arranged by Buchanan, Pope and Martin Cribb, promoter of deceased celebrities, then with GreenLight, and which was projected to bring in $1 - $2 million a year between 2009 and 2011.

177. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that Eight years later Pope failed to recall that the project had actually been approved, but not funded, but Gonzalez, now head of WarnerMusic Legal, recalled the specific status of the contract in his 2017 deposition.

178. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that in the May 20, 2008 First Semi-Annual Report, Buchanan and Pope urged the Attorney General and Family to explore settlement of the issues they then had in dispute, which were:

1. Which of the 10,000 items of Tangible Personal Property (TPP) belonged to Brown's 2000 Trust and could not be claimed by The 6 named children as "personal and household effects"
2. For the Items of TPP owned by Brown, outright, which were Business Personal Property which would go to the "I Feel Good" Charity, and which were Personal & Household Effects which Would go to the 6 children if the Will was upheld, which they expected.

179. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that as testified to by Laura Woolley, the TPP had a value of up to $20 million, and the original PR/Trustees had claimed that virtually all TPP, even if owned outright by Brown, was business personal property, which would go into the 2000 Trust, and the AG had joined Dallas and Cannon in that position.

180. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that the May 2008 request that the Family (Levenson clients) and the AG explore settlement of matters as to which they disagreed related to the then-disputed items of TPP which might have belonged to the "I Feel Good" Trust and might have belonged to the Levenson clients, a substantial and contentious issue, and Buchanan and Pope hoped that the AG (for the Charitable beneficiaries) and the 6 original Levenson clients would be able to propose an agreement to this issue.
181. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that in addition to resolving the up-to-$20 million problem, an agreement between the AG and 6 Family members about the contentious TPP ownership issue would have been helpful in the estate tax proceeding, and the estate tax return, with no additional extensions, was due September 25, 2009, and the 6 children, under Brown's estate plan, were required to pay all of the estate taxes on the household goods devised to them.
182. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that although Tommie Rae and the Levenson clients had filed petitions to set aside Brown's Will and 2000 Trust at the time the First Semi-Annual Report was served, motions to dismiss Tommie Rae's Will/Trusts challenges were pending, and a March 2008 Circuit Court Order for a determination of heirs under both State and Federal (Copyright) Law had been issued; Brown's incarcerated son Michael Deon Brown and others were seeking DNA testing; and Tommie Rae's son James B. had declined to take the $300 paid-for DNA test.
183. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that despite the positive note of the Rainey meeting with now-Governor McMaster in May 2008, in the month of June AG Jones continued to sabotage the 2000 Trust, even filing a suit claiming that, because of a May 2008 ruling of the Court of Appeals in the Dallas appeal, the 2000 Trust had no Trustee, and Buchanan and Pope made repeated, respectful requests to now-Governor McMaster regarding the actions of AG Jones.
184. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that despite the work of Forlando, Dallas, GT, Bell, Cannon & others to sabotage the Christie's sale, with Levenson present, the Christie's sale of 350 of 10,000 of Brown's items generated close to $800,000, but Bauknight/Afterman would later tell the IRS and Supreme Court that the value of these 10,000 items was zero, or near zero, and the AG, through Jones, would repeat that claim to the Supreme Court.
185. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that, with Levenson present, the Grammy © which was properly entered into the Christie's sale, was withdrawn to prevent paying a legal fee of about $5,000 to defend a $20,000 sale; and was returned to the S.C. State museum, but a fraudulent act of Forlando – one of many – resulted in the Supreme Court's misunderstanding of what happened.

186. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that Levenson, with knowledge that older Grammys© could be sold, and had been, and with assurances from Christie's legal counsel of the propriety of the sale and urging that the item be left in, Buchanan and Pope had withdrawn it without penalty, years later the Levenson clients would join in the false claim – planted by Bell and Forlando on an Atlanta firm website – that Robert Potter, Esq. had “halted” the Grammy© sale.
187. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that Robert Potter did not know about the false Grammy© claim planted in January 2011 by Forlando and Bell on his firm's website, but it appears to have been through an Atlanta partner dealing with Forlando at the time, and who was also working on another case with AG Jones.
188. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that, pursuant to the February 2008 Order directing the Christie's sale, thousands of James Brown items were placed on loan in 4 museums for up to three years, where they were insured; cared for; cleaned; restored; and displayed, enhancing the name and likeness of James Brown.
189. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that especially significant were the two James Brown Exhibits at the I. P. Stanback Museum and Planetarium which received broad attention, and the exhibit at the Augusta Museum of History.
190. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that the July 13, 2009 joint affidavit of Buchanan and Pope, which contains a sworn, accurate statement of the facts as they existed in 2009 when it was prepared, and its exhibits, contain some of the filings of AG Jones and some of the communications with Gov. McMaster addressing concerns for AG Jones' actions.
191. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that on July 14, 2008 the S.C. Court of Appeals rejected Dallas' efforts to stop the Christie's sale set for the 17th, and confirmed Buchanan's and Pope's full authority to act, ending the 6-week claim the AG was making that there was no Trustee of the 2000 Trust.
192. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that on July 30, 2008 now-Governor McMaster wrote Buchanan and Pope confirming his support for Buchanan and Pope as permanent Trustees of the 2000 Trust.
193. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that without notifying Buchanan and Pope, the AG, Tommie Rae and 5 of Brown's 13 or more claimed children conducted a mediation on August 10, 2008 at which AG Havird “Sonny” Jones, who lacked any expertise in Copyright Law or Taxation, agreed to transfer about $1.5 - $2 million of income a year, and half of the assets, from Brown's “I Feel God” Charity for needy students to Tommie Rae and the 5 Levenson clients; stipulate that they, and Tommie Rae's son, were Brown's heirs “for all purposes”; and put their assets together for collective investment in the James Brown Legacy Trust (Settlement Entity).

194. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that on August 10, 2008 when the AG reached an agreement to shift 50% of the assets and income, at least $1.5 - $2 million a year, out of the "I Feel Good" Charity and to Tommie Rae and 5 Levenson clients, this dramatically changed the entire income tax picture, and, if approved, would require amended income tax returns relating back to Brown's death, and Buchanan and Pope urged the AG and Settling parties to appoint a liaison to address these important issues, but they declined, as shown by the correspondent of Tax Lawyer Heyward Carter, confirming that their appointee would be responsible for these tax returns..
195. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that if Buchanan and Pope had accepted without question the AG's settlement as reached on August 10, 2008, and the settlement had been put in place right away, by today (2019) between \$15million and \$20 million ($\frac{1}{2}$ of the \$3 - \$4 million income per year x 10) would have already been paid to Tommie Rae and 5 Levenson clients; the "I Feel Good" Charity would have no Assets; Tommie Rae and the 5 Levenson clients would own 50% of James Brown's assets, and the AG's (New) Charity would own the other half.
196. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that the likelihood that a "stipulation" that Tommie Rae would be considered to be Brown's spouse "for all purposes" would have gone unchallenged by the DNA-proven children and other children, and the grandchildren (children of deceased children) who did not get a piece of the $3 - $4 million annual royalty stream in the AG's settlement, was low and the current federal suit filed by DNA-proven heirs against Tommie Rae, James B. and Bauknight confirms the problem.
197. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that in August 2008 Buchanan and Pope obtained an Order, after notice to creditors, providing for education payments to Forlando and some of the older children from the Christie's proceeds, but Levenson objected to the Order; Forlando was asked to notify the Court if he needed funds; and he never did.
198. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that despite this ruling, to advance the smokescreen Cannon and Dallas set up, and their effort to get a $5 million commission each, Forlando continued until April 2012 to claim that he was an impoverished student merely seeking to carry out his grandfather's wishes.
199. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that on or about August 18, 2008 Buchanan and Pope filed a motion asking the Circuit Court to require the AG and Settling Parties to disclose the terms of the AG's settlement, which they had requested, but which were still secret, but it would be months before details were known.
200. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that in his September 2008 deposition

Forlando Brown testified that offers of $150 million were still available for the James Brown assets.

201. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that on September 24, 2008 CPA William Sellars filed the Estate Tax Return of the Estate of James Brown, showing the "Music Empire" of Brown on Schedule F2 of the return at $84 million reflecting an approximately $99 million less the TIAA debt of about $15 million.

202. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that the "Music Empire" was reported unallocated between its parts, each of which was, and still is – subject to a fairly wide range of value, as follows:

- a. ROYALTY INTERESTS – 900 copyrights spanning 6 decades; under
 - Harlan Howard style formula: $37.5 Million to $56 million;
 - Roger Miller: $45 - $80 million.
 - Dr. Terry Cox: $36 - $45 million
 - October Offer: $50 million
 - [Afterman/Bauknight: $23.7]
- b. IMAGE AND PERSONA
 - Harlan Howard style formula: $37.5 Million to $56 million;
 - Dr. Terry Cox: $40 - $50 million
 - October Offer: $50 million
 - [Afterman/Bauknight: Zero, or near zero]
- c. GERONIMO, LLC, JBE, INC., OTHER ENTITIES - included in above
- d. CLAIMS AGAINST CANNON PR/TRUSTEES, GT, MS, RELATED TO $17 MILLION TAKEN BETWEEN 1999 AND 2007:
 - $1 - $10 million, as estimated on Extension Request
- e. TANGIBLE PERSONAL PROPERTY, BUSINESS (CHARITY) & HOUSEHOLD (DEIVED TO 6 CHILDREN):

 - Christie's valuation (partial) $1.4 million
 - Offers of Terry Brown: $2 million
 - Woolley Estimate $20 Million
 - [Afterman/Bauknight: Zero, or Near Zero]

203. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that The "Music Empire" was reported to the IRS unallocated by both Buchanan and Pope in 2008 and by Bauknight in the fall of 2010, two years later. In each case, the number on Schedule F was reduced by the TIAA debt, with the following result:

BUCHANAN & POPE:	$99 Million
LESS ($15 Million) TIAA Debt
James Brown Music Empire	$84 Million

AFTERMAN/BAUKNIGHT $23.7 Million
 LESS ($ 19 Million) TIAA Debt
 James Brown Music Empire $4.7 Million

204. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that the claimed $4.7 million value was not released by the AG/Bauknight until May 2011, and, according to Bauknight, nobody at the AG's office ever reviewed the claimed valuation for which Peter Afterman was the claimed music industry "expert."
205. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that it was not known until March 14, 2013, when James B., filed his Petition for Rehearing in Wilson v. Dallas that the claimed $19 million debt for the approximately $15 million TIAA debt was known.
206. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that Bauknight began moving to intervene in FOIA cases in 2011 to keep the $4.7 million claimed value from being seen, even though the South Carolina Probate Code (SCPC) required that he file the appraisal with the Amended Inventory & Appraisement (I&A) he filed in Brown's Estate in May 2011.
207. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that by November 25, 2008 the 5 Levenson clients and Tommie Rae had contributed the proceeds of their rights under Sections 203 and 304 of the U.S. Copyright Act (Termination Rights), which rights, if any, relate only to U.S. royalties, which make up only half of Brown's $3 - $4 million annual copyrights, because the non-U.S. royalties make up the other half.
208. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that Neither AG Jones nor anyone in the AG's office had any knowledge of Termination Rights, or the importance of completing the heirs determination under State and Federal Law, and which, at the request of Buchanan and Pope, had been authorized by Circuit Court Order just 4 months earlier.
209. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that one important fact about Termination Rights was that they would never apply to the non-US royalties from James Brown's 900 copyrights, which make up about half of Brown's $3 - $4 million annual royalty income, and they do not apply to Brown's Publicity Rights, the right to exploit his famous name and persona and other rights.
210. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that In August 2008 it would be 4 years before the first proceeds from Termination Rights would come in, and they would not be vested in Tommie Rae, her son, or the 5 Levenson clients unless and until a proper Termination Notice was made, usually two years in advance.
211. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that Termination Rights would slowly come into play and the "I Feel Good" Charity had available to it in 2008, and today, many strategies to curb the impact, such as "splitting heirs", as described by Wm. Jeffrey Smith and Pope in their 2011 article Private Foundation, Copyright Heirs and Musical Millionaires: why the James Brown "I Feel Good" Trust doesn't....

212. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that as testified by Pope, and in rebuttal by IP expert Wallace Lightsey, Esq., a proper determination of heirs is a critical first step to the protection of a Charity's copyrights from dissipation by Termination Rights, and the AG's settlement halted that important process, causing problems which have not been resolved more than 10 years later.
213. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that in August 2008 there was substantial evidence the Tommie Rae was not Brown's spouse, including Brown's death certificate and her own handwritten admissions, which had been reviewed by the AG, but sealed under the two ex parte Circuit Court orders.
214. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that at the August 10, 2008 settlement the AG declared Deanna Thomas, and Yamma, Venisha, Daryl, Larry Brown, who were acknowledged by Brown in his Will, along with James B., as Brown's children, but James B. had refused a paid-for $300 DNA test and there were other potential challenges to the claims of Tommie Rae the other 5 settling parties which AG Jones failed to take into account before proposing to give the $1.5 - $2 milion a year and half of the Charity's assets.
215. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that by 2018 Deanna and Yamma were suing to confirm that Tommie Rae was not Brown's spouse; had rejected Brown's acknowledgment of Larry and Daryl claiming they were not-DNA-proven children, and Venisha died in 2018.
216. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that in a 2015 Order, filed in 2018, the Circuit Court found James B. to be a child of James Brown because the SA/ST who was defending Brown's Estate/2000 Trust in the James B. claims failed to present evidence of James Brown's vasectomy from the 1980s, even though Levenson had the vasectomy records.
217. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that the value of the contribution of Tommie Rae and the 5 Levenson clients to the James Brown Legacy Trust (Settlement) was both minimal and speculative in 2008; Roger Miller leaves the valuation of individual Termination Rights to lawyers, who must evaluate the chances of success, other heirs, etc., and Pope valued the Termination Rights of Tommie Rae and the Levenson clients at less than 5% of the total, worldwide copyright value as of Brown's death, and there is no evidence that the Legacy Trust, which has owned these proceeds since 2008 has ever valued them.
218. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that while the Settling Parties confirmed to the Circuit Court in 2008 that they had put their Termination Rights proceeds in the Legacy Trust, in 2016 Tommie Rae testified that she had been paid $1 million for the "sale" of three songs, which did not go into the Legacy Trust, and the same is true for about $70,000 each paid to Deanna, Yamma and Venisha.

219. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that the ownership and voting control of the Legacy Trust (Settlement) after Terry Brown joined the AG's settlement in January 2009 was:

VOTING CONTROL: AG & Tommie Rae, 75% (50/25)
(Others under 5%)

OWNERSHIP OF INCOME/ASSETS: AG's (New) Charity 47.5%
Tommie Rae 23 /%
Others: Under 5% each

220. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that The AG's Settlement of August 10, 2008 provided for the replacement of Buchanan and Pope with a Trustee selected by the AG and Settling Parties
221. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that On August 12, 2008 Tommie Rae and the AG announced the settlement and directed Buchanan and Pope to "stand down" and stop administering the estate because a settlement had been reached.
222. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that the record shows that immediately after August 12, 2008, with knowledge that the AG's settlement (if properly disclosed to the IRS) generated millions of dollars of estate taxes, Buchanan and Pope urged the AG and Settling Parties to have their accountant prepare the estate tax return in draft for their review, but the AG and settling parties declined, saying they had no accountant.
223. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that William Sellars, CPA, who had been appointed by the Court in 2007 before Buchanan and Pope became PR/Trustees, agreed to complete the Estate Tax Return, which was filed September 24, 2008, but advised the Court that since Bauknight, a CPA and his former Partner, was involved, he would resign after the September 2008 filing of the Estate Tax Return.
224. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that in September 2008 the AG asked that Buchanan and Pope join the AG in a Probate Court suit to get rid of Cannon and Dallas, but that they declined because of jurisdictional issues because they were defending attempts by Cannon and Dallas in the Court of Appeals to void their resignations as Trustees of the 2000 Trust.
225. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that in September 2008 the AG filed suit to terminate the appointments of Dallas and Cannon, duplicating what the - Estate/2000 Trust was doing in the Appellate Court; mentioning the AG's 2008 Settlement, but not asking for approval; and not naming Buchanan and Pope as parties.

226. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that Buchanan and Pope moved to intervene and, within the 30-day period the AG amended his Petition in the Case which would become Wilson v. Dallas; adding other Settling Parties as Plaintiffs; and seeking, in addition to Cannon and Dallas, to remove Buchanan and Pope; and setting out some, but not all, of the allegations that would be made nearly 2 years later in Richland 4900.
227. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that by November 25, 2008 the AG had revealed the details of the settlement, which was not complete; were asking the Court to put the "independent" CPA Bauknight in full control of the operation of James Brown's assets pending approval of the settlement; and failed to disclose to the Court that Bauknight was already trustee of the Legacy Trust and holding the Termination Rights proceeds of Tommie Rae and the 5 Levenson Will/Trust contestants.
228. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that the Circuit Court announced in November 2008 that it would appoint Bauknight as SA, but did not indicate whether the appointment would put him in full control, as requested by the AG, and this uncertainty affected Buchanan's and Pope's ability to deal with royalty clearances until the SA appointment Order was issued January 2009, appointing Bauknight for the limited purpose of reviewing and recommending the AG's Settlement, and ruled that Buchanan and Pope would remain in control of the assets.
229. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that Bauknight was invited to look at the estate tax return in January 2009 immediately after his appointment, but refused, and was told about all of the income and estate tax issues, but there is no evidence that he filed a single tax return – including no amended returns relating back to Brown's death – to reflect that in May 2009 settlement shifted between $ 1.5 million and $3 million of income a year from being "paid or permanently set aside" for the "I Feel Good" Charity to being taxable income because it was going to Tommie Rae and the former Levenson clients.
230. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that Bauknight used his wife and partner Beth Bauknight, as CPA, and they failed to file the proper income tax returns and amended income tax returns, and, in addition, hired expert Mark Hobbs, CPA in 2010 and never told Hobbs of the failure to file these returns; never showed the Will and 2000 Trust to Hobbs; and never picked up the Sellars file, leaving Hobbs with the impression that Sellars had done only payrolls matters, rather than comprehensive service.
231. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that despite great uncertainty about their authority to act, Buchanan and Pope continued to stabilize the clearances; that they brought in $7.83 million of royalties during their 8-month service; and the TIAA debt was properly service at nearly 8% and reduced from about $15 million at Brown's death to $11.3 million, prior to application of the escrow account, on May 26, 2009 when, according to their final accounting, Buchanan and Pope delivered $99 million of assets to Bauknight.

232. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that despite the AG's announced intention to take over the operation of the James Brown assets in August 2008, that fall Buchanan and Pope were able to proceed with the claims' cases, and resolved $35 million of claims in favor of the Estate/2000 Trust, and, in addition, before being replaced on May 26, 2009, they had the $5 million Cannon claim, the $5 million Dallas claim and the $5 million Bradley claim, all of which were baseless, in position for summary judgment.
233. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that Bauknight did not resolve the baseless Bradley claim until after his death, the Cannon claim until 2016, and allowed Dallas, after the passage of the statute of limitations, to change his $5 million claim from a PR/Trustee commission to a contract claim, which is still pending, and that the 2010 naming of Cannon and Dallas as witnesses in Richland 4900, with the modification of the Dallas claim, damaged Brown's Estate and 2000 trust.
234. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that at the September 9, 2009 hearing, the following was stated by Tommie Rae and the AG, through counsel:

[p: 29 Counsel for Tommie Rae]

WE'RE UNANIMOUS AS MR. WILKINS POINTED OUT ON THIS ISSUE, WE DO NOT WANT THEM [Buchanan and Pope] TO BE FIDUCIARIES AND IF THEY PREVAIL - IF THEY WIN ON APPEAL AND THEN WE GO BACK AND TRY THOSE WILL AND TRUST CONTESTS ... AND THEY WIN THOSE , THEN EVERYTHING GOES TO CHARITY WHICH YOU BELIEVE ACCORDING TO YOU ORDER AND WE BELIEVE.. THE ATTORNEY GENERAL HAS THE AUTHORITY TO REPRESENT THE CHARITIES IN THAT CASE.

THE ATTORNEY GENERAL DOESN'T WANT THEM. EVEN IF THEY WIN ALL THE WAY OUT, THE ATTORNEY GENERAL WOULD BE THE LAST PERSON STANDING AND THE ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OFFICE DOES NOT WANT THEM AS FIDUCIARIES.

MR. NICHOLSON: YOUR HONOR, JASON NICHOLSON ON BEHALF OF THE ATTORNEY GENEERAL'S OFFICE... I WON'T PLOW THE SAME GROUND AS MR. WILKINS AND MR. MEDLIN... [P.38]..SO, LIKE I SAID, I DON'T WANT TO PLOW THE SAME GROUND.. BUT WE DO INCORPORATE THEIR ARGUMENTS.

The Circuit Court Overlooked Material Rebuttal Testimony of Governor McMaster, AG Alan Wilson, Solicitor General Robert Cook and Other AG Staff

235. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that the testimony by deposition of Governor McMaster, AG Alan Wilson, Solicitor General Cook, Former Chief Deputy John McIntosh, Sr. Assistant AG Creighton Waters, AG Jones, AG auditor Sandra Matthews, and Asst. AG, with documents from those depositions, along with other depositions, were submitted to rebut the claims of Bauknight that he and Peter Afterman had benefitted James Brown's Estate/2000 Trust during and after his 4-year void appointment as PR/Trustee, and while he was serving the Legacy Trust.
236. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that the testimony was presented in conformity with the Court's ruling that witnesses from the Columbia area, including the AGs staff, could testify by deposition without prejudice to their right to appear if they elected, but no AG staff elected to appear.
237. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that, although their testimony will be referenced in later sections, a brief indication of the material statements of some follows:

Governor McMaster – knows that James Brown's image and likeness is of great value; met Brown; and is a fan of his music, but does not have, and never had, personal knowledge of the James Brown litigation; knows nothing about the James Brown Legacy Trust; never oversaw any action taken by AG Jones or other staff; and emphatically denied having authorized the law firm of Kenneth Wingate, Esq. (Wingate) to sue Buchanan and Pope in the name of the State/AG or authorizing Bauknight to sue in Richland 4900 "on behalf of the Attorney General of South Carolina. Learned that he was a Richland 4900 Plaintiff after leaving office in January 2011 and called the Office of AG Wilson to inquire. He was given some explanation by a person he does not recall, but took no further action. Relying on AG Jones, the Governor still believes that the Supreme Court was incorrect in Wilson v. Dallas, but knows nothing about Termination Rights; the justification for the 2008 settlement; or the amounts involved.

Attorney General Alan Wilson – Authorized the continuation of Richland 4900 when he took office on January 11, 2011 for the purpose of maintaining the "status quo;" but was not told at the time that Buchanan and Pope were asking the Court of Appeals to review the constitutionality of Wingate, as a private law firm, to be sole counsel for the State/AG, as well as Tommie Rae and others nonresidents; knows nothing about the operation of the James Brown Estate/2000 Trust 9 years, or the operation of the Legacy Trust over which the AG's office has had effective control since 2008; does not recall anything about the meeting with Pope on March 6, 2013, in which she advised of the reduction in charitable scholarships and other tax problems caused by Bauknight's $79 million devaluation of Brown's assets, and proposed quiet solutions to the problems, but does not dispute her recollection of the meeting; does not recall his March 2013 call to her to tell her almost six years ago to say he was getting out of Richland 4900 had not been shown the deposition of Governor McMaster where he emphatically denied authorizing Richland 4900 to be brought by the State/AG.

Former Chief Deputy McIntosh - Does not recall 2 meetings with Pope in March 2013, including attendance of Adam Silvernail, Esq., at second; did not and could not authorize Richland 4900.

Solicitor General Robert Cook - has never seen a case like Richland 4900 in his long career; although his name appears on many pleadings, he had no actual involvement in James Brown matters until the Petitions for Rehearing after the First Wilson v. Dallas decision; recalls meeting on March 6, 2013 with Attorney General Wilson, Pope and her concerns related to the IRS filings by Bauknight which reduced annual charitable scholarships under the IRS's 5% Rule by millions of dollars; believed Pope to be competent and concerned about the "I Feel Good" Charity, not greedy and incompetent as some of the documents which contain his name indicate. Prepared Petition for Rehearing for AG in Wilson v Dallas, relying on AG Mary Frances Jowers.

Sr. Asst. AG Havird "Sonny" Jones - Testified he shared a "Common Interest" privilege with Tommie Rae and her lawyers from August 10, 2008 until May 8, 2013, and continues to have a "Common Interest" with Bauknight despite public announcement on May 29, 2013 of Levenson clients and Tommie Rae of intention to disregard Wilson v. Dallas and reinstate AG's 2008 settlement; has exercised 75% control of Legacy Trust with Tommie Rae since 2009.

Sr. Asst. AG Creighton Waters - Testified about 2011 Cannon Alford plea and AG's and Bauknight's not seeking either jail time or restitution, and no presentation of Victim's Statement, and subsequent actions.

Hearings on the AG's 2008 Plan to Give Half of the "I Feel Good" Trust's Assets and $3 - $4 Million Annual Income to Tommie Rae and 5 Levenson Clients

238. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that the Circuit Court Orders, testimony, and filings of Buchanan and Pope between August 12, 2008 and the May 26, 2009 Order (Settlement Order), with the transcript, give a complete picture of the effort of Buchanan, Pope, Expert Harley Ruff, Esquire, to urge the AG and the Court to consider that shifting $1.5 - $2 million of income a year, and half of the James Brown assets to Tommie Rae and 5 Levenson clients not only dismembered James Brown's estate plan, but severely damaged the plan they had begun in March 2008 with the heirs Order and in June with Smith to protect the "I Feel Good" Trust's 900 copyrights from dissipation by Termination Rights claims asserted by claimed heirs.
239. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that in his rebuttal testimony (deposition), AG Jones testified that he shared a "common interest" privilege with Tommie Rae, the Settling Parties and their counsel from August 10, 2008 until May 8, 2013, and today shares a "common interest" privilege with Russell Bauknight, Trustee of the Legacy Trust, and that at the settlement hearings AG Jones violated the State/AG's assumed duty of loyalty to the 2000 Trust.

240. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that the testimony of Governor McMaster confirms that he knew nothing of the assurances made to the Circuit Court that, as AG, he would personally see to the proper management of the Legacy Trust, and he did not provide oversight of any kind from 2008 until January 11, 2011.
241. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that the Settlement Hearings which took place over 7 days were brought under the Summons and Complaint of AG McMaster and others, which later became Wilson v. Dallas, and that it was the burden of the AG and other Plaintiffs – not Buchanan and Pope – to demonstrate to the Court that the binding settlement agreement they had entered into qualified for approval under the facts and applicable law.
242. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that the day before the hearing Levenson called Buchanan and threatened him with Rule 11 sanctions and other problems if Buchanan and Pope did not go along with the AG's settlement.
243. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that the AG and Plaintiffs called Russell Bauknight as their first witness, and that he approved the settlement, including an agreement reached that morning to give Terry Brown a 10-year right of first refusal (ROFR).
244. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that Bauknight did not disclose that he was already holding the Termination Rights proceeds of Tommie Rae and the now-former Levenson clients in the Legacy Trust as its Trustee, and was presented as an "independent" reviewer of the settlement.
245. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that Bauknight, a CPA, had not looked at the income or estate tax returns; did not know Brown had brought in more than $8 million a year for at least 4 years before his death; did not know the value of Brown's assets, although he had "heard" $80 million; knew nothing about the music business, sampling revenues; Copyrights, Right of Publicity; or Termination Rights; knew nothing about James Brown's wishes as stated in two successive estate plan; knew nothing about the strength of the claims of Tommie Rae and the Levenson clients; but, nevertheless, recommended that the "I Feel Good" Trust be dismembered: 52½% of its $3 - $4 Million of income each year and 52 ½% of its assets be given to Tommie Rae and the 6 Will/Trust contestants; 47 ½% be given to a (New) Charity to be created by the AG; and that the AG, Tommie Rae and the 6 put their assets into the Legacy Trust (Settlement Entity) to be controlled de facto 75% by Tommie Rae and AG Jones
246. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that Plaintiff AG and the other Plaintiffs then called Pope, who had extensive knowledge regarding private foundations, fiduciary income tax issues, estate planning, heirs litigation and other relevant areas, and was qualified without objection by anyone as an expert.

247. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that Pope and Harley Ruff, Esq., both testified to the serious excise tax and estate tax problems to be caused by the AG's settlement, and presented pie charts to show the tax consequences, but that nobody addressed the massive income tax problem which would be caused if Brown's Music empire were worth only $4.7 million and the entire Estate and 2000 Trust were only $6.5 million because such a calculation would have been considered nonsensical at the time based on more than 100 representations in the record by counsel for Tommie Rae, and others, and because the Estate Tax Return had been fully explored in 2 days of Federal Court hearing in November and not a whisper of suggestion of the massive $79 million value was suggested.
248. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that Ruff was specifically engaged by Buchanan and Pope, who did not think it appropriate to spend funds to bring exempt organization counsel Alan Rothschild, and asked to review the tax consequences from a neutral point of view, not as an adversary of the settlement, which he did.
249. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that at some point, Buchanan and Pope did become aware of a July 2008 meeting in which Dr. Cox had stated to AG Jones and counsel for Tommie Rae that Brown's assets were worth only $65 million at death, but the Cox investors, in early 2009, were showing interest in a "Right of First Offer" which was stopped by Tommie Rae.
250. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that at some time after Terry Brown got the ROFR on January 30, 2009, Buchanan and Pope did hear rumors that Terry was considering a devaluation of the assets, and that was reported to the AG.
251. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that the Settling Parties did not present a Copyright Expert and AG Jones stated that he was the first to admit that he knew nothing about Termination Rights, and the only evidence presented by the AG and other Plaintiffs was an article about the Superman Case.
252. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that Pope vigorously studied about Termination Rights during the settlement hearings, but could only give the opinion that it was unwise to "stipulate" that a person was a spouse, or any other heir; that the AG's settlement was clearly leaving out heirs who had already been DNA-proven; and that completing the proper heirs determination was appropriate.
253. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that Buchanan and Pope urged the parties to take a short time to complete the heirs determination, then have a settlement, and Buchanan testified that the Agreement, as then-drafted had a number of problems, and that settlement is best after the parties have had a fair opportunity to evaluate the strength of the competing claims, which had not happened.

254. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that the AG and Settling Parties either did not understand, or withheld from the Court, certain material facts about Termination Rights including: The Court overlooked or misapprehended that
 - f. A stipulation that they would not hurt 3 DNA-proven children by the Settlement.
[Incorrect, because stipulating Tommie Rae was the spouse threatened to cut their Termination Rights in half]
 - g. Termination Rights apply only to U.S. Copyright royalties, which are only about half of the $3 - $4 million annual James Brown royalties.
[This meant $1.4 - $2 million of the annual royalties would never be Subject to dissipation by Termination Rights election.]
255. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that the AG and other Plaintiffs were invited by the Court to present a tax expert to refute Pope and Ruff, but they declined, electing to pass up resumes of 5 tax lawyers who were advising them.
256. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that in April 2009 Bauknight confirmed to the Court that if appointed PR/Trustee under Brown's Will/2000 Trust he would be loyal to the Legacy Trust.
257. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that Baunight also claimed in April 2009 that he had gained expertise in Termination Rights but did not change his position.
258. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that as the hearings proceeded from January to May 2009, Buchanan and Pope urged the AG and Settling Parties to enter into a Publicity Rights contract with GreenLight which resulted from a settlement conference with Martin Cribb a high-profile promoter of deceased celebrities, under a 2-year Publicity Rights contract approved by Gonzalez and recommended by Brown's Chicago entertainment lawyer of 10 years or more, Jay Ross, Esq., but they declined.
259. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that although the GreenLight Publicity Rights contract was projected to bring in $1 - $2 million a year, on May 19, 2009 Tommie Rae filed a motion stating her rights under the settlement could be "destroyed"; the AG and Tommie Rae rejected the settlement, as did their Trustee, Bauknight.
260. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that Bauknight gave no reasonable excuse for rejecting the $1 - $2 million a year contract; Peter Afterman presented no Publicity Rights contracts between May 2009 and May 2011; and he even valued the Publicity Rights at zero, or near zero for Bauknight's IRS filings.
261. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that the Circuit Court, assured both by Bauknight, and by the AG, through AG Jones that giving away $1.5 - $2 million a year in income and half of the assets of the “I Feel Good” Charity, in exchange for half of the Termination Rights of some of the claimed heirs that only apply to half of the copyrights and will not even come into play until 2012, approved the settlement on May 26, 2009.

262. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that the recitations in the May 26, 2009 Settlement Order make clear that the Circuit Court was misinformed about Termination Rights, and that AG Jones had a view of the role of the AG which was greater than allowed by statute.
263. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that the Circuit Court specifically held that it did not hear the portion of the AG’s and Plaintiffs’ complaint seeking the removal of Buchanan and Pope, and that they were removed in accordance with the contract of the AG and Settling parties.
264. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that during the settlement hearings Buchanan and Pope served an Offer of Judgment that would have given about 15 percent of the Estate and 2000 Trust to the acknowledged children and James B; would have left their Termination Rights intact for future negotiations; would have given Tommie Rae over 5% of the Estate/2000 Trust, but no separate Termination Rights; and would have immediately begun the flow of education benefits to the 7 grandchildren.
265. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that the offer made by Buchanan and Pope, if accepted, would have prevented the waste of tens of millions of dollars of litigation costs over 10 years (and future costs), of which the Settling Parties would have had about 15%, which is more than the settlement reached by any of the parties to date.
266. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that the Buchanan/Pope settlement proposal was rejected, and a proposal in March 2010 to give the AG and Settling Parties everything they got in the settlement agreement if the minors had GALs and the Appellate Court approved the substitution of the AG’s Judgment for theirs in a non-adversarial presentation was ignored.
267. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that within a week of May 26, 2009 Tommie Rae and the AG, through AG Jones, had assumed 75% control of the James Brown music empire; Levenson had moved into the sidelines; and the AG’s appointee, Bauknight, had hired a dozen lawyers on a “deferred pay” basis to carry into effect the James Brown Legacy Trust; Buchanan and Pope had met with Bauknight and his tax lawyer and delivered the urgent tax and related files.
268. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that within another week or so, by Mid-June the GreenLight 2-year contract had been rejected, causing a loss of at least $1 million a year for two years; Few and Gilreath had been directed to have no confidential conversations with Buchanan and Pope, who had uncovered the $17 million takings; and Buchanan and Pope had offered, because of the numerous inquiries, to meet once a week with the Legacy Trust’s lawyers to help in any way they could with the transition.

269. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that within the month Buchanan and Pope had transferred $99 million dollars of assets to Bauknight; had fully accounted for the $7.83 million which had come in during the 18-month period; delivered all financial records, including the full TIAA copyright files; and Bauknight had signed a 95-page Custody Receipt showing that on or before June 22, 2009 he had received 145 boxes, and the Custody Receipt gave Bauknight detailed information about all pending litigation and all assets and activities of the Estate and 2000 Trust, and complete financial information, including the status of the action to get the PG and GT files
270. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that Plaintiff is qualified now, as a Termination Rights expert, to evaluate the numbers in the AG's settlement, which Roger Miller does not have, and confirm that the AG's 2008 settlement had dismembered not only Brown's estate plan, but the copyrights.
271. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that the case of Brown-Thomas vs. Hynie, Dist. Ct. 1:18-cv-02191-JMC demonstrates the problems caused and millions wasted by the AG's and Bauknight's failure to complete a proper heirs determination, which is the first step in the protection of the copyrights, as the Plaintiffs now include those excluded from the AG's 2008 Settlement, and Defendant Bauknight admits in that suit that tens of millions of dollars have been spent

The Joint Claim and Supporting Affidavits of Buchanan and Pope

272. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that on March 3, 2009, during the Settlement hearings, James B. served Buchanan and Pope with a Petition for Review of Compensation, and Buchanan and Pope responded.
273. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that immediately after the Settlement Order Tommie Rae, who had known in near-real-time everything Buchanan and Pope had done, sought discovery as to their fees, but Buchanan and Pope needed to turn their attention to what pro bono publico lead Appellate Counsel James B. Richardson, Esq, described as the most complicated appeal of his distinguished career.
274. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that in July 2009 Buchanan and Pope filed a timely Creditor's Claim against the Estate and 2000 Trust seeking both payment of the amount due them under the contract and a future discretionary commission, as well as future attorneys' fees and costs for the conduct of the appeal which became Wilson v. Dallas.
275. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that Buchanan's approximately $0.5 million in contract fees and additional $1.6 million, or a total of $2.1 million for 5 years of service was reasonable for Buchanan, as was Pope's $1.47 million due under the contract, and additional approximately $1.4 million discretionary request.

276. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that the full court-approved SA fees, costs and partial PR/Trustee commission under the contract which Buchanan was paid before May 26, 2009 was proper, as was Pope's partial SA commission.
277. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that Buchanan's total $2.1 million commission request for the 5+ year of his service under these extraordinary circumstances was proper and the settlement he reached in 2012 was based on hardship, and, as the Court found in October 2012, does not diminish the fine quality of his extraordinary service.
278. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that Pope's $2.8 million commission for all of her years of service – not 18 months – was a reasonable request when $1.47 was already due under her court-approved contract.
279. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that Buchanan and Pope timely asked in June 2009 that the Court award the already due amounts under their Court-approved agreement with Defendants, which was a first priority expense, from the first monies to come in, and that the remainder be paid later, and that the consideration was delayed by Defendants' securing an order preventing any payment, then filing Richland 4900 and telling the Richland County Court that all matters in Aiken County were concluded.
280. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that at all times Plaintiff has desired to settle this matter, which should have been handled pursuant to the Wilson v. Dallas remand directions.
281. The Court overlooked that the more than 18 Orders in which this Court approved the actions of Buchanan and Plaintiff, with the participation of the AG and all Interested Parties, cannot 9 years later be discarded by testimony of non-lawyer experts who had no participation in the hearing.
282. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that the combined legal fee and PR/Trustee fees request of Buchanan and Plaintiff for their 5+ years of service are extraordinarily modest by comparison to the $1.4 million paid to the post-Wilson v. Dallas SA/ST and the $700,000 GAL/attorney fee award to James B., who has a maximum 1/20 interest on Brown's Estate which he valued at $5 million.

Overlooked Facts During Bauknight's 4-Year Void PR/Trustee Appointment
(May 2008 – May 2013)

283. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that for the four-year period during Bauknight's void appointment as PR/Trustee from May 2009 until May 2013, both Tiffany Provence, Esq., and Plaintiff, experts in the area, testified that the person(s) who benefitted the Estate/2000 Trust should be paid, and only Buchanan and Pope did so.
284. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that the AG, through AG Jones, and Bauknight both continuously breached their fiduciary duty to the Estate/2000 Trust by engaging more than a dozen lawyers and experts to help dismember the 2000 Trust in favor of the Legacy Trust, and that – at a minimum --- Bauknight had a duty to be impartial as between the 2000 Trust and the Legacy Trust but failed to do so.

285. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that Governor McMaster, in his sworn rebuttal testimony, emphatically confirmed Pope's testimony that Richland 4900 was improper because as AG he never authorized the firm of Kenneth Wingate, Esq., to bring Richland 4900 in the name of the State/Attorney General; never authorized Bauknight to bring Richland 4900 "on behalf of the Attorney General"; never knew anything about the AG's Legacy Trust or its beneficiaries; and did not even know he was a named Plaintiff in Richland 4900 until after he left office in January 2011.

286. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that the sworn deposition testimony of Pope, AG Alan Wilson and Solicitor General Cook confirms that in March 2013 Pope and counsel provided competent evidence of the serious breaches of fiduciary duty of Bauknight and AG Jones, including the damage done to needy students by the $79 million devaluation, which reduced the annual required payments to needy students by $3 million or more a year; that Solicitor General Cook recalls that Pope was concerned with protecting the "I Feel Good" Trust, and not "greedy" as claimed by Bauknight, but the AG has since declined to curb the announced intention of Tommie Rae and the Levenson client, with the collusion of AG Jones, to give Tommie Rae $750,000 or more a year and a quarter of Brown's assets, and the same to the Levenson Will/Trust contestants.

287. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that from 2011 until 2015 the AG's office and Bauknight coordinated to interfere with both FOIA and discovery to prevent the release of several documents which, had they been timely released, would have made short work of Richland 4900 and the AG's attempts to give $2 million a year and half of the "I Feel Good" Trust's asset to Tommie Rae and the Levenson clients, namely:

a. The Wingate Litigation Retention Agreement, which confirms AG McMaster's testimony that he did not authorize SWB to bring Richland 4900 in the name of the State/AG, and did not authorize Bauknight to act "on behalf of" the AG, and which was released by a federal judge in the fall of 2013;

b. The handwritten admissions of Tommie Rae that she was married, living with her husband; and possibly pregnant before falsifying a marriage certificate and conducting a ceremony with Brown, and that she begged Brown to marry her when he learned of the marriage, but he refused;

c. The claimed $4.7 million valuation, which has been kept under lock and key while being used to lodge a false felony claim against Buchanan and Pope;

288. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that by 2011 Pope had become an expert in the Interplay of Termination Rights under Sections 203 and 304 of the U.S. Copyright Act, probate law and the protection of charities owning copyrights, which, according to IP expert Wallace Lightsey, Esq., and Pope, is interdisciplinary and draws as much from State probate law as from entertainment law, and that none of Brad Sharp, Jonas Herbsman, Esq.; Tiffany Provence, Esq.; Mark Hobbs, Esq.; Bauknight, AG Jones; AG Jowers; Afterman, Miller or any member of the AG's office had or has such expertise.

289. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that Wm Jeffrey Smith is qualified as an expert in the area of Termination Rights by virtue of his training at Georgetown Law Center, his work as an examiner at the U.S. Patent and Copyright Office, his lifelong interest in all genres of music, including having been a DeeJay at Clemson and having attended Woodstock, and based on his 2011 co-authorship of Private Foundations, Copyright Heirs and Musical Millionaires: why the James Brown "I Feel Good" Trust doesn't...
290. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that after Tommie Rae sued Buchanan and Pope in 2010, in 2012 Pope asked the Aiken Circuit Court to void the two gag orders issued in 2008 preventing disclosure of Tommie Rae's handwritten admission about her bigamous marriage, and both Bauknight's and Tommie Rae's lawyers attacked the filings, claiming they were "works of fiction" and even tried to prevent a hearing.
291. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that in 2010 Bauknight, Tommie Rae and the AG, with others, named Cannon, Dallas, Katz and Copsidas as witnesses against Buchanan and Pope, and later allowed Dallas to change the nature of his $5 million claim from PR/Trustee commission to contract after the statute of limitations, a breach of duty, even though 4 of the 5 were being sued by Defendants; Copsidas was part of the coalition wanting a "fire sale" of the James Brown assets to get $15 million; and Few and Gilreath, for the Estate/2000 Trust had targeted Copsidas and Katz with respect to the "October 18 Letter" under which they were claiming exorbitant fees.
292. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that the rebuttal deposition testimony of Solicitor General Cook, Governor McMaster and AG Wilson, with the Pope testimony, confirms that Solicitor General Cook has never seen a case like Richland 4900; that it is unprecedented for a private law firm to be pursuing the interest of Tommie Rae and other nonresidents in the name of the State/AG with Bauknight claiming to act "on behalf of" the State/AG with no participation or control by the AG, and with no written contract for the 23% - 40% contingency.
293. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that the rebuttal depositions of Solicitor General Cooke and Governor McMaster confirm Pope's testimony that it was reckless and unnecessary for AG Jones and Bauknight, claiming to speak on behalf of the State/AG, to falsely accuse Buchanan and Pope of the federal felony of overstating the value of James Brown's assets on the federal estate tax return for the improper purpose of securing a large commission, especially where Bauknight claims that nobody but he, Afterman and 3 lawyers he engaged for the AG's Legacy Trust have seen the claimed valuation, and nobody in the AG's office looked at it.

294. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that in 2011, after a meeting in the office of AG Jones, Cannon, who had stolen $17 million and uttered a 2008 forgery to cover it up, was allowed to plead guilty to only a small part of the charges, and neither restitution nor jail time was sought.
295. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that Ellison Thomas served as the State's criminal expert in the Cannon plea case; and gave Cannon credit for 5% of everything he stole as salary; failed to include the $5 million "check to nobody" Cannon stole in 1999; and concluded that Cannon had only stolen $7 million – instead of the correct $17 million.
296. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that Bauknight sought neither jail time nor restitution from Cannon until family members complained, and did not even file a victim's Statement for the $17 million Cannon had taken from needy students..
297. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that in September 2010 the Afterman $4.7 million appraisal arrived and Bauknight, Tommie Rae and AG Jones, without the knowledge of Solicitor General Cook, agreed to withhold it from the Supreme Court until after the final briefs were filed, "a time of our choosing," and that the appraisal was withheld from the Supreme Court for eight months, until the following May, 2011.
298. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that the appraisal was treated by the AG, Bauknight and Tommie Rae as not yet received in both their initial brief and a request to supplement the ROA before May 2011.
299. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that Solicitor General Cook was not informed of AG Jones' participation in withholding material from the Supreme Court for that period of time, and testified in rebuttal that it is always best to notify the Appellate Court as soon as reasonable about new material.
300. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that in January 2011 the IRS issued a closing letter to Bauknight, not catching the overstatement of the TIAA debt by about $3 million undisclosed within the $4.7 million valuation, along with the zero value of Brown's image and likeness; the zero value of Brown's Rolls Royce and 10,000 items of tangible personal property, and the zero value of his $17 million claim against Cannon, GT and others.
301. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that there is no evidence within the filings to indicate that Bauknight ever notified the IRS that 50% of Brown's assets were going to the AG's (New) Charity, and not to the "I Feel Good" Charity, and further, that $2 million of the $2.8 million charitable deduction Brown claimed as going to the AG's (New) Charity was actually going to grandchildren, and did not qualify for a charitable deduction.

302. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that these matters were of no concern to Buchanan and Pope but for the fact in 2010 the AG and Bauknight "on behalf of the AG" has sued them for tens of millions of dollars claiming they should have accepted the $100 million offer, and that the James Brown assets were worth much less in 2010, and by 2011 was claiming to the Supreme Court that the assets were worth $4.7 million; there were never any offers; and Buchanan and Pope had committed the federal felony of overstating the value by $79 million to get a $5 million commission from a $5 million estate and $6.5 total assets.
303. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that while a fiduciary may expect false claims from disgruntled claimed heirs and devisees, Solicitor General Cook and Governor McMaster both confirm Pope's position that the name and mighty power of the State attached to such accusations, especially when the State official has not even reviewed the claimed valuation, are career-threatening because of the high credibility of the office.
304. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that during 2011, including in oral argument before the Supreme Court, in Wilson v. Dallas neither the AG nor Bauknight reported to the Supreme Court that Termination Rights will never affect Brown's non-U.S. royalties, about half of his $3 - $4 million income, and have no effect on Brown's image and persona, claims against GT and others, and other assets, and made misleading and incorrect representations to the Court about Termination Rights.
305. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that in May 2012 the Circuit Court conducted a hearing on the Tommie Rae gag order, but ruled that he lacked jurisdiction to address it because of the pending appeal in Wilson v. Dallas.
306. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that in 2012, with substantial hardship from years of dedicated service under Brown's Will and Trust, Buchanan had advised Pope that he needed the $500,000 he had earned under the contract by May 26, 2009 more than he would ever need a $2.1 million full commission which he had request at the conclusion of their service, and Pope fully supported his decision.
307. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that when the AG, Tommie Rae and Bauknight moved to enforce a settlement with Buchanan in May 2012, Pope opposed certain terms, asserting that it was improper for the AG to require Buchanan not to file a Petition for Rehearing in Wilson v. Dallas, if needed, and the motion for Buchanan's re-entry into Richland 4900 was pending in 2018 when Judge Early granted final summary judgment in that case before hearing the Buchanan motion.
308. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that in a deposition given in Federal District Court Case no. 3:08-cv-00014-WOB on August 20, 2013 Mr. Bauknight lodged vitriolic attacks on Plaintiff, defended the AG's settlement voided by Wilson v. Dallas; and even asserted that Forlando Brown, who now owns the interest of Terry Brown in the Legacy Trust, had done nothing wrong in his 4-year Federal Court attempt to reinstate felon David Cannon and his Co-Trustee Albert Dallas as trustee of Brown's 2000 Trust.

309. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that at the same deposition Bauknight claimed the transfer from Terry Brown to Forlando did not happen, although AG Jones had confirmed to the Settling Parties in January 2011 that it did; and revealed that Peter Afterman was the music industry "expert" who provided information to PBW on the claimed $4.7 million at-death valuation of James Brown's music empire.
310. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that Bauknight, through counsel, told the Supreme Court in 2011 that the $4.7 million value was correct; that James Brown's estate and 2000 Trust had no corpus to speak of; that Termination Rights were all this estate is about; and that Tommie Rae and her son controlled the Termination Rights and her elective share claim was a "slamdunk"; and represented to the Supreme Court that if Tommie Rae were not found to be Brown's wife, then the Levenson settling parties would get all of the Termination Rights.
311. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that the zeal of Bauknight and Afterman to assure that Tommie Rae is determined to be Brown's spouse has caused the waste of millions of dollars, and Bauknight had a duty to advise his counsel that Termination Right will never apply to Brown's Non-U.S. Royalties.
312. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that Bauknight, with knowledge that it was incorrect, allowed counsel he hired for the Legacy Trust, but paid for from the Estate/2000 Trust, to suggest to the Court that Termination Rights were automatic; that in 2012 Brown's "I Feel Good" Trust would automatically lose its royalties to "Please, Please, Please" and that by 2023 the "I Feel Good" Trust would have almost nothing if the AG's settlement giving $1.5 - $2 million a year and more than half the assets to Tommie Rae, Terry and the Levenson clients were not upheld.
313. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that Bauknight had known nothing about Termination Rights, the value of James Brown's assets, or James Brown's wishes when he recommended that Judge Early approve the AG's settlement deal in January 2009, but had re-appeared later in the settlement hearing asking the Court to allow him to testify about what he knew about Termination Rights.
314. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that Bauknight knew in 2011, or should have known, that Termination Rights apply only to U.S. Copyright, which make up only about half of James Brown's worldwide music royalties, so that $1.5 million - $2 million of the "I Feel Good" Trust's annual royalty stream will never be diminished by Terminations Rights, but Bauknight failed to tell his attorney, who failed to tell the Supreme Court, this important fact.
315. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that Bauknight, through counsel, told the Supreme Court that nobody was trying to buy the James Brown assets and that the Estate and 2000 Trust had no corpus to speak of, even though Defendants' expert Roger Miller testified that it was known in the industry that James Brown's 900-copyright catalog was "solid gold", and that "frothy" investors were seeking to purchase assets such as Brown's copyrights for 15 – 20 times revenues, as much as $80 million, or more, for the copyrights alone.

316. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that Bauknight, through counsel, also told the Supreme Court that a "closing letter" he got from the IRS was the result of an extensive audit, and that this IRS document proved that Buchanan and Pope were incorrect when they claimed that the AG's settlement would cause tax problems.
317. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that Bauknight withheld very valuable information from the Supreme Court that would not be known until after the first Wilson v. Dallas decision, namely that within the Afterman $4.7 million valuation of the music empire was an undisclosed claim that Brown's TIAA debt was $19 million when he died, a $3 million overstatement.
318. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that, in addition, to get the refund which Bauknight claimed proved that the AG's settlement saved taxes, Bauknight had claimed a $2.8 million charitable deduction for the funds which would pass to the AG's (New) Charity, which was a problem for two reasons: first, there is no evidence that the AG's (New) Charity even existed, and second – that the first $2 million going to the AG's (New) Charity, even if it existed, would probably have disqualified the AG's (New) Charity.
319. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that, in addition to the above problems, Bauknight, through counsel, failed to tell the Supreme Court that, under the Fractional Share formula of James Brown's 2000 Trust, devaluing James Brown's music empire from $84 million to just over $4.7 million shifted almost 1/3 of Brown's annual $3 - $4 million income and assets out of the "I Feel Good" Charity, depriving needy students of scholarships while trapping nearly $1 million a year of income a year in the 7 Grandchildren's Trust where it will be unnecessarily taxed at a high rate until slowly returning to the "I Feel Good" Charity as the 7 grandchildren reach age 35.
320. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that it is not known whether this shifting of about 31% out of the "I Feel Good" Charity into the 7 Grandchildren's Trust was reckless or intentional.

AG/Bauknight Damage to Copyrights by 5+-year Delay in Heirs Determination

321. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that a proper determination of heirs is required in any Will/Trust contest; whenever a pretermitted child makes a claim that might require payment, but the AG, through AG Jones, assumed the right to control the James Brown litigation without meeting this important SCPC requirement.

322. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that, according both to Pope, IP lawyer Wallace Lightsey, Esq. and others, a proper determination of heirs is a critical first step for a charity to protect is copyrights from premature and/or defective attempts to exercise Termination Rights, and the AG, through AG Jones, and Bauknight breached their fiduciary duty to Brown's Estate and the James Brown's 2000 Trust by recklessly declaring heirs on August 10 2008; stopping the heirs determination from 2008 until May 2013; then entrusting the heirs determination to persons either with no understanding of the Copyright Act Termination Rights provisions or a commitment to reinstate the AG's arbitrary 2008 selection of heirs, or both.
323. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that Bauknight and AG Jones wasted millions of dollars James Brown gave his "I Feel Good" Charity and considerable taxpayer dollars in their effort to prevent disclosure, under FOIA or otherwise, of public materials that undermine the heir status of "heirs" the AG has determined to favor, including, for example, efforts to prevent disclosure of the handwritten admissions of Tommie Rae Hynie about her marriage.
324. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that the losses caused by the failure to properly determine heirs with simple procedures, such as requiring DNA testing of non-presumed heirs, and obtaining vasectomy records in possession of Levenson have resulted in large unnecessary losses, including a $700,000 legal/GAL award for the lawyer/GAL for James B., not a presumed heir, even though he refused paid-for $300 DNA testing
325. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that Bauknight's daily contact with a "music expert" who is both working for an employer who would like to control the James Brown catalog at the cheapest price and has helped two claimed heirs (James B. and Tommie Rae) siphon of more than $1 million, and has sought to gather others has wasted more than $2 million in payments to Peter Afterman and the 2 claimed heirs.
326. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that the AG/Bauknight's attempt, between 2008 and 2013, to shift between $7.5 million and $10 million of royalties, in addition to 52 ½% of the assets, from the "I Feel Good" Trust, although aborted by the decision in Wilson v. Dallas, was a breach of fiduciary duty.
327. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that Bauknight's support for Tommie Rae's attempt to reinstate the AG's 2008 settlement, giving nearly a quarter of the "I Feel Good" Trust income and assets to Tommie Rae has caused additional millions of damage because of the need to silence and discredit Pope and other with copyright expertise.
328. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that none of experts designated in By Defendants in 2016 in Aiken 1337, including Brad Sharp, Roger Miller, Mark Hobbs, Jonas Herbsman, Esq., Ellison Thomas, Nathan Crystal, Esq., or Tiffany Provence, Esq., had the adequate cross-disciplinary expertise or knowledge of the facts to address this failure of both the AG/Fiduciary and Bauknight to meet the standard of care required of fiduciaries..

The Court's Aid in Efforts of Defendants to Disregard Wilson v. Dallas

329. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that in March 2010 counsel for Tommie Rae threatened Buchanan with a suit by the AG if they did not drop the appeal which became Wilson v. Dallas.
330. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that Buchanan and Pope responded, offering to give the AG and Settling Parties the entire settlement if only the minors had a GAL and the Court of Appeals, in a non-adversarial presentation, allowed the AG to substituted his judgment for Buchanan and Pope in recommending the settlement, but the AG and Settling Parties refused to respond.
331. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that on May 19, 2010 the AG and Bauknight "on behalf of the AG" sued Buchanan and Pope for tens of millions of dollars for benefit of the Legacy Trust, but now Governor McMaster testified under oath on rebuttal that he did not authorize Wingate to sue in name of State/AG, and did not authorize Bauknight to sue "on behalf of" AG, and only learn he is a Plaintiff after leaving office. Private Wingate firm is attorney for all Plaintiffs, including the AG, minors and respondents.
332. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that Solicitor General Robert Cook testified in rebuttal that he has never known a case like Richland 4900.
333. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that in January 2011 AG Wilson took office and authorized Richland 4900 to maintain the status quo, but knows nothing about suit and testified (rebuttal) that he doesn't know there was a challenge.
334. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that in 2011 Newberry County Court confers with Richland County Court and transfers FOIA case seeking Wingate contract to Richland County, consolidated with Richland 4900, making Richland 4900 even more unusual.
335. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that in 2012 Buchanan reached a settlement, and the AG required that he not file a Petition for Rehearing, if needed, in Wilson v. Dallas; and Pope objected to this condition.
336. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that in 2012 the Aiken Circuit Court declined to void 2008 gag orders preventing dissemination of Tommie Rae handwritten admissions about her first marriage.
337. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that in October 2012 minors and incarcerated Venisha were exempted from mediation in 4900 and from GALs.

338. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that on February 27, 2013 Supreme Court in first Wilson v. Dallas decision issued directive to AG to end Wingate Suit and FOIA "in the first instance."
339. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that after a visit from Pope to discuss the problems caused by the $4.7 million valuation, including the reduction of annual scholarships by more than $3 milion a year, AG Wilson notified the Supreme Court and Pope that he was getting out of Richland 4900, but he did not.
340. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that on May 10, 2013, two days after the Wilson v. Dallas decision, AG and Richland 4900 Plaintiffs asked the Court to stay the proceeding, deferring to the Aiken County Court, and it did so, not holding hearings in both the FOIA and main case.
341. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that on May 29, 2013 Tommie Rae and Levenson announced in open court to the Aiken Circuit Court their intention to disregard the Wilson v. Dallas decision; ask the Aiken Circuit Court to ban Buchanan and Pope from the proceedings, and they do. After the hearing, Defendants served the Notice of Disallowance, requiring Pope to file suit.
342. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that on June 13, 2013, 3 days after Aiken 1337 filed, Aiken Circuit Court excludes Buchanan and Pope, directing Clerk not to accept filings in any cases except their claims case.
343. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that on July 8, 2013 counsel for Bauknight files ex parte ethics opinons of Nathan Crystal which gives comfort to Aiken Circuit Court about Bauknights conflicts, but Bauknight and Crystal refuse to disclose to Pope.
344. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that the Aiken Circuit Court denied request for SA/ST to defend suit, even though Defendants' PR/Trustee still Trustee of Legacy Trust; and dismissed all claims except fee claim under Rule 12, even though compliant set out conflicts in detail.
345. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that in October 2013 the Aiken Circuit Court "double approves" and praises service of Buchanan, all of which was joint with Pope, and finds no disgorgement under Wilson v. Dallas.
346. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that in October 2013 Bauknight, nominated by 3 Levenson Will/Trust contestants seeking to disregard Wilson v. Dallas, and after questioning only by Circuit Court, is appointed PR, and Trustee by the Court, and SA/ST was appointed to defend Tommie Rae and James B. claims.
347. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that by August 2013 Peter Afterman helps Tommie Rae and James B. to file Termination Notices to terminate U.S. royalties to more than 90 copyrights between 2015 and 2023.

348. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that in September 2015 Peter Afterman solicited Levenson clients and DNA-proven clients to siphon of U.S. copyrights from "I Feel Good" Trust.
349. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that by 2015 SA/ST Sojourner has billed $1.4 million with law partner; taken one deposition; and allowed Tommie Rae to be declared spouse without proffering handwritten admissions about her marriage.
350. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that the South Carolina Supreme Court requested a Status Report and Judge Early, based on representations of Bauknight reported the Following:
 - a. Bauknight had brought Estate/2000 Trust from brink of insolvency, when he had actually rejected a Publicity Rights Contract slated to bring in $1 - $2 million a year, and then valued Publicity Rights at zero, or near zero.
 - b. Bauknight had properly filed all income tax returns, where there was no evidence he had properly filed any income tax returns, and he did not even pick up the Sellars tax file, allowing it to be destroyed.
 - c. Bauknight had reduced the TIAA debt by $14 million, when it was only $11.3 million before escrow.
 - d. Buchanan "settled the case against him" for $500,000, but he was paid, did not pay...
 - e. Pope seems to be asking for a $2 million SA fee, when the request was about $48,000
 - f. Pope seems to be asking for $5 million PR/Commission
 - g. Heirs Determination appeared to be complete
351. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that in 2015 the Aiken Circuit Court, after conferring sua sponte directed mediation of this case with Richland 4900, which has about 15 Plaintiffs not parties to this suit.
352. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that the Court declined to grant partial summary judgment in two separate requests, even for SA fee.
353. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that the Aiken Circuit Court issued a Rule to Show Cause to a journalist after the journalist published Tommie Rae's handwritten admissions, but the Supreme Court stopped the ruling.
354. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that by 2016 James B. had been determined to be a child and his GAL and lawyer awarded $700,000.00 even though he claimed estate was $5 million; had only 1/ 20 interest, or less; and had a contract with

Tommie Rae.

355. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that by 2016 Tommie Rae's lawyer claimed that Bauknight should be knighted for what he had done for the James Brown Legacy Trust beneficiaries, but Bauknight told the Court in the FOIA case that the legacy Trust does not exist.
356. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that by 2016 $2 million or more in Termination Rights owned by James Brown Legacy Trust was distributed to Tommie Rae, James B. and 5 others, and Tommie Rae and James B. moved to London.
357. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that in 2017 Richland 4900 Court dismissed AG as a party under Rule 21, SCRCP 7 years after he sued Buchanan and Pope.
358. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that in Richland 4900 court finalized Summary Judgment against all Pope counterclaims while stay from earlier appeal pending.
359. The Court overlooked or misapprehended in 2015 Aiken Circuit Court determined Tommie Rae is spouse; declares James B. child; and confers with Richland Circuit Court to sue sponte.

The Wilson v. Dallas Decision and Delays of Defendants

360. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that, for good reason, the Supreme Court voided the AG's Settlement in its first, later substituted decision in Wilson v. Dallas
361. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that the fact that now Tommie Rae has given up all interest in the Estate/2000 Trust and all except 35% of her Termination Rights, if any, and other have settled for $37,500 make it clear there was no basis for the AG to have given them nearly $2 million a year in income and 52 ½ % all of the "I Feel Good" Trust's assets.
362. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that By August 24, 2013 Peter Afterman, with whom Bauknight testified he is in almost daily contact, had helped Tommie Rae and James B. filed public Termination Notices in the U.S. Copyright Office, attempting to siphon off U.S. royalties from 90 copyrights from the "I Feel Good" Trust.
363. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that by September 2013 Peter Afterman was soliciting not only Settling Parties, but LaRhonda, Jeanette and Nicole, to join Tommie Rae in siphoning off U.S. royalties from the "I Feel Good" Trust, as confirmed by Levenson in his 2016 deposition and public posts by these DNA-proven heirs.

364. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that in September 2013 a letter was sent to the Circuit Court by counsel for some heirs protesting Peter Afterman's conflict of interest in helping Tommie Rae siphon off royalties, but Bauknight continued to pay him tens of thousands of dollars each month from Brown's Estate/2000 Trust.
365. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that Bauknight was nominated as PR/Trustee by 3 Levenson clients from among those those announcing their intention to disregard Wilson v. Dallas and reinstate the AG's 2008 settlement deal, and was interviewed for the PR/Trustee position with no person other than the Circuit Court allowed to ask questions.
366. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that on or about October 12, 2013, the Circuit Court convened a Wilson v. Dallas remand hearing for Buchanan, from which Plaintiff was excluded under the June 13 Administrative Orders, in which the Circuit Court, based on the Court's then-recollection, praised the work of Buchanan, all of which was joint with Plaintiff, based on the Court's personal recollection; "double approved" the full SA fees and approximately $550,000 of partial PR/Trustee commissions which had been paid Buchanan; and even left open the door for Buchanan's re-entry into Richland 4900.
367. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that Defendants stated that the payments were a settlement in Richland 4900 but presented no evidence that the Legacy Trust, the AG or any other Richland 4900 Plaintiff had paid Buchanan, and the Court directed counsel for Defendants to provide an order setting out its ruling, with input from Buchanan, but no Order was ever issued.
368. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that the only fee reported by Defendant in response to the Wilson v. Dallas mandate was the $500,000 paid to Buchanan, even though Bauknight had engaged more than a dozen lawyers on a "deferred pay" basis, as well as many experts, and by 2018 admitted to a Federal Court that tens of millions of dollars had been spent from funds Brown gave the "I Feel Good Charity since 2007.
369. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that the Circuit Court's memory about Buchanan's fine service, all of which was joint with Plaintiff, and Defendants' failure to claim any of the issues he paid experts to raised three years later suggests that Bauknight continues to apply millions of dollars of James Brown's money to carry out Tommie Rae's announced intention on May 29, 2013 to disregard Wilson v. Dallas and retake a quarter of the "I Feel Good" Charity even though she has relinquished her entire interest in the Estate and all but 35% of her Termination Rights, which will never apply to more than half of Brown's copyrights.
370. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that it would be manifestly unjust to allow the same Circuit Court to approve all of Buchanan's and Pope's service in 2008 and 2009; in 2013 vigorously approved Buchanan's 2009 joint claim with Plaintiff under the 2009 claim and based on a 2007 contract approved in 2008, then allow millions of dollars to be spent on experts hired in 2016 and later to advance the position of the James Brown Legacy Trust and the announced intention to disregard the Wilson v. Dallas decision.

371. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that while Plaintiff has no interest in the outcome of the current James Brown litigation among others, she has a distinct interest in establishing that her service was proper and that preventing the AG from giving away more than half of a charity she and Buchanan had a duty to defend, including $1.5 - $2 million of income a year based on lack of understanding or Misunderstanding of Termination Rights.
372. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that Defendants are bound as to the contract portion of Plaintiff's claim by the ruling of the Circuit Court in the Buchanan remand; by the unappealed Order approving her service; and by failure of the AG and Interested Parties to protest those orders.
373. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that the delay in the resolution of Plaintiff's claim is the direct result of Defendants filing Richland 4900; claiming for 4 years that there were no matters pending; securing an Order from the Circuit Court preventing payments; urging the Aiken Circuit Court not to conduct hearings; spending million of dollars for the James Brown Legacy Trust while not addressing Plaintiff's and Buchanan's claims; and the unnecessary Disallowance served on the day that Tommie Rae's counsel and Levenson announced their intention to disregard the Wilson v. Dallas ruling, when a Wilson v. Dallas remand hearing was adequate.
374. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that the May 29, 2013 announced intention of Tommie Rae and the Levenson clients to Judge Early of their intention to disregard Wilson v. Dallas and reinstate the AG's 2008 settlement for the benefit of the James Brown Legacy Trust, resulted in Bauknight's using James Brown's funds for the benefit of Tommie Rae and the Richland 4900 Plaintiffs, causing repeated delays.
375. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that Defendants' efforts to delay and combine this case with Richland 4900, which has 17 Plaintiffs and has claimed there will be 91 witnesses, caused substantial delay.

The AG's August 2008 Settlement with Venisha Brown Illustrates the Damage Caused by the Failure of the AG to Complete Heirs Determination or Understand Termination Rights

376. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that Venisha Brown's actions and death in September 2018 illustrate the damage caused by the AG's giving her 5% of James Brown's assets on August 10, 2008 and Venisha's putting her Termination Rights and Household Goods in the Legacy Trust:

- Sept. 2008 – AG gives Venisha 5% of James Brown’s 2000 Trust (900 copyrights; Image & likeness; TPP; claims against GT, etc.)
B+P do not oppose; Venisha puts Termination Rights proceeds in Legacy Trust
Legacy Trust gets nothing from Venisha
- Sept. 2009 – Venisha gets equity increase, but no cash because TIAA debt being paid.
Legacy Trust gets nothing from Venisha
- Sept. 2010.– Sept. 2011
Venisha gets increased equity but no cash because TIAA debt being paid off.
Legacy Trust gets nothing from Venisha
- Sept. 2012 - Venisha gets $150,000 or more & owns 5% of James Brown assets
$2.4 million judgment against Venisha threatens Legacy Trust.
Legacy Trust gets nothing from Venisha
- Sept. 2013 – Venisha gets $150,000 or more & owns 5% of James Brown assets
$2.4 million judgment against Venisha threatens Legacy Trust.
Legacy Trust gets nothing from Venisha
- Sept. 2014 – Venisha gets $150,000 or more & owns 5% of James Brown assets; same as 2013
- Sept. 2015 – Venisha gets $150,000 or more & owns 5% of James Brown assets –
Venisha & others put $70,000 each Termination Rights proceeds from 5 copyrights in Legacy Trust.
Tommie Rae 2015 election in Legacy Trust, Temination Rights U.S. royalties to 5 of 900 copyrights)
- Sept. 2016 - Venisha gets $150,000 or more & owns 5% of Venisha files Termination Notice to 246 songs U.S. royalties Only; payable from 2018 – 2026. Gets vested interest in about 1/20 of U.S. royalties which will go into Legacy Trust
Legacy Trust gets nothing from Venisha
- Sept. 2017 - Venisha gets $150,000 or more & owns 5% of James Brown assets – same as 2013, 2014
- Sept. 2018 - Venisha gets $150,000 then dies owning 5% of

Legacy Trust which has no TIAA debt; has $8 million in bank and owns 895 copyrights with 246 subject to losing U.S. royalties (about half of royalties) between 2018 and 2026; Image and likeness.

377. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that in 2011 Bauknight told the IRS and Supreme Court that the Personal and Household effects Venisha put in the Legacy Trust had a value of zero, and in 2018 Venisha's sister, Deanna Thomas, through counsel, told the Court that Venisha's Estate had little or no value, even though Venisha had a VESTED interest in the U.S. royalties and Termination Rights proceeds to 246 copyrights between now and 2026 which she put in the Legacy Trust in 2008.
378. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that Daryl (whose status as an heir under the Copyright Act is being challenged) demonstrates that what Venisha and her Estate would get from the Legacy Trust is multiples more than what the Legacy Trust gets from Venisha, and these same losses apply to Daryl and Larry (whose status as an heir under the Copyright Act is being challenged).
379. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that giving away between $15 million and $20 million of income and 50% of the assets over 10 years in exchange for Termination Rights proceeds of Tommie Rae and 6 others when 2 might not be children; Tommie Rae's spousal status could be challenged by excluded heirs based on "stipulation" not being binding; and Termination Rights of at least 6 outsiders will dilute Termination Rights proceeds.
380. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that Roger Miller testified that settlements are good, as Buchanan and Pope believed, but did not even know who Brown's heirs are, and was NOT speaking of a situation where, as here, the heirs have not even been determined and the persons who negotiated the settlement for the Charity had no knowledge or expertise and relied on parties directly adverse to the Charity to negotiate for the Charity.

The $2 Million Cost of the AG, Tommie Rae, Bauknight and Sojourner Not Rquiring James B. take a $300 Paid-for DNA Test

381. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that the AG declared James B. an heir of James Brown even though he had refused a $300 paid-for DNA testing and is the only claimed child born after Brown's vasectomy in the 1980s; refused DNA testing in 2004 when James Brown demanded it.
382. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that Levenson had James Brown's medical records, but was seeking to disregard Wilson v. Dallas and reinstate the AG's 2008 settlement as announced to Judge Early in open Court on May 29, 2013.

383. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that James B's lawyer for his GAL Shahid failed to disclose that he was under contract with Tommie Rae, but was Also awarded $700,000.00 in legal and GAL fees in 2016 despite the refusal of James B. to take paid-for test 8 years earlier.
384. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that Bauknight paid SA/ST Sojourner $1.4 Million NOT to protect the copyrights in the James B. and Tommie Rae proceedings, but wanted high costs to make the "settlement" appear reasonable to the Court, and Sojourner claimed protecting the copyrights was beyond the scope of his representation.
385. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that a 2015 Order filed in the Aiken Court in 2018 found James B. to be child because Sojourner had not presented evidence of vasectomy.

Gonzalez was available to Work on Warner-Chappell and Other Matters, but Stopped by the Attorney General's Direct and Damaging Interference

386. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that Gonzalez was an entertainment lawyer of extraordinary ability, a former Warner Music executive, and now has returned to CA as the head of Warner Music Legal; worked well, efficiently and diligently for Buchanan and Pope; agreed to serve as a Successor Trustee, and was named with Ronald Stanley, Esq.; billed modestly, and was twice not paid by Bauknight, in 2009 and again in 2011 when Bauknight secured the Gonzalez file; did not pay Gonzalez, even though requested; and directed Gonzalez to retrieve from Buchanan and Pope any evidence that the file had been requested, but that both Buchanan and Pope refused to destroy this evidence because they had been sued; the AG had just claimed the at-death value of the music empire was $4.7 million; and the Gonzalez file was valuable evidence that there was no basis for the $4.7 million value.
387. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that the AG's interference with all normal operations of the music empire, which his deposition shows he still knows nothing about, began November 21, 2007 and continued until May 26, 2009.

The Waste of $10+ Million to "Prove" That James Brown's Music Empire Was Worth Less than $4.7 Million and Make Tommie Rae Brown's Spouse

388. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that James Brown brought in $9.4 million in 2001; $5.2 million in 2002; $13 million in 2003; $10.4 Million in 2004; $8.3 million in 2005; $9 Million in 2006; and that Buchanan and Pope averaged more than $5 million per year in the 18 months that they served as PR/Trustees, and that if Bauknight had brought in even $4 Million per year for the next 9 years, by the time of his trial testimony he should have accounted for, or been able to account for, $36 Million dollars, but has never done so; has not even filed an accounting since 2016; yet he testified in this claims case that his service during his void appointment was superior to that of Buchanan and Pope; they were not entitled to any commission; the $4.7 million value was correct and that he and Peter Afterman had increased the value of the Estate/2000 Trust, but he did not know the size of the Estate/2000 Trust for any period since death, or now, except that there is $8 million after a settlement last year of Buchanan/Pope's suit against GT and others, made more difficult for Few and Gilreath by Afterman's "expert" sampling testimony which had to be withdrawn.

Unnecessary Delays Caused by Defendants in Resolving Plaintiff's Claim

389. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that in 2012 Plaintiff offered to let the AG, Bauknight "on behalf of" the AG and Defendants out of Richland 4900, but they refused, and have delayed the resolution of Richland 4900 since that time, and the resolution of this case – for the benefit of Richland 4900 – since 2013.
390. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that Summary judgment as to the $1.47 million should have been granted in BOTH summary judgment motions, as the liquidated amount, with interest and costs, including attorneys' fees, as set out in the joint claim.

Conduct of the Trial

391. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that because Plaintiff was allowed to testify fully about the actions of Buchanan, Pope and others on direct, there was no need on direct to present the evidence of Governor McMaster, AG Jones, AG Jowers, Solicitor General Cook, former Chief Deputy John McIntosh, James Hardin III, Wallace Lightsey, Esq., Thomas Pope III, Rita Caughman, Esq; David Sojourner, Esq., Buchanan or others to corroborate her still-largely-undisputed testimony, which was recounted and supported by contemporaneous time records and a showing of the modest legal and other fees that are contained in the Claim and supporting documents.
392. Only when Bauknight -- speaking for Defendants while simultaneously serving the James Brown Legacy Trust and its beneficiaries: Tommie Rae, the AG's (New) Charity, Deanna, Yamma, Daryl, Terry, Larry and the Estate of Venisha -- asserted unnecessary false claims about Buchanan and Pope; Louis Levenson, Esq., a lawyer for Will/Trust contestants with little memory appeared as a fact witness, and seven experts hired in 2016 to help Tommie Rae and Bauknight in the unauthorized 4900 Case with virtually no understanding of the role of the AG in the disruption and dismembering of the 2000 Trust, and not even knowing who Brown's heirs were, or reviewing his estate plan; Fractional Share formula; or Bauknight's tax returns, testified that rebuttal testimony became necessary.

The Rebuttal Witnesses Confirm the Extraordinary Work of Buchanan & Pope From August 2008 Until May 2013 During the Void Bauknight Appointment

393. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that all of the witnesses presented on rebuttal, including those legally “hostile” confirm that Buchanan’s and Pope’s service as PR/Trustees and in the Wilson v. Dallas appeal; their modest legal fees, including pro bono publico lead counsel; their own tireless contributions of time and money; and the resulting saving of the 2000 Trust from a settlement which not only dismembered the Estate Plan but gutted the plan to protect the “I Feel Good” charity’s 900 copyrights was extraordinary.

The $84 Million Value Was Correct & $4.7 Million Incorrect & Damaging

394. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that the value of $24 million or less was not a professional appraisal, but from an August 2009 email of Tommie Rae’s lawyer who also proposed to value the Publicity Rights at zero, or near zero, which happened.
395. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that in the midst of the devaluation Defendants sued Buchanan in Richland 4900 for not accepting a $100 million offer and are estopped to deny that there was a $100 million offer within a year of Brown’s death.
396. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that the $42 million appraisal of 800 copyrights by RBS in 2006 supports the $99 million value.
397. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that AG Jones, led by Tommie Rae, and without properly reading the Harlan Howard case, misused it to damage Buchanan and Pope where, after Howard’s death in 2002 the IRS had accepted a non-professional valuation of his copyrights by Hoawrd’s 5th wife and CPA which was nearly identical to the valuation formula presented to Judge Early by Buchanan and Pope as SAs on November 14 and 15, 2007, for the estate tax valuation, and produced a result for James Brown’s 900 copyrights which was in line with a professional appraisal of 800 of the copyrights at $42 million or more completed by the Royal Bank of Scotland (RBS) in the spring of 2006, the year of Brown’s death.
398. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that, instead of engaging a Termination Rights expert such as Roger Miller, who was modestly priced, Bauknight hired Peter Afterman, who was found by the sister of Tommie Rae’s lawyer, and who would position himself to represent Tommie Rae and her son, James B., beginning in 2013, in their attempt to siphon off royalties belonging to the “I Feel Good” Trust.
399. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that Peter Afterman had no qualifications for the valuation job, especially the valuation of Termination Rights, and the resulting $4.7 million claimed value, as reported to the Supreme Court in 2011 and explained by James B. to the Supreme Court in his Petition for Rehearing in Wilson v. Dallas March 2013, valued James Brown’s worldwide music empire, Schedule F on the Estate Tax Return, as follows:
|-------------------------|--------------------|
| 900 Copyrights | $23.7 million |
| Image and Likeness | ZERO or near zero |
| Claims against GT, Etc. | ZERO, or near zero |

Iconic Tangible Personal Property	ZERO, or near zero
Sampling Revenues	ZERO, or near zero of the s and income of the
LESS: Claimed Value of TIAA Debt	$19 million (approx. $3 million overstmt)
CLAIMED VALUE OF MUSIC EMPIRE	$4.7 million

400. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that while valuing the entire music empire at $4.7 million, Peter Afterman was simultaneously claiming to be an expert on "sampling" valuation in Defendants' case against Greenberg Taurig (GT) and Joel Katz, Esq.; valued the uncollected sampling revenues at more than $10 million, which he did not add to the $4.7 million; but was withdrawn as an "expert" after challenges.

401. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that the PBW valuation was indefensible, and that nobody testified to support or defend it for that reason.

The State/Attorney General's Unauthorized Suit Against Buchanan and Pope

402. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that Richland 4900 was unconstitutional, unauthorized and it was a breach of duty for Bauknight to claim to act on behalf of the AG.

403. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that Governor McMaster, Solicitor General Cook, former Chief Deputy John McIntosh confirm that there was no legal authorization for Bauknight to act as Pr/Trustee.

Forlando's Alliance With the Legacy Trust After Forlando Given Terry's ROFR

404. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that the planting of the Grammy© was intended by Forlando and Bell to defraud the Court, and did so.

405. The Court overlooked or misapprehended Forlando and Bell conducted a plan for the entire period from January 2008 until today to deceive the Court to aid in the coverup of Cannon's takings, Dallas' improper acts and his own improper acts such as the false grievances against Levenson and other acts within the record.

Bauknight's FOIA Intervention and the Legacy Trust's Claims Not to Exist

406. The Court overlooked or misapprehended The FOIA intervention and evasion which began in 2011 and continues today has benefitted the James Brown Legacy Trust and caused damage.

The AG's Felony Claims Against Buchanan and Pope

407. The Court overlooked or misapprehended The AG breached his fiduciary duty by not reviewing the Bauknight/Afterman $79 million devaluation of the James Brown music empire, which is entirely unsupported by the facts, and by then using the $4.7

million to falsely accuse Buchanan and Pope of a federal felony.

408. The Court overlooked or misapprehended Bauknight, claiming to act on behalf of the Attorney General also breached his fiduciary duty, when he had actual knowledge that the TPP could not be worth zero, or near zero, and that the TIAA debt was overstated within the appraisal.

Buchanan and Pope Did Not Need an Expert to Understand the TIAA Debt

409. The Court overlooked or misapprehended Buchanan and Pope properly managed the TIAA loan package, and were both lawyers capable of understanding it, and worked with TIAA to prevent an event of default over the Cannon $900,000 theft of 2006, and to secure a loan to begin investigation of recovery from Cannon,
410. The Court overlooked or misapprehended no income taxes were due that were appropriate to borrow from the TIAA loan until the AG shifted nearly $2 million of income to non-charities, nor were any estate taxes due from the TIAA asset until the AG's settlement was approved.

The Experts Hired in 2016 Lacked Expertise or Facts to Address Issues From 2009

411. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that none of the experts had the experience of the attempted State/Attorney General takeover of the operation of a Trust/Estate; unauthorized litigation and other fact-specific issues.
412. The Court overlooked or misapprehended the total return for the 18 months of service, in excess of $7.8 million was extraordinary in light of the interference, and the only two clearance pointed out as missed 9 years later were in periods where either the Court of Appeals or the Circuit Court had issued a stay or directive that Left Buchanan and Pope temporarily without clear authority to act.
413. The Court overlooked or misapprehended that neither accountant was shown the estate tax return and Provence lacked the skills to address the complex tax and accounting problems

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court alter, amend, reconsider and/or vacate its January 16, 2019 Order, and enter judgment in Plaintiff's favor on her claims herein as set out in her proposed order submitted on November 28, 2018. This motion is based on the entire record herein, including any memoranda and/or affidavit(s) submitted herein prior to the Court's ruling on this matter, as well as applicable case law an Rules, especially Rule 59(e).

1 WAY OR THE OTHER BETWEEN NOW AND THE TIME THAT RETURN IS 2 ACTUALLY HAS TO BE FILED IN MARCH, WE CAN FILE THAT RETURN
3 BASED ON THE COURT'S DETERMINATION.

4 THE COURT: DETERMINATION OF WHO OWNS IT?

5 MR. JACKSON: YES, OF WHO OWNS IT AS FAR AS THE JAMES
6 BROWN ENTERPRISES. THAT'S REALLY WHAT THE ISSUE IS AND 7 THE IMAGE. SO, IF WE CAN GET THAT RESOLVED, THEN THAT 8 GIVES US AS PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVES AND, YOU KNOW, THE 9 WAY TO FILE THE RETURN, AND, ALSO, IT MIGHT BE THE WAY TO 10 SIMPLIFY THIS WHOLE THING.

11 THE COURT: I AM NOT LOOKING AT A WAY TO SIMPLIFY IT.
12 I AM LOOKING AT A WAY TO DO IT RIGHT.

13 MS. LEWIS: YOUR HONOR, WE'D LIKE TO BE PERMITTED TO 14 BRIEF THE ISSUE.

15 THE COURT: WELL, YOU CAN BRIEF IT.

16 MS. LEWIS: LET ALL PARTIES BRIEF THE ISSUE
17 BECAUSE --

18 THE COURT: YOU MEAN ON HOW TO VALUE THE IMAGE AND 19 ROYALTIES AND PERSONA?

20 MS. LEWIS: NO, I'M TALKING ABOUT THE DETERMINATION
21 OF JAMES BROWN ENTERPRISES.

22 THE COURT: WE'RE BEYOND THAT, MA'AM. YOU HAVE THE 23 RIGHT TO BRIEF IT. I AM NOT MAKING ANY DETERMINATION ON 24 IT TODAY. THAT IS -- WE'RE BEYOND THAT. WE'RE TRYING TO 25 GET THE ESTATE TAX RETURN FILED. MRS. POPE IS CONCERNED

1 ABOUT HOW SHE'S GOING TO VALUE ROYALTIES, IMAGE, NAME, AND 2 PERSONA WHICH THERE'S NOT A WHOLE LOT OF PRECEDENT ON HOW 3 TO DO IT.

4 SO, MRS. POPE, I AM GOING TO GO ALONG WITH YOUR 5 SUGGESTION UNLESS MR. LEVENSON OR MR. JACKSON CAN COME UP
6 WITH A BETTER PROPOSAL.

7 MR. JACKSON: WELL, I DON'T WANT TO SAY HOW MUCH IT
8 WOULD COST. WE DO HAVE A FIGURE WITH SOMEBODY COMPETENT
9 TO DO THAT AND I DON'T MIND --

10 THE COURT: WELL, DISCUSS IT WITH HER.

11 MR. JACKSON: I WILL. I THINK THAT --

12 MRS. POPE: WELL, THEY DID, YOUR HONOR, AND WE PUT IN 13 THERE THAT IT COULD COST 50 TO $100,000 THAT, HONESTLY,
14 AND --

15 THE COURT: TO VALUE THE PERSONAL NAME --

16 MRS. POPE: NO, NO, NO --

17 THE COURT: AND ROYALTIES?

18 MRS. POPE: YEA, THE ROYALTIES, NAME, AND PERSONA AND 19 WE BELIEVE BECAUSE OF THE UNIQUE FACTS HERE -- AND WE'VE 20 SAID THAT THE P.R.'S SHOULD BE REQUIRED TO SIT DOWN WITH 21 US AND WRITE OUT A DETAILED FINANCIAL AND FACTUAL HISTORY
22 SO THAT I.R.S. WILL UNDERSTAND ALL THE CONTROVERSY AND ALL
23 THE FACTS KNOWN. VALUATION OF ROYALTIES AND PERSONA IS 24 VERY FACT-SPECIFIC AND THERE ARE JUST SO MANY FACTS. TO 25 HIRE A NEW YORK LAWYER NOW A MONTHS AFTER THE TAX RETURN

1 IS DUE IS --

2 THE COURT: I AM NOT GOING TO HIRE A NEW YORK LAWYER.
3 WE GOT ENOUGH LAWYERS NOW.

4 MRS. POPE: SO, WE'RE HOPING THAT THIS WILL SAVE
5 $50,000 TO $100,000, BUT IF ANYBODY HAS A BETTER IDEA,
6 WE'D LOVE IT.

7 THE COURT: MRS. POPE, I WANT YOUR IDEA YOU
8 SUGGESTED. YOU CAN SHARE IT WITH MR. JACKSON. Y'ALL GET 9 ME SOME TYPE OF PROPOSAL. WE GOT THANKSGIVING NEXT WEEK.
10 WHAT WOULD BE FAIR TO YOU?

11 MRS. POPE: I CAN TALK TO HIM AFTER THE HEARING.
12 TODAY. I MEAN, THIS IS IMPORTANT, YOUR HONOR. I MEAN --

13 THE COURT: REPORT BACK TO ME ON TUESDAY.

14 MR. JONES: YOUR HONOR, CAN WE BE INCLUDED IN THAT, 15 ALSO?

16 THE COURT: ABSOLUTELY, AS WELL AS MS. LEWIS AND SHE 17 CAN BRIEF IT IF SHE'D LIKE. I AM NOT CUTTING YOU OFF, 18 MA'AM. YOU'RE GOING TO BE PROTECTED ON THAT ISSUE. THAT 19 IS A BIG ISSUE IN THE CASE. WE'RE NOT DECIDING --

20 MS. LEWIS: I GUESS WHAT I AM TRYING TO SAY TO YOU IS 21 THAT THERE IS A DECISION LYNCH VERSUS LYNCH THAT IS RIGHT
22 ON POINT WHICH AS A MATTER OF LAW WOULD ESTABLISH THAT 23 JAMES BROWN ENTERPRISES IS IN THE TRUST AND ONCE THE COURT
24 SEES THAT -- AND THERE ARE CASES THAT HAVE FOLLOWED IT..
25 ONCE YOU SEE THAT, THEN THE QUESTION TO DECIDE IS WHAT IS

1 IN JAMES BROWN ENTERPRISES AND I AM ASKING THE COURT TO 2 RULE ON THE ISSUE BEFORE WE GET WAY ON DOWN THE ROAD. IT
3 ISN'T A DIFFICULT ONE --

4 THE COURT: WELL, I MAY.

5 MS. LEWIS: -- AS A MATTER OF LAW. AND I'LL BRIEF IT
6 FOR YOU.

7 THE COURT: AND I'M SURE THAT MR. ROSEN AND MR.
8 BABCOCK AND OTHERS ARE GOING TO DISAGREE WITH YOU, BUT 9 YOU'LL BE PROTECTED. I AM NOT GOING TO DO IT TODAY.
10 OKAY? YOU ARE PROTECTED.

11 MR. MEDLIN: YOUR HONOR, WE HEAR YOU, BUT I MIGHT 12 JUST SAY TO THE ATTORNEY GENERAL FROM GEORGIA THERE IS A 13 DIFFERENT OPINION ABOUT WHAT THAT CASE MIGHT DO AND WHAT 14 THE LAW IN SOUTH CAROLINA MIGHT DO.

15 THE COURT: IT SHOCKS ME THAT WE HAVE TWO DIFFERENT
16 OPINIONS.

17 MR. MEDLIN: I THOUGHT SO.

18 THE COURT: I'LL BET IT SHOCKS EVEN THE LAWYER FROM 19 GEORGIA -- OUR ESTEEMED LAWYER FROM GEORGIA.

20 THE COURT: ALL RIGHT. MRS. POPE, WE'LL TALK ABOUT 21 THE ROYALTIES, IMAGE, NAME, AND PERSONA ON TUESDAY AND 22 COME TO SOME CONCLUSION ON THAT. WHAT ELSE?

23 MRS. POPE: OUR RECOMMENDATIONS WITH RESPECT TO THE 24 TANGIBLE PERSONAL PROPERTY WAS SENT IN PRIOR TO RECEIVING
25 MR. LEVENSON'S. SO, WE WOULD PREFER TO JUST SIT AND

REMOVE FIDUCIARIES. WE'RE UNANIMOUS AS MR. WILKINS POINTED OUT ON THIS ISSUE. WE DO NOT WANT THEM TO BE FIDUCIARIES AND IF THEY PREVAIL -- IF THEY WIN ON APPEAL AND THEN WE GO BACK AND TRY THOSE WILL AND TRUST CONTESTS AND THEY WIN THOSE AND WE TRY THE OMITTED SPOUSE AND THE ELECTIVE SHARE AND THE PRETERMITTED CHILD CONTEST AND THEY WIN THOSE, THEN EVERYTHING GOES TO THE CHARITY WHICH YOU BELIEVE ACCORDING TO YOUR ORDER AND WE BELIEVE ACCORDING TO LAW THAT'S EXISTED SINCE THE BEGINNING OF COMMON LAW IN MY ESTIMATION THE ATTORNEY GENERAL HAS THE AUTHORITY TO REPRESENT THE CHARITIES IN THAT CASE.

THE ATTORNEY GENERAL DOESN'T WANT THEM. EVEN IF THEY WIN ALL THE WAY OUT, THE ATTORNEY GENERAL WOULD BE THE LAST PERSON STANDING AND THE ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OFFICE DOES NOT WANT THEM AS FIDUCIARIES.

DALLAS AND BRADLEY HAD EVEN A BETTER ARGUMENT THAN THEY DO WHICH, AGAIN, I REFUTE. I DON'T WANT DALLAS AND BRADLEY TO MAKE THE ARGUMENT AND I WILL ARGUE AGAINST IT. THEY ONLY RESIGNED. POPE AND BUCHANAN WERE REMOVED. THAT'S A MORE COMPELLING REASON TO SAY THAT THEY SHOULD NOT REMAIN. WE ASKED FOR YOU TO REMOVE THEM. MR. BROWN DIDN'T EVEN KNOW THEM. AT LEAST HE KNEW DALLAS AND BRADLEY. NOW, OF COURSE, WE TOOK THE POSITION -- SOME OF THE SETTLING PARTIES TOOK THE POSITION THAT THEY UNDULY INFLUENCED MR. BROWN TO GET THERE, BUT AT LEAST THEIR

Statement of Mr. Wingate

1 MR. WINGATE: May it please the Court, Your
2 Honor. Ken Wingate along with my partner, Rhett
3 Kendall.

4 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

5 MR. WINGATE: And we are before you today in 6 connection with the Irrevocable Charitable Trust
7 established by the entertainer James Brown.

8 As Your Honor is aware from the pleadings,
9 our firm represents the 15 or so Plaintiffs listed on 10 the caption of the case which include globally all of 11 the beneficiaries of this Irrevocable Trust, both the 12 charitable and private individuals.

13 I would ask that Your Honor -- well, first,
14 let me introduce -- we're here representing, as you're 15 aware from the caption, an array of folks. I believe 16 Your Honor knows Sonny Jones ---

17 THE COURT: Yes.

18 MR. WINGATE: --- an attorney with the South
19 Carolina Attorney General's office, one of our 20 clients. Also we represent Russell Bauknight who is 21 very critically, Your Honor, the professional Trustee
22 of this Trust. I'll just come back and address that 23 in a moment. His counsel, Freddie Kingsmore is here
24 with us today. And then one of the family members,
25

1 Deanna Brown Thomas, daughter of James Brown, with her
2 husband ---

3 THE COURT: Let help me you all out. It
4 might be logistical. We all work, we come to work
5 early, we stay late sometimes. But we all eat in the 6 middle of the day. And about 1:00 I'm going to eat.
7 So this is the problem, it's a real one. You want to 8 stop now and come back after lunch?

9 MR. WINGATE: Let's stop now and come back --- 10

11 THE COURT: Okay. Well, you know, I just -- 12 it's just practical. It's a practical problem.

13 MR. WINGATE: Sure.

14 THE COURT: I'm going to eat, y'all need to 15 eat regardless of this case or anything else. Let's
16 stop now. I start back at 2 anyway, so.

17 MR. WINGATE: Perfect.

18 THE COURT: I've got other things scheduled
19 but we'll pick up with you guys at 2. That will be 20 the best way to do it, in my opinion. We'll break for 21 lunch, come back at 2.

22 All right, thank you all.

23 MR. WINGATE: Thank you, Your Honor.

24 (The Court was in recess.)

25 THE COURT: All right, Mr. Wingate.

1 MR. WINGATE: Thank you, Your Honor, please
2 the Court. I'll just sort of briefly start over. My
3 name is Ken Wingate. I'm here with my partner, Rhett
4 Kendall. And together we represent the 15 or so
5 Plaintiffs, Your Honor, in this Charitable Irrevocable
6 Trust action.

7 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

8 MR. WINGATE: I was starting to say before
9 the lunch break that some of the clients are here. Of 10 course Russell Bauknight, the Trustee, is the 11 principal Plaintiff. His separate counsel, Freddie
12 Kingsmore is with us today. I believe Your Honor
13 knows Sonny Jones with the South Carolina Attorney
14 General's office.

15 THE COURT: Clemson class of '70? Was it
16 '70?

17 MR. JONES: 70, yes, sir.

18 MR. WINGATE: That's why he's behind ---

19 THE COURT: I understand.

20 MR. WINGATE: --- Your Honor. And also 21 Deanna Brown Thomas, the daughter of James Brown is 22 with us with her husband ---

23 THE COURT: I noticed she smiled when I said
24 Bewildered, The Apollo 1963 Live. Go ahead.
25

1 MR. WINGATE: Well noted. Your Honor, we knew
2 that exactly what did happen right before the lunch
3 break would nappen.

4 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

5 MR. WINGATE: And that is there'd be a whole
6 big bowl of spaghetti, all these lawsuits that have
7 been filed, whip them up, stir them up, mix them up,
8 throw out a quote, throw out a pleading, throw out a
9 caption and try to confuse the matter and say only
10 Jack Early could possibly sort through this mess.

11 This is real simple, Your Honor. There are 12 two different things. There is the Last Will and 13 Testament of James Brown. This is in Aiken County in 14 the Probate Court -- well actually it's in Circuit
15 Court in Jack Early's hands.

16 This, Your Honor, is the 2000 Irrevocable
17 Charitable Trust of James Brown which was created as a 18 separate entity prior to his death which was 2000, he 19 died December of '06. Was funded prior to his death
20 and is an entirely separate entity. And what we're 21 here for, Your Honor, we're going to sort of split
22 things. As you heard before lunch, counsel has been 23 arguing both on their Motion to Dismiss the 24 Plaintiffs' Complaint ---
25

1 THE COURT: And venue, right.

2 MR. WINGATE: --- and the transfer of venue
3 and have said that they all sort of tie together.
4 Well, that's again part of this stirring up a bowl of 5 spaghetti, just trying to make it all sound too
6 complex. It really is a pretty straightforward
7 analysis.

8 We submitted, Your Honor, on Friday, a brief
9 -- and I would just point out that at the bottom of 10 page 2 and at the bottom of page 3 are two different
11 diagrams of the estate plan of James Brown. And it
12 really helps to show the flow of things.

13 THE COURT: I don't know whether it's made it
14 to the file, let me double check. Do you have an extra
15 copy?

16 MR. WINGATE: I don't -- I have one that's 17 got a highlight on it if you don't mind that.

18 THE COURT: If they don't mind. Y'all have a
19 copy of this, don't you?

20 MR. WATSON: Yes, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: And at the bottom of page 2, Your 22 Honor, is the estate plan which shows the Will, the 23 document I showed you just a second ago, that's over 24 there in Aiken, which pours over or gives the assets
25

1 upon James Browns' death to his Irrevocable Trust.
2 And then that Irrevocable Trust splits into two parts,
3 fifty percent of it was the I Feel Good Trust, a
4 Charitable Trust for the education of students in 5 South Carolina and Georgia, and then the other fifty
6 percent for his family.

7 During the course of the last several years
8 of litigation which has gotten so much attention,
9 there was a settlement that was achieved, Your Honor,
10 and this global settlement that brought all 15 of 11 these people together on this caption into one group, 12 rewrote the estate plan, rewrote the terms of the 13 Trust. And the revised Trust is what Your Honor sees 14 on page 3, the second diagram that's at the top of 15 that chart.

16
17 THE COURT: All right.

18 MR. WINGATE: And again, Your Honor, you see
19 that Will just sits over there in Aiken. The Estate
20 administration is over in Aiken. But the Settlement
21 Trust, the Charitable Trust that receives the 22 royalties, the intangible assets, the intellectual 23 property of James Brown, is then administered in 24 Richland County, South Carolina by Russell Bauknight,
25 the Trustee, for the purpose of, as you see on that

1 chart, a Charitable Trust that remains for education
2 purposes, why the South Carolina Attorney General is 3 in this case as one of our client Plaintiffs, and is 4 about ---

5 THE COURT: The AG, they came in by agreement
6 by everybody, the AG ---

7 MR. WINGATE: That is correct, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: As it says here, sole authority
9 to remove and replace Trustees, is that fair enough?
10

12 THE COURT: Everybody?

13 MR. WILLIAMS: That is, as I ---

14 THE COURT: That's what it says.

15 MR. WILLIAMS: As I understand it, that is 16 what the -- what is provided in the Settlement
17 Agreement. That is not what was provided in the 18 original estate plan ---

19 THE COURT: Okay.

20 MR. WILLIAMS: -- of Mr. Brown.

21 THE COURT: That's good enough. That's good
22 enough.

23 MR. WILLIAMS: Just so you know.

24 THE COURT: Okay.

25 MR. WILLIAMS: It's not completely accurate.

Deposition Designations of Roger Miller

1 and unique ways of monetizing copyrights.

2 My team and I, while there, consummated over 100
3 transactions. Most were acquisitions and most were direct
4 from the creators of the -- or the creators heirs.

5 Q Okay. And during those transactions you would do
6 these type of valuations analysis in order to decide on 7 value, price, all of that?

8 A Correct.

9 MR. SILVERNAIL: And that's all from this witness.

10 THE COURT: Anything that you want to put in?

11 MR. WILLIAMS: No, Your Honor, we didn't cross
12 designate.

13 Just for the record, this is our expert witness who 14 will come to trial next week.

15 THE COURT: What if we get to him this week?

16 Never mind. Go ahead. Next witness, please.

17 MR. BUNDY: Your Honor, the next deposition would 18 be the deposition excerpts of James B. Richardson.

19 For the record, Your Honor, this is the deposition
20 excerpts of the deposition of James B. Richardson, taken by 21 the defendant on March 3rd, in Columbia, South Carolina, of 22 2016.

23 THE COURT: 3/3/16.

24 MR. WILLIAMS: Yes, sir. March 3, 2016.

25 THE COURT: Anita, you got that one?

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 chair. State your full name, spelling your last, please.

2 MR. BUNDY: Your Honor, would it be okay if I
3 examine Ms. Pope standing here?

4 THE COURT: Absolutely. We don't have a jury. I
5 don't care.

6 MR. BUNDY: Thank you, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: You may begin.

8 THE WITNESS: Adele Jeffords Pope, P-O-P-E.

9 DIRECT EXAMINATION

10 BY MR. BUNDY:

11 Q Ms. Pope, where do you live?

12 A Newberry, South Carolina.

13 THE COURT: Hang on a second. I can't hear even 14 here and I'm sitting right here.

15 MR. BUNDY: Why don't you turn to him.

16 THE COURT: My court reporter can't hear.

17 Do we have the microphones on?

18 THE CLERK: The system doesn't work, Your Honor.
19 We've got to get a new one. It hasn't worked in a long
20 time.

21 THE COURT: Ms. Pope, I always can hear you when 22 you're sitting down at the counsel table.

23 THE WITNESS: I'm not going to respond to that,
24 Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: Well, I meant that -- I meant you have

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 a strong voice. I can't hear you sitting right here.
2 Neither can my court reporter. Just speak up a little bit.

3 BY MR. BUNDY:

4 Q If you would, give us your address. Where do you
5 live, Ms. Pope?

6 A 1228 Walnut Street, Newberry, South Carolina.

7 Q And a brief description of your educational 8 background.

9 A I went mostly to Columbia, South Carolina public
10 schools. I went to what is now Mary Baldwin University in 11 Stanton, Virginia, spending a year in Spain.

12 I then taught for a number of -- for a couple of 13 years and had other jobs and went to the University of 14 Virginia and obtained a MAT in Spanish, which had been my 15 undergraduate major. And then I taught some more.

16 And then I went to the University of South Carolina
17 Law School and graduated, and I finished law school. I had 18 taught in Columbia for a number of years and then I
19 finished law school in 1974 and then in the 80's I went 20 back to the University of Miami in Coral Gables, Florida,
21 and obtained an LLM in estate planning.

22 Q And if you would, give us a description of your 23 work history to today's date, please.

24 A As I mentioned, I was a teacher for many years
25 before I became a lawyer and after graduating from law

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 school I had had a wonderful clerking experience. I had 2 been the law clerk for Robert Wilkins, Gene Bissell, and
3 Albert Moses, all in the same law firm. But when I
4 graduated they did not have an opening at their office and 5 I was unable to find another job.

6 So I went to American Bank and Trust and was a
7 trust officer for a year, but not for American because 8 American failed just after I got there and was bought by 9 another bank. And as you could imagine, the trust business
10 was not very vibrant after the bank had failed, so the 11 ERISA, the Employee Retirement Income Security Act had just 12 passed and American Bank of Orangeburg had a pension plan.

13 So I actually spent that year closing down the 14 American Bank pension plan. It was one of the first in the 15 nation to come under the newly created pension benefit
16 guarantee corporation. So that was a unique, but 17 interesting experience.

18 Then I was hired the following -- I was a trust 19 officer there. And then I was hired the following year by 20 the McKay Firm and essentially stayed with the McKay firm
21 and successors to the McKay Firm where I had worked as a
22 clerk for many years until the 90's and in the early 90's,
23 I became a sole practitioner and have been --

24 Q What was the nature of your legal work while you
25 were with the McKay -- at that time period?

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 A Well, because I was there with Bob Wilkins and Gene
2 Bissell, and Al Moses, all of whom were estate planning
3 gurus -- and at least one continues to be -- that was main
4 focus. After I went to Miami, I began doing -- began
5 looking a lot at fiduciary litigation. I did do fiduciary
6 litigation before going to Miami, but after going to Miami,
7 I really began to have a special interest in complex
8 fiduciary litigation because my, I guess my talent lay in 9 being less afraid of controversy than in estate planning
10 and administration lawyers and more willing to accept 11 complexity than many litigators. So I felt that was the 12 right fit for me and that really is the road that I've 13 taken since.

14 Q And when you went into private practice in the 15 90's, did you continue that same work?

16 A I did. One -- in fact, one of my first events
17 after leaving the McKay Firm was to continue to work with 18 members of the McKay Firm and virtually every other 19 fiduciary litigator in the state on the Boyce matter, which 20 was a very complex case that involved a charity, litigation
21 in several counties, and, and reaching a long-term solution
22 that resulted -- a complex solution that resulted in a gift
23 by a family member, who was actually a nonparty to the 24 litigation of a third of Waites Island to Coastal Carolina
25 and certain donations and all the transactions, which I'm

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 happy to say have held up fairly well for about 30 years.

2 Q How long have you been a member of the South
3 Carolina Bar?

4 A I joined the bar in 1974.

5 Q Okay. You're in good standing in the South
6 Carolina Bar?

7 A I am.

8 Q And are you -- have you obtained any certifications
9 or specialties, licensure, or recognitions?

10 A I don't have any now. I did for many -- I was, for 11 many years a specialist in estate planning and probate law.
12 But after I became involved in James Brown -- we had an 18
13 hours of continuing legal education each year and the 14 probate bar, this particular group had, in my opinion, not 15 advanced far enough to understand how important copyrights
16 were going to become to estate planners and I wanted to 17 spend my study time and my education time on the 18 relationship between probate law and copyright law; and 19 they wouldn't give me credit for it.

20 And so I just -- I didn't need the certification
21 for what I was doing, so I discontinued it.

22 Q How about professional organizations, either
23 statewide or national, that you either have been or are a
24 member of related to trusts and estates?

25 A Well, I -- I was for a long time a member of the

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 American College of Trust and Estate Counsel, which had
2 another name before and I think I might have been the
3 vice-president of estate. I dropped out of that, so -- a
4 few years back.

5 Again, I -- I love that organization, but it was 6 just time to drop out, it was kind of intensive.

7 Q Have you ever testified as an expert witness in the 8 State Courts of South Carolina?

9 A I have been designated and I've consulted and I
10 have given a deposition, I don't believe I have testified
11 -- if I have, it's been a good while.

12 MR. BUNDY: Your Honor, I would offer Ms. Pope as 13 an expert in trust and estate law and probate law in South
14 Carolina.

15 MR. WILLIAMS: Your Honor, Ms. Pope is a fact
16 witness in this case. I cannot understand how she could 17 possibly serve as an expert witness in the case. We 18 object, Your Honor.

19 THE COURT: Can you show me some case law where 20 it's allowed that the plaintiff or the moving party
21 attempting to prove her commissions being, being able to 22 render opinion testimony as an expert in her own case?
23 I've been doing this a long time. If I were aware of that,
24 I would be happy --

25 MR. BUNDY: Well, Your Honor, I don't necessarily

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 intend to offer her has an expert on the ultimate facts.

2 What I would offer her has an expert on is to explain and
3 give her opinion as a trust and estate lawyer, why she did
4 certain things and explain it from that standpoint.

5 I mean, we've got a mixed question here. She made
6 decisions during the process of her service that were based 7 upon her knowledge as a trust and estate lawyer and I think
8 she'd have to give an opinion or explain why she made 9 certain decisions, which in effect would be an opinion, an 10 expert opinion or a legal opinion.

11 THE COURT: Well, she can't give a legal opinion, I 12 don't think.

13 MR. WILLIAMS: Your Honor --

14 THE COURT: But she can certainly -- go ahead.

15 MR. WILLIAMS: No --

16 THE COURT: Go ahead.

17 MR. WILLIAMS: Your Honor, expert witnesses are 18 supposed to be neutral; experts in a given field that look
19 at the facts through clean eyes and then render opinions
20 that help assist the Court understand issues beyond the 21 regular factual issues; understand expert issues. Your 22 Honor, necessarily an expert cannot be an advocate which is 23 what Ms. Pope is.

24 THE COURT: Well but, obviously, she has been a
25 seasoned member of the bar since 1974. She has been -- her

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 entire practice has been surrounding estate work in one
2 capacity or another and obviously I'm going to let her give
3 an opinion, do you have an opinion within a reasonable
4 degree of estate planning that so and so and so and so and 5 so and so was the right thing in this case.

6 Obviously, she can testify about what she did as an 7 estate lawyer in her practice for 43 years and it's -- 8 she's going to have to be able to explain what she did and 9 I don't know if that's an expert opinion; that's just her
10 telling us what she did. I'm not going to let her opine on 11 the ultimate issues of the facts, but she can tell us what 12 all she did, why she did it.

13 Sometimes, obviously, she was complying with this 14 code and this section in this case, but I'll just monitor
15 it very closely.

16 I'm not going to let her get up here and testify
17 like an expert would with a jury. Do you have an opinion
18 that so and so breached the standard of care. That's not 19 where we are. She's just going to testify to what she did.
20 Obviously, she's been doing this type of work a long time;
21 and obviously she'd be able to allow her training and 22 experience and her education to answer these questions.

23 Whether or not that's -- I understand she's highly 24 qualified in estate planning. Let's move along and if we 25 get to an opinion-type question that you feel like is

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 objectionable I'll -- please stand up and object and if I
2 feel like it's going too far, I will mention it.

3 MR. BUNDY: Thank you, Your Honor.

4 THE WITNESS: Mr. Bundy, could you correct an 5 answer?

6 BY MR. BUNDY:

7 Q Yes, you may.

8 A I'm sorry. I have -- I have served as a testifying
9 expert. I apologize.

10 Q That's fine.

11 A It was in -- before Your Honor in the action to 12 approve the settlement which became the subject of McMaster
13 versus Dallas. I apologize I didn't remember and I was 14 acknowledged and admitted to give expert testimony in the 15 seven days of settlement hearings in 2009 and there were no
16 objections to my being qualified and speaking as an expert.

17 I'm sorry, I forgot that.

18 THE COURT: There's no objection and I certainly -- 19 the Court does not object. In fact, I find you to be 20 highly and well qualified in this area. Whether or not you
21 will be able to give opinion testimony to certain
22 situations, if asked, we'll just have to cross that bridge
23 when the question is asked.

24 You may proceed.

25 MR. BUNDY: Thank you, Your Honor.

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 BY MR. BUNDY:

2 Q Ms. Pope, I'd like to talk a minute about your
3 education and experience and research and knowledge
4 regarding federal copyright termination.

5 Can you tell us what your work has been in that
6 area and your experience, please.

7 A Yes. I first learned about the Federal Copyright
8 Act, Termination Rights Provision when I was given a book
9 after I became a special administrator in the -- for the 10 estate of James Brown in 2007. It was a book about the 11 music business and it had a very small chapter on what was 12 then called Termination and Recapture. There was a certain 13 recapture provision that's now no longer in play that was 14 in play then.

15 And I began to read and studying about termination
16 rights. I -- at the time I was only the special
17 administrator. After Judge Robert Buchanan and I became 18 PR's of James Brown's estate and trustees under his 2000
19 trust in November of 2007, I -- we engaged an entertainment
20 lawyer whose name was Ray Gonzales.

21 He's now the head of Warner Music in Los Angeles
22 and it is interesting that at the time there was so little 23 national conversation, I think I'd say about copyright
24 termination rights, that --

25 Q Could I interrupt you and ask you to just briefly

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 explain copyright -- what are copyright -- what is this
2 whole issue of copyright termination about?

3 A Well, there's certain rights under Section 203 and
4 304 of the Copyright Act which allow a -- an artist, let's
5 say James Brown, if he were alive today, there are actually 6 two regimes under the Federal Copyright Act. One is the 7 56-year regime, which applies to copyrights prior to 1978;
8 and there's the 35-year regime which applies to copyrights
9 after -- 1978 and later.

10 And, of course, James Brown had copyrights which 11 spanned from 1956 until his death on December 25th of 2006.

12 And the idea behind termination rights was a
13 decision by Congress that after a certain period of --
14 well, let me begin: That when a young artist writes a song
15 and he -- he's able to copyright that song and let's say he 16 never had any experience in the world, so he presents his 17 song to the publishing company and he is wholly dependent
18 on the publishing company. There's not an equal bargaining
19 position, and he will do anything to get his song
20 published. And so acknowledging the unequal bargaining
21 position, Congress determined that at a certain point,
22 either the publishing company has gotten enough out of it
23 that they need to make a new deal with the poor guy who 24 gave them whatever they wanted 35 or 56 years earlier; or 25 if they're not going to use his copyright, let him have it

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 back and try to find someone else who will help him with 2 his deal.

3 So -- so had James Brown been alive today, starting
4 in 2012 -- a small number of his American, U.S. copyrights
5 would begin to be subject to termination rights in the year
6 2012. And those termination rights would slowly mature
7 over the next 80 years or more. And they're many, many,
8 exceptions. It's extraordinarily complicated, but what I
9 had learned, learned -- began to learn in 2008 and learned
10 fairly well by about 2011, was that for charities, which 11 hold copyrights, and this was the case with Ray Charles;
12 and that is the case with James Brown, who left the bulk of 13 his fortune to his "I Feel Good" Charity, that, that there
14 are strategies by which a charity can look at the 15 provisions of the Federal Copyright Act, including the 16 definitions of heirs under the Federal Copyright Act which 17 is entirely different from the state procedure.

18 And they can develop strategies, not only with the 19 heirs, but with the publishers to minimize the impact, the 20 impact being the loss of copyright royalties, by, by the 21 attempted exercise by heirs of termination rights as to the 22 American copyrights. There are many exceptions.

23 There's -- again, not much was known way back by 24 about 2010, there was an article called, Nine Ways to Avoid 25 Copyright Terminations. And by 2012, what was happening is

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 this termination rights issue was called a coming storm
2 because it was coming and nobody was looking at it.

3 And so in 2011, I did write an article with William
4 Jeffrey Smith, Jeff Smith, who is a graduate of Clemson and 5 Georgetown Law Center and a former patent attorney who -- 6 he and I got together and wrote an article that was 7 entitled --

8 MR. WILLIAMS: Your Honor, may I enter an objection
9 for the discussion of copyrights, termination rights. It's 10 nonresponsive. We've discussed that we're going to allow 11 Ms. Pope, an accomplished estate and trust lawyer, to 12 discuss the estate and trust matters. We've gone beyond
13 that.

14 THE COURT: Well, he asked the question, what is 15 copyright -- I'll allow it.

16 THE WITNESS: So at this point in 2011, I had 17 learned certain things about James Brown and I became 18 concerned; and really I knew in the probate world, probate
19 lawyers were not really facing the issue yet and it was 20 becoming an issue nationwide.

21 Every charity in America that owns a copyright is 22 going to have this problem at some point.

23 BY MR. BUNDY:

24 Q And in the earlier testimony today from Mr. Miller,
25 he discussed or referred to the Factor of 20. How does

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 that relate to copyright termination if at all?

2 MR. WILLIAMS: Objection, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: Hold on.

4 MR. WILLIAMS: It calls for an expert opinion.

5 MR. BUNDY: Well -- and I will withdraw the 6 question.

7 Your Honor, at this time, I move to have Ms. Pope
8 qualified as an expert in copyright termination law as it
9 relates to trust and estates and charitable organizations.

10 THE COURT: I'm going to let her testify based on 11 her experience as an estate lawyer since 1974. And I won't 12 allow her to testify about some other expert, what his 13 ratio meant. They could have asked him that while they 14 were there, but they didn't.

15 MR. BUNDY: Well, I withdraw the question.

16 Is she qualified to give her opinion?

17 THE COURT: Yes, she's qualified to testify about 18 estate law.

19 BY MR. BUNDY:

20 Q How are copyrights typically valued? Is there a
21 methodology that is used?

22 A Well, we valued James Brown's copyrights pursuant 23 to a --

24 THE COURT: Wait a minute. Now, the question is,
25 how are they typically --

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 THE WITNESS: Well --

2 THE COURT: -- not James Brown.

3 THE WITNESS: I must rely on other experts, what
4 I've learned from other experts about how they are valued,
5 but I have come to learn, and now understand, that 6 copyrights which are solid gold, such as copyrights which 7 are of very high quality, can bring in 15 to 20 times their 8 annual royalties.

9 And for example if one's annual royalty stream were 10 $3 million, that would mean the copyrights would be worth
11 45 to 60 million or maybe more, according to some experts.
12 And that is not just a single expert, but we -- Judge
13 Buchanan and I have, have secured that sort of information
14 from --

15 BY MR. BUNDY:

16 Q We'll talk about the James Brown Estate in a moment
17 as it relates to copyright termination. I just wanted to 18 lay the -- for the record, the explanation.

19 MR. BUNDY: All right. Let's put up the screen,
20 please.

21 Your Honor, prior to your taking the bench, the 22 parties were able to agree on evidence -- on some exhibits.
23 And we have agreed that Exhibits 1 through 11 are in 24 evidence without objection, subject to Your Honor's
25 approval.

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 Exhibit 12 is offered for identification at this
2 point. I will move at a later date and lay the appropriate
3 foundation and tender it at that time.

4 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

5 Correct?

6 MR. WILLIAMS: Yes, Your Honor.

7 (Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 1, Number 2, Number 3,
8 Number 4, Number 5, Number 6, Number 7, Number 8, Number 9,
9 Number 10, Number 11 were entered into evidence.)

10 (Plaintiff's Exhibit Number 12 was marked for 11 identification.)

12 THE COURT: 1 through 12, no objection -- 1 through 13 11 no objection. 12 is an objection?

14 MR. WILLIAMS: Yes, Your Honor, and then the 15 orders, Your Honor, we -- we have filed copies sitting as 16 court records.

17 THE COURT: Thank you.

18 MR. BUNDY: Your Honor, Exhibit Number 1 is a list
19 or a compilation of certain of your orders and certain --
20 and I think 95 percent of them are yours, there may be two 21 orders from Court of Appeals. And so, what I would -- and 22 we've marked it as Exhibit 1, or Plaintiff's Exhibit 1, but 23 in fact, the only thing that really needs to be in the 24 record is the index of Plaintiff's Exhibit 1, which would 25 establish which orders we were referring to. And I just

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 thought it would make it easier for you to follow along
2 through the presentation, so that would be the --

3 THE COURT: You have a copy for me to -- a desk
4 copy while you're going through it?

5 MR. BUNDY: Yes, sir.

6 May I approach?

7 THE COURT: Certainly.

8 (The Court was given the notebook of Plaintiff's
9 Exhibit 1.)

10 MR. BUNDY: Your Honor, just if I might explain to 11 you how I'm going to proceed, it might make it easier.

12 What we have here is a timeline, Your Honor. Of 13 June -- or of January 2007 through October of 2007, which 14 constitutes Ms. Pope's service as special administrator
15 because Your Honor has already ruled on her compensation
16 for that period. So we're not going to be discussing 17 compensation.

18 These documents will come up on that screen there,
19 basically -- mostly the orders that are in the book in 20 front of you and a couple of the exhibits, the Last Will 21 And Testament of James Brown or Trust of James Brown.

22 THE COURT: So that 's January through October of 23 2007?

24 MR. BUNDY: Yes, Your Honor.

25 And then, if you would, show the next graphic,

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 please.

2 This, Your Honor, is the --

3 THE COURT: Is this a different exhibit?

4 MR. BUNDY: Yes, Your Honor, this is different,
5 demonstrative evidence. And I'll move to introduce it -- I
6 don't have boards and all that, but what I will do is print
7 out a copy or send you a -- an e-mail with this on it for 8 your use.

9 But basically this is the -- what we call
10 PR/Trustee Timeline. And what this is, is the time that is 11 covered by the -- your payment order of January 8, 2008.
12 And basically, it's just a way to keep us -- so we all sort
13 of know where we are in the time frame as we walk through 14 the testimony.

15 Basically the green, Your Honor, is the hours,
16 Ms. Pope's hours, during every month during the period that 17 relates to your order of 1/8/2008. The total represents 18 the total of the time where Ms. Pope, her compensation, as 19 well as her staff.

20 So this is in hours graph, this is the total
21 dollars that includes hours that are not included on here
22 because they're not Ms. Pope's hours, they're her staff's 23 hours.

24 THE COURT: And what date does that cover, please?

25 MR. BUNDY: This covers, Your Honor, from November

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 20, 2007 until May --

2 THE WITNESS: 26th.

3 MR. BUNDY: May 26th, 2009.

4 THE COURT: For the record, the significance of 5 those -- that span of time from 11/27 to 5/26/09 represents 6 what?

7 MR. BUNDY: It represents the time that was -- was 8 the PR/trustee because the May 26th date, I believe, is the 9 date that I believe that your order replaced her as 10 PR/trustee.

11 THE COURT: My order speaks for itself.

12 All right. And is there a figure on that?

13 MR. BUNDY: Yes, Your Honor. The number is --

14 THE COURT: A million, 473?

15 MR. BUNDY: Well, the dollar amount?

16 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

17 MR. BUNDY: The dollar amount is $1,473,550 plus 8,
18 three-quarter percent, simple interest per your order,
19 one-eighth. And that order is in Exhibit 1, which you have 20 in front of you.

21 For explanation, just so you'll know, the -- this
22 little hatched area is her time that she kept for a period
23 of time after you issued your order, so it's not -- it's 24 not included in here, but we did have those records and I
25 wanted to put them on the chart.

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 After this point in time, there -- no hours were 2 kept because --

3 THE COURT: So if I'm looking at it, I take that
4 January 2007, just -- that shows the number of hours --
5 help me explain -- explain that to me.

6 That's November '07, December --

7 MR. BUNDY: This is November 20, 2007 and she -- 8 since she was only -- she got appointed on November 20th.

9 THE COURT: Sure.

10 MR. BUNDY: That's only a partial month. So for 11 that partial month in November, she spent 50 hours.

12 THE COURT: Okay. And then for December it jumps
13 up --

14 MR. BUNDY: In December, she spent 150 hours.

15 THE COURT: I see, hours. Okay.

16 MR. BUNDY: And then, here we go to February or 17 whatever, I guess, it's almost up to 225 hours.

18 And then, of course, throughout the graph, I think
19 it's evident, based on the amount of orders that are being 20 issued and everything that's going on, which we're going to 21 explain, it makes perfect sense.

22 And this is when the settlement agreement occurred
23 and she was told to stand down. Her hours then decreased
24 somewhat because even though she still has to take care of 25 things, she's been told to stand down with regard to

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 affirmative things.

2 And then, Your Honor, of course, the settlement
3 hearings occur and then she's back attending to hearings
4 preparing for all that. So that's the --

5 THE COURT: And I assume somewhere along the line,
6 we will have a -- I say -- will there be an itemization of 7 the time or is it just, I spent 50 hours --

8 MR. BUNDY: Yes, sir. Yes, sir, that's contained
9 in Exhibit 8.

10 THE COURT: 8?

11 MR. BUNDY: Yes, sir, here it is.

12 What Exhibit 8 is --

13 THE COURT: That's one that's not objected to?

14 MR. BUNDY: Not objected to; without objection.

15 THE COURT: And Exhibit 8 would represent or be the 16 hard data that you used to establish the green part of the 17 PR/trustee timeline?

18 MR. BUNDY: That is correct, Your Honor, and 19 Exhibit 10 -- may I approach?

20 THE COURT: Absolutely.

21 MR. BUNDY: Exhibit 10, Your Honor, is the actual 22 hours that have been taken from that document, put into a
23 spreadsheet and then that was translated to that document
24 or to the chart.

25 THE COURT: And then did I understand it, a while

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 ago when you were explaining is, the green represents not
2 only Ms. Pope's time, but some of her staff?

3 MR. BUNDY: Yes, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: And that's broken down into these two,
5 10 and 8.

6 MR. BUNDY: Yeah. The staff time -- yeah, I'm not 7 sure the staff time is broken out in that document.

8 THE COURT: But will --

9 MR. BUNDY: But we'll be discussing it and Ms. Pope
10 will explain --

11 THE COURT: Sure.

12 MR. BUNDY: -- will explain that.

13 THE COURT: There's no objection to 8, 10 and 1, so 14 far?

15 MR. WILLIAMS: No, Your Honor.

16 THE COURT: Okay. I granted summary judgment when 17 we were here recently and that amount was what?

18 MR. BUNDY: Yes, sir --

19 THE COURT: Do you remember what the exact amount 20 was?

21 MR. BUNDY: It was 40 --

22 MR. NEWSOME: It was $47,000 and some change, but 23 the interest roughly doubles the amount.

24 THE COURT: Plus interest.

25 MR. NEWSOME: Right, to be kind of specific.

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 MR. BUNDY: And that was based on, obviously, her
2 commission during -- as special administrator and trustee.

3 THE COURT: But that's not included --

4 MR. BUNDY: That's not included in this. And 5 that's why the previous screen, the previous graphic,
6 doesn't have those dollar amounts under it. Because this
7 is the -- as you see from the title, this is the Special
8 Administrator Timeline. I needed to do this and I'm going 9 to have to go through the testimony to sort of set the 10 stage for what she had to do when she was personal
11 representative and trustee.

12 THE COURT: No problem.

13 MR. BUNDY: Thank you, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: That's why it's -- that's why it's a 15 lot easier nonjury sometimes.

16 MR. BUNDY: Oh, I'm so -- I can't, you know, I
17 don't know --

18 THE COURT: We can all sit and talk just a little 19 bit.

20 MR. BUNDY: Your Honor, at this time, I would ask
21 the Court the take judicial notice of all the orders and 22 findings in Exhibit 1.

23 THE COURT: Well, I mean, obviously, they're my 24 orders.

25 MR. BUNDY: Yes, sir. Pursuant -- I've got to lay

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 -- I've just got to do it. It's Rule 201 of the South
2 Carolina Rules of Evidence.

3 THE COURT: That says what?

4 MR. BUNDY: The -- the rule governs only judicial
5 notice of adjudicated facts. The judicially noticed fact
6 must be, one, not subject to reasonable dispute in that it
7 is generally known within the territory or jurisdiction of 8 the trial courts or capable of accurate and ready
9 determination by resources whose accuracy cannot be 10 reasonably questioned. The Court shall take judicial 11 notice as requested by a party and supplied with the 12 necessary information, Rule 201, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: All right. Any objection by anyone?

14 MR. WILLIAMS: Your Honor, we have no objection to 15 the use of them for judicial notice, but we have not -- 16 subject to our ability to, just as we go through these to 17 be sure they're actually court records. We don't challenge
18 opposing Counsel's statement, we just haven't had the 19 opportunity to run through them all.

20 MR. BUNDY: Your Honor, I will concede, I will call
21 back any document I've improperly included or anything I've 22 done improper.

23 THE COURT: You know, y'all -- when we get to the 24 end, I'll give everybody an opportunity to go through them
25 and make sure everything's in there that was represented to

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 be and if something's not, we'll discuss it. No problem.

2 MR. BUNDY: Yes, sir.

3 So judicial notice is taken of the documents in
4 Exhibit 1?

5 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

6 MR. BUNDY: Thank you.

7 BY MR. BUNDY:

8 Q All right. Ms. Pope, let's begin --

9 THE COURT: Before you go into -- you made a
10 calculation on that 8 and three-fourths on that million
11 473. Have you made a calculation on the interest?

12 MR. BUNDY: I think Ms. Pope may have. Or a rough
13 calculation.

14 THE WITNESS: Roughly, it's $123,000 a year from 15 May 26, 2009.

16 THE COURT: All right. I won't interrupt again.
17 Well, I say that. Go ahead.

18 MR. BUNDY: Thank you, Your Honor.

19 BY MR. BUNDY:

20 Q All right. Ms. Pope, if you would, tell us how you
21 became to be involved in the James Brown Estate,
22 Mr. Brown's estate?

23 A I became involved after a phone call from Alan 24 Medlin who --

25 MR. BUNDY: Talk to the judge. I can hear you

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 okay. Talk to the judge.

2 THE WITNESS: I became involved after a phone call
3 from Alan Medlin who is a lawyer and someone I knew and was 4 in the American College with, asking me to be considered as
5 a special administrator for James Brown's estate, and I
6 said that I would be considered.

7 Shortly after that, still, I believe in February of 8 2007 or perhaps early March, I received a call from Judge
9 Early's assistant setting up a telephone conference for me
10 to be interviewed. I attended a telephone conference.
11 There were a number of people on the line. I am not sure
12 exactly who they were. I know some of them, but I wasn't 13 familiar with several of them at the time.

14 And March 7th, Judge -- of 2007 -- Judge Early
15 called me and asked me -- he actually said, Are you sure
16 you want to do this and I said yes.

17 THE COURT: Again?

18 THE WITNESS: Well, if you ask me again, Your 19 Honor...

20 I said yes that it sounded interesting and Judge
21 Early said, Well, would you mind working with Bob Buchanan;
22 and I didn't know Judge Buchanan very well at the time and 23 -- but I said that I would do -- I was being asked to serve
24 at the Court's pleasure and I would do what the Court
25 wanted me to do.

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 So he said, Give Bob Buchanan a call and then call
2 me back. And so I called Judge Buchanan and what we
3 understood in that conversation was that they were asking
4 us to be special administrators and that term is not well
5 defined within the probate code. And Judge Buchanan
6 specifically said he did not want to be a fiduciary because
7 he was a sitting part-time federal magistrate and he had, I
8 believe, received permission from Judge Anderson to serve,
9 but he did not want to serve as a fiduciary.

10 BY MR. BUNDY:

11 Q Hang on one second. Let me interrupt you here and 12 ask you what the significance of serving as a fiduciary as 13 opposed to not being a fiduciary in terms of a special
14 administrator's responsibilities and duties.

15 A Well, I might best describe it by the reason I 16 didn't want to a fiduciary.

17 Q Fair enough.

18 A And that might help. A fiduciary, of course, has 19 certain responsibilities to see that a trust or estate, in 20 this case an estate, is properly managed and there were 21 already three trustees and Judge Early had found in the 22 order of February, I believe, it's 19, it shows 20 here,
23 but that was the filing date. But Judge Early had found --

24 Q Let us pull that up because we need to if we're 25 going to talk about it.

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 A Okay. Right.

2 Q This is his February 19, right?

3 A Yes.

4 Q Okay.

5 A Judge Early had found in that order that there was 6 no basis known to him at the time to support some very 7 serious allegations being made against the people who had 8 just been appointed as personal representatives under the 9 will of James Brown and had for almost 7 years been serving 10 as a trustees under his trust and there were three of 11 those; and so from my perspective, those were the people
12 who had the responsibility to be sure that the estate and 13 the trust, which was its primary beneficiary, were properly
14 managed.

15 And the rule in South Carolina is that if there are 16 fiduciaries, they act by majority. And so my perspective
17 was that Judge Buchanan and I were going to be minority
18 fiduciaries, if, in fact, we were fiduciaries at all. And 19 I was not willing to be a minority fiduciary with people 20 who were even being accused of having acted improperly for 21 7 years.

22 Q Okay. So let's go back then. So you called --

23 A Right.

24 Q -- Judge Buchanan, and how did it go from there
25 to --

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 A So --

2 Q -- to the time that you are appointed special
3 administrators?

4 A We had the first of a thousand pleasant
5 conversations and we called the judge back and we put
6 together an order, which the Court signed on February 7th
7 -- I'm sorry March 7th, 2007, which allowed us to be
8 special administrators, but carved the position so that it
9 was an oversight position.

10 And the thrust of it was that we were to keep an 11 eye on these people who were being accused of stealing,
12 burying money, hiding money and all sorts of other bad
13 things.

14 Q All right. So let's look up at the screen. I
15 think this is a February --

16 A That's the February order, and it just recites how 17 the matter came before Judge Early on two emergency
18 petitions for appointment. One was by Tommie Rae, 19 Mr. Brown's companion; and another was by six people who 20 were represented by a gentleman from Atlanta whose name is 21 Louis Levinson. And there were separate petitions for 22 emergency appointment of a special administrator.

23 Q So the -- so the people in the Brown case at this 24 time were requesting the judge appoint a special
25 administrator?

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 A They were. They were. And I understood -- I
2 understand now that I was nominated by Mr. Levinson and the 3 client -- the lawyers for Tommie Rae and that Judge
4 Buchanan had been nominated by the trustees who were being 5 attacked.

6 Q Was there any opposition to your appointment as far
7 as you know as special administrator?

8 A Not that I'm aware of.

9 Q Okay. All right. So then we move to -- in March.
10 What, if anything, occurred of significance in March that 11 might be outlined in Judge Early's order, supplemental 12 order appointing special administrators in Exhibit 1?

13 A That -- that -- I've sort of jumped ahead, but in 14 the February order Judge Early had said -- I'm sorry, in 15 the March order Judge Early says, The Court hereby appoints
16 Robert L. Buchanan, Jr. and Adele J. Pope to serve without 17 bond as special administrators of the estate of James
18 Brown, also known as James Joseph Brown; and that order set 19 the conditions, the limited, non-fiduciary conditions of 20 our appointment.

21 Q All right. Tell us what those conditions were.

22 A Well, simply oversight of the trustees and if we 23 saw something we -- that bothered us that we didn't approve
24 of, we were to report it to the Court.

25 Q Okay. So what was your first order of business as

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 a special trustee with the duty of oversight in this 2 matter?

3 A Well, the first thing we did was invite anybody who
4 wanted to talk to us to come talk to us. And I think that
5 was said on March 19th of 2007 in Columbia. Judge Buchanan
6 held court in Columbia and Florence and we would -- we 7 developed a habit of scheduling our formal meetings when he 8 was in Columbia, and our informal meetings when he was 9 driving.

10 Q Okay. So tell me about the first meeting you had 11 after you and Judge Buchanan became special administrators
12 of the Brown Estate.

13 A Well, we had invited the personal representatives
14 and trustees, and that would be Mr. Albert Dallas,
15 Mr. David Cannon, and Judge Bradley or AL Bradley, who was 16 known as Judge Bradley; and we invited them to attend.
17 They did not attend the first meeting, but -- at least one
18 of their lawyers, I believe Keith Babcock attended and 19 chatted with us a bit. Mr. Levinson came from Atlanta and 20 brought a big notebook of things. Mr. Levinson had done a
21 good little bit of investigation.

22 Q And who were Mr. Levinson's clients?

23 A Mr. Levinson's clients were the six children named 24 by James Brown in his will, some of whom may or may not be 25 children under state law.

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 Q Okay.

2 A But they were designated by James Brown in his will
3 and that was half or fewer than James Brown's real 4 children.

5 Q And who was Mr. Babcock of the Louis Babcock Firm
6 representing?

7 A Lewis and Babcock represented the then PR/trustees,
8 the Cannon PR/Trustees, Mr. Cannon.

9 Q So this was just a meeting of lawyers, no clients?

10 A You know, we didn't exclude clients. If they had 11 come, we would have been glad to meet with them.

12 Q What, if anything, did you discover at that 13 meeting?

14 A Well, we just got a lot of basic information, but 15 mostly we wanted to talk to the PR/Trustees and so we 16 scheduled a meeting for March 26th of 2007 to meet with 17 them.

18 Q Okay. And that was arranged by their lawyer, 19 presumably?

20 A Yes, Mr. Babcock was always cooperative with us.

21 Q Okay. And did, in fact, a meeting occur?

22 A Yes.

23 Q And could you tell us about that meeting?

24 THE COURT: What date was that, please?

25 THE WITNESS: I'm sorry, March 26, 2007.

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 BY MR. BUNDY:

2 Q Let me ask you first, had you ever met any of these
3 three gentlemen prior to the meeting, the trustees?

4 A No.

5 Q Okay. All right. So tell me about the meeting.
6 Who was there and what occurred.

7 A Well, Mr. Buchanan and I went, we went to the 8 office of Hull Towill Law Firm here in Aiken. And it was 9 in a small conference room and the room was full; and my 10 recollection is at the head of the table was William 11 Hammond, the trust -- I'm sorry, the tax lawyer for the 12 estate.

13 Q The tax lawyer for the estate; who hired him?

14 A The Cannon PR/Trustees.

15 Q The trustees --

16 A Right.

17 Q -- because he was their tax lawyer?

18 A Well, for the estate.

19 Q Right. Okay.

20 A And he was newly hired. He had not represented
21 James Brown in the past.

22 Q Right.

23 A Then there were the three PR/Trustees and there
24 was, I believe both Keith and perhaps a young lawyer,
25 Jonathan Harland from his firm, I'm not certain; Bill

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 Tucker, who Judge Buchanan referred to as Tuck, William
2 Tucker, who was there at the Hull Towill firm with 3 Mr. Hammond. Mr. Hammond was part of the Augusta office of 4 Hull Towill. And that might have been all. It was a
5 little kind --

6 Q Well what -- the purpose of the meeting was what?

7 A Well, we had sent them a list of things we wanted
8 to see that you would normally ask for if you were trying 9 to learn about an estate. We asked for the tax returns,
10 you know, financial statements, you know, just whatever it
11 took to get a view of what was there. Because our job
12 theoretically was to see what was there and make sure it
13 didn't take missing.

14 Q Okay.

15 A And so just tax returns, whatever was necessary to 16 learn about the assets.

17 Q Based on your experience at that time with 30 some 18 odd years, were these unusual requests to be made by 19 someone in your position?

20 A Oh, no, they were entirely appropriate.

21 Q And is it what you anticipated the judge would have 22 expected you to do?

23 A Well, that was the way I viewed my job.

24 Q All right. So how did the meeting go? What did 25 you get?

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 A Well, it was the first of a series of troublesome
2 meetings with David Cannon. He -- he was furious with me
3 before I got to the meeting and I had never met the 4 gentleman. He -- he -- his face was red and he was almost 5 fist on the table, and he said to me, You're just a spy of 6 the enemy, and I was taken aback.

7 But I said, Gosh, Mr. Cannon, I'm just trying to do
8 my job. And --

9 Q Did he tell you who the enemy was that you were the 10 spy for?

11 A Well, I got the idea that he meant Tommie Rae.

12 Q Okay.

13 A And I later came to know that he had a long and 14 tempestuous relationship with Tommie Rae.

15 Q All right. Who is Tommie Rae?

16 A Mr. Brown's companion.

17 Q Okay.

18 A And so -- so basically, we were there to see
19 documents and nobody was going to show us documents.
20 Mr. Hammond, who was a very competent tax lawyer, said that 21 the tax returns were all wrong and that he would fix them
22 and then he would show them to us, show the corrected tax
23 returns to us. And I told him I thought there was a lot to 24 be learned from incorrect tax returns and I sure would like
25 to see those so we wouldn't lose any time here.

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 Q Which tax returns was he speaking of?

2 A Well, we had sent a list that said something like,
3 give us all your tax returns and the tax returns for the 4 entities and, you know, just sort of a standard list that 5 you -- if a client is coming to your office to do a will,
6 you say bring all these things and you hope they bring
7 them, but if they don't, you talk to them anyway. And so
8 it was just kind of a standard list to determine what the 9 assets were and the income flow, of course, to --

10 Q So the upshot or the result of that meeting was 11 what?

12 A Well, the result of that meeting was that they 13 didn't show us anything and -- except -- we did sign some 14 sort of little confidentiality agreement which later blew 15 away with the wind, but that was one of the things they 16 were saying it was all confidential, so -- but we already 17 had some things from Mr. Levinson, so we were asking a
18 little bit about -- about certain things, just the little 19 tiny bit that we had learned from the week before.

20 And the -- the only thing that we took away from 21 the meeting was a publicity rights contract that James 22 Brown had entered or had entered into or appeared to have 23 entered into shortly before his death on Christmas day and 24 this was March.

25 But as I recall it was an unsigned copy. But we

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 talked about that particular contract because it was with 2 Global Gaming --

3 THE COURT: Part of what?

4 THE WITNESS: I'm sorry, it was with Global Gaming.

5 THE COURT: And you called it a confidential
6 contract?

7 THE WITNESS: Well, no -- well, not particularly,
8 it's not confidential. But --

9 THE COURT: What was it, just --

10 THE WITNESS: It was a contract drawn up by which 11 James Brown's image was going to be used on slot machines
12 and other gaming devices so that if you won he would go
13 (sound) and if you lost he would do something else.

14 THE COURT: And Ms. Pope would you tell us what he 15 would do if you won again.

16 (Laughter).

17 THE WITNESS: And so -- but what was significant
18 about that -- a couple of things was significant about 19 that. The contract, according to Mr. Cannon, because it
20 was in a gaming state, Nevada, it was going to have a 21 fairly long incubation period, but he said once the 22 incubation period was over, that he expected it to earn 23 $400,000 a quarter; and this was just for what I've just 24 described.

25 So that looked like a fairly good contract. For me

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 because I'm a trust and estates attorney, I noticed a
2 couple of things about the contract. I noticed one -- one
3 that it wasn't signed, but I understood that there was a
4 signed copy. And then I noticed that it was started before
5 his death but then got dated -- it had dates spanning his 6 death, which wouldn't be unusual because of a death, but I
7 was trying to think does this belong to the estate or to 8 James Brown.

9 And then on the edge of the contract was a little
10 thing in handwriting that I later learned was Mr. Cannon's
11 handwriting that said, Transfer the trust. And I don't 12 know why I just remember that, and that would later become 13 significant as -- because of an issue of what was in the 14 trust and what was in the estate.

15 But for that day it looked good. It looked like
16 they had lots of potential and I think maybe by then we did
17 also know about a judgment that Mr. Cannon had filed in 18 Aiken County against James Brown for $900,000 and you will 19 see that 900,000 becomes a recurring number.

20 BY MR. BUNDY:

21 Q Who filed the judgment?

22 A David Cannon.

24 A One of the trustees. And it had been filed, I

25 believe, January 4th of 2007 just days after James Brown --

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 THE COURT: January of 2007?

2 THE WITNESS: Yes, Your Honor. Just --

3 BY MR. BUNDY:

4 Q A couple of weeks after James -- Mr. Brown's death?

5 A Just -- yes, within a couple of weeks. And that
6 judgment made it appear that -- that James Brown owed
7 Mr. Cannon $900,000 and we questioned that because the 8 judgment was a -- was put into Aiken County, a Georgia
9 judgment from several years back. And it seemed strange to 10 us that that just got filed right after Mr. Brown's death.

11 THE COURT: Well, was it a domestication of a
12 Georgia judgment --

13 THE WITNESS: It was, Your Honor. But, you know we 14 asked about it and it got taken off the record. I think on 15 May 4th. So it became a nonissue.

16 BY MR. BUNDY:

17 Q So it was pretty easy to satisfy that judgment?

18 A Well, we found out later that Mr. -- in a
19 foreclosure against Mr. Brown back in the early 2000's
20 Mr. Cannon had paid off about, I think the leftover after 21 the mortgaged property had been sold. And I think he had 22 paid about $35,000 and they had assigned the judgment to 23 him. So he had, when James Brown died, filed it to make it
24 appear that James Brown owed him $900,000.

25 Q So what -- as a result, you look at the contract

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 with regard to the potential slot machine or whatever?

2 A Uh-huh.

3 Q What else did you come away with from that meeting?

4 A Well, that was pretty much it that day. Within a
5 relatively short period, we did get something that was very 6 valuable historically, but did not really help us get our 7 arms around the assets. We were given access by Mr. Tucker
8 to the complete closing package of a debt that James Brown
9 had incurred on June 4th and June 11 of 1999, to the New 10 York teachers, TIAA. And that debt would become very 11 important in the big picture even though it was -- it was 12 not -- all of those historical records were not immediately
13 important to us as people trying to figure out what he 14 owned today.

15 Q All right. How much documentation was there with 16 this package?

17 A I think there were about 925 pages and they -- they 18 were all the old publishing contracts, all the assignments
19 to TIAA, the --

20 Q Why don't you take the opportunity now and explain
21 to the Court this TIF -- TIAA bond or Pullman Bond as they 22 call it, that Mr. Pullman created and how that works,
23 please.

24 A Okay. Well, Mr. Pullman was a New York financier
25 who was very proud of his reputation and ability to create

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 sophisticated financing mechanisms. And he developed a
2 method which he thought was proprietary to him. The Court,
3 I think, later found out it wasn't, but he developed a
4 mechanism to -- for a very high net worth musician who was 5 not just a singer, but the owner of copyrights to pledge
6 future royalties from those copyrights in a -- what really
7 felt like a bond.

8 So they would pledge future royalties and someone 9 would pay the -- the -- the songwriter for the -- for the 10 use of the future royalties and -- to pay off -- the pledge
11 to pay off the bond. And so the term became -- really
12 began in the 90's and became known as either the Pullman
13 Bond, which Mr. Pullman wanted them to be called or Bowie
14 Bonds.

15 THE COURT: Spell that for me.

16 THE WITNESS: Bowie, B-O-W-I-E.

17 BY MR. BUNDY:

18 Q After David Bowie?

19 A After David Bowie, because he was one of those high 20 net worth songwriters who could -- who could pledge his 21 future royalties for --

22 Q Is this -- is this the kind of transaction that 23 Mr. Miller was referring to in his testimony regarding the 24 high value of these kinds of things and people would be 25 able to count on the return in the future?

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 A Well, I think they're only similar in the fact it
2 -- what you just said, count on a high return in the 3 future, yes. I mean, there're only, I think between maybe
4 four and seven people doing what was called Pullman Bonds.
5 Mr. Brown did them. David Bowie did them. Some country
6 group, I can't remember. But only very high --

7 THE COURT: What kind of group?

8 THE WITNESS: I'm sorry?

9 THE COURT: Country group?

10 THE WITNESS: Some country group. I -- is Crosby
11 Stills --

12 BY MR. BUNDY:

13 Q Did Hendrix do one?

14 A I don't know. I don't think so. But anyway, what 15 it is, is in 1999, Mr. Brown borrowed $26 million from the 16 New York teachers. After interest buy downs, payments for 17 Mr. Pullman, payments for everybody involved in the TIAA
18 deal, and there were about 15 New York lawyers involved, 19 Mr. Brown ended up -- and with an interest buy down -- to 20 bring it down to the low rate of, I think, 7.95 percent.

21 Mr. Brown walked away with $19 million, but he owed
22 the New York teachers $26 million, which he would pay over
23 a period of roughly, 16 to 19 years.

24 They would get in return a pledge of approximately 25 850 of his major copyrights. And there were a few that

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 remained outside, but essentially his major copyrights were 2 pledged on the TIAA debt until paid in full.

3 So of the $19 million, James Brown had, through Mr.
4 Cannon to give him credit, had negotiated way down a
5 gigantic debt to the IRS to about three point something
6 million. Mr. Brown wanted a million outright. He got 7 that. So that brought it down to 15 million and the rest
8 got taken by David Cannon.

9 Q But that's what you didn't know --

10 A Oh, no, we didn't know at that point.

11 Q Okay. So those were the documents -- and so you 12 had these 900 pages, which gave you at least some 13 indication of finances?

14 A Well, they turned out to be hugely important later,
15 but they didn't tell us what was in the estate that -- this 16 had happened in 1999. I mean they turned out to be hugely
17 important.

18 Q All right. So what was the next -- once you got 19 those documents, what occurred next in this timeline
20 regarding trying to get up to speed to do what the judge
21 had asked you to do and oversee these PR/Trustees?

22 A Well, we kept asking and we kept asking and we kept
23 being nice and asking some more and they wouldn't give us
24 anything. So I think we had a -- Judge Early had at least 25 one hearing where we sort of talked about, it really would

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 be nice to see some documents.

2 But finally, none of that worked, and Judge
3 Buchanan and I felt that we wanted to try to get along with 4 these people.

5 So we finally, in early June, I think at a hearing
6 maybe the 4th of June of 2007, we asked the Court -- we had 7 filed a motion asking the Court to give us access to the 8 documents because one argument --

9 (The document on the overhead was changed.)

10 THE WITNESS: Yeah, that would be it, June 22nd.

11 BY MR. BUNDY:

12 Q And this would be the June 22nd, 2007 order --

13 A Right --

14 Q -- referred to in the timeline and this order
15 related to access --

16 A Yeah.

17 Q -- of SA's --

18 A Yeah, and --

19 Q -- is that correct?

20 A Yes. And it says it came before Judge Early on the 21 13th. I think maybe we filed our motion on the 4th of 22 June, or early June, and then it came before Judge Early.
23 and one of the arguments that the Cannon trustees were 24 making was that you can't see things related to the trust.
25 And our position was that the trust was the sole bene -- I

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 mean the primary beneficiary of James Brown's estate and we
2 couldn't think without seeing the trust. Plus, it had been 3 in existence for many years during his lifetime.

4 So Judge Early said, It is therefore ordered,
5 adjudged, and decreed that the special administrators of 6 the estate of James Brown are hereby granted complete,
7 direct, and continuing access to all information,
8 documents, and records in any form related to the -- to 9 James Brown, the estate of James Brown, the James Brown
10 2000 Irrevocable Trust -- which was the other part of James
11 Brown's estate plan -- and all trusts created
12 thereunder -- that would be the grandchildren's trust and 13 the James Brown "I Feel Good" Charity, and any Brown
14 entities or interest, however titled.

15 And the term "Brown Entities" came from a list that 16 we had compiled just from research on the internet and 17 other places, of corporations, LLC's, things that James
18 Brown appeared to have an interest in. So by the time
19 Judge Early issued this order on June 22nd, 2007, the term
20 "Brown Entities" was a very broad term, an understood term.

21 THE COURT: And, in fact, the order listed some 12
22 entities.

23 THE WITNESS: Did we do them in that order?

24 THE COURT: Yes, ma'am.

25 THE WITNESS: Yes.

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 BY MR. BUNDY:

2 Q So you were appointed as special administrator, you
3 and Judge Buchanan, when again?

4 A March --

5 Q February--

6 A 7th.

7 Q March 7th. And it's now --

8 A June --

9 Q -- June and you have to go get an order just to get 10 the documents.

11 A We do. Although in fairness, it became clear on 12 the 13th that Judge Early was going to give us that 13 access. So starting on June 15th, the accountant started 14 sending us copies of the tax returns.

15 Q Okay.

16 A Because Buddy -- he was Buddy Dallas's accountant.
17 And when Buddy Dallas said something came to Bob and Adele,
18 it came. That was just how it was.

19 Q Okay. All right. Now, we've also got a June 22nd
20 order here related to Greenberg Traurig. Can you explain
21 this to the Court, please. This is June 13?

22 A Yes, that has a little bit of history.

23 Q Okay.

24 A Greenberg Traurig and it's premier entertainment
25 lawyer, Joel Katz had represented James Brown for many

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 years, but not in all of his transactions, in certain of 2 his transactions. And so in 2006, the year of Mr. Brown's
3 death -- excuse me, let me back up.

4 Greenberg Traurig did not represent Mr. Brown in 5 connection with the 1999 TIAA deal. So when Mr. Brown
6 walked into Greenberg Traurig, shall we say in 2006 to 7 start doing things related to the TIAA deal, it had been
8 done years earlier and he owed about, still about $20
9 million. So he came to Greenberg Traurig in 2007, he,
10 being Mr. Brown --

11 Q 2006, you mean?

12 A I'm sorry, 2006. He being Mr. Brown and the 13 entourage that went with him. And they engaged Greenberg 14 Traurig I think for a flat fee of $215,000 to refinance the 15 TIAA debt.

16 Now, at the time, Mr. Brown, so far as we can tell,
17 had no idea that the assets had taken missing, that 18 everything he had gotten before had taken missing, but 19 certain people did know that, namely the Cannon trustees.
20 So --

21 Q About to the tune of $15 million?

22 A Yeah, the whole proceeds of the debt, which he 23 still owed 20 million on had taken missing.

24 Q Okay.

25 A Okay. So he comes in still owing 19 or 20 million

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 to Greenberg Traurig and they say let's redo this debt and
2 so Greenberg Traurig, I think for a flat fee of something
3 like $212,000, agreed to do this refinance of the TIAA
4 debt. And so it was worked through the Royal Bank of 5 Scotland, RBS, and the RBS said, We will loan you
6 25,200,000 if you come up with a professional appraisal
7 that these particular assets are worth $42 million.

8 And those particular assets would have been the 850
9 copyrights that were pledged to TIAA because they were 10 going to pay off TIAA and then refinance it just like you
11 refinance your mortgage. So the appraisal got done. The 12 closing was scheduled for May 5th of 2006, and just days
13 before the closing, about May 2nd or Thursday, Mr. Pullman
14 came forward, citing a provision in his 1998 or '9 contract 15 with James Brown and said he got 12-and-a-half percent of 16 the deal.

17 Well, I mean, there was very little of the deal
18 left after paying off the -- what turned out to be about 19
19 million or 20 million to the teachers; and then they had to 20 pay off all the cost of closing. So that did the deal in.

21 So then a lawsuit began while James Brown was still 22 alive in New York State under Judge Solomons. And Judge
23 Solomons and -- Greenberg Traurig -- Greenberg Traurig and 24 Pullman were making -- or James Brown and Pullman were 25 making claims against each other about who had messed up

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 the RBS deal. And they were pretty high dollar claims and 2 counterclaims against each other.

3 And Judge Solomons had said -- and Mr. Pull -- I'm 4 sorry. Mr. Pullman was accusing Greenberg Traurig of 5 conflicts of interest and it was all very complicated. But 6 the judge had said, I'm not going to keep going with this
7 until James Brown comes in here and tells me what he wants.
8 But then James Brown died, making him unable to come in and 9 tell the judge what he wanted. So that was sort of the 10 status of it in the early part of 2007.

11 And so the question for Judge Buchanan and me was 12 should Greenberg.Traurig be defending this litigation where 13 they're being accused of wrongdoing. That was sort of the 14 gist of it; and we didn't have any reason to think anything
15 bad of Greenberg Traurig; but what happened in 16 approximately May, Greenberg Traurig said if we did not --
17 we, being Judge Buchanan and I -- if we did not approve 18 their approximately $330,000 of legal fees that were 19 outstanding and agreed that they would be paid in the 20 future, that they would not continue to be the lawyers in 21 the New York litigation.

22 And we simply were unable to know enough to 23 determine that their 300 and whatever it was thousand
24 dollars of fees were valid. So we asked for guidance from 25 Judge Early about what to do. I mean, that's exactly what

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 we had been appointed to do.

2 So we said, Gosh, this has come up. They want to
3 continue to represent in New York, but they won't continue
4 unless we, not just the trustees, but we, Judge Buchanan
5 and Adele, approve their fees.

6 And so we were unwilling -- we couldn't do that.
7 So Judge Early heard that, I believe, on the same day and 8 on the 22nd issued an order which did one administrative 9 thing. It made clear to the Court that the State would be 10 substituted for Mr. Brown himself in the litigation and 11 then he said that Greenberg Traurig would not serve and 12 then slightly surprising to Judge Buchanan and me, he said
13 that we were to find new counsel in New York. And so we 14 did. We did. We found new counsel.

15 We found Matthew Ballenger and his associate at 16 Hogan and Hartson. And they were actually in D.C., but 17 they agreed to go from D.C. -- one of them was a member of 18 the New York Bar and they agreed to travel from D.C.
19 without charge; and they were good lawyers. And I've made 20 this story too long, but there was a great result. We 21 never -- the estate never had to pay anything to Mr.
22 Pullman, who was seeking millions of dollars.

23 Q And what was the liquidity of the estate at that 24 time to pay these fees? How did you -- how were you able 25 to negotiate a fee with these Washington lawyers?

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 A Well, a little bit later we -- Judge Early approved
2 the fee contract.

3 Q Okay. All right.

4 A And agreed that it would be treated as an
5 administrative expense, which would be the highest 6 priority.

7 Q Okay. All right. Now, let's move on and -- into I
8 believe August of 2007. Just briefly, can you just give me
9 sort of the lay of the land in between the time that you
10 took care of the Greenberg Traurig issue, which ultimately 11 was resolved in favor of the estate, correct?

12 A Yeah, but after we left it.

13 Q Thank you.

14 What happened between then and let's say August?
15 What was going on during those months?

16 A Well, things moved sort of fast because --

17 THE COURT: What?

18 THE WITNESS: Things moved rather fast and so in -- 19 as soon as we got the access -- what we call the Access 20 Order, I called and scheduled a meeting to go look at 21 documents. And I believe it was on June 26th or 7th and 22 Judge Buchanan could not go that day or had other things to 23 do; and so I went to Barnwell to Mr. Cannon's office and 24 Mr. Cannon greeted me virtually the same way he had greeted 25 me earlier.

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 Q Some three months earlier?

2 A Some three months earlier in March. And he
3 basically said he didn't care what Judge Early said, he was 4 not going to let me look at the documents until -- you
5 know, he was not going to let me look at the documents.
6 And so I said, Well, you know, I've driven from Newberry,
7 but I'm certainly not going to have a fight with you.

8 So I got in my car and I drove away and I was at 9 the edge of Barnwell when I got a call from Buddy Dallas
10 and Buddy said, Would you be willing to come back and talk.
11 And I said, Oh, sh -- you know, I'm not going to stand on 12 ceremony. I'll come back if you want me to, if it will be 13 helpful. So I went back and Mr. Cannon started talking to 14 me.

15 I'm sure Buddy was there also. But he said,
16 essentially, Ms. Pope, I'm not a crook. Well, I mean --
17 so --

18 Q Had you accused him of being a crook?

19 A No, no. But I was beginning to wonder.

20 Q So that's a yes response?

21 A He said, I need to grieve the loss of my friend.
22 James Brown was my friend. And may I -- just give me over
23 the 4th of July to grieve the loss of my friend. I said,
24 why certainly. So we -- I said, we'll make an appointment
25 to come back after the 4th of July.

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 And when I left, I did not go back to Newberry. I
2 went straight to Judge Buchanan's office and I said I'm 3 never going there alone again because I know this is going
4 to be my word against Mr. Cannon's word, and I just don't 5 want to put myself in that position again.

6 So -- so, Judge Buchanan and I began trying to 7 schedule a meeting with him. Oh, and I also said, And we 8 need to go quick, because by then I knew something was 9 likely to be wrong. So Judge Buchanan and I began trying 10 to schedule, and I think we tried to schedule for July 6th,
11 and that didn't work. Finally we got to go on July 17th.

12 We later learned -- I'll just say quickly that on 13 July 10th, Mr. Cannon and Mr. Dallas had gotten documents
14 from another Atlanta law firm, Powell Goldstein, by which 15 they were going to attempt to move the situs of James 16 Brown's trust out of the State of South Carolina over to 17 the State of Georgia before a hearing on August 10th of 18 2007, to escape Judge Early's jurisdiction. But we didn't 19 know that then.

20 So we go on the 17th of July of 2007, and it was 21 nearly a replay of the earlier meetings because Mr. Cannon
22 began, still sort of resisting our looking at documents.
23 And I remember he said, Well, what do you want to see. And 24 I said, Everything.

25 And he said, Well, tell me what you want to see.

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 And I said, Well if you would let me go in the back room,
2 it would make it easier for all of us. But that didn't
3 happen.

4 So Judge Buchanan and I sat there all morning long
5 with -- saying, Well, we want the bank accounts. And we
6 would say, Now is that the bank account. And he would go
7 back to the back and get something and come back and -- and 8 I was reading and Judge Buchanan was writing. And I would 9 say, This is a bank account and it shows the beginning
10 balance of this and that. I mean, he wasn't giving us the 11 documents, but he was giving access to these documents.

12 And so it was exhausting, but we were, you know,
13 our job was to get along with these people and we were 14 doing our best. So it was afternoon and everybody was 15 exhausted. Keith Babcock was there -- no, not Keith,
16 Jonathan Harling, a paralegal from Lewis and Babcock, the 17 trustees and I, and we were, again, around a little table,
18 and the last thing -- oh, they had told us they had shown
19 us all the bank accounts.

20 And so we were just about to leave and Mr. -- Mr.
21 Cannon walked out with a tiny thin folder with, I think two 22 pages in it, and he -- and he -- we said, Well, hmm, what's 23 that -- and so we looked at -- no, he didn't walk out, we 24 saw it in the file room -- we saw it in the file room.
25 That was it.

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 He didn't walk out. We said, Could we look at 2 that. And so then we sit down and look at it and it's just 3 a couple of pages, but it's a $900,000 check with a letter
4 behind it. And it says -- it said something like, be sure
5 you get this deposited right because they're third party
6 payees or something, something in the letter. But what was 7 significant --

8 Q Who was the letter from?

9 A It was either from Leon Friedman, Mr. Brown's
10 lawyer in New York for important constitutional kind of 11 things or somebody at Greenberg Traurig. You could tell
12 from the letter that that was the chain that this money 13 had --

14 Q So, so --

15 A -- followed.

16 Q So the copy of this -- the picture of this $900,000
17 check was accompanied with a letter pointing out to whoever 18 was receiving it, there are people who have an interest in 19 this money?

20 A Exactly. Exactly.

21 Q And that would have been the TIAA people, right?

22 A Well -- well -- at the time, we didn't think that.
23 We're just looking down at a check that if you're --

24 THE COURT: You were looking at a check or a copy
25 of a check?

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 THE WITNESS: Copy of a check. Copy of a check.

2 Sorry, Your Honor.

3 Looking down at a copy of a check that seems to say
4 James Brown Account $900,000. And so my question was,
5 Well, gosh, we haven't seen that, which account did it go
6 into. And David Cannon said, Oh, it went into another
7 account. Wherever Leon Friedman told me to put it. And I
8 said, MMMMM. So...

9 BY MR. BUNDY:

10 Q Who is Leon Friedman?

11 A Leon Friedman is a New York lawyer and professor at 12 Hofstra who had represented James Brown in some of his 13 larger matters. And Leon was only tangentially involved
14 when I was around. But -- so -- so, he had had some 15 involvement with this audit, which was -- the $900,000
16 check were the proceeds of an audit of some back royalties
17 that had not been paid by the publisher that came in in the 18 Summer of 2006.

19 So -- so, we are sitting around a table and there's 20 a speakerphone in the middle and -- and -- so we said -- he 21 said after Mr. Cannon said I did -- I did what Leon
22 Friedman told me to do, Judge Buchanan and I said, Well, 23 let's call him up and see -- see about it, because now we 24 were looking at $900,000, just one year before Mr. Brown
25 died, so we were getting closer to what's in this estate or

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 what's not in this estate. So he said -- he said --

2 Q He, being whom?

3 A I'm sorry, Mr. Cannon said, You know, I think he's 4 in Italy with Justice Scalia. He said, You know, he goes
5 there every year and teaches those courses.

6 And I said -- and we -- I, one of us, one of the 7 two of us, one of the two of us said, Well, let's try him.
8 So we dial up and he answers the phone and Mr. Cannon says,
9 Oh, Leon, you're there. And he said, I thought you were in 10 Italy with Justice Scalia and -- and Leon said, No, I'm 11 going tomorrow morning and this year it's Justice Ginsburg.
12 And he truly was leaving the next morning. And we were so
13 lucky we got him on the phone.

14 And so then Mr. Cannon said, Got my special
15 administrators here and they're wondering what instructions
16 you gave me about depositing that check. And Leon said, I
17 didn't give you any instructions about depositing that 18 check.

19 Well, we knew then, you could have heard a pin drop
20 in the room. So we asked to see where it was deposited.
21 Mr. Cannon brought out another checkbook. We sat there as 22 we had all morning we -- me calling out the deposits and 23 Judge Buchanan writing them down and we essentially sort of 24 went home in silence because we knew we had found something
25 that somebody had to go.

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 And so we -- I lay on the side porch of my house
2 all weekend and kept looking at the numbers and thinking
3 about it and we talked on Monday and we said, Somebody's
4 got to go. And so we called Lewis and Babcock --

5 Q Now, we is you and Judge Buchanan?

6 A Judge Buchanan and I. And essentially we said, You
7 have until Thursday to do something about this or we're 8 going to do something about it. And the reason we had 9 Thursday is because we knew that there was going -- a
10 hearing scheduled for August 10th, 2007, the date of this
11 order, and we knew that the rest of this world of people
12 needed 10 days notice of what we had found.

13 And so we said, You have until Thursday to file
14 something or we're going to file something. And so by 15 about Wednesday or Thursday, they had all gotten a new 16 lawyer --

17 Q They being --

18 A The being the Cannon trustees. Lewis and Babcock
19 stayed on to represent the estate in certain matters, but 20 -- but the others had a new lawyer so there was no use to 21 talk -- I went and spoke with Cam Lewis, but he couldn't do
22 anything at that point to --

23 Q Who did they get for lawyers?

24 A Stan Jackson appeared a few days later.

25 Q For all three of them?

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 A No, only for two of them, for Buddy Dallas and for 2 Judge Bradley.

3 Q And what about Cannon? Did he get a lawyer?

4 A He got a long series of lawyers after that. But at 5 that moment, no.

6 So we -- so between -- so between when we -- we 7 filed what we thought was the most nonaggressive motion we 8 could file, which was there had been a material breach of 9 fiduciary duty here, 900,000 missing, and we think that one
10 or more trustees must resign because we didn't know who was 11 responsible for this. Immediately by August the 3rd,
12 Mr. Cannon had essentially fallen on the sword and said it
13 was all him and nobody else. And both Judge Bradley and 14 Mr. Dallas had filed affidavits saying we never had the 15 slightest clue that this happened.

16 And further they began to say and continued to say
17 for a long time that there was a veil of secrecy between 18 the world and Mr. Cannon and James Brown and that they 19 never crossed that veil. They were on the other side of 20 the veil with the whole world.

21 So anyway -- so that's what happened. We go to the 22 -- by the time we have the hearing on August 10, 2007, all 23 the people who wanted to get rid of Cannon and Dallas have 24 smelled blood because they've got good reason to get rid of 25 all three of them. But Judge Buchanan and I are thinking

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 that, that Buddy Dallas knows a lot. And so what we
2 negotiated with Mr. Dallas and Judge Bradley was a proposal
3 to sort of shift the balance rather than being just pure
4 oversight, they would have to get permission from us before
5 they did anything, any big transactions.

6 Q Was that memorialized in any orders?

7 A It was. We reached an agreement on the night of 8 August 9th, my birthday, of 2007, or on the day of August
9 9th. And it -- we didn't have time to put it in writing,
10 although they're drafts, and that -- and we -- the next
11 morning, here's what happened: Mr. Cannon resigned.

12 Mr. --

13 MR. BUNDY: Can we put that order up, please, the 14 August 10, resignation.

15 THE WITNESS: Yes. Mr. Cannon resigned.

16 Mr. Cannon brought Judge Early a check for $350,000 payable 17 to the estate. My recollection is he didn't really have a 18 lawyer speaking for him that day. He was speaking for 19 himself. We reached an agreement that we would again shift
20 the balance between the PR's and Judge Buchanan and myself,
21 as special administrators, so that they would have to ask
22 us for deals, but we could pre-approve things like security
23 for the house and routine payments.

24 Then in addition, Judge -- the order of Judge Early 25 terminated the employment of all -- all accountants and

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 lawyers who had worked closely with Mr. Cannon, not that 2 they had necessarily done anything wrong, but because of 3 the closeness to this person that we knew had -- had -- had 4 misappropriated $900,000.

5 So he had terminated all the accountants and the 6 lawyers except for Lewis and Babcock. He allowed them to 7 stay on and I believe that's all --

8 Q Let's look at this now.

9 A Okay.

10 Q Basically if we could go back, Mr. Cannon brought 11 in 300 and some odd thousand dollars to partially repay the 12 $900,000?

13 A Right. As the order finds, Cannon has paid over 14 and delivered $350,000 to the estate. These funds, like
15 all others shall be deposited in one or more accounts. Oh, 16 that reminds me. This order also says that -- that one of 17 the two of Judge Buchanan and me has to sign a check to 18 make sure that money didn't take missing; which was our --

19 Q That's what it says down here at the bottom.

20 A Oh, I'm sorry.

21 Q Okay. Let's move on to the next callout, please?

22 A Okay. All right. And then --

23 Q All right.

24 A Okay.

25 Q So Bradley and Dallas now will continue, but their

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 service is strictly limited?

2 A It was limited as I've discussed. The lawyers and
3 accountants were terminated. A new accountant was employed
4 by the Court, Bill Sellers, William Sellers. And then --
5 then, sort of the concession that Judge Buchanan and I were 6 able to get from these other people who wanted -- who 7 wanted Dallas and Bradley gone, also was that there would 8 be a little period for them to just leave them alone so
9 some estate administration matters could be dealt with.
10 And so the order found that by saying that, that 11 there were certain actions that just had to be completed.

12 That was preparing an inventory and appraisalment,
13 which actually did get done by Bill Hammond in November, on 14 November 15th of 2007; applying for recognition of 15 exemption of the James Brown "I Feel Good" Trust. That was 16 huge. That was a multimillions of dollars problem because 17 the bulk of James Brown's wealth was going to the James 18 Brown "I Feel Good" Charity and the original trustees had 19 never applied for it to be recognized by the IRS as a 20 501(c)(3) charity.

21 And what that meant to us was that -- that we have 22 tens of millions of dollars going into a charity, but we 23 will not get a charitable deduction unless the application
24 is timely made and retroactive to James Brown's death,
25 which could happen if it were timely made.

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 So that was the number one tax concern facing
2 everybody and it's all through the documents, through
3 Mr. Hammond's documents, our documents. So that was put 4 into the order that that application for recognition of the 5 charity had to be completed because if it hadn't been done
6 and the IRS had disallowed the charitable deduction, it
7 would have been very bad.

8 The next preparing for filing the State tax
9 return and extensions. That -- the estate tax return was 10 due on September 25th, 2008. It ended up not being filed
11 until September 25th, 2009, which was the last possible
12 extension as long as the PR's were in the United States.

13 And then preparing certain other income tax
14 returns. But again, the really important thing there was 15 getting the charity approved by the IRS.

16 Q All right. Now, what did the Court do with regard 17 to documentation, et cetera, which you'd previously had 18 trouble getting? What was going to happen to the 19 documents now that you were the new -- you were still an 20 SA, but you had more authority, I guess --

21 A Well --

22 Q -- oversight?

23 A Well, the protection of the documents didn't really 24 have so much have to do with that. It had to do with their 25 being at Cannon's house and Mr. Cannon had just resigned.

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 And there was a lot of concern about spoliation of 2 documents. And so, really, I guess the second or even the 3 first most important impact of that order was to direct
4 that all of the James Brown historical documents be placed
5 in a central location.

6 And it turned out that I had behind my office a big
7 ole warehouse sort of space. They stayed under the control
8 of Lewis and Babcock for many months after that, but all
9 the documents were to be sent there. And I have never seen
10 this happen before, but the Brown historical documents
11 included Buddy Dallas's entire file, not only for James
12 Brown, but for all of the children.

13 Everything in Cannon's file -- I mean it was a 14 monumental 70 to 80 box production of documents which 15 really allowed everyone to understand what had happened
16 before.

17 In addition, I forgot this, Judge Buchanan's
18 office, 212 Newberry Street, was made the official
19 residence of the estate and the 2000 Trust; and that is 20 because Mr. Cannon's address had been used and we -- 21 everybody, including the two remaining trustees wanted to 22 make sure that the mail came somewhere where it would be 23 seen and dealt with.

24 So they were still the PR's. The -- the -- the 25 people who were trying to get rid of them agreed that they

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 would sort of slow down on discovery except for a couple of
2 depositions in New York to give them a little breathing
3 room to get these administrative things done.

4 Q All right. And -- and as -- this reconfirms, the 5 judge also terminated everybody, financial advisors,
6 lawyers, and all the people who had been involved with 7 Cannon and Bradley and Dallas?

8 A Right. With certain minor exceptions.

9 Q So it was a clean sweep, basically?

10 A The purpose -- because remember, now, Mr. Dallas
11 and Mr. Bradley were saying, We didn't know anything about 12 this. And so with that clean cut, it made sense.

13 Q Okay.

14 MR. BUNDY: Any other callouts in this document?
15 (Indicated in the negative.)

16 MR. BUNDY: All right. Let's move to the next -- 17 to the other one we were looking at. Well, I guess -- we 18 have another one --

19 THE COURT: Let's stop. We've been going two 20 hours. My court reporter needs a break as well as others
21 do. It's 25 till, we'll come back in about 15 minutes.
22 That's about 10 till 12. And I plan to go until one and 23 then take an hour break from one until two. Start back at 24 two and go until five.

25 Would that present a problem?

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 MR. BUNDY: No problem for the plaintiff, Your
2 Honor.

3 THE COURT: All right. Let's take -- take about a
4 15 minute break.

5 Ms. Pope, you're in the middle of your testimony,
6 so as I tell everybody, don't discuss it.

7 THE WITNESS: Yes, sir.

8 THE COURT: All right.

9 (A brief recess was observed.)

10 Mr. Bundy, you may proceed.

11 MR. BUNDY: Thank you, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: Thank you.

13 BY MR. BUNDY:

14 Q Ms. Pope, I'd like to direct your attention now to 15 the supplemental order related to disbursement of royalty
16 funds, please. That's an order dated August 19, 2007?

17 A That was just a little agreement by TIAA that 18 allowed us to keep $100,000 of the $350,000 that Mr. Cannon
19 had misappropriated because they should have gone to pay
20 off the TIAA debt. But TIAA --

21 Q Let me stop you there. The $900,000 check that you
22 discovered was the -- misappropriated funds, is that
23 correct?

24 A It was. It was from an audit and it should have 25 been paid to M & T Bank.

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 Q Pursuant to the closing documents in those files?

2 A In the TIAA Pullman deal.

3 Q Because they had a lien on those proceeds?

4 A That's correct.

5 THE COURT: Where did -- where did the 9 -- did you
6 find out where the 900 went? Refresh my memory because 7 I'm --

8 THE WITNESS: Yes, Your Honor. - We determined that
9 $180,000 of it had been legitimately paid to the Haber
10 Corporation, which were the auditors. The rest, not so 11 legitimate. There was never an explanation for the 12 remainder.

13 THE COURT: Did they find out where it was 14 deposited, where it went or --

15 THE WITNESS: Well, we went all the way through the 16 checkbook and saw that it was deposited in the Summer of 17 2006, and the last check out was to Cannon on December
18 28th, 2006, just three days after James Brown died. So
19 there was essentially no accounting ever. Your Honor, I
20 think ordered him -- he returned the 350. Your Honor found
21 that Haber debt was legitimate and I think Your Honor
22 ordered him to pay -- in my head, I think it's 373,
23 whatever was the difference that he hadn't paid, and -- but 24 he never paid it.

25 THE COURT: And then after that, not getting ahead

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 of the game, but sometime after that is when we had the 2 contempt hearing for him --

3 THE WITNESS: Oh, yes. And --

4 THE COURT: -- That's in the records.

5 THE WITNESS: He had --

6 THE COURT: I'm getting ahead of the story.

7 THE WITNESS: No, no, that's fine. But just to 8 finish up with Mr. Cannon, if it would be helpful, Your 9 Honor held him in contempt -- well, maybe we should wait
10 for the story.

11 THE COURT: All right. I won't interrupt.

12 MR. BUNDY: I need all the help I can get, Judge.

13 THE COURT: So do I.

14 BY MR. BUNDY:

15 Q I want to go back -- I just want to make sure that 16 the record is clear on this $900,000. The $900,000 less 17 the legitimate portion that was paid was supposed to go to 18 T -- to the teachers?

19 A To the teachers. So when Mr. Cannon wrote the 20 check back --

21 Q To the Court --

22 A -- for 350 --

23 Q Okay.

24 A -- Judge Early said hold on until we decide what to 25 do with it. And then Judge Buchanan and I negotiated with

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 them to be able to hold $100,000 because the estate was so
2 illiquid to begin the process of going after Cannon for the 3 remainder of what was missing; and so that's that.

4 Q Let me stop you there.

5 A Uh-huh.

6 Q You mentioned illiquidity. What was the condition
7 of the James Brown trust and estate at that point relative
8 to liquidity, cash, et cetera? Very briefly?

9 A Terrible.

10 Q Okay. That works. So the $100,000, what happened
11 to it? What did you and Mr. Buchanan do with the $100,000?
12 How was it handled?

13 A Well, we immediately began to work on the 14 engagement of Kendall Few and Jim Gilreath to help us try
15 to recover not only money from Cannon, but -- Mr. Cannon,
16 but other monies which had been misappropriated or other
17 losses between 1999, which was the date of the TIAA debt,
18 through the end of 2006. And that was sort of the period,
19 a major period of Mr. Cannon's wrongdoing.

20 Q So you became concerned that money had been stolen,
21 I guess to use any other word, from Mr. Brown from 1999 up 22 until his death and you wanted Mr. Gilreath and Mr. Few to 23 look into that and bring whatever actions were necessary to 24 try to recoup those monies?

25 A That's true. And since Judge Early's August 10th

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 order had put us essentially in charge of matters that 2 Mr. Cannon and the remaining trustees -- I'm sorry the 3 remaining trustees, Mr. Dallas and Mr. Bradley had a
4 conflict. Well, they had -- clearly had a conflict in 5 seeking counsel to sue their co-trustee for the return of 6 stolen money.

7 So Judge Buchanan and I assumed that role to 8 select counsel because they had a conflict and that was the 9 way the August 10th order worked.

10 Q All right. And tell me a little bit if you will 11 about what -- how you came to decide in conjunction with 12 Judge Buchanan to hire Mr. Few and Mr. Gilreath. What were 13 their qualifications?

14 A The only thing we thought about was who's the best
15 lawyer in the state. And we thought it was best not the 16 select one in Charleston. I'll tell you we thought about 17 some in Charleston.

18 Q Why is that?

19 A Well, there were just a lot of Charleston people
20 that we decided it would be better if we would go somewhere
21 else. And so honestly Kendall Few and Jim Gilreath were 22 the perfect combination because Mr. Gilreath has a, I think 23 a masters in tax, and this was a complicated financial 24 thing; and we didn't know where it was going to lead. And 25 so we thought they were the perfect team.

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 Q Did you have any indication at that time that the 2 Greenberg Traurig Law Firm might be potential defendants?

3 A You know, we weren't thinking so much of that as,
4 as -- by the time we hired them, we had already discovered
5 7 of the 12 -- of the 17 million Mr. Cannon took and so we 6 were more focused on who all was around when Mr. Cannon was 7 taking, who helped him take, you know, the whole schmiel.

8 Q I understand. And you felt that Mr. Few and Mr.
9 Gilreath were qualified for that task?

10 A The best.

11 Q Okay. And typically in your experience, is it the 12 duty of the trustees and PR's, whether they be SA --
13 assuming they have the appropriate authority, or personal 14 representatives and trustees to have the right to select 15 counsel for --

16 A Well --

17 Q -- for the trust or the estate?

18 A Well, but for the August 10th order, that was the 19 duty of Mr. Bradley and Mr. Dallas as the remaining PR and 20 trustees.

21 Q Okay. But it's typically not assigned to a third 22 -- in other words if you've got a trustee, that's the 23 person who makes the decision?

24 A That's your job.

25 Q Not some governmental agency?

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 A No.

2 Q Okay. All right. If you would in -- let's look --
3 I believe that's the end of that one.

4 Let's now go to the August 10 order. I believe --
5 is there another -- there's another August 10 order; is 6 that correct?

7 A No, I think we've gotten them all August 10 and 8 August 19. There may be some other --

9 Q Okay.

10 A Yeah.

11 Q All right. So now we're in October?

12 A Yes.

13 Q What happened between August and October during 14 your tenure as special administrator?

15 A Well, if I could actually go all the way from 16 August to -- to November.

17 Q Okay.

18 A We kept discovering more and more wrongdoing by 19 Cannon. In the October 2nd Order -- and Judge Early, as 20 you recall I mentioned, had taken the 350 and asked
21 Mr. Cannon to account for his actions and -- and he had not 22 accounted. And so there was a sort of a parallel universe
23 of Judge Early and Mr. Cannon failing to do everything he 24 was ordered to do. And that ultimately resulted in his 25 being held in contempt and serving some time.

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 Q Okay. All right. In October of 2007, what 2 occurred relative to the estate of any significance in your
3 mind?

4 A Okay. Well, the attorney general and the attorney
5 general of Georgia pro hac vice under the attorney general,
6 came into the case on September 24th and Judge Early issued
7 an order on October 4th allowing both of them to come in 8 and nobody opposed that. I mean, it was fine.

9 And the order -- I guess we're on the October 4th
10 order.

11 MR. BUNDY: October 4 order, please.

12 THE WITNESS: Okay. Well, that -- what was just 13 flashed up from one of the orders reminded me. There was a 14 lot of thinking about the tangible personal property and we 15 were looking for ways to deal with it because the house was 16 scary -- a scary place to leave these assets. And Judge
17 Early had directed that we work with -- the personal
18 representatives and we work with the family members to try
19 to think of a way to preserve the -- the tangible personal 20 property. And -- yes, and --

21 Q All right. And so that was the basis of this 22 statement by the Court, All counsel for clients interested
23 in the tangible personal property of the estate were 24 directed to work with the Special Administrators and 25 personal representatives over the next 45 days to present a

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 plan for completion of the inventory and preservation of 2 the tangible personal property, including provision for 3 payment of estate taxes and administrative expenses related
4 to such property. Okay. Correct?

5 A Yes. And I'll just mention one thing that I didn't 6 think of. James Brown's -- James Brown died in 2006 and 7 that year a person had a $2 million exemption from estate
8 taxes or actually a combination of the estate and gift
9 taxes, but for purposes of this, estate taxes. And so what
10 we knew at the time was James Brown's will provided that $2
11 million -- his exemption amount was going into a
12 grandchildren's education trust and that amount was to go
13 tax -- estate tax free to the education trust.

14 So the result of that was that anything over that 15 amount that did not go to the charity, to the "I Feel Good"
16 Charity, because there was not a specific provision in the 17 will, the recipient of that property had to pay the estate
18 taxes on it.

19 And so by then we were thinking that Mr. Brown's 20 personal and household effects which were going to the -- 21 to the six designated children, had a value of about 22 800,000 to a million something like that. And so that 23 meant that these recipients were going to have to find $3-, 24 $400,000 in estate taxes to pay it.

25 And so that's what all of this was about, to try to

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 get them, with their lawyers, to help us figure out, how 2 are we going to pay these estate taxes. Do you want to 3 pledge them? Do you -- you know.

4 Q Okay. So now we're in October and the Attorney
5 Generals of South and North Carolina --

6 THE COURT: Georgia.

7 THE WITNESS: Judge Early's correct, Georgia.

8 MR. BUNDY: Georgia, excuse me. Georgia and South
9 Carolina.

10 And if we could, let's turn to that order please.

11 THE WITNESS: Yes -- yes. The motion of the South
12 Carolina Attorney General and the Georgia Attorney General
13 to intervene in this matter to represent and protect the 14 beneficiaries of any charitable trust created under the 15 last will of James Brown and his irrevocable trust, both 16 dated August 1, 2000; or any other of the assets of the 17 estate impressed with a charitable trust is granted.

18 BY MR. BUNDY:

19 Q Now, was there any objection to --

20 A No, no.

21 Q And what was your thinking when that -- were you
22 pleased with that yourself? Did it matter one way or the 23 other?

24 A It didn't matter one way or the other. The will 25 contest had not been filed. If the will contest had been

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 filed, we would have certainly wanted them there, but it
2 hadn't been filed. But it didn't matter, it was great.

3 Q What was your understanding then, and if it's 4 different now please tell me, of what the attorney
5 general's duties and rights were as it related to his 6 responsibilities and rights in this intervention in this
7 estate?

8 A Well, we viewed it as his right to advocate for the 9 beneficiaries of the charitable "I Feel Good" Trust because 10 those beneficiaries last in perpetuity and aren't
11 identifiable. So to speak for those beneficiaries.

12 Q What about the attorney general's duties vis a vi
13 the trustees of the trust?

14 A Well, if the attorney general saw that the trustees
15 were taking action it would be detrimental to the 16 charitable beneficiaries. He should call that attention --
17 call that to the attention of the Court; or seek their 18 removal or whatever was necessary.

19 Q Do you have an opinion as to whether or not the 20 attorney general has the authority to direct the actions
21 of --

22 A Trustee in a charitable trust? Only what I've read
23 in Wilson versus Dallas.

24 Q All right. Thank you.

25 All right. Now, I think we're down on the last

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 document of this timeline, I guess, which is granting pro
2 hac vice admission for the Georgia attorney general,
3 correct?

4 A The Georgia attorney general was serving under the 5 South Carolina attorney general that's correct.

6 Q And ultimately what role, if any, did the Georgia
7 attorney general play in this litigation?

8 A In early January, I believe it was -- well, she was 9 -- she made some rather vicious attacks on us; particularly 10 on Judge Buchanan in a December hearing. And so she had 11 clearly been closely associated with Buddy Dallas and was 12 saying whatever Buddy Dallas wanted to have said.

13 But in January, I believe, either counsel for 14 Tommie Rae or Mr. Levinson made an oral motion that she be 15 let out of the case because of a misunderstanding of the 16 reading of James Brown's will. As I recall nobody 17 objected. As I recall Judge Early didn't issue an order,
18 but she left in January of 2008.

19 Q All right. Now, that --

20 MR. BUNDY: Now let's go to the next chart. All
21 right.

22 And if you would if you would, let's go to the 23 first order.

24 THE COURT: Which order are we at now, please?

25 MR. BUNDY: This is the order of --

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 THE COURT: Accepting resignation?

2 MR. BUNDY: Yes, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: All right.

4 BY MR. BUNDY:

5 Q All right, Ms. Pope. We are now in November and I
6 think our last discussion was about October. Did anything
7 happen in October other than what we've -- just generally
8 what's going in October while you're still Special
9 Administrator?

10 A Well, there's just this crescendo of confusion and 11 allegations and discord and -- that because -- because 12 we're discovering more and more money that Mr. Cannon has 13 taken. And it's becoming obvious that Mr. Dallas was not
14 investigating Mr. Cannon, but, in fact, trying to white
15 wash what had happened. And so the result was that on -- 16 on the -- there was a hearing on the 15th of November, 17 which was continued until the 20th of November. And at 18 that hearing lots of ugly things came out about Mr. Cannon.
19 And later I think Judge Early, himself, said the testimony
20 was as ugly as it could get.

21 Mr. -- it came out that Mr. Farr, the accountant
22 who had been fired in August had filed a bunch of income
23 tax returns that were unauthorized and the purpose of the 24 filing was to shift the ownership of -- of certain assets
25 from the estate, I mean from the estate to the trust.

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 And those filed returns were inconsistent with documents
2 Mr. Dallas and Mr. Bradley had filed back in September and 3 an affidavit of Mr. Farr. So Mr. Farr, the accountant was 4 becoming very involved in all of this; and he was Mr.
5 Dallas's personal accountant.

6 Q So Mr. Farr had disregarded Judge Early's orders --

7 A He --

8 Q -- and continued to file documents after he'd been 9 removed by the Court?

10 A He -- he did.

11 Q Okay.

12 A And that -- and that became an issue because Mr.
13 Cannon told the judge on the 15th that he had authorized 14 that to be filed because he needed to save $40 million in 15 taxes. That's what he said.

16 Things were closing in a little bit on Mr. Dallas.
17 There was evidence -- Mr. Dallas and Mr. Bradley, and --
18 but more Mr. Dallas in addition; not so much them
19 individually but their involvement with Mr. Cannon. And it
20 was now known that James Brown had brought in $18 million
21 in road-show revenues between 2003 and 2006; you know, the 22 -- the copyrights that were earning $3 million a year and 23 there was no money. So -- and even a couple of hundred
24 thousand dollars were gone so, I mean, the general
25 atmosphere was moving toward these people have a problem;

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 all three of them.

2 Q Let me stop you there. You had $15 million that
3 was unaccounted for with the TIAA effort from 1999; right?
4 Approximately $15 million?

5 A That was part of the 17 that Mr. Cannon took.

6 Q And then you've got the road-show royalties of how 7 much?

8 A Well, the -- the William Morris records showed that 9 they had -- James Brown had earned about 18 million between 10 2003 and his death.

11 Q So that's in addition to the 15?

12 A That's -- well, if I could say, the 15 that was 13 taken; yes, oh yes. Because that 15 was taken by 2003.

14 Q Okay.

15 A Yeah. I mean there was just a lot of money.

16 Q So if it hadn't been taken, it would have still 17 been there?

18 A Oh, absolutely.

19 Q Okay. So you got 15; you've got the 18; and then 20 you've got $3 millions dollars a year for royalties?

21 A Yes, oh, yeah.

22 Q And there was no money, right?

23 A No money.

24 Q Okay. That's all I was trying to get to. All
25 right?

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 A Sorry.

2 Q And that did not bode well for Mr. Bradley or 3 Mr. Dallas?

4 A More as -- more from the coverup standpoint at --
5 certainly at that point.

6 Q All right. All right. Let's go back to the 7 hearing as referenced or as memorialized, I guess, to some 8 extent by the judge's order of November, of -- the 19th.
9 Tell me what -- how it came to pass?

10 THE COURT: It's still November 20th, I think.

11 THE WITNESS: It is, Your Honor. And it's hard to 12 see, but it looks like --

13 BY MR. BUNDY:

14 Q So the 19 looks like a 2; it had a 2 underneath it
15 on the --

16 A It is, it's the 20th.

17 THE COURT: I think we had two hearings if I
18 remember correctly -- not remember, I can't remember that 19 far back -- from an order that I signed that was November
20 15th and again on the 20th in Bamberg. That was dealing 21 with Cannon's contempt and some other issues and that's 22 when he testified that he was making that guy do the tax
23 returns. Actually my order said it wasn't quite 30
24 million, it was -- it was a lot of money is what it was; 39
25 million.

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 THE WITNESS: Oh, sorry. I said 40.

2 THE COURT: You were one million off.

3 THE WITNESS: I'm sorry.

4 THE COURT: But anyway, it was a substantial amount
5 of money that was shocking.

6 BY MR. BUNDY:

7 Q All right. So as a result, is it correct that 8 Bradley and Dallas submitted their -- according to the 9 order, submitted their immediate permanent resignation as 10 personal representative/trustees to the estate of James
11 Brown, 2000 Irrevocable Trust, dated 2000 -- and all Brown
12 Entities, et cetera; is that correct?

13 A That's correct.

14 Q All right. And the Court accepted that resignation
15 and appointed whom or who to take -- to take the reigns
16 going forward?

17 A Well, according to the order, the Court accepted
18 that resignation and upon the recommendation of all
19 interested persons, other than the Attorneys General of 20 South Carolina and Georgia appointed Robert L. Buchanan, 21 Jr. and Adele J. Pope as personal representatives under the 22 will and trust of the James Brown 2000 Trust --
23 Irrevocable Trust and its sub-trusts.

24 Q Let's talk about this group, interested parties --

25 MR. BUNDY: If you can go back to the previous

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 callout.

2 BY MR. BUNDY:

3 Q Upon the recommendation of all interested parties
4 -- now who would be included in that universe of interested
5 parties who did not -- who recommended you and Judge
6 Buchanan?

7 A Okay. Well, under the South Carolina Probate Code,
8 interested parties is sort of a moving target. But it was 9 pretty clear then because there had been no contest to the 10 will. So it was the children, who would have the personal 11 and household effects under the will. The --

12 Q And were they represented by counsel?

13 A They were, by Mr. Levinson.

14 Q Okay.

15 A And the grandchildren who would receive benefits
16 under the grandchildren's trust, which was one the 17 sub-trusts of the 2000 Irrevocable Trust, also represented
18 by Mr. Levinson; except that one child and one grandchild
19 -- sorry one child and one acknowledged grandchild, two 20 acknowledged grandchildren, were then represented by David
21 Bell of -- an Augusta lawyer.

22 Q And what other interested parties were there?

23 A Well, that was -- the attorneys general.

24 Q What about -- what about Ms. Hynie Rae Brown? Was 25 she --

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 A Oh, oh, I'm sorry. Yes, she was because she had
2 filed a petition in early 2007 so she had a pending claim,
3 not to challenge the will or trust. And also her son,
4 James, had a pending claim that he was a pretermitted
5 child.

6 Q All right.

7 A So they did. You're right.

8 Q Let's talk a minute about that. And was she 9 represented by counsel?

10 A She was.

11 Q And who was her counsel?

12 A She had about five lawyers, but among them were 13 Robert Rosen of Charleston --

14 Q Robert Rosen?

15 A -- and Alan Medlin --

16 Q Professor Medlin?

17 A Heyward Carter --

18 Q He's a tax lawyer.

19 A Yes. Jean Lee. I'm not sure who else. Oh, yes,
20 well, I later found out that she also had a contract with a 21 lawyer who served as a lawyer for her child's guardian ad
22 litem.

23 Q Okay. And what was the nature of her claim that 24 would have put her in the universe of interested people?

25 A Well, if she had been determined to be the spouse.

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 Q All right. All right. Now, it goes on to say that 2 upon recommendation of all interested persons other than 3 the attorneys generals -- Attorneys General, South Carolina
4 and Georgia. So Georgia attorney general later got out.
5 Let's talk about the attorney general in South Carolina.
6 Who was -- who appeared at that time or was appearing for 7 the attorney general of the State of South Carolina?

8 A Senior Assistant Attorney General Havird Sonny
9 Jones.

10 Q Okay. People know him as Sonny Jones?

11 A Sonny.

12 Q Okay.

13 A Uh-huh.

14 Q And what was Mr. Jones's basis to the extent you
15 know, that he was unwilling on behalf of the attorney
16 general for the State of South Carolina to agree with the 17 recommendation of all interested parties?

18 A That particular day, I would not have thought it
19 any -- that day, I you would not have thought it anything 20 other than he didn't like to commit because he had just 21 come in --

22 Q Okay.

23 A -- That day.

24 Q Okay. All right. Now, let's go to the next order
25 of November 21 entitled, Order Allowing Complying or --

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 before we go to that.

2 Once -- you now are -- you and Judge Buchanan are 3 now playing what role, or performing what duties with 4 regard to the estate of James Brown?

5 A Well, we're now it. We are personal
6 representatives under the will, which carries with it in 7 South Carolina a duty to uphold the will; but even if it
8 did not in the State of South Carolina, it certainly did
9 under the terms of the will itself. With respect to the 10 2000 Irrevocable Trust, same thing. We're responsible for 11 the defense of the estate plan and the administration of 12 the estate and trust.

13 MR. BUNDY: Your Honor, at this point I would refer 14 to two exhibits, which are in evidence without objections,
15 Plaintiff's Exhibit 3, which is the last will of James
16 Brown, and Plaintiff's Exhibit 2, which is Irrevocable
17 Trust Agreement of James Brown. May I approach?

18 THE COURT: You may.

19 Without objection obviously?

20 MR. WILLIAMS: Yes, sir.

21 BY MR. BUNDY:

22 Q All right. Ms. Pope, if you would, I hand you
23 Exhibits 2 and 3?

24 THE COURT: Well, before you get to there, that -- 25 now we start a new journey, or a new timeframe --

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 MR. BUNDY: Yes, sir.

2 THE COURT: -- on November 20, '07.

3 MR. BUNDY: Yes, sir.

4 THE COURT: Starting with this order. Everything
5 prior to what you've been talking about and all those 6 services -- I granted summary judgment on them last week or 7 the week before last, so that's where we are now?

8 MR. BUNDY: That's correct, Your Honor. We've got 9 an order, but we haven't been paid. So we're looking to 10 paid, but we want to get paid for this now. So here we go.

11 THE COURT: Here we go.

12 BY MR. BUNDY:

13 Q If you would, let's start with the will please,
14 ma'am.

15 A Okay.

16 Q And tell me as the, you and Judge Buchanan as the 17 PR's under this will as directed by the judge, what your 18 duties were and what significant provisions in the will 19 that you feel need to be brought to the Court's attention
20 to explain what you did or what you perceived to your 21 duties and how you complied with those duties.

22 A Well, the primary one is that it was what we call
23 other pour-over will. And what that meant is whatever I
24 own, I pour over into my 2000 Irrevocable Trust. And so 25 it's sort of in probate lingo. What used to be a will is

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 now an estate plan composed of two documents rather than a
2 single document.

3 Q Is there a term of art in your world regarding
4 documents like that? A unified --

5 A Unified -- I say unified estate plan.

6 Q Is that a term generally accepted in your field?

7 A I think so.

8 Q Okay. And just by way of example, what would be a
9 non-unified estate plan? How -- what would that look like 10 as opposed to what this looks like?

11 A Well, for example, if I had a trust for my 12 daughter, Jane, over there and -- and I had put $100,000 in 13 it and I might, in my will add another 10,000, but give the 14 rest to my husband Tom, that would be non-unified because 15 that trust stands alone.

16 Q Okay. And that's not the case with these 17 documents?

18 A No.

19 Q Now, before we go any further, do you know who 20 prepared these documents?

21 A Yes.

22 Q And who did?

23 A Dewain Herring.

24 Q Okay. Is Mr. Herring, in your opinion, a competent 25 and capable trust and estates lawyer?

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 A Before Mr. Herring had an unfortunate event that
2 ended his career and probably ruined his life, he was a
3 very competent lawyer. And I, in fact, had him as an 4 expert in another case at the time of the unfortunate
5 event.

6 Q And that unfortunate event had nothing to do with 7 his preparations of wills or trusts or trust advice, did
8 it?

9 A No.

10 Q Okay. So if you would, explain to the Court -- and 11 let's go through the will first, or whatever you deem to be 12 appropriate, to explain now that you're the PR and trustee,
13 along with Judge Buchanan, what your duties were and what 14 your goal was, so to speak, in order to implement the 15 intent of James Brown.

16 A Well, James Brown wanted to leave the bulk of his 17 fortune to his "I Feel Good" Charity that has but one
18 purpose, to provide money to educate needy and deserving 19 students studying in Georgia and South Carolina. That was 20 the primary goal throughout both of his documents.
21 Everything centered around that.

22 In addition, he acknowledged six children to be his 23 children and that did present an issue already by November
24 20th, 2007, because under South Carolina law, at least two 25 of those were not presumed to be his children, but he had

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 acknowledged them to be his children.

2 In addition, by then through DNA testing provided
3 by the estate, three children of James Brown who were DNA
4 proven children had been identified and acknowledged by the 5 prior personal representatives, not acknowledged to receive
6 anything, but acknowledged as James Brown's children.

7 So there were issues surrounding that. None of 8 which would have mattered unless there would be a will 9 contest. But, things that were looming in case the will 10 contest occurred, there was a fee schedule for reasonable
11 fees in both of the documents and both of the documents
12 contained very, very strong in terrorem clauses. James 13 Brown specifically said, Should any beneficiary under this 14 will or this Irrevocable Trust either directly or 15 indirectly challenge the terms of this trust, that -- that 16 those challenges should be vigorously met by the personal 17 representatives that the person making the challenge would 18 lose standing under James Brown's documents and -- and that 19 such an action would be considered an affront to James
20 Brown's wishes.

21 So it was a very, very strong in terrorem clause in 22 a will and trust which had been in place for six-and-a-half
23 years before James Brown's death; a trust which had been 24 actively and openly managed in two separate states which 25 had what's called a certification of a trust notifying the

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 world of the existence of these trusts and --

2 Q Let me stop you right here a minute. Based upon
3 your general knowledge or specific knowledge and what 4 you've learned since you got involved, have you come to 5 know what James Brown's reputation was for responding to an 6 affront? When James Brown was affronted, what was his 7 response?

8 A Well --

9 Q By reputation?

10 MR. WILLIAMS: Your Honor, I believe all evidence
11 would show that Ms. Pope did not know Mr. Brown during his 12 lifetime; and if she were to give us testimony, it would be 13 testimony that she perhaps read and she would be 14 introducing hearsay concerns?

15 THE COURT: Well, you know, that's probably 16 somewhat correct, but I'm trying this nonjury and I've 17 heard --

18 How many years, Ms. Pope? Ten years of it.

19 -- and I haven't heard anything new to me yet this 20 morning. I'm going to allow her to answer that for the 21 record.

22 THE WITNESS: Well, I think it's -- it can be said
23 most succinctly by Mr. Dallas who said, If James Brown were 24 here, this would all be over in 15 minutes.

25 ///

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 BY MR. BUNDY:

2 Q So have you read the book Kill Them and Leave?

3 A I have.

4 Q All right.

5 A Was he quoted in there -- I'm sorry.

6 Q All right. So now -- so did you -- as the personal 7 representative and trustee, what is your job relative to 8 the decedent and his documents?

9 A It's to -- it's to enforce his estate plan.

10 Q All right.

11 A If a challenge is raised to his estate plan.

12 Oh, if I could say one thing about that, just 11
13 days, 10 days before we were appointed, on Halloween, two 14 of his daughters had been deposed and under oath had stated
15 that they believed the will carried out James Brown's
16 wishes, they just didn't like the trustees.

17 Q All right. Let's -- let's move a minute back to 18 the order appointing you as personal representative to 19 the --

20 MR. BUNDY: On the second page, please.

21 THE WITNESS: Oh, that was the in terrorem clause.

22 BY MR. BUNDY:

23 Q I want to go to --

24 A Oh --

25 Q -- to this page.

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 A Oh, okay. The --

2 Q This is on Judge Early's order accepting
3 resignation, appointing representatives. What I want to 4 focus your attention on --

5 THE COURT: Which order are you referring to,
6 please?

7 THE WITNESS: The same one, Your Honor. The 8 November 20th, at the end.

9 THE COURT: Okay. November, 20th.

10 BY MR. BUNDY:

11 Q And I'd like to direct your attention to this line,
12 one, you were appointed along with Mr. Buchanan, personal 13 representative of the estate of James Brown and trustee of 14 James Brown's trust: To serve without bond with all the 15 authority, powers, and duties as if they had been appointed 16 in the original documents, other than the requirement that 17 there be three personal representatives and trustees.

18 What is the legal significance of that in your
19 mind?

20 A Well, it gave us the same authority as if we had 21 been named successors in James Brown's documents. And the 22 prior trustees had resigned without designating a
23 successor, which they did.

24 Q Okay. Did anybody appeal this order?

25 A No.

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 Q Did anybody move for reconsideration?

2 A Excuse me, some people did move for 3 reconsideration.

4 Q Okay. And was it changed?

5 A Well, it -- it's a bit of a long story, but the 6 short version is: After a series of hearings Judge Early 7 denied the right of Mr. Dallas and Mr. Bradley to -- to 8 come back in, not as personal representatives, but as 9 trustees. They challenged their --

10 Q What I'm talking about, this language here, the 11 language that you would serve as if you had been appointed 12 in the original documents. Has anybody ever appealed that 13 aspect of that?

14 A Well, no. Only to the extent that Mr. Dallas and 15 Mr. Bradley took the position that they had been hoodwinked
16 into resigning.

17 Q All right. Let's put aside Bradley and Dallas.
18 The attorney general didn't appeal it?

19 A He did a motion to alter or amend in December,
20 which we think was untimely, that challenged Judge Early's
21 authority again, to appoint not a PR, but a trustee in 22 addition to a PR. But that, again, was resolved by the 23 order of Judge Early dated April 8th, 2008; and the 24 attorney general did not appeal that order.

25 Q Okay. All right. Let's go to the next order --

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 before we do that, is there anything else that we need to 2 understand about either the trustees or the will before we
3 go forward as it relates to your basic duties as PR and 4 trustee, now that you've discussed the in terrorem and the 5 rest of --

6 A Well, I don't think so, except the notion that in
7 -- within the Irrevocable Trust, there appears to be a
8 formula which says half to my grandchildren and half to my 9 -- to the James Brown "I Feel Good" Charity. But -- but 10 the grandchildren's is limited to 2 million, so it wasn't
11 half at all. It was 2 million and everything else.

12 Q Okay. All right. Let's look at the order allowing 13 combining of funds.

14 A Okay. That order -- that order was an example of 15 what -- what we began to see, which was a, a concern that 16 the attorney general would express and then realize that it
17 was okay what we were doing. That order -- we asked Judge
18 Early to approve the payment of certain expenses from the 19 estate to the trust to pay the security for the Beech
20 Island home.

21 Some money was coming in. There was a publicity
22 rights deal, $100,000 coming in, and we needed to use that 23 money to keep security at the house until we could do
24 something about the tangible personal property. So it just 25 allowed us to transfer funds. The attorney general

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 misunderstood and thought we were taking money from the 2 charity, which we couldn't do. He was correct. We could 3 not possibly do and would not have done. But it got 4 resolved.

5 Q All right. Well, let's look at our timeline over
6 here, the PR/Trustee Timeline. It looks as if in December,
7 there was a will challenge; is that correct?

8 A There were -- there were two will challenges and 9 two trust challenges.

10 Q All right. And is there a time or statute of 11 limitations of filing a will challenge?

12 A There is. One year after death. Tommie Rae filed
13 her challenges, two separate lawsuits on December 19th.
14 One year after Mr. Brown's death was December 25th, but 15 that was a holiday. And so, Mr. Levinson on behalf of five 16 of the six children named in the will and their children,
17 filed the challenges on December 26, 2007.

18 Q Okay.

19 A The last day.

20 Q All right. Did those will challenges create any 21 discord among the parties?

22 A Well, there was already plenty, so I wouldn't say
23 that event, but, I mean there was extraordinary discord
24 already in place.

25 Q And in your opinion did the in terrorem clause

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 apply now to the individuals that filed these will 2 challenges?

3 A Well, to -- sitting here, I would say as a legal 4 matter, yes. We very much did not want to have to enforce
5 the in terrorem clause. We wanted to stave off a
6 challenge.

7 Q Okay.

8 A And we did everything we could to do that.

9 Q All right. That's where I wanted to go. It
10 appeared as though the latter part of November -- and we 11 talked about that. What is this green graph?

12 A That is a drawing of my time spent as personal 13 representative.

14 Q Okay.

15 A A graph of my time spent as personal
16 representative.

17 Q Those are your hours?

18 A These are my hours.

19 Q All right.

20 THE COURT: Now, I asked a question when we were 21 opening or when we were going over those demonstrative
22 aids, I was told, I thought, that was your hours and your 23 help.

24 THE WITNESS: No, Your Honor. The 1,473,550 is -- 25 includes time and cost for myself and for my assistants.

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 They're -- in schedule -- Exhibit 5 of the joint claim,
2 Mr. Buchanan and I filed in 2009, we recounted our staff
3 hours. So it's documented, but not in the chart. It is 4 included in the number.

5 MR. BUNDY: May I approach, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: You may.

7 Anyway the green includes staff and lawyer.

8 THE WITNESS: The green includes staff and lawyers.

9 MR. BUNDY: That's Exhibit 5.

10 THE COURT: I've got Exhibit 7.

11 MR. BUNDY: Well, it's Exhibit 7 to this trial.

12 THE COURT: It's identified Exhibit 5.

13 MR. BUNDY: It used to be Exhibit 5 in the 14 affidavit. It's now Exhibit 7 and that's the back up for 15 what she just explained.

16 BY MR. BUNDY:

17 Q All right. So now, it looks as though according to 18 this, you logged about 150 hours in the month of December, 19 correct?

20 A Yes.

21 Q Or at least that's what you wrote down?

22 A Well, that's what -- that is what my time sheets
23 showed and that is what my descriptions showed and I think
24 my descriptions may have missed a day or two, but my time
25 sheets and my time records -- a day or two, I mean over the

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 period of a year and a half, but -- that I forgot to 2 recapture -- but my time records which I prepared in 3 connection with the claim which is the subject of this 4 action in 2009 clearly reflected that.

5 MR. BUNDY: And, Your Honor, I believe you have 6 that in front of you. I don't have -- I didn't write the 7 exhibit number down, unfortunately.

8 THE COURT: I think it's Number 8.

9 MR. BUNDY: Number 8.

10 BY MR. BUNDY:

11 Q And is that contained in Exhibit 8, Ms. Pope? Here
12 it is right here, Exhibit 8?

13 A Yes. The chart --

14 THE COURT: That's a break down of the hours; is 15 that correct?

16 THE WITNESS: The chart -- the chart was then put 17 into a similar computation and I checked each one and then
18 we checked the green chart against it.

19 BY MR. BUNDY:

20 Q So if the judge desires he can go to any day here
21 and read a narrative of what you did on that day?

22 A He can.

23 Q And how much time it took?

24 A Well, he could get it from there or he could get it
25 from hundreds of pages of other documents.

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 Q I got you. Okay.

2 So let's talk about, just in general based on your 3 recollection, what you were doing from the time you became
4 PR/Trustee until the will challenge to persuade the people
5 who would ultimately file the will challenge not to file a
6 will challenge. Tell us what you did.

7 A Well, Judge Buchanan and I always hoped that that 8 third seat would be a family seat.

9 Q The third seat as a trustee?

10 A The third seat that Judge Early had allows us to 11 leave vacant. I mean that was the way it ideally would 12 have been and we knew --

13 Q Why did you want to do that?

14 A Well, because it was James Brown. And if a family
15 member could be one of three trustees, it would be great.
16 And so, we really began to try to stave off a will contest
17 by Louis Levinson's clients.

18 Q Well, what -- why would -- who -- let me start it
19 this way: Who were you hoping to put on the board? Which 20 family members or member were you hoping to put on the 21 board? Or ask to be on the board?

22 A Well, honestly, we perhaps had not gotten that far,
23 but clearly either Deanna or Yamma would have been highly 24 qualified to be on it if they hadn't challenged the will.

25 Q Okay. So -- and I guess that's what I'm trying to

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 get to.. How is it that a will challenge somehow affects
2 their ability to be on -- a trustee?

3 A Well, because Judge -- I'm sorry. Because James
4 Brown had said himself, had said anybody who challenges
5 this will either directly or indirectly loses standing. I
6 mean, he was serious that he did not want a challenge. And 7 if I could put it in a little better context, remember as 8 special administrators, we were looking at the fund. We 9 didn't care who was going to get it. There was no will 10 challenge at the time, so we assumed it was going where it
11 does go under the documents.

12 But if -- if there had been a will challenge at 13 that time, it wouldn't have been our affair. But once we 14 were appointed PR's and trustees two things happened. One,
15 it was our legal duty to defend the will -- well, three.

16 Two, James Brown's documents demanded it.

17 And three, and this I've really never seen before
18 in a will contest, more than a year before and just four 19 days after he had entered that $26 million transaction with 20 15 lawyers in New York, James Brown had done an earlier
21 will and trust which looked almost exactly like this 22 document. And there was some minor changes, but 23 essentially we had an ironclad estate plan. But the copy
24 of the '99 documents were in a sealed box; and so the first 25 thing we did when we read that document was urge people to

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 unseal that box and read that because I thought that if
2 Louis Levinson would understand how insurmountable, from 3 our perspective at least, the challenge -- a challenge to 4 the will would be, that we could maybe keep him from doing
5 that.

6 And so, the judge may remember, that on December
7 21st, he was sick and we had a hearing and we were -- we
8 were begging to let that box be opened and Your Honor
9 looked at Stan Jackson and said, where are your clients?
10 Can they open that box.

11 And Mr. Jackson said he would check with them and 12 get to Judge Buchanan and me that afternoon. That was the 13 21st of December. And Mr. Jackson left town. I think
14 Judge Buchanan had to go scale his fence to get his phone
15 number or something, but anyway, finally after a lot of 16 work on Judge Buchanan's part, on -- at noon on December
17 24th, Christmas Eve, we faxed the '99 will to Mr. Levinson
18 and everyone else hoping, hoping that they would look at 19 that and not challenge the documents.

20 So -- so -- but they did. And so --

21 Q Let me stop you there --

22 A -- we really wanted to give them some time to drop
23 that lawsuit.

24 Q Let me ask you a question. Based on your 25 experience and expertise and based upon what you knew at

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 the time in light of the '99 will and trust documents
2 compared with the 2000 documents, do you have an opinion to 3 a reasonable degree of certainty as to the likelihood of 4 success of a will contest, based on those documents?

5 MR. WILLIAMS: Your Honor, back to our prior 6 objection.

7 THE COURT: I'll sustain that objection.

8 MR. BUNDY: Thank you, Your Honor.

9 BY MR. BUNDY:

10 Q All right. Now, you were unsuccessful -- and let's
11 -- I think we are now -- you were unsuccessful in avoiding
12 a will contest; is that correct?

13 A We were.

14 Q And there were three different sort of groups
15 contesting the will; is that fair to say?

16 A No. There were two, what I would call groups.
17 Tomi Rae and her son being group one and the five 18 Levinson clients for themselves and their children being 19 the other. The third group of non-charitable beneficiaries
20 was the son, Terry Brown and his children, Forlando and 21 Romunzo. And they were very much supporting the will, but 22 they in turn on -- not they, I'm sorry. Forlando in turn 23 on January 2nd, 2008, filed a federal court action in the 24 Court where Judge Buchanan practices, seeking to enjoin the 25 2000 Trust from taking any action until the Cannon trustees

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 were reinstated.

2 Q Okay.

3 A There was a -- there's a lot going on, but they 4 theoretically were supporting the will.

5 Q Okay. What was the basis of the will contest as 6 you understand it?

7 A I haven't looked at it in a long time, but undue
8 influence.

9 Q Undue influence, okay.

10 All right. Now, in January -- I guess we would be 11 now into January here. Yes. All right.

12 THE COURT: January of '08, right?

13 MR. BUNDY: January of '08, Your Honor, yes.

14 BY MR. BUNDY:

15 Q And this document is entitled Order Directing 16 Payment of Fees and Costs of Special Administrators and 17 Other Relief. What was the genesis of this order,
18 Ms. Pope?

19 A Well, we had completed our service as special
20 administrators and we hadn't been paid. And also, I went 21 with my husband to a -- a meeting in -- somewhere. And I
22 sat by a gentleman who had served in a lot of court
23 appointments and he said to me -- and he was somebody I
24 respected. He said, go home and make arrangements for how 25 you get paid now.

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 And I went to Judge Buchanan and I said, this
2 gentleman said we need to make arrangements for how we get 3 paid now.

4 So we -- we -- we had the authority under the 5 documents to just pay ourselves. James Brown's documents
6 would allow that, as long as we paid ourselves a reasonable
7 amount. But we said no. So we essentially made an 8 agreement with ourselves as PR's and trustees,
9 individually, to be paid on a time plus cost basis, similar 10 to what we were asking for as special administrators. But 11 this would be for, for time and costs as a deposit toward a
12 full commission and so that was what we requested.

13 That was what we approved as PR's and trustees and 14 that was what we presented to Judge Early in a filing in 15 December and -- which he approved in -- on January 8th,
16 what we call the payment order of January 8, 2008.

17 Q All right. Let's look at it.

18 A Okay.

19 Q It says, Both Mr. Buchanan and Ms. Pope are 20 attorneys with substantial experience. This has been an 21 extremely difficult case -- and it continued to be 22 extremely difficult?

23 A Double difficult.

24 Q Okay. So worse than it was then?

25 A About twice.

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 Q Okay -- and has required they devote a large
2 portion of their day almost every day to the task --
3 that was accurate then?

4 A Absolutely..

5 Q And how did that change, if any, in the -- going
6 forward?

7 A It got worse.

8 Q All right. Their discovery of the inappropriate
9 2006 deposit of 9,000 -- $900,000, which should have been
10 applied to Mr. Brown's debt has been of substantial value
11 -- with the help of family members and their counsel, the 12 special administrators investigated numerous areas of 13 concern. As PR's and trustees they are continuing their 14 work.

15 So let's go to the next paragraph, please.

16 In addition to their own work, the special
17 administrators were required to use staff in a way which 18 was not anticipated at the time of their appointment.
19 Mr. Buchanan's office became the home address of the James 20 Brown Estate, the James Brown 2000 Irrevocable Trust and 21 the Brown Entities. Ms. Pope's office became the 22 repository for more than 80 boxes of documents. With the 23 assistance of the staff of former counsel for the PR
24 representatives, after August 10, 2007, Ms. Pope and her 25 staff made documents and records available to counsel for

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 all interested parties, as well as the work of the estate.

2 Now, let's go to the next one. With respect to
3 their request to receive periodic payments on a time plus
4 cost basis, with full right -- with right to receive full
5 commissions as personal representatives and trustees, I
6 find that it is entirely reasonable under the 7 circumstances. Based on their affidavits it is clear that 8 the work of Mr. Buchanan and Ms. Pope has approximately 9 doubled since they became personal representatives and 10 trustees.

11 And that's consistent with the green chart, is it
12 not?

13 A Yeah. I actually checked that over the weekend. I
14 was spending 100 hours or less a month as special 15 administrator and as PR and trustee, about 200 -- 200 or 16 more each month.

17 Q Okay. So you went --

18 A With the one exception, I think.

19 Q Right. Right.

20 In less than a month of service, they have filed
21 the application of recognition of the James Brown "I Feel 22 Good" Trust as a 501(c)3 Charitable Educational 23 Organization. They have also begun to address the 24 substantial tax issues facing the estate, the trust, and 25 the Brown Entities.

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 Further, they are now actively involved in both the 2 administration of Mr. Brown's assets and entities and also 3 the defense of his estate plan.

4 Go to the next line, please.

5 Under these circumstances the Court finds it
6 appropriate for Mr. Buchanan and Ms. Pope, as personal 7 representatives and trustees to continue to receive fees
8 and costs on an hourly basis, as a deposit only --

9 What does that mean?

10 A Well, just what it said. For example, if, if --
11 remember now, we were PR's and trustees and we would later 12 seek a commission that was in the range of 5 percent; and 13 so if we had been timely paid under this order and my 14 commission at approximately 2.8 million then would be 15 reduced by what I had been paid.

16 Q If you hadn't have been paid it wouldn't be 17 reduced?

18 A It hadn't been paid, it wouldn't be produced
19 (verbatim), plus it would earn interest from the time it
20 was earned.

21 Q So it was contemplated at the time of your order
22 that your fees, your commissions, would not be limited to 23 your hours?

24 A No. They would not be.

25 Q Okay. -- as a deposit only to any full commissions

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 to which they might be entitled as personal representatives
2 and trustees. I specifically find that such payments are 3 reasonable and should be made without prejudice to, but as 4 a deposit toward their full commissions.

5 And it was upon that order you proceeded as PR and 6 trustees; is that correct?

7 A That order and James Brown's documents.

8 Q Let's go to the last part of the order.

9 Based on the foregoing, it is ordered, adjudged and 10 decreed: Robert L. Buchanan, Jr. and Adele J. Pope shall 11 receive continuing payment on a time, plus costs basis for 12 themselves and their staff, commencing November 21, 2007.

13 And that's right here, the beginning of the green
14 graph, correct?

15 A That's correct.

16 Q Shall be a deposit toward and without prejudice to 17 their full commissions as personal representatives and 18 trustees.

19 Is the time plus cost that you're seeking under 20 that portion of this order $1,473,550 plus 8.75 percent,
21 simple interest?

22 A Yes.

23 Q Thank you.

24 Now, Three: To the extent not paid within 60 days,
25 the above amounts shall be subject to interest at the legal

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 rate. Correct?

2 A Yes, and actually theoretically, a bunch of that
3 was earning interest all along.

4 Q Right.

5 A But I have simply asked the Court to accrue the 6 interest from May 26, 2009, which was the date we were 7 relieved of our appointment.

8 Q Okay. And are there -- is there any question about 9 what the legal rate is in your mind or are there more than 10 one legal rate and you selected one as opposed to the 11 other?

12 A Well, I see my son-in-law over there because he 13 taught me to watch this, but at some point, approximately 14 seven years out, one of the two rates of legal interest in 15 South Carolina have a crossover. For the first years, 16 prime plus 4 percent will be the higher rate. I mean will 17 be the lower rate. Prime plus 4 percent would have been 18 the lower rate. But that compounds, where as the 8 and 19 three-fourths percent rate does not compound. Simple 20 interest, so at about 6 or 7 years, they crossover and the 21 rate that I've asked for is the lower of the two --

22 Q So --

23 A -- possible interpretations of the word legal rate.

24 Q So you're not asking interest during the time
25 period and you're also not asking for the highest interest

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 you could get?

2 A Right. Except for the last -- theoretically the 3 last 60 days.

4 Q And then Robert Buchanan and Adele Pope shall be
5 reimbursed for all costs as shown.

6 Now, this was a filed document with the Court,
7 served on all the parties; correct? As far as you know?

8 A Absolutely.

9 Q Okay. Did anybody file a 59(e) motion?

10 A No.

11 Q Did anybody appeal?

12 A No.

13 Q Is that on appeal now?

14 A No.

15 Q All right. And based upon the failure to file a
16 59(e) or appeals, was this the understanding of how you
17 were to be compensated going forward?

18 A Yes.

19 Q All right. Now let's look at the -- I'd like to 20 talk to you now, just generally about -- let's talk about 21 what else we've got in the -- it looks like the month of -- 22 where are we, in December?

23 No, January, I believe it is. We've got an order
24 scheduling hearings. What's the significance of -- of this 25 order in your mind, Ms. Pope?

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 A Well, it's only significant in that so much was
2 going on. I mean many, many things had happened other than 3 the five lawsuits I've mentioned to you between November
4 20th and the date of this order.

5 Mr. Dallas and Mr. Bradley had sought to have Judge
6 Early recuse himself. There were accusations everywhere.
7 There was acrimony everywhere. There was just lots to be 8 dealt with and so we had requested, and I don't think
9 anyone disagreed, that we have regular hearings because so
10 much was going on.

11 And so that's just representative of the fact that 12 every single month, and sometimes twice and a couple of 13 times three times a month, there would be a hearing of some 14 sort to deal with some of the many, many, many, issues that 15 were going on.

16 Q Was there discord amongst the participants in this 17 the proceeding?

18 A There was discord everywhere.

19 Q How much of it did you cause?

20 A None. Except that we -- we did believe that we had 21 to defend the estate plan. I don't call that --

22 Q I understand?

23 A -- discord.

24 Q The discord you created was by defending the estate
25 plan?

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 A That would be the only possible interpretation of 2 it.

3 Q All right. Let's go to Order Approving Engagement
4 of Counsel?

5 A Yes. That was the order by which Judge Early
6 authorized us to engage Mr. Few and Mr. Gilreath.

7 Q All right. Let's talk about that engagement a
8 moment. As of -- the attorney general had been involved in 9 this matter now for how long?

10 A He came in on September 24th and was officially
11 admitted on October 4th.

12 Q Okay. So this is now December?

13 A January.

14 Q January?

15 A Uh-huh.

16 Q January. Okay.

17 When you -- we discussed earlier that you had 18 decided or -- when you were special administrator, that you
19 wanted to hire Gilreath and Few to go after Mr. Cannon and 20 whatever else he -- could be discovered relative to those 21 misdeeds; correct?

22 A Correct.

23 Q All right. Did the attorney general, through Sonny
24 Havird Jones become involved in that discussion regarding 25 who the attorneys should be?

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 A Yes.

2 Q All right. And can you tell us the nature of that
3 involvement?

4 A Sonny wanted to control the litigation. And he
5 wanted to do it through the Attorney General's Official
6 Counsel Litigation Retention Agreement, which he took pride
7 in having helped the attorney general develop.

8 That agreement, again, most essentially put the 9 attorney general in control of the litigation.

10 Q What was your position relative to the legal right
11 of the attorney general to control that litigation?

12 A Well, it was always we wanted to work with the 13 attorney general. We wanted him on our side, but we 14 thought the engagement should be lawyers selected by the 15 trustees. We certainly wanted him to agree with us about 16 that. And he did, in fact, agree that Mr. Few and 17 Mr. Gilreath were extraordinarily competent. He just 18 wanted us to select his people.

19 Q As an accommodation to him, did you interview or 20 otherwise talk to lawyers he wanted you to hire?

21 A We did. I spent about -- several hours on the 22 phone with representatives of the law firm of Mark Buyk,
23 who is a wonderful lawyer. And -- but, Mr. Buyk then 24 notified the attorney general that his firm was not 25 interested in the appointment.

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 And then Sonny wanted us to hire Steve Hamm. And 2 Steve, again, is a fine lawyer, but we felt we had picked
3 the finest lawyers for this assignment. And ultimately,
4 the judge agreed with us.

5 Q Okay. And that's when he gave you the right in 6 this order to retain counsel?

7 A That's correct.

8 Q All right. And it was a continuous duty.
9 Did the -- are you aware of any discussion between 10 Mr. Few and Mr. Gilreath about -- that the attorney general
11 -- the attorney signing the attorney general's contract at 12 his hourly rate or whatever?

13 A Well, they did make us some concession to their fee
14 to -- giving Mr. Jones credit, Mr. Gilreath, and Mr. Few 15 did make a concession to their fee. But what they weren't 16 wanting to be was be under the control of the attorney
17 general.

18 Q Well, didn't the attorney general want 10 percent
19 of the recovery?

20 A Well, that -- that is true. All of the attorney
21 general's contracts give the attorney general's office 10
22 percent of, not the recovery, the legal fees.

23 Q So Mr. Jones had a financial interest in putting 24 his lawyers in and signing his contract and controlling
25 that litigation as an employee of the attorney general?

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 A Well, that's been raised a lot of times about other
2 people. It was not the focus of our concern at the time.

3 Q But did it cause you any concern as the trustee?

4 A Not -- not at the time.

5 Q Okay. All right. And let's move to the order --

6 THE COURT: It's one o'clock, Mr. Bundy.

7 MR. BUNDY: Good time to stop.

8 THE COURT: Well, and I'm trying to keep us on 9 schedule. So we're going to stop at one and we will start
10 back at two. You folks enjoy your lunch.

11 Ms. Pope don't discuss your case with your lawyers,
12 please.

13 THE WITNESS: May I have lunch with my daughter?

14 THE COURT: How about your husband?

15 THE WITNESS: Oh, well, we'll invite him if he'll 16 pay. Thank you.

17 THE COURT: All right. Everyone have a nice lunch.
18 We'll start back at two o'clock. Thank you very much.

19 (A recess for lunch was observed.)

20 MR. BUNDY: May it please the Court?

21 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

22 BY MR. BUNDY:

23 Q All right. Ms. Pope, before the lunch break, I
24 believe we were looking at the Denial of the 25 Reconsideration -- we went through the -- this is the

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 period where you -- this would be the motion of
2 reconsideration. What is going on in January of 2008
3 regarding Mr. Cannon?

4 A Okay. Well, this is just a denial of Judge Early's
5 -- of David Cannon's attempt to have a reconsideration of 6 Judge Early's order finding him in contempt and then later
7 on there was a question of whether the contempt was willful
8 and that continued on.

9 And really like lots of things you've asked me
10 about, lots went on and it really would be at least 11 minimally recorded in the time -- the time records and 12 explanations. So there was lots going on about Cannon.

13 Q And that would be --

14 A Throughout --

15 Q That would be graphically represented here, would 16 it not?

17 A Well, it certainly would. Cannon and many other
18 things; yes, would be part of that graph.

19 Q Next, I'd like to draw your attention to Court of 20 Appeals Order Ex Parte David Cannon --

21 A Again --

22 Q -- dated February 1, 2008?

23 A Again, I think Judge Early found that Mr. Cannon's
24 behavior -- now, again, this wasn't all of Mr. Cannon's
25 takings, but found that Mr. Cannon's actions, which had

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 been the subject of the November 15, and 20th, 2007,
2 hearings were willful contempt. Of particular note was 3 that he had wired $900,000 to Roatan Island in the -- in 4 Honduras in the Caribbean to purchase a turnkey retirement
5 mansion which was being built at the same time he was 6 telling the Court he was unable to make payments.

7 And we -- by the way, by the time this order comes 8 out a young woman I knew had gone to Roatan Island and 9 taken some pictures of the structure which was being built
10 to be his turnkey retirement mansion.

11 Q And these funds were sent to Roatan during a period
12 of time, of time when he was under a Court order to repay a 13 debt?

14 A Well, close. It was August 16, 200 -- August 16,
15 200 --

16 (The Court handed Ms. Pope a document.)

17 THE COURT: That's that order you can refer to.

18 THE WITNESS: -- 7 -- oh, thank you -- that I
19 believe he -- he wired -- it was certainly -- we were 20 looking into the missing money at the time. And I could be 21 wrong. He could have wired only $800,000 to Roatan because 22 earlier in the year in 2007, he had spent $200,000 on the 23 lot; but essentially, it was a million dollar retirement
24 mansion.

25 Q All right. The next document is the --

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 THE COURT: And it was paid for all before the 2 first shovel of dirt was turned. You remember that?

3 THE WITNESS: Your Honor, but the dirt was turned
4 and it did get finished.

5 THE COURT: I know, but he had paid for it before
6 any dirt was turned.

7 THE WITNESS: Yes, Your Honor.

8 BY MR. BUNDY:

9 Q The next I'd like to draw your attention to is 10 February 1, 2008 Order Granting Supercedes from Court of 11 Appeals, I believe.

12 A That's just more of the Cannon issue. He was 13 ordered to go to jail and he could purge himself by certain 14 actions. And he was seeking to post a bond rather than to 15 post a cash bond. I don't remember today all the details,
16 but there -- there was a lot going on. And also Cannon
17 kept changing lawyers in the process as well.

18 Q And then there's February 6, 2008 order clarifying
19 the bond?

20 A Again, that was Cannon wanting to put up -- post
21 some sort of bond by people who had assets rather than a
22 cash bond. And he was allowed, as I recall to do that.
23 And then somehow he ended up going to jail because either
24 the bond ran out or there was something else that happened.

25 Q And then the next document would be the 2008,

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 February 19 order, wherein Judge Early denied the motion
2 for recusal which had been filed by Dallas and Bradley; is
3 that correct?

4 A Right. Well, there was just a lot going on with 5 Mr. Dallas and Mr. Bradley and with everyone between our 6 appointment, but specifically between the will contests
7 that were filed on December 19 and 26, 2007, and this
8 period when this order was issued.

9 And one was that Powell Goldstein, the lawyers for 10 the Forlando suit that had been brought against the 2000
11 Trust on January 2nd, 2008, to try to enjoin the trust from 12 taking any action until the Cannon trustees were 13 reinstated.

14 Those lawyers, Powell Goldstein, were also helping 15 Mr. Dallas attempt to require Judge Early to recuse
16 himself. And he filed a motion to require Judge Early to 17 recuse himself and a motion for another judge to hear the 18 recusal motion. And that happened right at the end of 19 December or the very first of January of 2008. And Judge
20 Early, because that brought a halt to everything until 21 there was a ruling.

22 Judge Early set yet another hearing, not one of the 23 scheduled ones, for January 4th of 2008, and -- and before
24 he had a chance to hear the issue about whether another
25 judge had to hear the recusal, the Supreme Court sent down

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 an order making clear that Judge Early was the appropriate
2 judge to hear the recusal motion. And so he did hear the
3 recusal motion on the 4th of January and he orally denied
4 the recusal from the bench. And he would have issued an 5 order, I'm sure shortly after that, but Mr. Dallas and Mr.
6 Bradley changed lawyers, and within a few days a new
7 lawyer, Wayne Byrd had come in on their behalf and he asked
8 Judge Early to please not issue the order.

9 I don't know, but he just -- he was hoping that 10 something could be resolved before the order was issued.
11 It was not -- nothing was resolved. And so the order came 12 out on February 19th, 2008.

13 Q So in terms of your abilities to perform your 14 duties as the trustee, what effect did the Forlando suit
15 and the motion for recusal have on your ability to 16 represent yourself as acting on behalf of the trust -- on 17 behalf of the trust so you could get some things done?

18 A Well, those were -- those were -- had some effect
19 on it, but the real effect was -- or the larger effect was 20 -- was the attorney general of South Carolina was 21 challenging Judge Early's authority to appoint us to the 22 two roles. And so on -- on approximately January 6, Judge
23 Buchanan and I filed documents with the Court and, of 24 course, served them on the parties. And essentially, the 25 documents said, if Judge Early will not conduct a hearing

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 and at that hearing investigate and determine both that our
2 appointment is valid and that all of our service has been
3 both ethical and appropriate, we ask the Court to allow us
4 to resign. And we asked the Court to allow us to resign in 5 a way that doesn't allow the Cannon trustees to be returned
6 because that was -- with the federal lawsuit pending, that 7 was a huge fear.

8 Today it seems absurd because we know that Mr.
9 Cannon took $17 million, but at that time, on January 6 of 10 2008, it was a huge threat because the attorney general had 11 been told that Mr. Cannon was innocent, that Bob Buchanan
12 and I had tossed him out to get a $5 million commission on 13 $100 million estate and that we were trying to transfer 14 assets from the trust into the estate to increase our 15 commissions:

16 So it was a -- today it seems absurd, but it was a
17 real threat then and Mr. -- Judge Buchanan and I wanted to 18 resign if the judge did not find that everything we had 19 done was okay. But we wanted to resign in a way that 20 Cannon -- the Cannon trustees could not come back in.

21 Q And did you, in fact -- did Judge Early hear that 22 motion? Did he rule? Or how did that end up?

23 A Well, he did, but it took a little time because he 24 correctly determined that if he heard the motion of Mr.
25 Dallas and Mr. Bradley to be reinstated, in other words to

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 rescind their resignations -- they had not been removed by 2 Judge Early, they had resigned in open court. But they 3 were now saying that their resignations were forced, that 4 they were illegal, you know, a number of allegations. And 5 so Judge Early appropriately determined that the first
6 thing to do was to find if he was going to reinstate them
7 because that would render our motion moot.

8 But -- so the first hearing held was, I think 9 February 8th of 2008. And at that hearing, he dealt with 10 the issue of whether Mr. Cannon and Mr. Dallas could 11 rescind their resignations. And on March 7th, which was 12 the next scheduled hearing, Judge Early issued and 13 distributed an order saying that Mr. Cannon -- I'm sorry --
14 Mr. Dallas and Mr. Bradley could not rescind their 15 resignations. So that ended there.

16 And so that very day he proceeded with the hearing
17 on Judge Buchanan's and my request to review our 18 appointments and determine whether we were properly
19 appointed and whether we had served both ethically and 20 appropriately because since December 20 -- I'm sorry.
21 Since November 21, 2007, the attorney general had been 22 making the allegation that it was unethical for us to serve
23 as both PR and -- PR's and trustees; not that our work was 24 inappropriate, but holding the two offices was 25 inappropriate. And we had gotten a slight reprieve or a

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 little bit of comfort about that because those were strong
2 allegations.

3 And on January 9th at a hearing before Judge
4 Early, Judge Buchanan and I asked the Court to poll all of 5 the parties and the essence of the poll was -- even though
6 they're all these challenges to our appointment, does 7 everybody in the room agree that during the pendency of 8 these challenges, which would be up until April, that we --
9 that they want us to continue to administer both the estate
10 and the trust in a professional way. And that's on the 11 record of the January 9th, 2008 hearing.

12 And Judge Early allowed us to poll the entire 13 group, which included both attorneys general, Mr. Jackson
14 for Dallas and Cannon, and every other interested person.
15 And all of them on the record affirmed that they wanted us
16 to continue and, in fact, at this hearing, we told the 17 Court that if not, we wanted to make a record at every 18 hearing of what we were doing and what people were 19 objecting to... But they approved it and then we explained
20 at that same hearing that as special administrators, there
21 were many things that were coming before the Court. But as 22 PR's and trustees under James Brown's documents, we didn't 23 have to have that constant Court oversight so that we would 24 simply be reporting to the Court from time to time when the 25 hearings took place to let -- to let everybody know

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 everything we were doing because our goal was to have a
2 very open administration. There had been too much secrecy
3 and too much thievery.

4 Q And was that memorialized -- that was just done in 5 open court?

6 A It's in the record of the January 9th, 2008
7 hearing.

8 Q Okay. So now, let's -- so now, are we -- is there
9 anything else from February we need to discuss in your --
10 to your recollection?

11 A Let's see -- oh, gosh, yes. Beginning -- I think I
12 mentioned earlier, I'm referring now to the February 20th
13 2008 order approving sale of certain tangible personal
14 property. As I mentioned to you everyone knew before Mr.
15 Bradley and Mr. Dallas resigned that a sale was going to be 16 necessary to pay the estate taxes attributable to the 17 household goods that were going to private individuals.
18 Not all of the property that was going to the charity. And 19 they knew, again, that for every dollar of value that James
20 Brown's six children were to receive, there would be more
21 than 40 cents on the dollar of estate taxes.

22 So they were already working or at least starting 23 to work with an organization called Julien's, an auction
24 house run by a gentleman named Darren Julien. And Judge
25 Buchanan and I didn't know much about this, but I do

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 remember we had a little chat with them on Halloween night
2 of 2007 and Judge Bradley made a call to Darren Julien, so
3 that's how I happened to remember the name.

4 But -- so we knew we had to have some sort of a
5 sale to raise funds. And we also knew that a mortgage on 6 the Beech Island property, which would have been the normal
7 procedure to get some money for this illiquid estate, was 8 no longer possible for five reasons, four will trust
9 contests and the federal suit in which Forlando was 10 alleging that Judge Early's appointment was illegal.

11 So we couldn't seek traditional funding to pay
12 these estate taxes for the tangible personal property.
13 So -- and the -- and the -- and the children did
14 not have the funds to pay it. So there we were. And we 15 were coming up -- you can tell from February 20th, we were 16 coming up on March 25, 2008, which was the first automatic 17 extension for filing the estate tax return, but we knew by 18 then we're not going to make that date. But we knew we had 19 to get going. And so we began looking for a quality
20 auction house to conduct some of the sale of at least some 21 of the tangible personal property. And --

22 Q What about other sources of funding like copyright
23 revenues, royalty revenues, or any of the rest of it?

24 A Well, a sale of those assets was being thrown 25 about, but there was a huge problem associated with that.

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 Do you want me to tell you what it was?

2 Q Yes, please.

3 A Okay. Between October 18th and October 20th, 2006,
4 a letter came out from Greenberg Traurig, the law firm of 5 Joel Katz that I've mentioned earlier, to Buddy Dallas and 6 -- and to -- directed to James Brown who was alive at the 7 time. We got it from Buddy, but it was directed to James
8 Brown; and I remember we talked earlier about the Pullman
9 litigation. We discussed that and we discussed how it fell 10 through.

11 Well, by October of 2006, this is shortly before
12 James Brown dies, Greenberg Traurig and Dallas and Cannon
13 and a gentleman named Frank Copsidas, who ran an entity
14 called Intrigue, were now looking for another way to do the 15 refinancing that had fallen through on May 5th, 2006. And 16 they -- and a letter was written by Greenberg Traurig to 17 Mr. Brown that says, essentially, we've got this new way to 18 do the deal. Even though the Pullman matter had not been 19 resolved, it was still being litigated, they were looking 20 for a new deal.

21 And the new deal called for a refinance -- either a
22 sell or a refi. of what a lot of people call the Book of 23 Music, which was the approximately 850 major copyrights.
24 And so they were going to sell or refinance these 25 copyrights as they -- which we know now that RBS had valued

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 at about 42 million and from that figure they were going to
2 take, I think I'm right, 5 percent for Greenberg Traurig;
3 12-and-a-half or 15 percent for Frank Copsidas; 5 percent
4 plus 5, $500,000 for Mr. Dallas; 5 percent, plus I think,
5 about a million more for Mr. Cannon; and $100,000 for 6 Mr. Bobbitt and there might have been more.

7 But essentially what came to be known as the 8 October 18th letter was an absolute gutting of the equity
9 that -- poor James Brown had spent since '99 getting in the 10 TIAA deal and fortunately never went through, but so -- a 11 sale of those copyrights was -- at that point, while they 12 were still claiming those percentages -- and I will tell
13 you that before I was appointed on -- at the hearing which 14 took place in February of 2007, Mr. Peoples, who was one of 15 the early lawyers for the Cannon group said, If anything
16 happens to this agreement, there will be lawsuits you've 17 never heard of.

18 So there were people that believed that these 19 gentlemen and that law firm and their equities were 20 entitled to about half of any sale of the major copyrights
21 and that had to be resolved.

22 Q So you were left with what to try to generate funds
23 to have any liquidity in the estate?

24 A Well, we were left with a sale of some of the 25 multitude of pieces of tangible personal property and it

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 sort of made sense because it was the very people who were 2 receiving the household goods who were generating the 3 estate tax because the grandchildren got their 2 million
4 estate tax free and the charity got its 80 million estate
5 tax free. So it was equitable and even if it hadn't been 6 equitable it was the only solution.

7 Q All right. So then as part of this order -- we're
8 now on the order of February --

9 A Right. Right.

10 Q Item Number 3, the request --

11 A Right. That --

12 Q -- for IRS charitable recognition of the James 13 Brown "I Feel Good" Trust has never been filed. What was 14 the significance of that?

15 A Well, that was, "had never been filed" because this
16 was a recounting by Judge Early in the February 20th order
17 of just kind of what a mess everything was in when we took 18 over. By then, we had filed it. We filed it on December 19 5th, but he was just recanting the history prior to our 20 appointment.

21 MR. BUNDY: Let's go to the next callout, please.
22 Let's go back up. I want to look at Number 5, please.
23 Item Number 5.

24 THE WITNESS: The majority of royalties from --

25 ///

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 BY MR. BUNDY:

2 Q Let him get it first, please.

3 A I'm sorry.

4 Q That's okay. You see it?

5 A Yes.

6 Q I know you do.

7 THE COURT: The majority, is that what it is?

8 THE WITNESS: Right.

9 The majority of --

10 BY MR. BUNDY:

11 Q This was a finding by the judge, the majority of 12 royalties from Mr. Brown's published songs are pledged to 13 the trustee with the TIAA royalty-backed debt and will be 14 unavailable for 5 to 7 years. Was that correct?

15 A That is correct. Based on our -- I'm sure our 16 explanation that a sale would generate these -- these 17 absurd claims.

18 Q Okay. All right. Let's go to Number 7, the next
19 callout.

20 A Okay.

21 Q Okay. In Number 7, the Court takes judicial notice
22 that the following directly interfere with or inhibit the 23 ability of the PR/trustees to seek traditional funding.

24 A The challenge by most children to the existence
25 of the trust, makes a traditional mortgage of the home

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 estate problematic.

2 Q You testified to that, correct?

3 A That's correct.

4 Q B, A federal lawsuit by Forlando Brown seeking
5 removal impairs the ability of the trustees to obtain
6 financing for the estate/trust?

7 A True.

8 Q C, the actions of the former PR/trustees, the South
9 Carolina Attorney General and certain beneficiaries
10 challenging the appointment of Mr. Buchanan and Ms. Pope
11 negatively affects their ability to perform their duties
12 without seeking Court approval or seek long-term
13 arrangements for the estate/trust. Is that accurate? Is 14 that judicial notice correct?

15 A Yes.

16 Q Okay. So you were left with --

17 A The Christies' sale.

18 Q Now, the notion that the attorney general was doing
19 things which were affecting, negatively affecting your 20 ability to perform your duties, was that an extraordinary
21 matter in your opinion based on your experience in trusts
22 and estates?

23 A For a short time, it would not have been 24 extraordinary for this reason: Mr. Cannon and Mr. Dallas
25 went to the attorney general, as I said, and said, This is

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 a money hungry woman and gentleman who want to oust us, the 2 innocent trustees, so that they can get the $5 million
3 commission payable on the 5 million -- $100 million
4 estate.

5 And further, they're raiding the trust and 6 putting it in the estate to increase the size of this 7 estate to increase their commissions. And --

8 Q Are either one of those statements accurate?

9 A No. They were lies.

10 Q Okay.

11 A But for the attorney general to be concerned about 12 that, initially was appropriate. What became the problem
13 was that -- that the attorney general continued the 14 alliance with Mr. Cannon and Mr. Dallas and assistance to 15 Mr. Cannon and Mr. Dallas and Forlando up through at least 16 May of 2008 and that -- that created huge problems.
17 Attorney General McMaster, for example, got it only by what 18 he learned from Sonny, on February 7th, went on WIS TV and 19 he talked about the massive wealth of James Brown and -- 20 and he said that working for the poor kids, and that was 21 the term he used, working for the poor kids and the family
22 went far past the stop sign of conflict of interest.

23 He's -- he recounted James Brown's huge and 24 important persona and wealth, but -- but the program was 25 billed as Forlando, this family hero taking on, I think

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 they called us two prominent lawyers, Mr. Buchanan and me.

2 And so this whole notion of the -- the most
3 powerful lawyer in the state, whose job it is to protect 4 charities siding with Cannon, who is now known to have 5 stolen $17 million just -- it was hard. It was hard.

6 Q And did it render your services extraordinary, in 7 your opinion?

8 A I believe it did.

9 Q Okay. All right. Now, let's go forward with what 10 was accomplished at that time, if anything, regarding the 11 sale of assets, et cetera.

12 A Okay. Well, His Honor approved the Christies
13 sale, just quickly, we had worked with Christies,
14 Sotheby's and Julienne's, but Mr. Dallas had allowed Darren
15 Julienne to have some sort of contact with the media that 16 set off another firestorm of acrimony. And so we had 17 pulled Mr. Julienne from consideration, not because he 18 wasn't competent but because of this firestorm that Mr.
19 Dallas had created.

20 And so it was between Sotheby's and Christies and 21 Christies -- I met the woman, she came down and really 22 loved the notion of it, but they; internally they were 23 doing less at the time with memorabilia. I don't -- it was 24 an internal decision, not that they didn't like the 25 collection. They decided to get out and Christies was

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 very favorable to us and we had a good contract and they
2 agreed to advance the appraisal of all of the household
3 goods, the cost of that and to take it from the cost of the 4 sale. And we needed that. And they agreed to holdbacks
5 for the family and some other things that are covered in 6 the February 20th order that we -- that were favorable.

7 Q All right. So now under this same order, proposals
8 for sales and dispositions, based upon the above facts, as 9 to the deplorable condition of the estate/trust, did you
10 have anything to do with the -- with this deplorable
11 condition?

12 A Well, yeah, I was trying to fix it.

13 Q Did you have anything to do with the cause of it?

14 A Oh, absolutely -- we didn't cause it.

15 Q The Court finds that emergency action is necessary
16 to preserve and protect the assets of the estate/trust
17 without prejudice to the eventual outcome. The Court also 18 finds that the PR/trustees are entitled to conduct such 19 sales as necessary to raise funds to defend against all
20 challenges to Mr. Brown's estate.

21 Again, without prejudice to the outcome, the Court
22 finds that this is appropriate for the PR/Trustees. The 23 Court further finds that the proposals of the PR/Trustees,
24 as modified herein are the appropriate methods of managing
25 the Estate/Trust during these critical times.

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 Did you get the impression from this order that the 2 judge was, at least, not unhappy with your actions as 3 it related to the estate and trust?

4 A I felt that not only did he understand, but most 5 everyone else did to.

6 Q In determining the necessity of the sale of 7 tangible property, the Court has considered the need for 8 funds. It has also considered that the non-charitable 9 devisees who may receive TPP may pay up to 50 percent of 10 the date of death value of property received in estate
11 taxes. What's the significance of that?

12 A Well, that's just the issue that we've discussed
13 that every dollar that did not go either to the charity or 14 into the $2 million to the grandchildren was going to be 15 taxed at --

16 Q All right.

17 MR. BUNDY: Let's go to the next heading, tangible
18 personal property, the next part of this order, please.

19 BY MR. BUNDY:

20 Q All right. Looking at the callout: Four, If 21 possible -- this is the judge's order, right? This is 22 what the judge said he wanted done, right?

23 A That's correct.

24 Q If possible, the sale or sales by Christies or any 25 other agent/auctioneer will be conducted on or before

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 August 1, 2008, correct?

2 A That's correct. And the reason for it was that as 3 soon as we could get the tangible -- or a good bit of the 4 tangible personal property out of the house, either to 5 Christie's or into four museums, where we ended up placing 6 a lot of the property, we could reduce the security cost on 7 the home that were eating the estate alive.

8 Q Okay. So there would be a double benefit here?

9 A Yes.

10 Q Okay. All right. 5 -- and what was the 11 significance of the August 1, 2008 date? If any?

12 A Well, I think we were scheduled to run out of money
13 in July or August or -- you know, I mean -- we were going
14 to bring the cost of protecting the house down from over 15 100,000 a year to thousands.

16 Q Okay.

17 A But -- but that was the issue.

18 Q Okay. The PR/Trustees shall have sole discretion
19 as to the terms of the contract, but will consult with 20 interested counsel. Did you, in fact, consult with 21 interested counsel?

22 A Regularly. We began -- we began immediately
23 contact with Christie's and we gave them a list of everyone
24 they could talk to with or without us and, of course, one
25 of the things in the sale, which we may be getting to, was

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 the right of the beneficiaries to select items to withhold
2 and I spent two days with the Levinson clients; and my then
3 assistant Adam Silvernail spent another full day with them.
4 I believe he was the one, someone from my office.

5 So, yes, we worked very closely with them. We knew
6 this was an emotional thing.

7 Q Six, The PR/Trustees are authorized to put such 8 pieces as they select on loan to one or more museums for a 9 period not to exceed three years, so that such items may be 10 preserved for future distribution to beneficiaries, as 11 appropriate, with assurances for proper insurance and 12 security for all items put "on loan." Tell me about that?

13 A Well, that was --

14 Q The work that you did and what your opinion is 15 regarding the value of that work.

16 A Okay. Well, I don't know whether I've talked about 17 the condition of Beech Island, but Judge Buchanan would 18 know because he's mopped up some of the flood waters
19 himself. But Beech Island had a central area that -- James 20 Brown's mansion, I'm speaking of, had a central area that 21 had sort of a drain, but when it didn't drain, there were 22 problems.

23 In addition, they had overhead copper pipes and we 24 had a leakage in one back bedroom and I remember the 25 gentleman looked at me and said, Lady, next time these

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 pipes go, the house is -- it's going to be a flood. And so
2 we were afraid to death of what might happen to these items
3 of -- that James Brown had carefully preserved. And so by 4 this time, we had -- no, not quite, within a couple of 5 weeks we will have sent about 45 boxes of music
6 memorabilia to a sound storage facility in Nashville near 7 our entertainment lawyer so that they could be used later.
8 And then we wanted a home for pieces because the Christies
9 sale was only 350 pieces out of literally thousands of 10 pieces of tangible personal property.

11 So we asked for permission to place them with 12 museums and Dr. Leonard McIntyre, who is now the head, I
13 think, of Tech near Bamberg, but at the time was the 14 interim president of South Carolina State, was just 15 wonderful to us. He had alums and teachers and students
16 come and volunteer and carefully wrap things and take them
17 to that museum.

18 The South Carolina State -- that was the IP
19 Stanback Museum. The South Carolina State Museum also took 20 items on loan and -- and in addition the Augusta museum of 21 history, Nancy Glaser was wonderful to us too. And we put 22 some additional items in the Lucy Craft Laney Museum of 23 African American History, a small museum in Augusta.
24 And it was just win/win because they were safe,
25 they were insured. The three year period was just a

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 guesstimate of the length of the will contest because we
2 didn't know who was going to own them.

3 Q So not only did you have a place to secure them,
4 you didn't have to pay to secure them and somebody else
5 paid the insurance and storage, et cetera.

6 A That's correct.

7 Q Okay. All right. Now, we'll go to Item 7.

8 Pieces not sold by Christie's or other agents
9 auctioneer may be sold by the PR/Trustees in their sole
10 discretion at one or more or a series of separate auctions,
11 private sales, if additional funds are necessary, provided
12 notice given to potential heirs and devisees. Were there
13 any sales outside of Christies?

14 A No, the Christies sale took place on July 17th of 15 2008, and we learned of the Attorney General Settlement on 16 August 12, 2008, just a few weeks later.

17 Q And that's when you were told to stand down?

18 A That is.

19 Q All right. Now, with regard to the home of 20 Mr. Joseph Brown, what -- will you tell us what cash, if 21 any, that generated or how that went?

22 A Well, it didn't generate much, but we really had 23 hoped that it would help soothe the waters. The home of 24 James -- of Joseph Brown was the home of the person
25 everybody called Pop, James Brown's father. And it was

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 over in Augusta and it was really an albatross for the 2 estate because we couldn't -- you couldn't get insurance
3 because nobody lived there.

4 And -- and there was a question of title because 5 everybody thought that James Brown had inherited it and he
6 had indeed, I think, kept it up and paid the taxes and so
7 forth, but then there was some talk that James Brown had a
8 brother who really owned half. And so you'll note that we 9 asked to sell it with the quitclaim deed, but here's the 10 more important thing. The family was very, very emotional 11 about Pop's house and we wanted them to have it; and so we 12 -- I think we gave them, you know, either almost nothing
13 down or -- or nothing down; and they gave the estate back a
14 -- this $60,000 or 59,5 note and mortgage or deed of trust
15 or whatever they call it in Georgia.

16 And that was approved in February and I think -- I
17 think it closed about in May. But that was important to 18 the family. They said that -- many of them said that Pop's
19 house was important as a family place as was the Beech
20 Island mansion.

21 Q Okay. And then the next order I'd like to look at 22 is the --

23 A Well, it -- well, this --

24 Q Let's took at this.

25 A Yes.

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 Q That's the one you've been on.

2 A Yes -- no, this is the same thing, but just the
3 judge saying, I don't have to talk about what bad shape
4 everything's been in because we've all been having these
5 hearings and we all know it. So -- but the judge did order
6 that anybody who unreasonably interfered with or delayed
7 the Christies sale, which was just critical to get done,
8 could be charged with -- with the reasonable cost of -- of 9 -- of an action.

10 Q And was it correct in February 2008 that all
11 parties had received full information and did not dispute
12 the estate's trust financial circumstances?

13 A Oh, absolutely.

14 Q Did anybody lay the blame at your feet for the -- 15 for the financial condition of this trust and estate at 16 that time?

17 A Not at that time.

18 Q Okay. All right. So now we go to an order Direct
19 An Execution of the Affidavits Related To and Grants Other
20 Partial Relief. That's dated February 25th, February 20.
21 What's the --

22 A Okay.

23 Q -- significance of that?

24 A Well, the first one is just short. We were getting 25 ready to do this estate tax return. It says that it must

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 be filed by March 25th, 2008, which was true, but we did
2 get another extension. It was not a deadline that couldn't
3 be worked with. But the estate tax return was due and in 4 order to know how much tax was due, we had to determine
5 whether there had been gifts prior to death because the 6 federal estate tax system is a unified system where you
7 have to first look at the gifts and then add them --
8 certain gifts -- and then add them to the estate taxes.

9 And so the judge ordered and everyone signed gift
10 affidavits, essentially saying that although James Brown
11 was very generous, that he had never given anybody more
12 than $10,000 worth of gifts in a year.

13 Q And if it had been more than a year that would have 14 reduced the 2 million or they --

15 A Well, it would have added more taxes.

16 Q Okay. All right. And it looks like there was a 17 motion and then -- looks like an order on a motion to 18 disqualify Louis Levinson and that was dated February 26,
19 2008?

20 A Well, this was one of those little side issues of 21 extreme discord among the parties that, of course, spilled
22 over into the general litigation.

23 Q Now, who was Mr. Levinson representing at this
24 time?

25 A Well, Mr. Levinson -- in filing the challenges that

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 he filed to the will on December 26, 2007 -- represented
2 five of the individuals named as children in the will. The 3 sixth had -- the sixth, Terry and his son Forlando and his 4 other son Romunzo had initially hired Mr. Levinson and 5 then they had terminated him in March of '07 about, about 6 the time we were coming in.

7 So some of this we just learned about. When 8 Mr. Levinson filed the will challenge, Mr. Bell, who was 9 also one of the lawyers suing Judge Buchanan and me in 10 federal court, filed several things, a motion to disqualify
11 Louis Levinson and prevent his participation in the will 12 contest, which he had just filed. And then he filed either
13 five or six grievances against Mr. Levinson in both Georgia
14 and South Carolina.

15 And Mr. Bell essentially alleged that Mr. Levinson
16 -- well, a few things. He alleged that Mr. Levinson had 17 changed his position, that they -- the family had hired 18 Mr. Levinson only to investigate the trustees and not to 19 challenge the will. And then secondarily --

20 Q How many trustees was he investigating?

21 A That would be Cannon, Dallas, and Bradley.

22 Q Right.

23 A That -- his contract was January 9 of 2007. And 24 secondarily he said there was an allegation that 25 Mr. Levinson's contract, his 30 percent contingency plus a

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 $150,000 contract had been forged and so he had gotten a
2 handwriting examiner. It caused a firestorm. And there
3 are about more that a thousand pages, I think in the record
4 about it, but Mr. Levinson very strongly disagreed with all
5 of that and said that Mr. Bell was using it to advance his 6 position in the case and as you can imagine, Mr. Levinson
7 did not like to have his career at stake over there.

8 Q And the judge found that it was appropriate for 9 Mr. Levinson to continue on in the case?

10 A He not only found that, but he found that 11 contemplated in the Levinson contract was a contest of the 12 will.

13 Q All right. Now, we move to the next order related 14 to -- entitled the March 7, 2007; is that the next order in 15 line?

16 A Yeah. Well, we -- yes. We probably discussed that 17 already because we've said that -- and there would be more
18 detail in my time sheets, but on February, I think the 8th
19 of 2008, there was a hearing of Dallas and Bradley
20 attempting to undue their resignations. The March 8th
21 order does not allow them to and, you know, makes certain
22 findings.

23 And then there's a March 7th order regarding what 24 is put up there as diaries. They were handwritten notes of 25 Tomi Rae, which had been discovered within Mr. Brown's --

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 discarded within Mr. Brown's Beech Island mansion in March
2 of 2007. They had been public for a long, long time.
3 Everybody knew what they said, everybody discussed what
4 they said, everybody thought they were of substantial
5 importance, particularly because she was claiming to be the 6 spouse because they admitted that she was -- that she,
7 prior to meeting James Brown, she was married, living in 8 Texas with her husband and thought she might be pregnant.
9 And then further that she begged James Brown to marry him
10 -- her, after he discovered her marriage. And in addition
11 to that, she had also promised to get a divorce and didn't 12 get it. So the diaries were going to some day be very 13 important, but --

14 Q In light of all that, did you feel you had 15 reasonable grounds to contest her position as Mr. Brown's
16 spouse?

17 A Oh, absolutely. I mean -- and that -- those were 18 public. They were out there everywhere, but they were just 19 a part of the overwhelming evidence that was available.

20 Q All right. All right. And next is an order to 21 Allow Video Deposition of Inmate?

22 A Well, that's -- you know, as I said, Mr. Herring
23 had an unfortunate event, a very unfortunate event that 24 kind of ruined his life and caused someone else to lose his 25 and that -- so Judge Early said that he needed to be --

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 needed to be deposed.

2 Q Why -- what was it that was relevant that
3 Mr. Herring might know in your position as to why his 4 deposition would need to be taken?

5 A Well, I was not the specific one who asked for it,
6 but, of course, he needed to be deposed to determine
7 whether there was any basis whatsoever to -- for anybody to 8 claim undue influence, although we thought that there was 9 not, we were -- at -- at that particular stage, we -- that 10 order was issued in March, about March 15th. We were just 11 working with -- or we had just finished working with 12 motions to dismiss the will contest. There should be an 13 order right about that same time with Mr. Levinson. But 14 with Tomi Rae, we had a pending motion to dismiss her
15 claim. And so we weren't -- we hadn't quite gotten to that 16 stage, but it was great. And he ordered it and --

17 Q But this is ordinary course of defending a will 18 contest, that would be a witness --

19 A Oh, absolutely.

20 Q -- deposition that you would want to take, the 21 gentleman who drew the will, right?

22 A Absolutely. And I believe it might have been 23 Mr. Bell who asked for that and, of course, he was taking 24 the position that he supported the will. So it was just 25 somebody doing it and it was great, it was great.

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 Q All right. Then the next order I'd like to draw
2 your attention to is the March 8th 2000 order --

3 THE COURT: Which tab are you on now, Mr. Bundy?

4 MR. BUNDY: It's Tab 26, Your Honor. I believe
5 it's 26.

6 THE COURT: I got it.

7 MR. BUNDY: Thank you, sir.

8 BY MR. BUNDY:

9 Q All right. Ms. Pope, what do you see -- what is 10 significant -- what is the purpose of this order, allowed
11 you --

12 A Well, this is the order which resulted from our 13 telling Judge Early we do not want to be here unless -- 14 unless our -- unless you have a hearing and decide that our 15 -- we were properly appointed and our work has been both 16 ethical and appropriate. It also was related -- the 17 context of it -- it came in the context of our motion to 18 dis --

19 (The witness was shown a document.)

20 Yes, yes. It came in the context of Louis
21 Levinson's will contest.

22 Q Okay.

23 A And one of the requirements for a will contest is 24 you must say who you think are the heirs.

25 Q Okay.

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 A Because if -- if you -- if you win and the will is 2 set aside, you've got to know who it goes to. And so the 3 Levinson clients had not done that. And so we -- we -- we 4 required that they do that and that they give notice of 5 that.

6 Could I look at the order just a second. Well, let 7 me say that -- so the -- oh, I apologize. I apologize.
8 This is -- I thought this was the order -- Judge Early's
9 order. I'm going to, April 8th order. I apologize.
10 I'm going to tell this quickly.

11 So -- but the story that I'm telling you is 12 correct. So we resolved our motion to dismiss Mr.
13 Levinson's will contest by his clients saying who they 14 thought the heirs were and we note that they did not think 15 the heirs were Tomi Rae, but something very important was 16 happening here. We were beginning to understand how 17 important the heirs determination was under the Federal 18 Copyright Act. So we wanted a correct determination of 19 heirs. So in this agreement, we -- we say, let's have a
20 complete, careful heir's determination. This is March 8, 21 2008. But we want to make sure you understand it's without 22 prejudice to our position that he did not die intestate.

23 We're not trying to find out who the heirs are 24 because he died intestate, we're trying to find out who the 25 heirs are because -- and the order says, they may have

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 certain rights under state or federal law. We didn't want
2 to give them any part of the estate. We wanted to find out
3 who they were so that the trust could protect itself with 4 respect to the Federal Copyright Act Termination Rights.
5 And that was our first foray into protection of the 6 termination rights which were going to begin to mature in 7 2012. And --

8 Q All right. Explain if you would at this time why
9 the Federal Copyright Termination might be affected by 10 heirs who were not devisees under the will or otherwise?

11 A Okay.

12 Q Entitled to anything under the will?

13 A Well, the federal laws have their own ways of 14 defining heirs like social security. People who are not 15 heirs -- strictly under state law can get social security
16 benefits. And the -- the -- the termination rights
17 provisions have a -- a provision that says that heirs are 18 determined under the federal law. So that's okay. But the 19 next thing they have is a provision that says that the 20 spouse for purposes of termination rights is determined
21 under state law.

22 And so what you have is the possibility of a state
23 law determination that incorrectly determines who the 24 spouse is having a tremendous impact on the termination
25 rights. Now, there's a lot of literature out there about

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 whether that 's legal, it's working it's way up in the 2 Courts because it's sort of similar to the same sex
3 marriage issue. If you look to states but then states
4 don't treat people fairly, you've got a problem.

5 But for our purposes, it was very important to 6 determine that a person who was not likely to be the spouse
7 was not the spouse. And this order was a good step because 8 the Levinson clients, all agreed in an order consistent
9 with our position and the then position of the attorney
10 general was not the spouse.

11 Q Well, in terms of the power or whatever control
12 that a spouse might have in federal copyright terminations,
13 how is that different from, let's say if you had six heirs
14 and no spouse? And then give me the example if you had a 15 spouse and six heirs?

16 A Okay.

17 Q How would you -- if you were trying to deal with 18 that issue, how would -- how would it work and who would be 19 in control from the other side?

20 A Good question.

21 Q Thank you.

22 A A spouse is -- for Federal Copyright Act,
23 Termination Rights, to be exercised they must -- that is 24 for the heirs to attempt to secure royalties -- American --
25 U.S. copyrights only, that are owned by a charity, for them

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 to exercise these termination rights and try to take some
2 of the royalties, they have to do it by majority, but a
3 spouse counts as 50 percent when you're determining the 4 majority. So if you have a spouse and 30 children, it
5 takes a spouse and one child. If you have no spouse and 30
6 children, you can make a deal with 15 of those children and 7 stop the exercise of termination rights.

8 So there are all sorts of dynamics available if 9 there is not a spouse. So I mean, lots of people have 10 spouses, but the bottom line is you would never create a 11 spouse if you don't have one. So -- and if you've got 12 pretty good evidence that there isn't one, you certainly 13 wouldn't create one. And we -- we -- that was our point
14 here. We needed to have a final determination that there
15 wasn't one or that there was and then also to ferret out
16 about half a dozen other children that James Brown himself
17 did not acknowledge, but he had no right to exclude from 18 their rights under the Federal Copyright Act.

19 Q And in terms of what Mr. Brown's wishes were and 20 what his intent was, as it relates to where those copyright
21 dollars should ultimately end up, what was -- what was his 22 wish as you read the will?

23 A Well --

24 Q And the trust.

25 A Well, he provided for past and future spouses,

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 nothing. And further he said even if some future spouse
2 gets something, I want to hold her to the minimal amount.
3 So, so, he -- he -- although he could not -- in fairness,
4 he could not control the proper and timely exercise of 5 termination rights in 2012 to the extent that the estate
6 hadn't planned for it and worked on it. His will could not 7 control that, but it certainly made clear his wishes.

8 Q And that was going to fund the "I Feel Good"
9 Trust --

10 A That was -- every dime taken by termination rights
11 would come either from the "I Feel Good" Trust or the fund
12 that was going to be used for certain grandchildren to age
13 35 and then to the "I Feel Good" Trust.

14 Q All right.

15 A Oh, and this is merely in Judge Early's order, it
16 sets out there, The purpose of the above action is to 17 determine all lawful heirs at law of James Brown, including 18 lawful heirs who may be entitled to rights under state and 19 federal laws because the determinations could have been 20 different.

21 Q All right. Let's now move to --

22 MR. BUNDY: Tab 28, Your Honor, which is the 23 document entitled Supplemental Order Directing Execution,
24 Contract, and Sale filed April 2nd, executed by Your Honor
25 on April 1st.

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 THE WITNESS: Oh, that is just simply the order
2 where Judge Early, who's already approved the Christies
3 sale and set certain terms for family members and Tomi
4 Rae to see holdbacks finding that nobody did seek a
5 holdback timely as he had ordered on February 20th --

6 BY MR. BUNDY:

7 Q Let's go and look at it.

8 A Okay.

9 Q It says -- if you look on --

10 A Well -- well -- well, we'll get to that -- I'm 11 sorry.

12 Q This is where we are, isn't it?

13 A Yeah, that's where we are. So -- so all the family
14 had looked, nobody had filed and Tomi Rae had had the 15 opportunity to look and nobody had filed any requests for a 16 holdback of any item from the Christies sale. Then on 17 March 28th, the Levinson clients filed a motion to stay the 18 sale or stop the sale and Judge Early's order details that,
19 just a few days before. Deanna, Yamma, Venesha, Darryl,
20 and Larry, each individually and as parent of their 21 children, filed separate motions to stop the sale.

22 And he just -- the judge made the finding that they 23 had interfered, but they hadn't caused any damage in that 24 four-day period. And so he directed us to sign the 25 Christie's Consignment Contract that day. And the

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 Christie's Consignment Contract, of course, listed
2 everything that would be sold.

3 Q Well, let's go to page 3. I want to back up a
4 little bit?

5 A Sure.

6 Q Top paragraph, page 3. You got that?

7 A Yes.

8 Q It says, and this is -- this is Judge Early 9 recounting what he's previously ordered; is that correct?

10 A That's correct.

11 Q And he notes on page one the February 20 order had 12 not been appealed, correct?

13 A That's correct.

14 Q It's the law of this case?

15 A And no reconsiderations sought.

16 Q And it says on page 3, On or before February 27th,
17 all parties were given the Christies selection for sale
18 and estate tax valuation as provided in the February 20
19 order; is that correct? Was that given to them?

20 A I think you said the 22nd, but it's the 27th.

21 Q Was it given to them?

22 A Yes, yes.

23 Q What did -- what did it look like? I mean -- what 24 was this thing that you gave?

25 A Well, the appraisal was about like that and the

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 selection for sale was about like that because it was 350
2 items and the -- approximately million, two estate tax
3 appraisal overlapped, but it contained many more items.

4 Q Okay. Was it one of those things that you would 5 look at if you went to Christies or were going to go to 6 the auction or was it something a little different from --

7 A It was not the catalog. The catalog came later.

8 Q Okay. Well, in those items, was the Grammy listed?

9 A Yes.

10 Q Okay.

11 A In -- in -- in the estate tax return and in the 12 selection for sale.

13 Q So they knew as of that day the Grammy was going to 14 go up for sale?

15 A Oh, everybody knew, sure.

16 Q And was there any objection?

17 A No.

18 Q Okay. Since the last day of that --

19 A And no holdback.

20 Q Ma'am?

21 A And nobody requesting a holdback.

22 Q Nobody requested a holdback. The judge further 23 points out the last day to designate items requested to be 24 withheld in order of importance was March 10, 2008. No
25 party timely submitted designation. Of course, the order

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 various parts objected, but the Court deemed the objections
2 untimely or not in conformity with the February 20 order;
3 is that -- is that -- is that correct?

4 A That is true. There was -- I remember some phone
5 call from somebody later on, but -- to the courthouse here,
6 not here -- yes, here. But, no. That was correct.

7 Q All right.

8 A What the Court ruled was correct.

9 Q Let's go the page 4, second to the last full 10 paragraph?

11 A Court finds that the moving parties and others have 12 had more than adequate time and opportunity to review the 13 assets in the selection for sale. The Court finds that 14 neither the moving parties, nor any others make a valid
15 specific and timely objection.

16 Q Correct?

17 A That's correct. And it's correct about the time
18 because I spent two days with family members and a member
19 of my staff spent a third day.

20 Q And then His Honor orders, you're directed to 21 execute the consignment agreement, shall proceed on 22 February 20. Anyone who delays the implementation shall be 23 charged with costs and damages?

24 A Right. And we had set out that that ought to be 25 about $4,000 a week because -- because we were running out

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 of money.

2 Q And if you go to the -- after the signature page on 3 this order, there's a list of -- of terms, right? Are 4 those all the people who were given notice and opportunity
5 to complain about all of this?

6 A Yes. There may have been more who were given
7 notice and opportunity, but at least these were --

8 Q Okay. All right. Let's go to Order Denying Motion
9 to Reconsider Appointment of Successor Personal
10 Representatives and Trustees and Granting Related Relief?

11 A I'm sorry, that was the order I thought I was 12 looking at before --

13 Q Well, let's just run --

14 A Okay.

15 Q Let's just run through it quickly?

16 A That's the April 8th order in which Judge Early,
17 after the hearing on March 7th, deals with our concern
18 primarily that on December 14th, the attorney general of 19 South Carolina had filed an objection to our appointment as 20 PR -- it says as PR's and trustees, but he was concerned
21 that we were appointed to both positions. He didn't want
22 us to be trustees.

23 And this is Judge Early's finding that all of our 24 -- that our appointment was appropriate and that all of our 25 acts beginning March 7, 2007, as special administrators and

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 continuing up until the date of that order, which was April
2 8th, 2008, were ethical and appropriate.

3 Q The judge put in his order, after reviewing the 4 entire record, the Court makes the following findings: All
5 motions to reconsider should be denied. Buchanan and Pope
6 have served properly to date in the capacities of SAs's and 7 later PR/Trustees. And they should continue as PR's and 8 trustees subject to the right of the PR/trustees, the Court
9 or any other interested persons seeking the appointment of 10 SA, special trustees or both, if appropriate. Correct?

11 A Yes.

12 Q And that was as of what date again? April --

13 A That was April 8, 2008.

14 Q All right.

15 MR. BUNDY: Would you take this down, please.

16 (The slide was changed.)

17 BY MR. BUNDY:

18 Q So April 8th, 2008?

19 A That's correct.

20 Q So as of at least -- of this date up through this 21 period the judge finds that you should be, continue to be 22 PR/Trustees and nothing you've done up to this point is 23 anything but okay; is that correct?

24 A That's the way I understood it.

25 Q Okay. And in -- in fact, was it -- did you not --

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 you and Mr. Buchanan are the ones who requested this
2 hearing, right?

3 A We wanted to resign if the Court didn't make those
4 findings.

5 Q What was the basis, as you understood it, of the 6 attorney general's motion or objection I guess it was. On 7 December 14, the attorney general filed an objection to the 8 appointment of SA's -- of the SA's, that's when you were 9 the SA -- as PR and trustees. What was the basis of that 10 motion up to the time of this order; if you know?

11 A Well, again, looking back at the things that were 12 being said about us by Forlando and Mr. Cannon and Mr.
13 Dallas -- and --

14 Q Is that the legal basis? I mean, what's the legal 15 basis as you understood it?

16 A Oh, oh, that -- I believe the legal basis was that 17 Judge Early -- I'm not sure exactly, I'd have to look at 18 the documents, but I believe he was following the same
19 rationale that Mr. Dallas and Mr. Cannon were following
20 that Judge Early lacked the jurisdiction to do it and that 21 a person could not serve as both PR and trustee under James
22 Brown's unified estate plan.

23 Q All right. Now, Judge Early obviously overruled
24 their objection or didn't buy into it. Did thereafter as 25 of this date, did the AG then file a petition to have you

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 or Mr. Buchanan removed for cause? As of this date, had 2 they filed any such --

3 A Not --

4 Q -- papers?

5 A Not -- not until -- until October or November of 6 2009.

7 Q Okay.

8 A I'm sorry, 2008.

9 Q October or November of 2008?

10 A After the settlement. After the settlement.

11 Q So was it -- now, this is in April we're talking
12 about, right?

13 A It is, yes.

14 Q All right. So they filed an objection, the judge
15 overrules the objection and they don't file a petition
16 trying to say that you're not doing your job, that you're 17 doing -- you're stealing money, whatever --

18 A No.

19 Q -- and then, it wasn't until after the settlement,
20 which we'll get into in a minute, in October they filed a
21 petition; is that correct?

22 A That's correct. But there's actually more, because 23 on July 30th of -- of 2008, just prior to the settlement,
24 which took place on August 10th, the attorney general had 25 specifically, in writing, approved us as the permanent

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 trustees of the trust.

2 Q Okay. Anybody appeal this order or file a 59(e)
3 motion to your knowledge?

4 A I don't think so. I don't think so. There could
5 be one. I don't think so.

6 Q All right. Let's go to -- let's look at the last
7 part of this order on April 8th. I don't want to --
8 there's no reason to go through the order, it speaks for 9 itself.

10 MR. BUNDY: Put the last page, please, yes. Number
11 3. I think it's Number 3, the last page 49. Yes.

12 BY MR. BUNDY:

13 Q Three, the cost of this action, including
14 reasonable attorney's fees shall be equitably charged
15 Cannon, Bradley, and Dallas, pursuant to South Carolina
16 trust code. Such amount should be determined, affidavits
17 and brief arguments at the hearing to be held on May 9, 18 2008.

19 What became of that? Do you know?

20 A Well, it didn't -- it didn't happen then. And --
21 and it was important because they had probably cost --
22 well, they had cost the entire special administrator fee,
23 which was $317,000 and certain other costs. And so it was 24 great to have charged them with that and some other costs,
25 but it didn't happen.

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 Q Do you have any knowledge whether that --

2 A I don't know whether it happened -- it did not
3 happen during the time that we were serving.

4 Q Okay. Is that the sort of thing that the trustee
5 that was serving after you should have pursued in your 6 opinion?

7 A Yes.

8 Q Okay. And then you go, All future filings shall 9 bear the caption, the judge as all future filings connected
10 to this matter should be prepared and attached to Exhibit

11 A..

12 Why was that in there?

13 A Well, I -- I was perceived as being too careful
14 about captions, but I really want -- Judge Buchanan and I
15 wanted to understand who was being bound by these orders.
16 And so page 50 of that order contains the caption of all
17 the parties who -- who were then parties to the action.
18 And it continued to be used after that. And with -- made
19 clearer who the parties were.

20 Q Okay. Semiannual report. Where is that?

21 A It might be that.

22 Q This it?

23 A That's it.

24 MR. BUNDY: Your Honor, may I approach?

25 Your Honor, in evidence without objection is

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 Exhibit 9, which is entitled, First Semiannual Report to 2 Devisees Beneficiaries and Attorney General.

3 THE COURT: All right.

4 BY MR. BUNDY:

5 Q Ms. Pope, this says from November 20 to May 20,
6 2008, who created this document.

7 A Mr. Buchanan and I did.

8 Q All right. And what -- why did you do that?

9 A Well, because we -- we had an open administration.
10 At that point, we, of course, had no idea who the 11 beneficiaries were going to be. We thought they should be 12 James Brown's, but there were will contests ongoing and 13 there was the spousal issue also. And again, there had 14 been a lot of secrecy and a lot of stealing, and we just 15 thought the better course was to be open and to keep 16 everybody informed and that January 9th hearing explains
17 that this is the way we're going to do it.

18 And so on -- by May 20th, I -- we were already 19 having this prepared, but we were also just so frustrated
20 with what Mr. Jones was continuing to do and we had just 21 gotten or would -- yes, right about then, we had just 22 gotten a series of scurrilous e-mails between counsel for 23 Dallas and Cannon and Sonny Jones saying ugly things.

24 THE COURT: Who are those lawyers for Cannon, and 25 Dallas --

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 THE WITNESS: Well, we got -- we got the e-mails
2 from a gentleman here in Aiken who had come in to represent
3 Buddy, sort of a -- he was not around much, but he came in 4 in May and he worked with Neal Dickert and they produced
5 these e-mails from Bill Hammond -- between Bill Hammond and 6 Sonny that the ones -- the ones we held back were 7 scurrilous and they said they held back the scurrilous
8 ones.

9 I think -- I mean, sorry, but I think this was part
10 of the rumor that Judge Early was being nice to me because 11 we had had an affair back in law school.

12 Sorry, I didn't want to mention it, but I think
13 that was -- we didn't, I would state on the record.

14 THE COURT: I will too.

15 THE WITNESS: So will Judge Early.

16 But, but that was a rumor that had been started and 17 that may have been one of the most scurrilous e-mails that 18 didn't get produced, but a series of fairly scurrilous
19 e-mails, mostly just repeating the theme that -- that we 20 were money hungry, Judge Buchanan and I were money hungry
21 grubbers who were -- who run off this fine Mr. Cannon from 22 his position so we could get our hands on the $5 million
23 commission.

24 And so -- and other kind of nasty things, you know.
25 And -- and Buddy had said -- said some of -- some of them

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 in open court as well after having told His Honor in
2 November that we had worked hand in glove with him, he said
3 it was impossible to work with us. So -- anyway.

4 So, so, Sonny was continuing to be awful to us and 5 -- and -- and -- and Buddy Dallas was interfering with 6 everything. He was -- he was the shadow behind everything.
7 And so I was able to secure a little bit of help from the 8 now deceased philanthropist, John Rainey, who we had asked
9 to be a member of the advisory board, but he would not do
10 that. But he agreed to secure us a meeting with the 11 attorney general, which we attended, I think on May 28th.
12 And so in addition to already having that ready to 13 just kind of show what we had done for the six months, I
14 physically, Mr. Buchanan and I took it, and I physically
15 handed it to the attorney general because I -- we wanted
16 him to understand in the nicest most respectful way we 17 could say it, that Sonny was just making our job so 18 difficult.

19 And he had just, that very month, and Neal Israel
20 since January had been trying to do a 75th birthday special
21 for James Brown, but because of all the confusion caused by 22 the attorney general, he had said, We need to know that the 23 attorney general thinks you have the authority to do this.
24 And the attorney general gave his approval on something
25 like March 28th.

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 Well, you can't do a TV special between March 28th
2 and May 3rd. And that was just one example of how, not 3 disgruntled beneficiaries, but the highest officer in the 4 state, charged with the protection of charities was just 5 damaging this -- this charity.

6 Q All right. So let's go through briefly the First
7 Semiannual Report and the -- some of the information in it.

8 A Right.

9 Q All right. You talk about prior service. Do you
10 have a copy? Do you need a copy?

11 A I can read it. I can see, thank you.

12 Q All right. Your prior service as special 13 administrators very briefly, you say here these are what 14 were the primary challenges during your tenure as special
15 administrator?

16 A Well, we've discussed it, obtaining critical
17 information, preventing Cannon, Dallas and Bradley from 18 selling the assets and collecting between $5 and $17
19 million for themselves. That was the -- the GT October 20 18th letter, the discovery of the 900,000 that we talked 21 about, and the failure of Cannon, Dallas, and Bradley to 22 inventory our account for -- actually they did inventory
23 the assets, but it was tucked away in a hidden document at 24 the time. It came out later, but they never accounted for 25 their actions. They had done a good inventory and it was

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 done by the tax lawyer.

2 And then the spousal elective share plan which had
3 been pending since February of 2007, but which Lewis and 4 Babcock had pursued while we were special administrators.

5 Q All right. And then you -- you have what you've 6 accomplished during that period?

7 A Okay.

8 Q What did you accomplish?

9 A All right. Well, let's read it and see.

10 Okay. We put the central location of the 11 documents. That was -- that was such a critical thing to 12 being able to later recover from Greenberg Traurig, Cannon, 13 Farr, everybody. Then prevention of a fire sale of the 14 assets.

15 We -- I haven't talked about this much, but it
16 mentions the October 18th letter. Also I don't know that 17 we mentioned in there, but we did prevent Cannon and Dallas
18 from moving the assets from South Carolina where they were 19 being watched over by the Court over to Georgia where they 20 would not have been watched over.

21 Then we -- the immediate and permanent resignation 22 of Mr. Cannon, Dallas, and Bradley and then the return of 23 350 of the 900,000 that David Cannon had taken.

24 Q Do you know what the outcome of the litigation or 25 how much money Mr. Few and his associate or partner were

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 able to gather from the various lawsuits, including the 2 Greenberg Traurig lawsuit?

3 A I don't. The Morgan Stanley lawsuit was on the 4 cusp of being settled when we were replaced.

5 Q Okay.

6 A I heard a rumor on the Farr lawsuit, but it's only
7 a rumor. And I -- I've tried to secure information about 8 the Greenberg Traurig Settlement, but haven't been able to.

9 Q Okay. All right. Then you talk about your primary
10 challenges facing you when you began as PR and trustee in 11 November 20 through May 20, 2008 and that date is just 12 significant because its six months from the date you
13 started?

14 A It's the sixth month.

15 Q Okay.

16 A Yes. Okay. And they were defending the will 17 contest and -- and -- and fending off this very dangerous,
18 although it seems silly now, lawsuit, by Forlando, which he 19 did not drop until 2012, in which he was seeking to enjoin
20 James Brown's 2000 Trust from taking any action until 21 Cannon and Dallas were reinstated.

22 Q And when it was -- and what -- what was the result
23 of the 2012, of his lawsuit?

24 A Well, Forlando asked the Court to drop it. The 25 Court did. Forlando told the Court he had absolutely no

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 money and no chance of receiving anything from the estate
2 unless his father were dead, which was a lie. And so the 3 Court, you know, didn't charge him with anything.

4 Q Okay. And so your primary challenges then were --

5 A Then stabilizing the estate and representing the 6 fire sale of the major assets. That would be the October
7 18th letter preventing return of Cannon, Dallas, and 8 Bradley; preparing to defend more than 46 million of the 9 claims, you know, about 15 of those 46 million were the 10 Cannon trustees and another around 30 was from Pullman,
11 which we will succeed in doing in a minute.

12 But then recovery of losses by Cannon, Dallas, and 13 Bradley. By this time, we had filed suit against Cannon,
14 Dallas, Bradley, Morgan Stanley, Phil Farr had been added
15 and maybe a bank. And all of that had been done by Few and 16 Gilreath in February with an amended complaint in March
17 seeking more than $12 million.

18 Q All right. Now, one through six, did those items
19 described cause any discord among the parties?

20 A Well, I mean there was discord everywhere.

21 Q And based on your experience in trusts and estates,
22 were these extraordinary circumstances to all being one
23 estate at one time?

24 A Yes. None of those -- none of those individually
25 was extraordinary because that's what will and trusts and

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 fiduciary litigation is about. But for all of them to 2 converge at once and more importantly for the protector of 3 charities not to be standing by you as you fend all those 4 claims -- and in fact to be working to help people that 5 everyone else knows has stolen millions of dollars, it was 6 extraordinary.

7 Q So it -- so it was extraordinary not to have 8 someone who was normally an ally to be an enemy?

9 A Yeah. Yeah.

10 Q All right.

11 A Or at least an adverse party. Certainly, I never 12 considered the attorney general an enemy, but he was an 13 adverse party.

14 Q All right. And then you go through, I believe, and 15 discuss what you did in that time period; is that correct?

16 A We did. You know, it sets it out in some detail.

17 Q And then you gave -- and then you made projections,
18 I believe, on page 6 --

19 A Probably.

20 Q -- for the next 6 months?

21 A Right.

22 Q All right.

23 A That would have been to November, but we didn't 24 make it.

25 Q Well, I know you didn't make it, but if you had

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 made it, this is what you projected you would be working
2 on?

3 A It is.

4 Q And what was it that you thought you were going to 5 be working on through November?

6 A Well, we expected to complete the estate tax
7 return, which was due and pay the approximately $500,000
8 estate taxes and interest due, which we talked about 9 earlier. Because every penny that went to the children was 10 going to be taxed under the estate tax regime.

11 Oh, too, we didn't mention this from the earlier --
12 from one of Judge Early's earlier orders, but Judge Early
13 had allowed us to seek a museum purchaser for Beech Island
14 and we really wanted to do that because the family wanted
15 Beech Island to be a museum, but that was not the mission
16 of James Brown's "I Feel Good" Trust. So we had asked 17 Judge Early to allow us to sell the property, but because 18 there were about 60 acres to maintain, I think 20 or 25
19 acres, as a future home for the "I Feel Good" Foundation so 20 there would be a close association with the two. And I had 21 talked to some people at PRT and other places -- not PRT.
22 I'm sorry, I said that wrong. I'll tell you in a minute if 23 I can think of it.

24 But we were definitely wanting to find a museum
25 purchaser and in fact, we wanted it to be somebody either

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 associated with or guided by the family because that would 2 have been great.

3 Q Was the family on board with this concept?

4 A You know, they always talked about a museum.

5 Q Okay.

6 A They always talked about a museum and what --
7 actually in 2009, we offered the property to Deanna. She 8 accepted and her lawyer rejected it. And there were 9 conditions that would have been consistent with that.

10 Q Okay. All right. Number 3?

11 A Disallow approximately 33 million of pending claims
12 -- we had disallowed the Cannon, Dallas, and Bradley claims
13 already because we knew that they would not be hard to 14 defend, but we were going to wait until we had some money
15 to pay our lawyers to disallow the approximately $31
16 million Pullman claim and a few million others. And so 17 that's what -- that was our projection. When we got the 18 Christies proceeds and had enough money to defend, you
19 know, to pay our lawyer, we would disallow the claims and 20 that would require the people to have to file suit within 21 30 days and we could deal with it.

22 Continue active defense of the estate plan, we've 23 talked about that. Continue active defense of the spousal
24 elective share claims and work with our entertainment
25 counsel to enhance royalties, images, persona of Mr. Brown

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 without paying 50 percent of the gross as proposed by 2 Dallas, Cannon, and Bradley.

3 Those were our goals.

4 Q All right. As it relates to this document, did
5 anybody contact you? Any of the recipients, devisees,
6 beneficiaries, or the attorney general, and say to you,
7 this is a bad plan, bad projection, you didn't do this and 8 you -- you said you did it, but you didn't really do it, so
9 we need to correct that? Did anybody make any corrections
10 to this report?

11 A No corrections to the report. And of course, the 6
12 months didn't happen --

13 Q Right.

14 A -- because the settlement was announced during this 15 -- before that.

16 Q Right.

17 A Yes.

18 Q But, I'm saying, even as to the previous --

19 A No, no --

20 Q -- information that you did, nobody contested the 21 validity of what you were saying?

22 A About what we wanted to do, no.

23 Q And what you had done?

24 A Or what we had done.

25 Q Or what you had -- or the challenges you met?

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 A No. No.

2 Q Okay. Let's look at B, Assistance with possible
3 settlement. That's down below on page 6.

4 It reads, the PR/Trustees believe that if they are 5 joined by the attorney general in a vigorous defense of the 6 estate plan and rejection of the spousal elective share
7 claim, the Estate/Trust will within 6 months be in a
8 posture to evaluate and perhaps enter into a full
9 settlement.

10 Now, why did you put that in there, Ms. Pope?

11 A Well, because that's what we believed.

12 Q Well what -- what was your thinking? How -- if 13 they -- did, in fact, they join you in a vigorous defense?

14 A No.

15 Q Okay. What was your plan or what was -- what were 16 you trying to say here is -- if they did such a thing? If 17 they did it -- if they had engaged in a vigorous defense,
18 joined you as an ally, what was your projections or 19 thoughts about how this was going to end up?

20 A Well, let me say one thing. Mary Frances Jowers
21 did work with us on research related to the elective share,
22 but she was not driving the train. And that's the only way
23 I know to describe it. So I think -- I think it would have 24 happened -- the power of the attorney general to impact a
25 charitable proceeding is enormous.

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 Q Okay. All right. So let's move on. You say no
2 sale of royalties, images, or persona. PR's do not believe 3 any sale of the royalties, images, or persona should be
4 considered for at least 2 to 5 years. Mr. Brown's
5 royalties was approximately 800 accomplished songs, exceeds
6 3 million annually. The royalties will substantially
7 reduce the TIAA debt since Mr. Brown's death.

8 And that -- so then you go onto say that the PRT's
9 entered only one substantial contract. Trustees entered a 10 substantial contract with Musical Television Tribute to 11 James Brown. What -- could you explain that to me? It 12 says --

13 A Could --

14 Q This is the second paragraph, page 7. Right there?

15 A The former PR -- oh, that was Buddy and -- Buddy
16 and Al Bradley did enter into a contract with the James 17 Brown saves Boston contract. They did. And, you know, 18 give them credit, it brought $100,000 into the estate.

19 Q All right. PR/Trustees --

20 A And it was good.

21 Q Okay. The PR/Trustees over the next 6 months will 22 explore with entertainment counsel -- who was entertainment
23 counsel?

24 A Ray Gonzales.

25 Q All right. What was Ray Gonzales's experience?

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 A He had worked for Warner Music for more than 10
2 years. He's now the head of Warner Music Legal. But at 3 the time he worked for Zumwalt, Aumond, and Hayes in 4 Nashville and he had come to us through a friend of my 5 daughter's when I went to my daughter's 30th birthday.
6 She's now 40.

7 Someone had suggested that we contact Professor
8 Bertis Downs in -- in Augusta. I'm sorry, in where is -- 9 in Athens. And Bertis Downs had been the long time -- he 10 was a professor at the university and a long time sort of 11 member and advisor to R.E.M. And so we had contacted 12 Mr. Downs because we liked their mode of operation and he 13 was very kind to us, but he said he had plenty on his plate
14 and he had recommended Ray and it turned out to be a very 15 fruitful, although careful, experience because we were 16 totally illiquid and we used him when we needed him.

17 Q And you were looking to him for what kind of 18 advice?

19 A Entertainment.

20 Q As to -- as to how to sell things? As to how to 21 monetize?

22 A Whatever came up.

23 Q All right.

24 A We did -- I think we did just scores of clearances
25 that would come in worldwide every day and they would say,

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 for example, we want to do a -- use a James Brown song in a
2 Dannon Yogurt commercial in New Zealand for 60 days and we
3 want to pay you $20,000 for it. And so we would look at a
4 clearance like that and we would say, Well, you know, if we 5 make a mistake, it's not going to be much of a mistake.

6 And so we'd say, okay. Clear it. But then if 7 something came in that had a -- and we'd, of course, talked 8 to the clearance people whose goal was the same as ours, to 9 monetize these assets. And so if something though came in 10 that had a long period -- a long period of time or seemed 11 to impinge on something that would complicate a more
12 extensive contract, we would call Ray.

13 Q Okay. All right. And the next heading is Request
14 that Attorney General and Family explore selling. What is 15 the -- what is the purpose of this aspect of your report?

16 A Well, I think the -- I don't remember exactly what 17 was in my head, but at the time the attorney general was 18 just very into this issue that Buddy and David Cannon had 19 raised that things shouldn't be taken from the trust of the 20 estate and issues about who belonged -- who owned the 21 tangible personal property. And remember that the will,
22 which was now being contested, of course, the will had 23 given personal and household effects, not all the tangible 24 personal property, to -- to these six children before they 25 contested the will.

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 And so there were issues about what is personal --
2 what other personal and household effects. Does it include
3 the band uniforms? Probably not. They're probably 4 business personal property. Does it include a poster from 5 a James Brown concert? Well, maybe. That might be 6 business personal property, or that might be a personal
7 item. So that was the nature of it.

8 And that was causing discord and it wasn't going to 9 be settled until the will contest was settled, but the idea
10 was they might could work on that.

11 Q Okay. All right. Now, let's go to Exhibit 1, the 12 -- all right. Exhibit 1 is entitled proposed -- or sale of 13 assets, and it's got gross proposed sale price: One is 26
14 million, and one is 100 million and then from that are 15 various deductions. What are you trying to relate here or 16 inform to the recipients?

17 A This is just another version of what we had been 18 communicating with Sonny about since December 6, 2007. In 19 -- on December 6, 2007, Sonny wrote us and says -- said
20 something to the effect of, I understand that there is $100
21 million offer out there and then if -- that if it is not 22 accepted the sky will fall and it will go away.
23 He said, I hear that Joe Katz, and I guess by that 24 he meant Joel Katz, is the guy to see about this. And then 25 essentially he said, Am I missing something here.

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 And so we responded to him explaining what a sale
2 would look like if we didn't resolve the October 18th
3 letter issue before we thought about a sale. And the two
4 figures we used were 100 million, which everybody generally
5 was saying was the value of the assets, you know.

6 Q Now, everybody, who do you mean?

7 A Well, everybody. I never heard -- I never heard
8 anything lower than 80 million.

9 But, but I think even that --

10 Q But from whom? Lawyers? Who?

11 A Well, Buddy, who -- who knew in his head what Roger 12 Miller knows from the stats.

13 Q Right.

14 A Buddy knew everything about this estate. Mr.
15 Cannon, who, you know, you might compare him to Bernie
16 Madoff or something, but Mr. Cannon knew a lot too. Louis
17 knew a good bit. Some of the children knew a good bit.
18 Mr. Rosen knew a good bit. I mean, there were a lot of 19 people -- Mr. Rosen in February of '09, it might have been 20 a bit of a hyperbole, but he had said the copyrights might 21 be worth 100 million.

22 So, so nobody thought that -- many others, but -- 23 so the purpose of this was to show the damage that would be 24 done if there were a sale under the October 18th letter.
25 And the 100 million was the figure just talked about.

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 And the 26 million, I got from a letter from Joel Katz to 2 -- or we got from a letter from Joel Katz to Buddy that was
3 approximately in February or March of 2007, that said, I've
4 been looking around for purchasers and I think the letter
5 said 26 to 31 million. And that would have been only for 6 the -- the major copyrights, not the unpublished songs, not 7 other assets.

8 Q But it --

9 A And not the publicity rights.

10 Q Right. But if the litigation that Mr. Pullman
11 brought and others had been successful, it was all in flux
12 at this point, but you had to assume for purposes of 13 looking at a sale if that litigation were successful, where 14 would it end up, right?

15 A Well, this wasn't about the litigation.

16 Q Okay.

17 A This was about the October 18th letter.

18 Q Okay. Right.

19 A This is what would have been taken from the sale if 20 the October 18th letter had been in place.

21 Q Okay. So one figure would be a net one million two 22 and the other one be 24 million?

23 A Well, it would be a minus.

24 Q Excuse me, a minus. So --

25 A Yeah.

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 Q So of the hundred million, based on that letter,
2 basically 75 million would be going to --

3 A To --

4 Q To Cannon, Dallas, Bradley and some others?

5 A Paying off the debt and other things -- yeah, in 6 other words, we had to get this GT thing in at least better
7 shape before we could consider it.

8 Q And Mr. Pullman would have gotten 12.5 million;
9 Mr. Copsidas would have gotten the 12.75; Mr. Cannon would 10 have gotten 6,4; 6 million 4.

11 A If we had not taken control of the Pullman
12 litigation and the GT.

13 Q Okay. All right. Let's look at Exhibit 2 to this 14 document.

15 Now, these are claims being made by the former 16 PR/Trustees; is that correct?

17 A That's correct.

18 Q And two of these are -- is Mr. Dallas and Mr.
19 Bradley still being supported by the AG, or --

20 A Well, supported is not the right word. The AG
21 himself was not supporting them. In fact, we have a letter
22 from him in June that says essentially we do not support
23 these people, but they knew him for a long time and we 24 think they have valuable information.

25 Q Okay.

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 A So the AG himself had certainly distanced himself
2 to some extent, but Sonny was continuing up through April
3 or May, continuing this relationship with their lawyer.

4 Q Okay.

5 A Yeah.

6 Q And this is the claims these people were making?

7 A They were. And we had thought of those claims as 8 about 15 million.

9 Q All right. And then if we go the Exhibit 3.

10 A Yeah, that was just telling about attorney's fee
11 claims that were outstanding.

12 Q Roughly $941,000?

13 A Right. Right.

14 Q And let's talk about Powell and Goldstein, what was 15 that bill for?

16 A Well, Powell Goldstein wouldn't turn over it's file
17 because they said they never represented the estate.

18 Q But they wanted 4,800 -- $4,800 any way?

19 A Well, that's what they said early on. And then in 20 March -- on about March 15th of 2008, we get in the mail a
21 forwarded letter from David Cannon that was a re: Powell
22 Goldstein from September 15, 2008. So apparently they had 23 charged 48,200 -- or they wanted to charge $48,225 to draft 24 the defective documents to try to change the situs of the 25 trust from South Carolina to Georgia before Judge Early's

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 August 10, 2007 hearing.

2 Q And Judge Peoples, who did he represent?

3 A Judge Peoples used to say, I came into this case to 4 help my friend, David Cannon. He and Mr. Cannon were close
5 friends in -- in Edgefield where I will tell you that Mr.
6 Cannon --

7 THE COURT: In Barnwell?

8 THE WITNESS: Excuse me, Your Honor?

9 THE COURT: It was Barnwell.

10 THE WITNESS: Barnwell. I'm sorry. Where 11 generally, Mr. Cannon was perceived as a philanthropic 12 person in town. And so I don't fault Judge Peoples for 13 that. But Judge Peoples had come in in January. He didn't 14 have any assistance. He did develop the DNA protocol,
15 which started a correct determination of heirs, but he left
16 when Mr. Cannon left, I believe, shortly after August 10, 17 2007 and he billed for $137,000.

18 Q All right. Smith, Massey, and Brodie, Thurmond?

19 A That was -- and I just reread that claim last 20 night. Smith, Massey was young Strom Thurmond and his 21 partners. And they had been engaged by the original
22 trustees in January of 2007 and they had represented them
23 for 2 months and I just read they required a $25,000
24 deposit and then their bill apparently had gotten up to 25 that by the end of the second month.

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 Buddy Dallas had a strong disagreement with
2 Mr. Thurmond and he terminated -- they terminated them and 3 moved to Louis and Babcock.

4 Q All right. How about Phil Farr?

5 A He was the accountant who was doing all the 6 improper tax returns.

7 Q All right. But he wanted $25,000?

8 A He did.

9 Q Mr. Hull Towill Norman?

10 A That was Bill Hammond's law firm.

11 Q Bill Hammond?

12 A And Bill Tucker.

13 Q And they did the -- what did they do? Do you know?

14 A Well, they -- Mr. Hammond had a lot of 15 communications with Sonny about how we were trying to get a 16 $5 million commission.

17 Q All right. So --

18 A In the hundred million dollar estate.

19 Q Suggs Johnson?

20 A They were some accountants hired up in the upper 21 part of the estate by Buddy and those, I think to try and 22 make a fresh start. They -- they were never very in.

23 Q Greenberg Traurig?

24 A I think that that footnote may say that we 25 disallowed their claim and --

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 Q It says GT, Greenberg Traurig -- all things that 2 were approximately $327,000. Who did they represent?

3 A Well, this was from the failed RBS deal. This is 4 the -- that was the fee they wanted us to approve in order
5 to continue to stay in the Pullman litigation.

6 Q Which you -- which you didn't agree to --

7 A Which, we asked the judge and the judge -- we asked
8 the judge, you know, to give us guidance because we didn't 9 think we could approve that.

10 Q All right. And so then they filed a claim and then 11 it was withdrawn after a --

12 A But it was withdrawn.

13 Q -- after a period --

14 A Ultimately they withdrew all of their claims.
15 Before we left as PR/Trustees. I just put that in there
16 for -- we put that for information.

17 Q Lewis and Babcock $348,960. Who did they 18 represent?

19 A They were the litigation counsel for the estate and 20 they -- they were good lawyers and they really towed the 21 line in representing these fiduciaries who were kind of 22 getting peeled off, but they never crossed the line. They 23 were -- they were great lawyers.

24 Q Jackson Law Firm, law office, who was -- what did
25 they do?

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 A That was Stan Jackson, the subsequent attorney for
2 the -- both individually and as PR/Trustees, Judge Bradley,
3 and Buddy Dallas and he's the one who filed the motion for 4 Judge Early to recuse himself.

5 Q All right.

6 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Bundy.

7 MR. BUNDY: Yes, sir, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: I think we're about at the break time.

9 MR. BUNDY: Yes, sir, this is a good break time.

10 THE COURT: I've got 3:44 on my phone. We'll break
11 until four o'clock and go until five.

12 MR. BUNDY: Thank you, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: Ms. Pope, the same admonition, please,
14 ma'am.

15 (A brief recess was observed.)

16 MR. BUNDY: Thank you, Your Honor.

17 BY MR. BUNDY:

18 Q Ms. Pope, I'd like to talk to you now about an 19 average day in your law practice. In this area right in 20 here, or I guess this period between this first red line
21 and the will contest and the settlement agreement, we'll 22 get to it in a moment, roughly, this period of August. And 23 we're talking about 2008.

24 I note here in April, you personally billed or 25 expended over 250 hours in one month working on this case?

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 Can we agree that's a lot of time for a lawyer to spend on 2 a case in one month?

3 A Well, they say that about 2400 a year is a -- 200 a
4 month is a pretty good load, but I was, of course, working
5 most weekends, at least one day.

6 Q All right. If you would, just give the Court an 7 idea, generally, of what your day was like during that 8 period when you would wake up and go to the office; and 9 what you would be faced with in terms of faxes, calls,
10 crises, confrontations, and all the rest of it?

11 A Well, I think the best way to look at it would be 12 to just pick any day on our -- on our sheet, which we -- 13 was part of the -- part of the support for --

14 THE COURT: Now, are you looking at 10 or 8?

15 THE WITNESS: I'm sorry, Your Honor, I don't have a
16 number. It's Exhibit -- it was Exhibit --

17 MR. BUNDY: It's the one behind -- it's the bigger
18 one, Your Honor.

19 THE WITNESS: Yes, Your Honor.

20 MR. BUNDY: The one at your right hand.

21 THE WITNESS: I mean, let's pick a 9-hour day.

22 This is Wednesday, October 8, 2008, that's work with --

23 THE COURT: What page would that be on, please?

24 THE WITNESS: I'm sorry, page 58.

25 THE COURT: 58?

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 THE WITNESS: Yes, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: Okay. I am there.

3 THE WITNESS: Okay. And that would be work with 4 Tressa Hayes on the appeal of Dallas and Bradley. Both of 5 -- both Dallas and Bradley were conducting appeals and I
6 was dealing with that and then suggestion in the motion.

7 THE COURT: They were appealing --

8 THE WITNESS: They were appealing -- well, Mr.
9 Dallas and Mr. Bradley were appealing the March 7th order
10 in which Your Honor did not allow them to rescind their 11 resignations. And that continued until 2010. And then 12 there was a question in there -- they were -- I see from 13 this, I wouldn't have remembered it, but they were 14 questioning whether the actual action to get rid of them
15 had been properly commenced with a summons. So we were 16 having to go back and we -- look at whether Mr. Levinson
17 had properly filed a summons way back in 2007, when he got 18 ready to get rid of them. Then I put assist counsel with 19 investigation of the same; that about the summons.

20 Work on affidavit related to service or original
21 accounting document on former PR/Trustees to counter
22 affidavit to was not filed or not presented to the Court.
23 I can't remember what that was.

24 Travel to Aiken for weekly meeting with RLB, Jr.
25 Judge Buchanan and I met every week in person or near -- or

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 intended to meet every week in person. So I traveled to 2 Aiken for our weekly meeting. Meeting with J. Bailey, Jim
3 Bailey. And working on finalizing and service of answers.
4 So this was October 8th. So this was after the attorney
5 general had, I guess, filed a petition -- oh, no, I'm 6 sorry. Oh, this was after the attorney general had 7 announced the settlement, but we were running about 7 or 8
8 claims hearings that month and the next month.

9 So it says, work on finalizing answers, motions,
10 notices related to petitions for allowance of claims of 11 Welch, Jackson, Pettit, Parrett, Pullman, and others. So 12 even though we had been told the stand down because of the 13 existence of the settlement, we were still working down
14 these claims and it was during this period, in fact, a few
15 weeks later that we were successful in having the $31
16 million Pullman claim dismissed and they did not appeal.
17 That was great.

18 Conferences about clearance requests. I mean we 19 had conferences nearly every day about clearance requests.
20 Telephone conference with L. Levinson, A. Medlin,
21 and others in which Mr. Medlin asked about our willingness 22 to resign for a transition.

23 Explained that we could not begin to discuss any 24 possible transition until we had a hand on what was being 25 proposed. I think that was handle on what was being

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 proposed.

2 Oh, this date being October 8th, the settlement had
3 been announced, but the terms had not been disclosed.
4 Whether it would result in any loss of the $38 plus million
5 saved by the election of a charitable deduction on 6 Mr. Brown's estate tax return; well, I mean, Mr. Medlin
7 knew as much about estate taxes as I did and so we must 8 have been discussing about how -- what they were going to 9 do about the loss of the charitable deduction on the estate
10 tax return.

11 Explained our need to talk to accountants of those 12 of those who were working toward a partial settlement to 13 see what their position was as to how to handle income tax
14 issues for funds previously, almost exclusively paid or 15 permanently set aside for charity. Well, what happened on 16 August 10, 2008 when the attorney general announced this 17 settlement, I may be moving ahead, but we were told stand
18 down, this is settled. And we soon came to learn that the 19 attorney general had elected to give half of James Brown's 20 charity to -- to private individuals. And what that did in 21 addition to causing a gigantic estate tax problem, it
22 caused huge income tax problems because the term I'm using 23 there, paid or permanently set aside, if you have an estate
24 that's running along and making money, but it's all going
25 to end up with a charity, you treat it as if you're going

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 to get a charitable deduction for it. I'm over
2 simplifying this.

3 But, if you now have an estate that's been running,
4 this is 2008, it's been running for two years and you're
5 changing it to say, well, no, no, we're giving half of it
6 to non-charity, you don't just impact the State tax return,
7 you impact the -- every single income tax return that has 8 to be filed with respect to the estate and so what we were 9 -- what we had begun to tell them in August and continued
10 to tell them here in October was, we need to talk to your 11 accountants to see how y'all are going to handle all of 12 these income and other problems that have been caused by 13 this announcement of the settlement.

14 And so then it said, explain that neither of us is 15 an income tax expert. Oh, good, because I'm not, but that 16 it is obvious that 90 plus percent of Mr. Brown's assets
17 under his estate plan are paid are permanently set aside
18 for charity. Thus to the extent that any party proposes to 19 take funds from charity, their accountants would need to 20 work with us to have an understanding of how that would be 21 handled in the future.

22 Subsequent telephone conference with L. Levinson,
23 Louis Levinson, and other invited members of settling and 24 non-settling team about the need for confidentiality
25 regarding the estate tax return, which did not remain

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 confidential but was confidential for a very short period.

2 And contracts -- as we have in the federal suit, we
3 were under a confidentiality order in the Forlando suit and 4 there was -- we were concerned about the overlap.

5 Concern for the number of hours associated with 6 process of trying to designate and/or redact, so dealing 7 with those issues. I mean, that was -- that was a day with 8 9.1 hours, which included a trip from either Newberry or 9 Columbia to Aiken; but it sounds like from Columbia.

10 BY MR. BUNDY:

11 Q Is this more or less, sort of a typical day over
12 that period of time?

13 A Well, there was not such a thing as a typical day,
14 but every day was busy.

15 Q In terms of your prior experience in estate
16 matters, if you think about your own stress level, scale of 17 one to ten, okay? Just in terms of the stress on you every 18 day while you're trying to do this as compared to your 19 normal work day before James Brown, how would those things
20 compare?

21 A Well, I was always a hard worker. And I -- I don't 22 like the term stress. We were working hard.

23 Q Okay. Fair enough. All right.

24 So let's go back to our orders in Tab 30, please;
25 which is South Carolina Court of Appeals order dated May

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 28, 2008?

2 A Well, I think we were discussing earlier, we took
3 John Rainey for the meeting with Attorney General McMaster
4 and it was what we thought was a very, very successful
5 meeting. John Rainey was very supportive of what we were 6 doing and trying to do. And Attorney General McMaster
7 appeared to be supportive of what we were trying to do.
8 And the thrust of the meeting was, we said we would like 9 the have the third trustee who would be suitable to the 10 attorney general because we want the attorney general to be 11 on our side in these issues.

12 And so Sonny kept insisting that we had to resign
13 in order to be reappointed, which we thought was strange,
14 but -- so we proposed to the attorney general, why don't we 15 do this: Why don't we all go to the probate court and say
16 to the probate court, we want a third trustee. The 17 attorney general thinks we need to resign. We think we 18 don't need to resign, but we all want to get to the same
19 place, which is to have us there and to have a third
20 trustee that the attorney general likes that will sweeten
21 our working relationship.

22 And Attorney General McMaster seemed to cotton to 23 that idea. We were delighted. He turned to Sonny and said
24 how many days will it take you to find another trustee and 25 Sonny said six. We left that meeting elated. We thought

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 we had finally broken this barrier, this unnecessary
2 barrier with the person charged with protecting charities.
3 Well, it turns out that very day Judge Cureton
4 issued a little order in the Dallas appeal that shouldn't
5 have had any impact on what happened with the attorney
6 general at all. But David Bell, who was representing 7 Forlando in the suit to try to return Cannon and Dallas
8 took the position that this order by Judge Cureton, that 9 said the Dallas appeal does not impact the estate, and 10 therefore, you don't have to worry about a stay meant that 11 you did have to worry about a stay of all matters related 12 to the trust.

13 And so Mr. Bell and Sonny and Dallas and Cannon all
14 took that that meant we couldn't do anything as trustees.
15 So Sonny, in the flick of a pin undid everything the 16 attorney general had just done to straighten it out. And 17 -- and so Sonny started taking the position that there was 18 no trustee because Dallas and Bradley were appealing Judge
19 Early's order of April 8, 2008.

20 So Judge Early, of course, with concerns raised by 21 the attorney general and Mr. Bell and others kind of 22 cautiously moved through things and we began a very 23 respectful, but nevertheless important letter writing
24 dialogue with the attorney general just expressing our 25 terrible disappointment that Sonny was interfering with

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 what looked like a great solution.

2 There -- in our -- in the claim that Judge Buchanan
3 and I filed, we attached some of those June letters and I
4 can talk about them one by one, but there were about five
5 of them. But it was so disappointing because it appeared 6 that we were now going to get along.

7 So that was the month of June and I remember just 8 before we all left for the 4th of July vacation Sonny files
9 a document saying there is no trustee and he wants a
10 special trustee appointed. Now, where he got the notion
11 that there was no trustee would just be Sonny's
12 imagination.

13 So Sonny filed that. We learned about it just 14 before we left for our 4th of July vacation. When we came 15 back, we had to deal with it. We were just -- it was 16 awful. Sonny just was disrupting everything the attorney
17 general had said he was willing to do.

18 And so that -- so we get back from the 4th of July 19 holiday -- now, remember that the -- the sale, the 20 Christies sale is now scheduled for July 17th. And so
21 we're just barely back from the 4th of July and we are 22 responding and Sonny has already sent Judge Early the name
23 of five
24 potential trustees, Steve Johnson, David Sojourner, Xavier
25 Starkest, one other person, and Russell Bauknight.

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 So Bob and I, always trying to make lemonade out of 2 whatever lemons are sent to us, began to correspond with 3 these people about, let's get together. I mean we were 4 going to try to work with anybody who suited the attorney
5 general. So we come back just before the Christies sale.
6 On the 9th of July or the 8th of July, eight or nine days
7 before the Christies sale, but then Dallas, who's been 8 interfering with everything all along, with the help of 9 David Bell; Buddy Dallas files documents in Court of 10 Appeals to stop the Christies sale. And his theory is that 11 everything the -- the trust is trying to do is stayed by 12 his appeal.

13 So he files a motion to enforce the stay. Now,
14 this was not Buddy's first foray into trying to interfere
15 with the Christies sale without doing it in front of Judge
16 Early. He had -- Powell Goldstein had written us
17 threatening us. Hammond was making statements to the 18 media. I mean, they were -- and Jaqueline Hollander was 19 writing Christies trying to withdraw a turquoise bracelet
20 she said of all things, she had on when she was raped by 21 James Brown -- as if you would want a turquoise bracelet
22 with that memory -- but this was the kind of craziness that 23 was surrounding the Christies sale.

24 So on the 9th, none of that craziness had worked.
25 So eight or nine days before the sale, Buddy Dallas and

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 Judge Bradley filed a motion to enforce the stay, to stop
2 the sale.

3 Q And that would be Tab 31, which is the July 9,
4 2008 --

5 A That -- that --

6 Q -- resulted in that order?

7 A That's right. And so Judge Cureton issued
8 immediately, a stay. It was a Thursday or Friday and he 9 said that a hearing would take place on the 14th, which I
10 think was Monday before the sale was supposed to take place
11 on Thursday.

12 Q All right. So then on Tab Number 32, this is Judge
13 Cureton's order after that hearing; is that correct?

14 A Right. They gave us -- they gave us from whatever
15 the 9th until Monday to file briefs. And Christies came 16 in and did an amicus brief that said they're going to have 17 to pay $150,000 default fee if this sale is stopped and we 18 don't even know if we'd be interested in it if it's 19 stopped. And the attorney general filed a motion to 20 intervene and asked that the Christies sale go forward,
21 which was good. He supported our request that it go
22 forward.

23 Prior to that, the attorney general had very 24 clearly stated we take no position with respect to the 25 Christies sale. So we filed these briefs. Christies asked

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 us who would be a good lawyer and we suggested James
2 Richardson and so Christies had hired James Richardson.
3 We had Tressa Hayes. We filed these briefs. We talked
4 about the damage that this -- stopping this sale would do
5 to this extraordinarily illiquid estate. And so that 6 Monday Judge Cureton issued his second order.

7 Q All right. Let's pull the order up and look at it,
8 please.

9 A Okay. And the second order -- oh, no, that was the 10 first order.

11 Q The first order.

12 A After careful review, we temporarily grant the 13 stay; and we had to file our briefs by noon on Monday, the 14 14th. Right. So we do that.

15 Q All right. So here's the order of July 9, I
16 believe --

17 A No, no, this will be the 14th.

18 Q 14th?

19 A Yes.

20 Q July 14th?

21 A All right.

22 Q Well Judge Cureton -- Judge Cureton points out the 23 Circuit Court Judge Early, directed response to execute the 24 consignment agreement. No party has appealed from this 25 order or the February 20th 2008 order. What did the

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 February 20, 2008 order relate to? Just to refresh our 2 recollection?

3 A Well, the consignment agreement order was the later
4 order. It was the April 1st order.

5 Q All right.

6 A The first order saying Christies can be the people
7 was the February 20th order.

8 Q And Judge Cureton points out that the -- on the 9 14th of July, the sale's supposed to go forward in three 10 days?

11 A You got it.

12 Q Okay. And it says; we grant Christies motion to 13 appear as amicus curiae and the attorney general's motion
14 to intervene, all documents carefully considered?

15 A Right.

16 Q And he goes on and he --

17 A And I will tell you, they had before them as our 18 brief, because the Christies sale catalog was out and so
19 we filed our six or however many copies of the brief with 20 the Grammy as the centerfold or close --

21 Q Okay. So -- so there --

22 A -- in that.

23 Q So there was no secret that the Grammy was going to 24 be sold?

25 A It was right there pretty as a picture.

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 Q The AG knew it?

2 A Right.

3 Q Everybody involved knew it; anybody that wanted to 4 look at the catalog knew it?

5 A With the crack patched.

6 Q Christies knew it. Okay.

7 And Judge Cureton said the auction may take place
8 as scheduled and for practical purposes respondents may 9 continue to act as trustees while this appeal is pending.
10 What was the significance of that?

11 A Well, it was extraordinarily significant because 12 here was Buddy trying to -- to -- to hogtie the trust for 13 the whole time of his appeal and we were mostly trying to 14 get the Christies sale done. We weren't thinking about 15 other things, but gratuitously, Judge Cureton's order does 16 contain, Respondents may continue to act as trustees while 17 the appeal is pending.

18 That lifted the cloud of the stay that had been put 19 in place on May 28th. And so Sonny's claim that there 20 never was -- that there was no trustee during the month of 21 June went out the window. That was great.

22 So now we have, for the first time, 100 percent
23 clear authority as both PR's and trustees because our PR
24 authority had never been challenged and now we have a clear
25 court of appeals order in addition to Judge Early lifting

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 the stay so we were ready to go. Okay.

2 Q All right. Was there any further discussion at 3 this time now, about a third trustee with the attorney
4 general?

5 A Absolutely. We immediately picked back up. We 6 took Steve Johnson and Xavier Starkes out to Beech Island.
7 We talked -- I rode them -- I drove them from Columbia to 8 meet with Bob, so we talked the whole way about the 9 challenges and the opportunities. We were -- we thought we 10 were back on track.

11 Q And had you heard anything from the attorney
12 general, specifically Attorney General McMaster that he had 13 changed his mind about a third trustee?

14 A No, no specifically, specifically, we got the 15 letter of July 30th 2008 in which he -- in which he said he 16 supported us as trustees along with a third trustee, was 17 glad we were working together, but it did contain a
18 sentence, probably put in by Sonny, but I think the better
19 way would be for you to resign.

20 So it was not 100 percent resolved. But I was very 21 comfortable that we were moving in that direction. And we 22 liked -- Mr. Bauknight had not returned our calls, so we 23 hadn't taken him or talked to him. And a 5th one, we 24 hadn't, but we really liked the two trustees we had taken
25 there. The two potential trustees.

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 And then Mr. Sojourner was on vacation and was
2 returning shortly from vacation. So we were so encouraged.

3 Q Had those trustee recommendations emanated from the 4 attorney general's office?

5 A They came from Sonny.

6 Q Okay.

7 A Yeah, they came from Sonny.

8 Q Let's go to the next document, which is found at 9 Tab 33, Judge Early's order of July 25th 2008?

10 A Well, all that does is show that we were sort of 11 continuing to do other things while all of this is going
12 on. But that's just an order that talks about our wanting 13 to go ahead and make some education payments as soon as the 14 Christies proceeds came in. And so the judge signed that 15 order.

16 Q All right.

17 A For the benefit of certain students.

18 Q In fact, the trus.-- the Christies sale went 19 through, right?

20 A It did.

21 Q All right. And what -- how did it go?

22 A Well, it -- it did not go that great because 23 Mr. Levinson had called us and said would we pay for his 24 clients to come to the sale and we told him we wouldn't pay
25 for it, but if they did go and if their presence were shown

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 to be a positive factor in the sale that we would not
2 oppose Judge Early's awarding them expenses for their
3 travel to the sale after the proceeds.

4 Q And again, his clients were the six named children?

5 A No, his clients were five of --

6 Q Five, excuse me.

7 A -- the six named. And so -- but what happened
8 actually, is instead of -- instead of being helpful at the 9 sale, it was a little bit different. Not with Mr. Levinson
10 himself, but Deanna conducted a television press conference
11 with the Reverend Al Sharpton the morning of the sale. I
12 didn't see it until that night on the news, but essentially
13 she was out in the New York press sabotaging the sale.
14 Yamma came up and told me she didn't know how I
15 slept at night. I should take the $2 million and I'll tell 16 you what the $2 million was. Two days before the sale, we 17 had received a call from Kraig Fox who was part --

18 THE COURT: From who?

19 THE WITNESS: Kraig, K-R-A-I-G, Fox.

20 THE COURT: F-O-X?

21 THE WITNESS: F-O-X. And he was part of this, I
22 think the Silmon Group. And Mr. Fox said we would like
23 to lend you $2 million for either 90 or 120 days. My time
24 sheet, I mean my record may show this. And he said to stop
25 the Christies sale. He said we've been working with the --

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 with -- I think he said the sisters, Yamma and Deanna. He
2 might have said the Levinson clients. But he said, We've 3 been working with them for about four months and we'd like
4 to give you a 90 day loan to stop the sale. And I said,
5 Oh, I hate that you made this call today and not four 6 months ago. But it was just too little too late. For 7 starters, he didn't know what the terms of the sale would 8 be. Christies had already told Court of Appeals they 9 wouldn't re up the sale if it were cancelled.

10 We knew that there would be at least a $150,000
11 forfeiture fee and I was very sorry that that happened,
12 but, but, there was no way at that point to stop the sale.

13 So --

14 Q That's the morning of the sale?

15 A No, it was two days before.

16 Q Two days before?

17 A And then, so when Yamma came up to me, she said,
18 you know, I don't see how you sleep at night, you should 19 have taken the $2 million, but, I mean, that didn't 20 interfere with the sale. I mean they weren't -- at the 21 sale itself, nobody was rude or inappropriate. It was --
22 the press conference didn't help. But in general, the sale
23 went the way it went. The only issue that came up during 24 the sale, as I recall, was the Grammy issue and what had 25 happened is that there had been a filing, not against the

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 estate but against Christies, as I recall. I'm not even
2 sure I ever saw the pleadings. But I understood it to have
3 been filed against Christies seeking to halt the Grammy
4 sale.

5 Q And who made that filing?

6 A It was made on behalf of the American Academy of 7 Recording Artists.

8 Q The people who give the Grammys?

9 A The people who give the Grammys. And we -- we had 10 had very nice dealings with them before about a Grammy
11 opening and other things. But anyway, the Christies
12 counsel met with us, with Mr. Levinson in the room, and 13 said this is what they do all the time. There's absolutely
14 no legal basis not to sell this Grammy. You should leave
15 it in -- leave it in the sale. They're just bullying you
16 and we said, Well, how much will it cost to defend a sale.
17 And they had --

18 MR. WILLIAMS: Your Honor, I'm sorry. I'd like to 19 object to this line of testimony on the basis of hearsay.
20 I understand -- I understand the Court's prior ruling, the 21 Court's prior knowledge of the case, but I believe we may 22 be dealing with new information.

23 THE COURT: You're objecting on hearsay?

24 MR. WILLIAMS: Yes, Your Honor.

25 THE COURT: Well, obviously, it's hearsay.

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 MR. BUNDY: And, Your Honor, it's not offered for 2 the proof of the matter asserted. It's to see the 3 witness's state of mind and why she did what she did.

4 THE COURT: How could all day long we've been 5 dealing with what other people said and no objections have 6 been made? I'm going to allow it in.

7 MR. BUNDY: Thank you, Your Honor.

8 THE WITNESS: So --

9 THE COURT: How much would it cost to defend the 10 sale.

11 THE WITNESS: Right. And she said, you won't use
12 our counsel because we're too expensive, but we think we 13 can find you somebody for about $5,000. So -- but now, 14 because there had been a challenge, that meant that we 15 could withdraw this item without a penalty. You couldn't 16 withdraw other items without a penalty. So we made the -- 17 Judge Buchanan, with Mr. Levinson in the room, made the 18 business decision to withdraw the Grammy. It -- it was as 19 I recall in the catalog at a possible to $20,000 sale
20 price. It -- it -- there was just no reason to pay a 21 quarter of its value to defend a sale and then pay all the 22 commissions and everything associated with it.

23 Plus, we knew that there, A, could be future sales
24 and we knew that nobody could possibly be sad if we didn't 25 sell the Grammy. I mean it was a no brainer from our

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 perspective.

2 And -- and so the Grammy, like a number of items
3 that didn't meet the appraisal requirements were returned
4 to the South Carolina State Museum which agreed to hold
5 them for us still under Judge Early's February 20th order.

6 Q Did there ever come a time when there was some 7 controversy about the condition of that statue?

8 A After the Grammy came back, we were notified that 9 there was a crack in it and -- but if you look at the 10 catalog, you can see the crack was already there. So I
11 asked the people at the state museum to investigate because 12 everything that was transported to and from Christies was 13 fully insured. And so they checked and Christies had a
14 pictures to show that the crack was there before it left 15 the first time, and that -- that they had sealed it and the 16 seal had broken, not a new crack, but the seal. And so the 17 State museum agreed to repair the crack with museum quality
18 work that I think they said it would normally cost $75 to 19 $85 an hour, but they would -- that somebody had agreed to 20 donate the work.

21 And so I think that happened and I think it then
22 went -- after our tenure to the Augusta Museum of History,
23 but I'm not quite sure.

24 Q So the Grammy ultimately didn't get sold?

25 A No. No, it was not sold.

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 Q And it wasn't cracked by virtue of the sale?

2 A No.

3 Q Okay. All right. Let's talk about this order that
4 we're looking at here, the Number 33 regarding Interim
5 Payment of Educational Benefits. Just very briefly tell us
6 what you were trying to do here?

7 A Could I get the date of that order? Because I
8 think I remember, but I want to be sure. Is it August 9 10th? 9th.

10 THE COURT: July 25.

11 BY MR. BUNDY:

12 Q July 25.

13 A July 25.

14 Q It was filed in August, but it's July 25?

15 THE COURT: Filed August 1.

16 THE WITNESS: Filed August 1. Okay. What happened
17 after that was that I believe Mr. Levinson filed a motion
18 to alter or amend that order so that tuition payments could 19 be paid to everyone, not just those over 21 or something
20 and then by August 10, which was just shortly after that 21 order was filed, the settlement, the McMaster settlement
22 had been reached and the attorney general and Mr. Rosen had 23 told us to stand down and I think there was never a hearing
24 on it, as I recall.

25 ///

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 BY MR. BUNDY:

2 Q All right. So --

3 A Oh, yeah, I'm sorry, I do remember. Judge Early --
4 we were concerned because Forlando had said that he needed
5 his tuition and Judge Early said to him, I had forgotten
6 this. I think it was on August 19th. Judge Early said to 7 him, well if you need some money for tuition, you let me
8 know. And so far as I know, over the next year, he -- 9 nobody let Judge Early know that.

10 MR. BUNDY: Let's close these, please.

11 BY MR. BUNDY:

12 Q All right. We're now in August, correct?

13 A Yes.

14 Q Finally got to August 8th. The settlement took 15 place. Okay. How did you find out about that settlement?

16 A We received an e-mail from counsel for Tomi Rae
17 saying stand down, stop administering the estate everything
18 has been settled. That was August 12 of 2010, and then in 19 the that same day there was an e-mail to Judge Early saying
20 that there had been a mediation on August 10th on James 21 Brown Boulevard in Augusta and that everything had been 22 settled.

23 Q All right. Prior to August 10th, were you aware of 24 any settlement negotiations among and between the parties
25 in conjunction with the attorney general?

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 A We were not.

2 Q When you met with the attorney general --

3 THE COURT: Hold on a second, please. You just 4 said August 12, 2010.

5 THE WITNESS: Oh, apologize, it was clearly August
6 12th, 2008. I'm sorry. Thank you for correcting me.

7 THE COURT: No, no, I may have written it down
8 wrong.

9 THE WITNESS: No, no, I probably said it wrong.

10 BY MR. BUNDY:

11 Q You met with Attorney General McMaster when to 12 discuss this with Mr. Rainey?

13 A Our meeting with Mr. Rainey, I believe, was May 14 28th.

15 Q And when did you meet with the attorney general
16 regarding your request for a third trustee?

17 A May -- that was May. And I'll just make sure I'm 18 not one day off. May 28th.

19 Q After Judge Cureton's order clearing up the 20 trustees could still move forward, when was that date?
21 That was a July 9th date or 16 date?

22 THE COURT: July 14th.

23 BY MR. BUNDY:

24 Q 14th.

25 A Okay. I'm sorry, just a minute. It might have

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 been the 27th; I'm sorry.

2 Q At any rate, on the July 14 order from Judge
3 Cureton, or Justice Cureton --

4 A Excuse me 29th. I'm sorry. It --

5 THE COURT: Y'all are getting me confused. What's 6 the 29th?

7 THE WITNESS: I apologize. The meeting with the 8 attorney general was May 29th.

9 BY MR. BUNDY:

10 Q Okay.

11 A The Judge Cureton order was May 28th, but we didn't 12 learn about it until the 29th. I'm sorry, I apologize.

13 Q And from the 29th -- I guess what I'm trying to do
14 is to recall or establish, is the date that it -- that you
15 went back and tried to look for a third trustee.

16 A We did that -- really, the whole -- well, really,
17 the whole time after the meeting, but I think Sonny had 18 actually suggested those names in late June.

19 Q Okay.

20 A But we were in constant communication with the 21 attorney general after the May 29th meeting.

22 Q And in any of those communications were you ever
23 advised by Mr. Jones or the attorney general that 24 negotiations were going onto settle this matter?

25 A No.

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 Q Okay. Were you informed regarding your attendance
2 or Judge Buchanan's attendance at the settlement mediation?

3 A No.

4 Q All right. Would you have gone if you had been 5 invited?

6 A Yes.

7 Q Okay. And do you think your presence would have 8 been valuable to the participants in that mediation?

9 A In light of the stance that Sonny Jones took, I'm 10 not sure.

11 Q Okay. All right. So you receive an e-mail from 12 Mr. Rosen in August?

13 A That's right. August 12.

14 Q All right. And you're told to stand down and did,
15 in fact, you stand down?

16 A Well, we stood down as best we could. We -- we, of 17 course, had to continue everything. We had to continue and 18 as I've mentioned early -- earlier, we continued on with 19 resolving all the claims matters. We filed the estate tax
20 return on September 25th. We continued -- we had a two day
21 hearing in the Forlando federal case in Beaufort on the 22 19th and 20th, I believe it was, of November. And this was 23 a critical hearing because Forlando was still seeking to 24 enjoin the 2000 Trust from taking any action which would 25 have left us -- if he had been successful, unable to even

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 defend against the settlement. So that was a very serious
2 thing.

3 We didn't do -- we didn't do anything new or 4 extraordinary with exception of something that didn't
5 happen until 2009 that I can tell you about. But we did --
6 we did continue what I would call the administrative 7 matters.

8 Q Were you in a position after that date to go
9 forward and try to find or monetize claims or create
10 revenue for the estate or make it more liquid or do
11 anything like that?

12 A Well, I think we -- the atmosphere was so clearly,
13 we have a settlement, shut up, we're ready for you to be 14 gone, that -- that that just was -- it was not an 15 atmosphere conducive to establishing the confidence you
16 need to --

17 Q And were you apprised or provided with the 18 settlement documents when you were notified of the 19 settlement?

20 A Not right away. In fact, we had to -- we had to 21 delay looking at them a little while because they wanted
22 them to be confidential and we were afraid we were going to 23 have to talk about them in the federal hearing. But we 24 certainly -- by -- within a short while, we generally
25 understood that half of the charity was going to the

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 Levinson's clients and Tomi Rae. It would -- at some 2 point fairly early on, we understood that.

3 Q Okay. And would that have been consistent in your 4 opinion to the intent of the testate or set forth in the 5 testamentary documents, the will, or the trust?

6 A No.

7 Q All right. So let's go back to, I guess -- well, I
8 guess we could look at the settlement now if we have it. I
9 think it's the last tab.

10 You say you got the settlement documents shortly
11 after the notification?

12 A No, no. We never got the settlement documents
13 until something like March 23rd, 2009.

14 Q Oh, okay.

15 A We got a synopsis of the settlement, I believe, in 16 October.

17 Q Okay. So, really, you didn't know what the terms of 18 the settlement was other than just verbal --

19 A We knew the terms by October.

20 Q Okay. By October. All right. Well, that being 21 the case, let's stick with August -- let's go back to 22 August.

23 This is an order --

24 THE COURT: Which tab are you on, please?

25 MR. BUNDY: It's tab 24, Your Honor.

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 BY MR. BUNDY:

2 Q This order relates to, I believe, three cases that
3 were filed requiring new case numbers?

4 A Well, these are just a little example of things
5 kept going on. We've already talked about the August 1
6 order for education benefits. Then the next thing was an 7 order of Judge Early consolidating the Cannon, Dallas, and 8 Bradley claims against the estate. This was their claims 9 for about $5 million, even though they were being sued by 10 the estate. They got consolidated for purposes of 11 discovery. It was just kind of moving along with that.

12 And then the third petition is interesting because 13 one of those three previous trustees perhaps, Mr. Cannon
14 was now asking to restrain Judge Early, I believe, he was 15 -- we might look at that order. It was somebody else's
16 petition for restraint.

17 Q Okay. But there's an order granting limited stay
18 of certain discovery and that was Judge Early, I believe
19 signed that order on October 23rd?

20 A Right. That's a little later, but before that, 21 this third document here is a petition for removal and 22 restraint.

23 Q Okay.

24 THE COURT: That was filed by David Cannon.

25 THE WITNESS: Could we look at -- oh, that's the

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 attorney general's petition to remove Cannon and Dallas.

2 Could I -- could we look at that.

3 BY MR. BUNDY:

4 Q September 20 --

5 A September 28th, 2008, if we could look at that just
6 to clarify. I think that's the attorney general's -- I
7 can't quite read it from here, but I believe that's the 8 attorney general's signature.

9 THE COURT: He's shaking his head, he can't blow it
10 up.

11 THE WITNESS: Okay. Okay that's fine. The 12 attorney general -- I apologize. In September, the 13 attorney general filed an action to remove Cannon, Dallas,
14 and Bradley. Before he did that, there was a consultation
15 by the settling parties with us, will you join in an effort
16 to remove Cannon, Dallas and Bradley. Our response was no
17 because there are matters pending in the appellate court
18 and we don't think that we'd have the jurisdiction to join 19 it here because we're up there saying they should never 20 return.

21 So the attorney general filed a petition for 22 removal or restraint of Cannon and Dallas in September of 23 '08. We were not made parties to that. But it
24 specifically referenced the settlement. So we moved to 25 intervene -- Judge Buchanan and I moved to intervene and

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 within 30 days of that, approximately October 25th, the 2 petition was amended and the petitioner was no longer the 3 attorney general, but now all of the settling parties and 4 now no longer were they moving to remove Cannon and Dallas,
5 but they were moving to remove us as well. And that was in 6 October.

7 And just about the time that was filed Judge Early
8 granted a stay of certain discovery while this settlement
9 was being considered and we did not oppose a short stay.
10 It will say that in the October 23rd order. So there was a 11 short stay of discovery because Judge Early wanted to have 12 an opportunity to let people look at the settlement.

13 Q All right. Let's look now at the -- you were told 14 to stand down?

15 A Right.

16 Q You were advised of the settlement in April --

17 A Right.

18 Q -- in August?

19 A Uh-huh.

20 Q And your work, your number of hours declined?

21 A Well, my number of hours, I think declines in 22 December of '08 for two reasons. One, just prior to that,
23 just before Thanksgiving Judge Early had been asked to 24 appoint Russell Bauknight as a special administrator and 25 special trustee and the request to appoint Russell had been

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 very broad, so in a sense they were asking that he take
2 control of everything. But they also were asking that he
3 be the one to approve the settlement. And so Judge Early 4 had -- had indicated that he was going to rule on that in 5 November. He said he'd be ruling shortly.

6 And so we were in a limbo where we didn't even know
7 whether we'd have any authority to do anything if he did
8 what the attorney general had asked him to do. And in 9 addition, my daughter was married to my son-in-law on 10 December 6 of 2008 and I had long before that asked for 11 time, two weeks off. Except for one other trial, that was 12 about all the vacation I had.

13 So my hours were down because my daughter was 14 getting married and because we were also in limbo then.
15 But I was not left free. I was called as I was serving my 16 daughter's bridesmaids lunch with a problem that Judge
17 Buchanan was having that had to be dealt with. But in 18 general, I was gone for almost two weeks.

19 Q And then there appears to be an uptick of your 20 hours starting in, you know, from -- roughly the first part
21 of February through and peaking sometime in April. What's 22 going on in this period. It's in the settlement hearings.

23 A Well, Judge Early issued an order on January 8th
24 and he did not grant their request to let Russell Bauknight
25 simply replace us. He instead -- he instead said that he

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 was appointed for the sole and limited purpose as special
2 administrator and special trustee of assessing the attorney
3 general's settlement. And that we were to -- that we were 4 to continue with all of the administration of the estate
5 other than that.

6 So once again, we were given, by Judge Early, full 7 authority to continue. Nobody complained, nobody said we 8 were doing bad things, but by the same token, because we 9 were -- we now were looking at a document where the 10 attorney general of South Carolina, on the 10th of August, 11 had contracted to remove us and replace us with someone he 12 wanted; had declared Tomi Rae would be stipulated to be 13 the spouse; and had agreed to give 25 percent of this
14 charity to clients of Louis Levinson as they may agree
15 among themselves; and 25 percent to Tomi Rae.

16 And our accountant, based on the seismic change in 17 the tax picture caused by that had notified everyone back
18 in September that he would do the estate tax return, which 19 we did and which we filed on September 25th, but -- but -- 20 so there -- things had just -- the notion that that could 21 turn out to be the case and the clear -- the attorney
22 general's clear position that he had absolute authority to 23 substitute his judgment for ours and take over just changed
24 the character of everything.

25 Q Did you agree with the attorney general's position?

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 A We didn't.

2 Q And ultimately, neither did the Supreme Court, did
3 they?

4 A Well, no, but -- actually, I saw yesterday, on May 5 22nd, just four days before Judge Early approved the 6 settlement, Bob Buchanan and I actually filed a motion for 7 declaratory judgment that said Judge Early, please tell us
8 if the attorney general has the authority to substitute his 9 judgment for ours; and most importantly, if he does, does
10 he now have the fiduciary responsibility if something goes
11 wrong.

12 So once again, we weren't looking to hang on, but 13 the notion that someone was going to supplant our 14 obligations with his desire, but not have it clear that he 15 was now the fiduciary and I just -- that petition is part
16 of Mr. Buchanan's deposition and it's rather critical
17 because we said we want -- we want to know whether he could 18 substitute his judgment. If he can't, we want -- we still 19 want to help find a third trustee and resign and we even 20 named Rob Stanley and Ray Gonzales as our successors.

21 So we were not wanting to hang on. We were not 22 wanting to be contentious, but we were the people, we 23 believed, had the duty to uphold James Brown's estate plan.

24 Q Okay.

25 MR. BUNDY: Your Honor, I believe that would be a

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 good place to stop. It's four minutes to the hour.

2 THE COURT: Can we waste four minutes?

3 I think y'all have been very efficient today. I
4 appreciate everyone's cooperation and preparedness. And I
5 think you're right, it's a good stopping point.

6 9:30 in the morning suit everyone.

7 MR. BUNDY: Suits the plaintiff, Your Honor.

8 THE WITNESS: You don't have that meeting?

9 MR. WILLIAMS: Your Honor --

10 THE COURT: I cancelled it because the storm's
11 coming and I don't want to waste any time and I'm going to 12 do it by telephone conference next week.

13 THE WITNESS: I'm sorry, I didn't mean to --

14 THE COURT: We've worked it out.

15 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

16 THE COURT: So, may I see the lawyers in chambers
17 for one second on logistics and we'll commence starting in 18 the morning at 9:30.

19 Ms. Pope, you're still in the middle of your 20 testimony, so --

21 MR. SILVERNAIL: Your Honor, I think --

22 THE COURT: I'm talking, if you don't mind.

23 MR. SILVERNAIL: I'm sorry.

24 THE COURT: You're in the middle of your testimony
25 so obviously, discuss the case with your husband and your

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 daughter, but don't discuss it -- you know that.

2 THE WITNESS: We won't discuss it.

3 THE COURT: All right. Sir?

4 MR. SILVERNAIL: Your Honor, before we go off the 5 record, I believe both the plaintiffs and the defendants
6 agree that Mr. Buchanan be released from his subpoena
7 tomorrow and Thursday for his other court duties and he 8 would ask, if you wouldn't mind, just making a record of 9 that.

10 THE COURT: Well, you know, this thing is -- down
11 in the tropics, is 150 miles an hour now, Category 5 in 12 some spots and the path of it is very iffy right now, so
13 we'll just have to monitor all of that to see what we're 14 going to do about Friday and we'll deal with that as we get 15 closer.

16 But, any problem -- and you're going to be back on 17 Friday? If we need you, or next Monday or Tuesday or is he 18 being released totally from the subpoena?

19 JUDGE BUCHANAN: Well, no, I've just got to do
20 Beaufort and Charleston Wednesday and Thursday.

21 THE COURT: That's fine. When do y'all anticipate
22 calling Mr. Buchanan's secretary? I understand she's got 23 some surgery scheduled and she is, I've been told, not 24 feeling very well. And I was told that by my clerk who 25 apparently they had told her.

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 THE SECRETARY: Yes, sir.

2 THE COURT: When is your surgery, ma'am?

3 THE SECRETARY: It's Friday. Friday morning.

4 THE COURT: When do you think you're going to need
5 her Mr. Bundy?

6 MR. BUNDY: I don't plan on calling her at this 7 time, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: Y'all going to call her? Sir?

9 MR. WILLIAMS: No, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: Well, she's under subpoena. If she is 11 under subpoena and you're not planning on calling her, with 12 the understanding that if we absolutely need her, we'll get 13 it done.

14 MR. BUNDY: Sure.

15 THE COURT: So you don't have to come back
16 tomorrow. Good luck with your surgery and hopefully 17 everything will work out.

18 Mr. Buchanan, I'll see you -- we'll be in touch
19 with you about how it looks like Friday, whether we're 20 going or not. Anybody else.

21 MR. BUNDY: Your Honor, I have no plans to call
22 Judge Buchanan.

23 THE COURT: Well -- okay.

24 JUDGE BUCHANAN: Okay.

25 THE COURT: That's it.

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 Okay. Let me see y'all just for a minute.

2 (Court was in recess until the following morning.)

3 WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 6, 2017

4 THE COURT: I had a brief chat this morning in 5 chambers with Mr. Bundy and Mr. Black. One of the issues
6 we addressed was logistics. I said let's just hold off
7 until the lunch hour to see the latest projections on the 8 storm, when it's supposed -- it's coming our way. If it
9 is, when it's supposed to get here. We'll try to make some 10 decision by this afternoon on -- I know we've got people
11 with airline tickets and so forth and so on. And if 12 they're flying in on Monday, right now that looks like that 13 might be the -- when we get hit, Monday afternoon, or 14 Tuesday. But let's just see if we get some better ideas on 15 it and then I will gather everyone's input in it and we'll 16 just try to make a joint decision on that, plans, and so 17 forth.

18 I hate for them to fly in here and then we not have 19 court. I hate for us to cancel court and then the storm
20 goes, here, I don't know, and there. It's a moving target
21 right now. So let's all look at it. I will obviously get 22 everyone's input in it before we make a decision on that.

23 Okay. Mr. Bundy, if you'd like to continue, unless 24 we have anything for the record before we need to get
25 started.

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 MR. BUNDY: Nothing from the plaintiff, Your Honor.

2 MR. WILLIAMS: Your Honor, just housekeeping
3 matters, we served defendant's deposition designations on 4 the other side and if the Court would like a copy, we could 5 hand it to him now.

6 THE COURT: Just when you get ready to publish
7 those, you can hand them up.

8 MR. WILLIAMS: Yes, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Bundy?

10 MR. BUNDY: May it please the Court, Your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

12 MR. BUNDY: Your Honor, we're going to move now to 13 Tab 35 in Exhibit 1.

14 If you'd put on the screen, please the October 23rd
15 order, granting limited stay of certain discovery.

16 DIRECT EXAMINATION - CONTINUED

17 BY MR. BUNDY:

18 Q All right. Ms. Pope, sort of just catch back up
19 where we were, there was -- I think we were in this 20 November, December period of 2008; is that not correct?
21 Generally in that area?

22 A We were --

23 Q Sort of --

24 A -- toggling between October and November, I think.

25 Q So we were sort of headed back up this hourly hill

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 in terms of the settlement hearings?

2 A We were.

3 Q Tell me about your participation and Judge
4 Buchanan's participation in the settlement hearings?

5 A Well, I think probably the best way is to begin
6 approximately with the October 20th-23rd or --

7 Q Speak up, please.

8 A Approximately October 23rd, 2008 Order Granting a
9 Stay. We -- Mr. -- Judge Buchanan and I did not oppose a 10 brief stay of -- a limited stay of discovery to consider
11 this settlement that people were trying to put together,
12 but which had not been put together. So it might be good
13 to look at exactly where we were on that day.

14 Q Okay. This would be October of 2000 and --

15 A Right. October of 2008.

16 Q 2008. All right. If you would, the first
17 paragraph, please.

18 A Right. And it reflects a hearing on September
19 29th, 2008, and it says that it's a motion of the attorney
20 general, Tomi Rae, and plaintiffs in case 872, which was 21 the Levinson clients, I believe. But -- no, no, 872. I'm 22 sorry, I used to be good with numbers. I can't tell 23 whether that's the new case that the attorney general had 24 just filed that became Wilson versus Dallas. I believe it
25 is. And it says the hearing was conducted solely on said

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 parties letter motion. That's correct, because there had
2 been this lawsuit just filed and they asked for a stay
3 while they tried to put together the -- the settlement,
4 which had been announced in August, but -- which everyone
5 kept saying was almost ready for settlement. And -- and --
6 and by October, the terms of the settlement had been 7 disclosed in a summary and so it was during this period.

8 Now, what was happening right then is that we had 9 to file the federal estate tax return on the very day of 10 that letter motion, September 25th of 2008. That was the 11 last day that it could be filed. There were no further
12 extensions available and the assets -- the miscellaneous
13 assets on Schedule F of that estate tax return, which 14 showed the bulk of James Brown's fortune had been valued at 15 about $84 million, I think, with the jewelry; it was 16 84,119,000 or something like that.

17 Q And excuse me, that was your obligation, along with 18 Judge Buchanan's to file that --

19 A It was. And there had been lots of discussion
20 since August 10, 2007 about the necessity, the concern
21 about the charitable issue, the application for 22 determination of charitable status of the "I Feel Good"
23 Trust. In March, we had thought at one point that the 24 estate tax return could have been filed, but instead there
25 was an extension filed and, of course, everybody got that

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 extension in March.

2 Q Who signed that return?

3 A Mr. Buchanan and I -- I believe both signed it.

4 The reason I'm hesitating is because we were in the middle
5 of depositions in the Forlando case and it's possible I
6 didn't sign it, but I believe we both signed it. We 7 certainly both approved it and, of course, Bill Sellers who 8 was the Court appointed CPA signed it.

9 Q Well, that's what I was getting at. In other
10 words, it was prepared by a Court appointed CPA?

11 A It was prepared by Mr. Sellers, but the -- but the 12 Schedule F was largely my responsibility and that of Judge
13 Buchanan. And I will tell you that the Schedule F assets,
14 as I said, consisted of the bulk of James Brown's assets.
15 They were his many copyrights, sometimes referred to as the 16 royalties. And the number of those copyrights has morphed,
17 but we began early on thinking of them as 800 and then it
18 was clear that it was 850 and now it's clear that there
19 were about 900 copyrights, but that was the copyrights, the 20 major portion of which were assigned to the New York
21 teachers under the Pullman deal from 1999.

22 Then in addition there was a right of publicity,
23 the right of James Brown to exploit his famous, very famous 24 face and image and persona. And then in addition on 25 Schedule F was the claim against David Cannon. And by the

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 time we filed the estate tax return, we knew that David
2 Cannon had stolen $17 million from James Brown. We didn't 3 think that that was fully recoverable or the number would
4 have been much higher, of course, but we also had a claim
5 against Mr. Dallas, Mr. Bradley, and Mr. Cannon, along with 6 Greenberg Traurig, in connection with the October 18th
7 letter that we discussed at some length yesterday.

8 At that point, the focus of the claim against 9 Greenberg Traurig was the exorbitant fee they were wanting
10 to charge that would be 5 percent of a refinance or a sale
11 of the music assets that essentially what was pledged as 12 TIAA. Over the years and prior to the settlement, based on 13 a lot of information we had discovered, that claim against 14 Greenberg Traurig was enhanced to show what we already knew 15 then was that in March of 2007, Mr. Cannon, Mr. Dallas, and 16 Greenberg Traurig and Frank Copsidas had secretly gotten 17 together and agreed that they were going to run the James 18 Brown Trust.

19 So as early as three months after James Brown died,
20 there was a deal -- a secret deal for -- for -- for -- not 21 specifically Greenberg Traurig, but Joel Katz, Frank 22 Copsidas, Dallas, Cannon, and Bradley to run James Brown's
23 Trust by majority. Nobody knew that. James Brown didn't 24 know that. James Brown's documents didn't know that, but 25 we had already gotten that in Judge Early's order of August

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 10, 2007, we had already gotten the minutes of that
2 critical March 5th, 2007 meeting.

3 In addition, Mr. Silvernail who was a law clerk for 4 me, I spoke of him as a runner a week ago and I just forgot
5 he was a freshman law student, had already discovered that 6 on -- on December 26th, 2006, just one day after James
7 Brown died, the Greenberg Traurig Law Firm had formed
8 something called the James Brown Music Education Fund and 9 that it was very early on in 2007 competing or appearing to 10 compete with James Brown's "I Feel Good" Trust by 11 publishing notice that they were going to publish a -- an 12 album. And so what we had then was we had to value a
13 claim, which existed at Mr. Brown's death against Greenberg
14 Traurig, against perhaps Joel Katz individually, against 15 Mr. Cannon, Mr. Dallas, and Mr. Bradley. So that was one
16 of the components of the $84 million value.

17 Q As it relates to the Greenberg Traurig claim, that 18 claim has been resolved as you understand it?

19 A It has been.

20 Q But we don't know what the amount was?

21 A Well, we don't know. And further, for purposes of 22 the estate tax return, it's funny to say this, but how it
23 ends up is not critical, because your obligation when you
24 file an estate tax return is to value something that day.
25 And so, you know, if they had recovered 35 million let's

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 say, but we had fairly assessed it that day as part of this
2 84 million. Maybe 10 percent, you know, maybe 2 percent,
3 maybe 1 percent. As long as we had with all available
4 information at that time valued it, we -- it would have
5 been appropriate. I'm not saying that if there had been a
6 settlement fairly soon that the IRS would not look at it to 7 -- to assess a different value, but certainly those were 8 the things that we were making a best effort to value
9 properly as of the date of death.

10 Q But clearly if someone were to question your 11 valuation on that date, to know the ultimate result would 12 at least be some evidence to give you some indication of 13 whether it was reasonable or not?

14 A Well, of course, just like to value James Brown's 15 royalties, we knew that they had a 10-year history of -- of 16 bringing in $3 million a year. And this was the major 17 royalties only, not some missing sampling revenues and 18 other things. So to value the royalties at a formula that 19 Mr. Buchanan and I had proposed to Judge Early back in 20 November of 2007, when we were still special administrators
21 and which was not opposed by anyone, and which was 12 and a
22 half to 14 times annual royalties, which would have been --

23 Q Well, since we're on that topic, let's look at 24 Plaintiff's Exhibit 4, please.

25 MR. BUNDY: And I want to come back to this, John,

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 but I want to move the Plaintiff's Exhibit 4 right now.

2 Your Honor, may I approach.

3 THE COURT: You may.

4 MR. BUNDY: Your Honor, this is Plaintiff's Exhibit
5 4, which is in evidence without objection.

6 BY MR. BUNDY:

7 Q Ms. Pope, what we're looking at on the screen here
8 is Plaintiff's Exhibit 4 entitled Return and Recommendation
9 of Special Administrators. You're familiar with this
10 document?

11 A It's been a while, but yes. I'm certainly familiar
12 with it.

13 Q All right. And, in fact, it's signed by you and 14 Mr. Buchanan, is it not?

15 A Yes. And I can read it on the screen.

16 Q Okay. And what was the purpose -- well, let's 17 start out with the date. This document was submitted to 18 the Court --

19 A I think it was November 14th of 2007.

20 Q Okay. Because it's -- at the bottom, it's got a 21 thing that says 13, November, WPD. I guess that was the 22 date it was --- or WordPerfect or whatever, but --

23 A That would be the date it finished getting typed,
24 but my recollection, it was filed on the -- it said it was 25 filed on the 14th, which was the day before the caustic

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 hearings of November 15th and 20th, which resulted in our
2 becoming PR's and Trustees, the whole --

3 Q So this --

4 THE COURT: Hold on a second -- Mr. Bundy -- my 5 Exhibit 4 does not indicate that it was filed.

6 MR. BUNDY: Okay.

7 THE COURT: Do we have one that indicates that it
8 was filed?

9 MR. BUNDY: Was it --

10 THE COURT: Nor does it indicate a date on mine.

11 THE WITNESS: Well, I'm sure it was filed. I'm 12 sure it was circulated. I'm sure it was brought up in the 13 hearing. I could check the hearing transcript. But it was 14 discussed at the hearing.

15 MR. BUNDY: Your Honor, with your permission, I'll 16 go look for a file copy and --

17 THE COURT: We're okay.

18 MR. BUNDY: We're okay.

19 THE COURT: I have no reason to doubt Ms. Pope.

20 MR. BUNDY: Thank you.

21 BY MR. BUNDY:

22 Q All right. Ms. Pope, so this was something that 23 you prepared in November of 2007; is that correct?

24 A Right.

25 Q Okay.

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 A Right. And that was -- we had no indication that
2 there was any possibility that would -- we would be PR's
3 and trustees until November 15th.

4 Q Okay. So when you prepared this, you were just 5 preparing it in your position as a special administrator?

6 A We were dealing with the huge issues related to 7 valuation and the estate tax return and as I said before
8 the application for determination of the charitable status
9 of the "I Feel Good" Trust. That's what we were dealing 10 with.

11 Q If you could, let's go to page 3, please, paragraph 12 7. All right. I'll read for a second. 7, because of the 13 crisis caused by the termination one month before the due
14 date of the estate tax return, the primary financial 15 advisor of James Brown and the Brown entities -- and what 16 individual was that? Who are you speaking of here?

17 A Well, that would have been David Cannon because 18 Buddy Dallas and Judge Bradley were still there.

19 Q The special administrators request that the Court
20 approve the following valuation procedure for the 21 royalties, image, name, and persona of James Brown. Why
22 were you requesting that the Court approve that valuation?

23 A Well, because we -- we -- the estate tax return was 24 already not filed at the first time. The -- there was an 25 extension -- essentially an automatic extension until

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 March, but there was still a lot to be done. Mr. Dallas
2 and Mr. Bradley were dragging there feet on the application
3 for determination of the charitable status, which can take
4 months to do with the IRS and we were just nervous about 5 everything related to the estate tax return.

6 And so we were just working -- that was a -- that
7 had been a central issue since August 10, 2007. And there
8 was a proposal, I -- it will come a little later, but I
9 think I just saw it on the first page of this. There was a
10 proposal, if we could look back at page 1. There was a
11 proposal to -- something about a Mr. Dykes.

12 Q Yes, that would be paragraph 4?

13 A Right. All right. They requested the Court engage 14 Mr. Dykes at a cost of no more than $30,000 -- gosh, I
15 didn't remember that we had joined in that request, but 16 invariably we did -- to value the TPP on or before December
17 25th, 2007.

18 Now, remember the scenario, there is no challenge
19 to the estate plan. So there are no -- essentially, there
20 are no estate tax consequences other than the consequences
21 of the value of the tangible personal property. And then,
22 only that portion of the tangible personal property which 23 is going to the six children is going to generate an estate
24 tax.

25 But there was a lot controversy over what part of

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 the tangible personal property was going to the children
2 and what was not. And so the valuation was more for -- for 3 -- to help soothe this fight over what the children got and 4 what the charity got, which we were not part of because we
5 were only special administrators. So we did recommend --
6 but we did agree with, I think, that particular appraiser
7 was either recommended by Mr. Rosen or perhaps by Dallas
8 and Cannon. I just can't remember, but those were the 9 issues.

10 Q And if you would let's go to page 2 and look at E,
11 another recommendation that you made?

12 A All right.

13 Q Special administrators in 45 days shall engage on 14 behalf of the estate, an auction company to conduct an 15 auction of the TPP Estate, Trust, and Brown Entities, upon 16 such terms as they shall deem appropriate. It should be 17 the goal of the estate to conduct the sale as soon as 18 possible giving due regard to the unique nature of the 19 property. The contract may include any additional terms
20 and agreements such as creation of sale catalog in 21 connection with the auction. The contract shall represent 22 too, the rights of the children of James Brown to the 23 personal household effects as set out above.

24 So you're then basically saying as far back as 25 November what it was you intended to do, but y'all hadn't

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 -- couldn't get around to that until when?

2 A Well, actually, that's true, but now we are merely
3 agreeing with what Mr. Cannon and Mr. -- I'm sorry, not Mr.
4 Cannon -- Mr. Dallas and Mr. Bradley were doing. Everybody
5 knew that there was going to be an estate tax generated by 6 the children and everybody suspected that they weren't
7 going to be able to pay it.

8 And so remember, still no will contest here. And 9 so, yeah -- and as I told you they were already working
10 with Julianne's Auction House when we were still special 11 administrators. And so this was simply because of the 12 August 10th order, this was our agreement with them that 13 that needed to go on forward, but this was their plan and 14 it was appropriate.

15 Q Okay. Just to remind His Honor, the August 10th
16 order basically reversed responsibility -- at least gave 17 the special administrators more oversight over these 18 trustees and PA's than you had when you initially started?

19 A They could not have executed that contract without 20 our consent, so we not only said that we agree that their 21 proposal is appropriate, but we'll even ask the Court to 22 agree.

23 Q All right. Let's go back -- let's go now to page 3
24 before we leave that issue. Okay. And we've looked at 25 paragraph 7. This was the SA's request for the approval of

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 a valuation methodology; is that correct?

2 A Well, you could call it a valuation methodology, or 3 you could call it simply an attempt to get the value right
4 on the estate tax return. That was the goal. I mean,
5 method is a little highfalutin for what we were engaged in 6 at that time.

7 Q I didn't need that highfalutin..

8 All right. Let's look at that issue?

9 A Okay.

10 Q The first one --

11 MR. BUNDY: If you would highlight A and B?

12 BY MR. BUNDY:

13 Q A, is the unified valuation of royalties, image,
14 name, and persona, which appears to be appropriate based on 15 the scant case law and legal commentary. Now, what's that 16 mean?

17 A Well, James Brown's worldwide famous persona was 18 closely wrapped up with his music. And so, for example, if 19 -- if there -- I mean there was a great Japanese commercial 20 that James Brown had sung in and been in. And so it was 21 both his image and his music. And so worldwide it was hard
22 to tell when somebody wanted James Brown for a yogurt
23 commercial in New Zealand, it was hard to know whether it
24 was James Brown's worldwide image or his music that was 25 generating that need. And for the moment because it was

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 all going to the charity, it -- there was no particular
2 need to segregate those two components, which were the 3 major components of his fortune.

4 Q In the years before -- in the years before
5 Mr. Brown passed, what was he making on his road -- on his 6 tours and based on his performances?

7 A Well, we didn't know that day -- well, we didn't 8 know specifically that day, but we had talked a lot to 9 Buddy and we knew that he -- for many years before he died,
10 he would make about a million dollars a week going to 11 Europe for about three weeks a year. And so we had that 12 information.

13 And we actually had loads of financial backed stuff
14 because by now, we are looking at all of the -- the M & T
15 Bank reports. I mean when Judge Early gave us access to 16 the documents in June and when the documents were put 17 behind our office, we had access to 30 years of financial 18 information.

19 Q Well, I want you to focus a minute now over on this 20 statement of scant case law and legal commentary. What is 21 -- why did you put that in there?

22 A Well, because we were unaware of a lot of valuation
23 cases of this nature.

24 Q Okay.

25 A And Buddy and David were unaware and they had had

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 access to Greenberg Traurig, Powell Goldstein, and many
2 other distinguished entertainment lawyers and estate
3 planning lawyers.

4 Q Okay. So let's look at B now... This is what you're 5 -- what you're requesting is to use this formula; is that
6 correct?

7 A It is.

8 Q All right, sir. Use --

9 THE COURT: Well, let me ask a question. Where did
10 the formula, quote unquote, come from? Whose formula is it 11 or how was the formula derived at.

12 THE WITNESS: Well, it was from everything that 13 Judge Buchanan and I have learned from Mr. Dallas, Mr.
14 Cannon, and other inquiries and other statements that were 15 made for the entire period up to November 15, 2007. It was 16 from all of the financial information that had come to us
17 since August 10. And it was from essentially everything we 18 had been able to put our hands on as of that date. And 19 there was a lot of talk, just talk, about twelve times
20 royalties was the industries standard, but James Brown was 21 not just a regular guy. He was a special guy.

22 I learned lots -- I'm trying to be cautious,
23 because I learned lots between when we presented this to 24 Your Honor and when we filed the estate tax return. And 25 I'm trying to back up and tell Your Honor what I knew on

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 that day rather than the many, many things I learned later
2 that taught me that that formula was conservative, very 3 conservative.

4 THE COURT: All right. Later learned information
5 which means this formula was very conservative?

6 THE WITNESS: Yes, Your Honor. We continued to get 7 it from that day forward. We certainly had a good bit of 8 it when we filed the estate tax return nearly a year after 9 this document and we -- I have seen nothing since to change
10 my mind that this formula was conservative.

11 BY MR. BUNDY:

12 Q Have you -- have you obtained any information or 13 heard of any opinions from others in this field who claim
14 that 20 times would be a reasonable --

15 MR. WILLIAMS: Your Honor, I would object on 16 hearsay.

17 THE COURT: Sustained.

18 BY MR. BUNDY:

19 Q All right, Ms. Pope, let's go through the formula.
20 One, is one year royalties based on five year M & T
21 average. What does M & T mean?

22 A That's Manufacturers and Traders Bank and M & T was 23 the trustee for the TIAA debt.

24 Q So this was based -- this would be based on an 25 actual figure done by the bank --

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 A Right.

2 Q -- who had an interest in valuation?

3 A Right. So what that formula would do for the 4 copyrights was put it between 40 and -- what's 14 times 5.
5 That would be the approximate value for the copyrights.

6 Q Okay. Two, plus 50 percent of gross known
7 performance contracts from 2006. Why would that be 8 included?

9 A Well, what we knew about James Brown at the time
10 was that he, at least at some time, not long before his 11 death, had the second most famous image in the world after 12 the Pope. We knew he had huge worldwide recognition. At 13 least we heard that. It might have been a lie, but we 14 certainly believed -- we did not disbelieve that notion 15 because he was extraordinarily well known worldwide. He 16 still is.

17 And at Christmas, I was in Chile in the airport. I
18 saw both his image and a song being sung while I was 19 waiting for my plane. Last week, I was in the dentist
20 getting my teeth cleaned and a James Brown song came on.
21 It happens everywhere I go. I'm mindful of it because I
22 care about James Brown. But you cannot go anywhere in the 23 world that you don't at least hear James Brown and maybe
24 see a picture of him.

25 Q Okay. Three, X, a figure recommended by accountant

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 within range of 12.5 to 14?

2 A That is times a figure recommended by the 3 accountant. But really by the time the estate -- this was 4 the proposal. But by the time the estate tax return was 5 filed, we, rather than Bill, arrived at the $84 million.

6 Q And what was -- what was the multiple you used?
7 Was it in that range or lower?

8 A Well, it was certainly within the range, but 9 remember we did 84 million, not simply for the publicity
10 rights and the copyrights, but for the unpublished songs,
11 the 45 boxes of music paraphernalia up in Nashville waiting
12 to be worked on, the un -- the un-captured sampling
13 revenues which had been, I think estimated as high as $10
14 million or more.

15 Q What are sampling revenues, just for the record?

16 A Okay. Well, sampling revenues are -- are important
17 in the valuation for two reasons. They are the use by 18 another artist or on another record of a portion of a James 19 Brown song. And they have musicologists who determine if 20 you use a certain amount of one of James Brown's songs,
21 then James Brown is the owner of that portion of the new 22 copyright. And so there are various ways to monetize that,
23 but that's the gist of it.

24 Q Okay. Less the pay off amount due M&T Bank as of 25 date of death. You recall what that amount was?

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 A That amount was broadly stated for a good long time
2 to be around 17 million. And then some people called it 15
3 million by the time we got around to thinking more about 4 it, we realized that both of those figures were sort of 5 correct because there was an approximate escrow that, like
6 an escrow you have on your mortgage, so you might say I own
7 $100 on my mortgage, but they've got a $2 million escrow,
8 so I only have to pay off 98.

9 Q Okay.

10 A So that was the gist of it. So it was 15,
11 approximately. Might have been a little higher.

12 Q All right. Now, who received this document to your 13 knowledge?

14 A Everybody because it was discussed in open court on 15 the 15th.

16 Q And was the attorney general involved at this time?

17 A Oh, yes. And I want to say something else. We 18 didn't know it when we did this, but either that day or the 19 next day, a -- an inventory and appraisal prepared by 20 Bill Hammond, who arguably shouldn't have prepared it, but 21 was an extraordinarily competent tax lawyer was filed in 22 this -- in the probate court and I think brought up to the 23 Court, which -- which used as the value of James Brown's
24 assets $100 million offer that had been made on October 12, 25 2007 reduced by $15 million for the TIAA debt. And the

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 estate tax return -- I'm sorry the inventory and 2 appraisement shows that figure divided between what they
3 thought was the trust and what they thought was in the --
4 the estate, something we didn't do on the estate tax
5 return, but it comes up with a value of about 83 million, I
6 think, so it was within a million of what we would come up
7 with the following September.

8 THE COURT: And under whose direction was he 9 working for while working.

10 THE WITNESS: Well, Your Honor, he was the employed
11 tax lawyer for the estate from January --

12 THE COURT: Cannon?

13 THE WITNESS: Hammond, Mr. William Hammond. He 14 was the --

15 THE COURT: Who employed him? Was it --

16 THE WITNESS: The estate. The estate, but then
17 Your Honor terminated his service on August 10th, 2007, 18 along with many others and then on -- on the day that the 19 estate tax return was filed, it was actually filed by Stan
20 Jackson, who was the lawyer for Mr. Dallas and Mr. Cannon.
21 He was the appropriate lawyer for Mr. Dallas and Mr. Cannon
22 and Mr. Jackson, himself was a professor and had certain 23 business valuation credentials. But we later learned that 24 Mr. Hammond had helped him, or done the estate tax return
25 and we learned that from an e-mail that he sent to Sonny

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 Jones.

2 Actually, I forgot about that. Just about the time
3 we did this, Mr. Hammond sent an e-mail to Sonny Jones,
4 saying here is --

5 MR. WILLIAMS: Your Honor, if we could -- just an 6 objection to hearsay about what's inside e-mails.

7 THE COURT: She's talking about an e-mail that's 8 been produced in discovery, I assume. I'll allow it.

9 THE WITNESS: I forgot that. The day we were doing
10 this return or within two days of this, Bill Hammond sent 11 an e-mail to Sonny Jones saying here is the inventory and 12 appraisement I prepared for Buddy and those. I forget what 13 he called them, but Dallas and Bradley. So -- so we were 14 using this. We were presenting this formula, but 15 Mr. Hammond was working on -- on an offer -- he arrived at 16 the same figure based on an October 12 -- what he called an 17 offer.

18 BY MR. BUNDY:

19 Q What response, if any, did you receive,
20 specifically, from the attorney general as to any dispute
21 the attorney general had with your proposal and 22 recommendation?

23 A My recollection, and I think I put it -- I think
24 I'm right, but I may not be, but I can check the record.
25 I'm sure it was discussed and I can't remember whether

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 Judge Early did what he normally does is say, anybody who
2 has a problem let us know. That would have been typical,
3 but I can't say for sure. But I know that that was 4 discussed. I know the attorney general had a copy of the 5 inventory where -- that -- shortly, we had a figure which 6 if he'd done the calculation would have been in sync with 7 this. I mean there was just loads of information around
8 about this time.

9 Q Are you aware of any filings or returns or any 10 responses in writing from the attorney general to this?

11 A I'm not. But remember, there was chaos starting 12 one -- starting one day after this document was presented,
13 or the day this document was presented.

14 Q All right. And then the other group would be the 15 Levinson group: Do you recall, were they aware of this?

16 A Oh, of course, of course, everybody was.

17 Q Okay. And do you recall any objections or any 18 comments from the Levinson group?

19 A Well, all I remember about that was that 20 Mr. Levinson would not be tied down on the $2 million value
21 of the tangible personal property, which was a component --
22 ended up being a component of the 84 million. And that,
23 Mr. Levinson -- remember Mr. Levinson's clients were going
24 to have to pay taxes, so he would not be tied down. I
25 don't remember any aspect of his commentary about the

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 valuation of image and persona.

2 Q Now, how about Ms. Hynie Brown, or companion,
3 however you refer to her? Was there any comment or return
4 from them?

5 A No.

6 Q All right.

7 A That I recall. There were -- and the record I
8 think would show that because in March, we filed the 9 request for an extension and I believe on that we had 10 valued the estate at 90 million, maybe a net of 60 million,
11 so there was nothing shocking about this formula.

12 Q Well, did anyone at this time say no, James Brown's
13 estate's worth around $5 or $6 million?

14 A No.

15 Q Did it ever -- did that even -- was that even, in 16 your mind, conceivable at that time? That anybody would 17 propose such a thing?

18 A No.

19 THE COURT: Ms. Pope, in paragraph F, page 2, 5(F), 20 help me with this, please.

21 MR. BUNDY: Go to (F), please: 5(F).

22 THE COURT: Page 2, (F).

23 THE WITNESS: Yes, sure.

24 THE COURT: Page 2(F), hearing should be held on or 25 about January 21, 2008 for the purpose of resolving

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 disputes, if any, related to the above plan. Didn't we 2 have that hearing?

3 THE WITNESS: Thank you, Your Honor. I knew you
4 always gave people time to comment and you did again. My 5 recollection is there was nothing to comment about. Nobody 6 complained.

7 THE COURT: And the hearing was obviously not held.

8 THE WITNESS: There were hearings all the time, but 9 not --

10 THE COURT: I agree with that.

11 THE WITNESS: But I don't recall the issue of a
12 formula or a complaint about the formula coming up.

13 THE COURT: Well, I didn't see any orders in the 14 exhibits, so I was just wondering did we have that hearing
15 and apparently we did not.

16 THE WITNESS: Well, we had -- I think three 17 hearings in January, but that was when Your Honor was 18 trying -- they were asking Your Honor to recuse himself --
19 many other things were going on. So I -- I don't think 20 that happened.

21 BY MR. BUNDY:

22 Q So to the extent there were any disputes, none of 23 them rose to the level of needing a hearing, which was 24 available?

25 A Not that I recall.

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 Q Okay. That's all I have on that.

2 If we could go back to the order granting limited
3 stay on certain discovery, please?

4 THE COURT: That's at Tab 35; is that correct?

5 MR. BUNDY: Yes, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: Ms. Pope, I put some water up there for 7 you.

8 THE WITNESS: Thank you, thank you, Your Honor.

9 BY MR. BUNDY:

10 Q Let's look at the first paragraph. We are now in 11 September 29, 2008, correct.

12 A Yes.

13 Q We're back over here, right after the settlement
14 agreement, correct?

15 A Yes.

16 THE COURT: Well, that's after the settlement
17 agreement was announced. It hasn't been reduced to writing
18 and, of course, we didn't -- didn't have the hearings on 19 the settlement agreement, I think, until January or perhaps 20 some in December.

21 MR. BUNDY: Yes, Your Honor. Some of the hearings
22 are under here.

23 THE COURT: That's correct. So we're still talking 24 about some pre/post settlement agreement, pre-settlement
25 hearing.

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 MR. BUNDY: Yes, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: All right.

3 BY MR. BUNDY:

4 Q A hearing was held before me on September 29th in 5 connection to the September 25, 2008 motion of the attorney
6 general, Tomi Rae Hynie Brown and plaintiffs for limited
7 stay of certain discovery, the hearing was held solely on 8 the said parties letter of motion requesting a stay of 9 discovery and motions related to the marital status of 10 Tomi Rae Hynie Brown and the will/trust/heir's matters
11 movants seek a stay until December 25th, 2008, while 12 certain parties attempt to resolve some or all of their 13 differences.

14 A All right. Let's go down to the next.

15 Q Robert L. Buchanan and Adele Pope, personal
16 representatives of the estate, et cetera, were not parties
17 to the settlement discussions?

18 A You can skip --

19 Q And did not join in the motion. They notified the 20 Court by filed returns that they do not oppose a brief
21 delay of discovery, provided it does not interfere with 22 other matters, including cases now pending by and against 23 the former PR/trustees, and the Pullman Group LLC.

24 Q What was the purpose of that, Ms. Pope?

25 Q What were you trying to accomplish here, Ms. Pope?

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 A We were in October?

2 Q Yes, ma'am.

3 A We are -- we're not in October.

4 THE COURT: Actually that's September.

5 BY MR. BUNDY:

6 Q September?

7 A No, no, no, it calls us personal representatives.

8 THE COURT: The hearing was on September 29, 2008.

9 BY MR. BUNDY:

10 Q The order is October 23, 2008?

11 A I'm just looking at that.

12 Q I'll let you look at that. This is the order?

13 A Well, what I'm trying to say is if that order was 14 issued on October 23rd, that comma between Buchanan and 15 personal representatives should have said and the personal
16 representatives because we were not the personal
17 representatives on October 23 --

18 Q Oh, okay.

19 A 2000 -- that was just what was worrying me about 20 it.

21 Q Okay. All right.

22 A Oh, I'm sorry. No, no, no, we were. I'm sorry, I
23 was thinking of 2007. Absolutely. I'm straight now. I
24 was a year off. I apologize. Yes, we were the personal
25 representatives. We were not notified of the settlement.

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 I apologize, I just got confused. And -- and, as personal
2 representatives, we did not oppose a brief stay. Because 3 -- we just didn't want it to stop everything else that was 4 going on.

5 I apologize, I just got --

6 Q Okay.

7 A -- was thinking about 2007.

8 Q So at any rate, as of October 23rd, 2008, it was a
9 limited stay of discovery and motion was granted to 10 automatically expire on December 25th, 2008; is that 11 correct?

12 A That's correct.

13 Q All right. Then we go to Tab 36 on Exhibit 1. All
14 right. This document is entitled final order dismissing 15 petition and remanding to probate court. What's the 16 substance of this order?

17 THE COURT: Now, this is in --

18 THE WITNESS: Oh, oh --

19 THE COURT: 122, the Pullman group versus Buchanan.

20 THE WITNESS: Yes, this is just simply to show that 21 we were continuing to -- during this period of the stay of 22 discovery related to Tomi Rae's marital status, we were 23 continuing, as I've mentioned, to resolve about $33 million
24 worth of claims in fa -- mostly in favor of the estate.

25 And this was Mr. -- the South Carolina portion of

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 the David Pullman claim; Mr. Pullman of the Pullman Bonds.

2 And that claim was dismissed and Mr. Drennon, counsel for 3 Mr. Pullman did not appeal the dismissal.

4 Q As noted in 2006, prior to the death of James
5 Brown, Mr. Brown, James Brown Enterprises, Inc. and James
6 Brown, LLC filed an action against plaintiff in the Supreme 7 Court of New York. Pullman counterclaimed seeking certain 8 relief under the engagement letter?

9 A That's correct.

10 Q Okay.

11 A This was paragraph 7 of the engagement letter of 12 James Brown with Mr. Pullman, way back before the TIAA
13 bond.

14 Q All right. Let's move onto Tab 37, please.
15 Go to the next page.

16 First paragraph, or the first sentence of the first 17 paragraph, This matter comes before the Court upon several 18 motions of petitioners above named, one of which requested 19 an order for appointment of special administrator and 20 special trustee in the above named matter. And then it
21 says a hearing was held November 25th, 2008 in Aiken
22 County.

23 What's going on here, Ms. Pope?

24 A That was where we were on November 25th, 2008, is 25 that we now knew that the attorney general of South

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 Carolina, the protector of charities, was proposing to give 2 away 50 percent of James Brown's "I Feel Good" Charity to 3 Tomi Rae and to the clients of Louis Levinson. We 4 believed that what this was doing was taking $40 million of 5 what should have been South Carolina's largest ever private 6 foundation for the education of needy and deserving 7 students and that $40 million was going to pay what we 8 thought at the time would have been $12 to $14 million in 9 contingency legal fees to lawyers who had virtually no
10 case. We believed they simply had extremely, extremely,
11 extremely, extremely weak challenges.

12 It would give another 20 million in our perception
13 to their clients or perhaps at the time we thought it was 14 26 million. We now know that the legal fees were even 15 higher than the 12 to 14 we thought at the time.

16 Q Specifically to sort of better understand the 17 rationale for your belief as to the weaknesses of these 18 claims, you -- I assume you reviewed these claims in light
19 of your 35 years experience in probate law?

20 A I did.

21 Q Okay.

22 A And --

23 Q Specifically with -- let's -- there were basically
24 two claims, the children and the -- Ms. Hynie Brown's,
25 however you refer to her -- those are the two basic claims;

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 is that correct?

2 A Well, there were overlapping claims, but
3 essentially the two claims were that she was the spouse and 4 that the will and trust should be set aside and that there
5 should be what Mr. Levinson referred to as an 6 administration in intestacy.

7 Q Okay. So that was -- the goal of these claims was 8 to put this whole estate in intestacy?

9 A That's correct.

10 Q Okay. And intestacy would result in what in terms
11 of how the -- Mr. Brown's estate would have been 12 distributed if there had been -- if there'd been a
13 declaration of intestacy?

14 A Well, we actually believed that intestacy would 15 have been extremely damaging to these claimants because 16 they were not the intestate heirs of James Brown, they were 17 -- well, we did not believe Ms. Tomi Rae was an heir. We 18 thought there was substantial evidence that she wasn't.
19 And we believed that the Levinson clients were fewer than 20 half of James Brown's real heirs. So had -- had they been 21 successful, there would have been a 40 to 50 percent estate
22 tax and they might have had to share what they got with 23 five or six or eight other people.

24 Q So it could have been as much as a 50 percent
25 reduction to the -- to those children's net?

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 A Right.

2 Q Now, let's talk about your perception of the 3 weaknesses of the claim of intestacy. What was the basis
4 of that claim? The legal basis?

5 A We knew that James Brown --

6 Q What was the allegation, is what I'm -- what was 7 their allegation which would have resulted in setting aside
8 the will?

9 A Well, their allegation was essentially that he had 10 been unduly influenced to give his estate to charity.

11 Q Now, you're familiar with that body of law I
12 assume, undue influence in wills and estates?

13 A Moderately.

14 Q Okay.

15 A I certainly was at the time.

16 Q Okay. And is that a difficult thing to do?

17 A It is. And it would be particularly difficult if a 18 testator has a series of wills that have either been in 19 place for a long time, so that he's had an opportunity to 20 change them if he wishes. It would also be particularly 21 difficult in the case of a person who has publically stated
22 his charitable intentions literally at every turn for 20
23 years before he did this. It would be particularly 24 difficult to prove undue influence where there are -- as I
25 said two separate wills, a year apart, both leaving the

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 bulk of James Brown's charity to the "I Feel Good" Trust
2 and the earlier will even having corporate successor
3 trustees which debunk the notion that Mr. Dallas and Mr.
4 Cannon could steal it all. By --

5 Q And all of those hurdles were in this case to those 6 people trying to make this intestate?

7 A Well, by then or within a few days of that there
8 were -- no, no, by then there were a number of other 9 hurdles which were extraordinarily favorable to the 10 charity. Deanna Thomas, under oath, had stated that her
11 dad's will was what he wanted.

12 Q Who's Deanna Thomas?

13 A She was a daughter of James Brown.

14 Q Okay.

15 A Deanna Thomas had sent an e-mail to Mr. Levinson
16 early in 2007 saying if my father's wishes were carried 17 out, we would already have our personal effects. There was 18 abundant support for the will by Deanna.

19 Q Who is Deanna?

20 A Who I just told you about.

21 Q Okay.

22 A Terry Brown, at the time was -- was vigorously
23 claiming that his dad's estate plan should be followed. So 24 you have two estate plans, a year apart, a person who has 25 publicly stated his intentions to leave the bulk of his

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 assets to charity who's done it in a, way and nobody
2 focused on this much, but he's done it in a way so that if
3 his -- if his estate were really teenie tiny, half would go
4 to the education of his grandchildren or the grandchildren
5 he chose. So if his estate had been only 4 million, let's 6 say, one half of that would have gone to the education of 7 certain grandchildren he selected.

8 Now, the formula was such that, that that didn't 9 happen, but this was a man whose life had been dedicated to 10 education. And in addition, as I said before, four days
11 before he executed his first document, he was interacting
12 with about a dozen New York lawyers signing documents on 13 behalf of his wholly owned entity, signing documents
14 individually, borrowing $26 million, and -- and 15 people like to characterize James Brown as you know --
16 under educated and you know educated, but I remember
17 someone saying that they would be working on a complex
18 contract and Mr. Brown would point to a provision and say I
19 want you to add this word -- these words. And they said
20 everybody in the room would look around like, you know,
21 he's lost his mind. And a few years later, they would use
22 an expression that it would come back to bite him -- bite
23 them in the -- in the rear.

24 And what he had -- he had such an ability to 25 understand what he wanted and what he wanted to happen and

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 it was everywhere. Before he did the '99 will, James Brown
2 was supposed to sign it on February -- something like
3 February 23rd of 1999 and James Brown -- they were all set
4 up to do it in a way that would have been traditional and 5 careful. They had a videographer or a tape and Mr. Brown
6 had a conversation with Dewain Herring. He thanked Dewain
7 Herring for being there. You know, he did what he always 8 did, showed a lot of respect for all the educated people,
9 the -- the -- that he had hired to work for him.

10 And he talked about his lowly upbringing and how he 11 was a 24/7 man. That's all he did all day long and he 12 wanted to create this charity. He wanted to create this 13 charity. And so he goes on and on. And then at the end of 14 the meeting, Mr. Brown who was one of the greatest showmen
15 of all times says, you know, but essentially since I -- I'm 16 you know educated, so I need time to read this document.

17 So we have now a tape in February of 1999 of James
18 Brown saying I wanted to create this foundation, but I need
19 to reread my will and then he signs it and then he signs
20 another one again, a year later.

21 In my whole career, I've never seen such an 22 ironclad estate plan.

23 Q Let's talk about the claim of Hynie Rae Brown.
24 What were the impediments in your opinion to the validity
25 of her -- well, first of all, what were her claims and then

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 second, what did you see as the impediment to success of 2 those claims?

3 A Well, she claimed to be the spouse and she claimed
4 -- later to try to set aside the will. So she was 5 attacking on every front. If the will is good -- well,
6 first of all, I'm the wife and I was left out of the will;
7 saying she wanted a half. But if that doesn't work, I got 8 left out of the will and I'm the wife and I want an 9 elective share, one-third after expenses. But better than 10 that, I want the set it aside and make sure I get that 11 half. And so she was making a scatter shot of every 12 possible claim.

13 So step one would have been was she the spouse.
14 And we felt that there was very, very, very strong evidence
15 that she was not the spouse. And Mr. Rosen simply did not 16 want any discovery because Mr. Rosen was aware of all the 17 things we were aware of and Mr. Levinson, who represented 18 the children and was quite a researcher had lots of 19 evidence that she was not the wife. And, and, so there
20 were -- and -- and early on, we were being helped by Mary
21 France Jowers of the office of the attorney general, who 22 was looking at leakage which was coming up the pike and 23 other things. But even if she had been the wife, which we 24 considered extremely, extremely, extremely unlikely, the 25 will itself provided for giving the absolute minimum to

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 wives. Plus --

2 Q If you would -- the will is an exhibit, Plaintiff's
3 Exhibit 3. Could you give us the provision of the will 4 that you're referring to?

5 A Sure. (Looking.)

6 Well, I guess there are a few here. I have six
7 living children, Deanna, Yamma, Venesha, Larry, and Terry.
8 These named children and any of their legitimate issue who 9 shall also be lineage issue of mine shall be the entire 10 class that I acknowledge to be my heirs and issue, except 11 as otherwise provided in this will and corresponding 12 instruments. I have intentionally failed to provide for 13 any other relatives or other persons where the claiming or 14 to claim to be an heir of mine. Such failure is 15 intentional and not occasioned by accident or mistake.
16 And then he, of course, has the in terrorem clause
17 in the will for the -- anyone -- which we've looked at,
18 Item 10 of the will that says should any beneficiary under 19 the will or my Irrevocable Trust and as amended dated prior 20 to this date become an adverse party in any proceeding for 21 the probate of my will or in any manner contest the 22 validity of my Irrevocable Trust, such beneficiary shall 23 forfeit his or her entire interest thereunder and such from 24 shall pass to such other beneficiaries as would be entitled
25 to take as if such beneficiary had predeceased me.

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 Furthermore, any person not provided for in this
2 will, my Irrevocable Trust or such other instrument,
3 whether or not claiming to be a beneficiary or party in 4 interest shall have no standing or be qualified to contest
5 claim and interest in or otherwise dispute the disposition
6 of my estate as I herewith disclaim and disinherit any such 7 persons. Any such alleged claims shall be considered an 8 affront to my wishes and it shall be challenged as such in 9 my -- by my fiduciaries.

10 I believe those may be the only two in the will.
11 Maybe in the trust he has further provisions.

12 In addition, Ms. Tomi Rae was present when the 13 will was executed and she signed the advise -- there was an 14 advisory board designation document and she signed that, I
15 think, Tomi Rae Hynie the future Mrs. James Brown. So
16 the estate and the charity had a very good argument that 17 she had -- that that will was done and if the marriage were 18 not void, that that will had been done in contemplation of 19 a marriage and that she had accepted that by being present
20 when it was done.

21 And by the way, I think two other children were
22 present when it was done, which I --

23 Q What was the basis of the notion that that marriage
24 to Mr. Brown may have been void? What created that 25 possibility?

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 A Well, she was married to someone else when she
2 conducted a 2001 ceremony with James Brown. She falsified
3 a sworn marriage application right here in this courthouse
4 and she conducted the ceremony and then when her marriage
5 was discovered she said she would get a divorce, but 6 didn't.

7 And then her own handwritten notes confirmed that 8 she had been married. She had been living in Texas with 9 her husband. She thought she might be pregnant before she 10 abandoned her husband and met James Brown and took up with 11 him; that she had clearly concealed the marriage and not 12 done anything to correct it. Further, that she had begged
13 James Brown to marry her after he discovered her marriage
14 and he refused.

15 And further, there was substantial evidence that 16 they had separated in the Summer of 2006 over his refusal
17 to marry her.

18 Q Was there a prenuptial agreement as well?

19 A There was.

20 Q And what -- was that a help or hindrance to her
21 claim?

22 A It would have been a hindrance.

23 Q And why was that?

24 A Well, because the purpose of prenuptial agreements
25 is to minimize the claim of the spouse, if there is a

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 spouse.

2 Q Well, did that -- did she do that in that
3 prenuptial agreement? Did that prenuptial agreement, was 4 that her agreement to release her claim?

5 A I -- I can't recall the specifics, I think there
6 was some minor provision for her.

7 Q All right.

8 A Yeah. And there were other agreements when they 9 had separated at other times, but which she got a car and 10 gave up some other things.

11 Q Okay. So those -- your basis, your reasoning as to 12 why this -- the way this settlement was proposed, was not 13 appropriate, at least from your standpoint?

14 A We felt that to give away $40 million with what we 15 thought then was 14 million going to contingency fee
16 lawyers on those facts was wrong and would have been a
17 serious breach of our duty.

18 Q And since that time when that was your opinion, has 19 your opinion changed?

20 A No --

21 Q Is there anything you've discovered since then?

22 A No, it's strengthened.

23 Q Okay. All right. Let's go back to the order then,
24 first page, which we're still on Tab 36. Go to the second
25 page, please?

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 All right. It says that a hearing was held on
2 November -- second -- second paragraph. A hearing was held
3 on November 25th at the Aiken County Courthouse. After 4 lengthy in-chambers discussion all necessary counsel had 5 opportunity for objections -- were you at this hearing?

6 A I was at the hearing, but not in chambers, as I
7 recall.

8 Q Okay. -- regarding appointing a special
9 administrator. The Court finds the immediate appointment
10 of special administrator, special trustee with powers
11 enumerated is necessary. The petitioners have requested
12 Bauknight, CPA, finds Bauknight -- and the Court finds 13 Bauknight is an appropriate person to serve in this 14 capacity.

15 So that -- this date is the date of Mr. Bauknight's
16 entry into this foray?

17 A No. He had been recommended as one of five 18 possible fiduciaries back in the previous summer.

19 Q Okay. And do you know what his involvement had 20 been since then, if any, in the case?

21 A I only --

22 Q Even though he had not been appointed?

23 A I only know that his -- his agent and lawyer
24 Freddie Dinsmore said he'd been involved for some time.

25 Q Okay. All right. It says, the bottom paragraph

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 says petitioners have entered into a proposed settlement
2 agreement regarding the estate of James Brown, James Brown
3 2000 Irrevocable Trust, August 1, 2000; a copy of the 4 proposed settlement order was disseminated during the 5 hearing to all present counsel of record who requested.

6 Is this the first time you've seen this settlement
7 in November, or had you seen it earlier?

8 A Well, again, we still haven't seen the settlement,
9 now. We have seen a synopsis of it.

10 Q This was a proposed settlement now?

11 A And we've seen the -- what got signed in August, 12 yes. So we know that -- we know the essential terms of the 13 settlement by now.

14 Q Turn to the next page, please. Top paragraph, in 15 this order Judge Early orders that Bauknight is appointed 16 to serve as special administrator, special trustee, solely 17 limited the exclusive purpose of reviewing and providing 18 input and recommendations to the Court as to the proposed 19 settlement agreement among the petitioners; is that 20 correct? That was his job?

21 A That -- that was his assignment.

22 Q All right. Adele Pope and Bob Buchanan shall 23 continue to serve in their capacity as previously ordered
24 by this Court and will continue to be responsible for all 25 estate and trust matters except for the limited duty of

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 Russell Bauknight as set forth herein; correct?

2 A Correct.

3 Q All right. Now, tell me what interactions you and 4 Judge Buchanan had with Mr. Bauknight to assist him in his 5 sole and limited, exclusive purpose to provide input and 6 recommendations to the Court?

7 A Well, we -- at that time, and that was January 8th,
8 I believe it was --

9 Q January 7th?

10 A 7th, of 2009, we were involved and had been 11 involved for about a month in setting up a meeting in New 12 York to settle the CORBIS litigation which was a suit
13 brought by James Brown in 2002 over his image and persona.
14 And settlement negotiations had been set in that -- in that 15 case for, I think it's was January 19th in New York. So 16 we, of course, invited Mr. Bauknight and all of the 17 settling parties to go because it was a great opportunity
18 to think about that issue. We didn't know at that moment
19 what the settlement terms might be, but we thought it was a
20 good idea. And so that was an effort to allow Mr.
21 Bauknight and all others to participate in a publicity
22 rights issue.

23 We -- we invited Mr. Bauknight to meet with us at 24 my office, which he did when Judge Buchanan was in town.
25 And he asked us about our concerns about the settlement and

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 we expressed to him all of our concerns or at least an
2 outline of our concerns that day. We invited him to look
3 at the estate tax return and other -- all of the 80 -- I
4 think it was 80 then -- boxes of documents. But we did
5 need him to sign a confidentiality agreement because at 6 that time there was a brief confidentiality order in place
7 about the estate tax return and there was also the issue of 8 the federal order in Forlano's case.

9 And so there were many, many, many, documents that 10 were public, but there were a few in these 80 boxes that 11 might have been covered by that federal court
12 confidentiality order.

13 And so he declined to look at the documents and --

14 Q Did he give you a reason?

15 A He said he didn't want to see anything
16 confidential.

17 Q Would he have been able to see it if he'd signed
18 the agreement?

19 A Oh, of course.

20 Q And would that have included the tax return?

21 A Oh, absolutely. The estate tax return. Yeah, 22 sure.

23 Q So --

24 A And -- and all the settling parties had it then.

25 Q Okay. All right. After -- how long -- and did --

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 the information that you gave to Mr. Bauknight regarding 2 your concerns, which was essentially the same as you've 3 been giving to me?

4 A I think so. We certainly tried to -- we were very,
5 very concerned. And we had actually appealed Mr.
6 Bauknight's appointment because we thought the notion
7 of taking from fiduciaries their duty to protect the estate
8 plan was inappropriate. But we weren't going to fight with 9 him. We wanted -- we wanted him and the attorney general
10 to be on our side. So...

11 We certainly cooperated.

12 Q And what other meetings or interactions did you
13 have with Mr. Bauknight to assist him with the Court's 14 appointment for the sole and limited exclusive purpose of 15 reviewing and providing input and recommendations to the 16 Court of the proposed settlement agreement?

17 A That particular meeting is the only thing I recall,
18 but, of course -- oh, we may have written him a letter
19 before then. But, you know, he -- we had a very open 20 administration. He could have seen or done whatever he 21 wanted to see or do.

22 Q In so far as you can recall, he was never denied
23 access to either you or the documents at any point in time?

24 A No. And Mr. Levinson had everything, essentially,
25 that we had. And so did Tomi Rae.

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 Q All right. And we turn to the last page of this
2 order.

3 That all discovery in this case is stayed and all
4 responses and motions filed in this case are extended until 5 further notice of this Court after the hearing to approve
6 the proposed settlement agreement. So the litigation is 7 sort of held in abeyance, correct?

8 A Right. We had -- we had completed most of the 9 claims cases. We had the 15 million -- more than 15
10 million dollar claim cases of Cannon and Dallas and Bradley 11 in good posture, ready to be disposed of and so all the 12 focus now turned to administration issues, preserving and 13 protecting and the -- the settlement.

14 My feeling then and my feeling now is that if 15 you're about to lose half of the charity, you put laser 16 focus on that and -- and nothing -- not nothing else, but 17 you focus on that.

18 Q What effect did Judge Early's order have on the 19 Forlando suit, if it was still going forward? Is it still 20 going forward?

21 A No. Mr. -- Forlando's suit had had a two day
22 hearing in November in federal court in Beaufort which was,
23 of course, a huge embarrassment to Judge Buchanan who 24 presided in that court, but the -- and at that hearing we 25 had, by the way, fully gone through the estate tax return,

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 but the judge either by this time or shortly thereafter did
2 not grant a temporary injunction, which was great because
3 if he had we wouldn't have been able to defend the estate
4 plan. I can't remember whether he hadn't quite ruled, but 5 he would have ruled sometime about that time.

6 Q Okay. Let's go to the next tab. The next one is 7 Tab 38. It's order denying motion to recuse. It says the 8 matter comes before the Court on January 30th 2009, on a
9 motion of David Cannon to recuse the Honorable Doyet A.
10 Early, III. What's -- what's going on here?

11 A Well, January 30th was the first day of the 12 hearings on the settlement. And David Cannon filed a
13 motion for Judge Early to recuse himself and I can't 14 remember the exact thrust of it, but the gist of it was 15 that Judge Early shouldn't be doing this and that the 16 attorney general, I believe, was violating his statutory 17 duty and I'll have to say this, we agreed with a number of 18 the statements that Mr. Cannon was making, but of course,
19 we had nothing to do with his filing.

20 Q Okay.

21 A Not so much Judge Early's jurisdiction, but that 22 the attorney general should not be giving away this 23 charity.

24 Q All right. Let's turn to Tab 39.

25 MR. BUNDY: Your Honor, with the Court's

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 indulgence, this might be a good time, at least for a break
2 from where I stand.

3 THE COURT: I think that's a good idea. All right.
4 Let's break until -- by this clock on the wall back here,
5 until 11:15. And we'll go to one o'clock.

6 MR. BUNDY: Thank you, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: We'll stand at ease.

8 Same admonition, Ms. Pope, please.

9 THE WITNESS: Yes, Your Honor.

10 (A brief recess was observed.)

11 MR. BUNDY: Please the Court.

12 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

13 MR. BUNDY: Thank you.

14 BY MR. BUNDY:

15 Q Ms. Pope, what I'd now like to discuss in some 16 detail is the settlement hearing, generally, but 17 specifically, I want to talk about the last tab in Exhibit
18 1, which is His Honor's order relating to the approval of 19 the settlement. Okay.

20 A Okay.

21 Q Just very briefly, will you just tell us how -- 22 what period of time the settlement hearings took place and 23 what your role was or participation was in that hearing?

24 A Well, I believe they began on January 30th of 2009
25 and they continued through, I believe, it was April 6 of

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 2009. There were a series of hearings.

2 Q Speak up, please.

3 A There was a series of hearings and I think there
4 were hearings in January -- several in March, and April.
5 There may have been one in February also. But there were a
6 number of days of hearings and basically we -- the record,
7 which is about four volumes, shows that we -- we felt that,
8 that, as long as it was our duty to protect James Brown's 9 estate plan, and that is the duty that we saw under the 10 documents and under the appointment, that we could not
11 possibly agree to this settlement. But if I had to say, I
12 would say that this -- the entire proceeding was just a
13 tribute to the power of the attorney general of South
14 Carolina because he had status and stature and he assured
15 Judge Early through Mr. Jones repeatedly that this 16 settlement was a good thing, that it was good for the 17 charity, that it was good -- that it just made all the 18 sense in the world. And we just simply could not see it
19 that way.

20 And so I can speak in more detail, but I will 21 mention that by April 1st, which was before the last 22 hearing, Mr. -- Judge Buchanan and I were so aware of the 23 attorney general's power to damage James Brown's charity
24 that we made an offer of compromise. Not because we 25 thought it was a fair compromise from a disinterested

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 perspective, but because of the power of the attorney
2 general to dismember this charity was so great and we could
3 see that that was a threat, a threat that was huge. And so
4 on April 1st, we proposed a compromise that would have left
5 the will intact, had Guardian ad Litem's appointed for the 6 minors and given the six children named in the will 14
7 percent of James Brown's assets. It would have been far
8 more than we believed they would have been entitled to 9 under normal circumstances, but this was not normal.
10 In addition, we gave -- we proposed to give James
11 B. 1 percent, rather than his share of the 14 percent --
12 I'm sorry, the 14 percent was to the six children named in 13 the will and James B who they were saying was a child, even 14 though he had refused DNA testing. And so we said in 15 addition to the 14 percent that the 7 were sharing, we 16 offered James B. An additional 1 percent if he took and 17 passed a DNA test. But we said that he didn't have to do
18 that.

19 And then in addition, we went ahead to talk about 20 the remainder 85 or 86 percent of the estate and we set out
21 some terms for that, but the essential terms of that were 22 that Louis Levinson, who represented these children would 23 assist us with all sorts of things.

24 I could read the proposal. It's contained in Mr.
25 Buchanan's Exhibit Number 7 to his deposition, which is our

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 supplemental affidavit that we filed on -- about July 13 of
2 2009. But the essence of it -- and we could go through it
3 in detail -- was that at the time we reported this new 4 settlement to the IRS and we got an estate tax closing
5 letter, because there now would clearly be estate taxes
6 due; that Robert Buchanan Jr. and Adele Pope would resign
7 as trustees and PR's if appropriate; and appoint as 8 successors Deanna J. Brown Thomas to fill a seat to be held
9 permanently by a member of James Brown's family, a
10 competent independent South Carolinian appointed by the 11 attorney general and a competent independent South
12 Carolinian appointed by a majority of the then existing 13 advisory board, which at that time consisted of Dr. Lenard
14 McIntyre, Dr. Anne Carmichael, Ms. Inez Tinnenbaum, Judge
15 Walter Williams, and Coach Larry Campbell.

16 MR. WILLIAMS: Your Honor, if I may, I apologize.
17 Ms. Pope's reading from something. I'd like to -- is that 18 in evidence.

19 THE WITNESS: Oh, I'm sorry. I --

20 THE COURT: She's reading from Buchanan's affidavit
21 in his deposition, I think.

22 THE WITNESS: It's our joint affidavit that 23 describes --

24 THE COURT: Hold on.

25 MR. WILLIAMS: I apologize.

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 THE COURT: Is that an exhibit?

2 MR. BUNDY: No, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: You can introduce it when you get ready
4 to.

5 Do you want to make it an exhibit?

6 MR. BUNDY: No, Your Honor.

7 THE COURT: All right.

8 MR. BUNDY: And I won't object if he wants to put 9 it in.

10 THE COURT: That's fine.

11 THE WITNESS: But anyway, we also provided in 12 there -- and I'm having to look for it -- oh, and among the 13 things that we asked for there was for Louis Levinson to -- 14 to help us get going because we had a proposed two-year
15 publicity rights contract with CORBIS Greenlight, which we 16 had asked the attorney general to agree to on March 23rd.
17 That publicity rights contract would have been in place on 18 May 1 of 2009, and would have lasted only two years and we 19 thought it would bring in at least a million dollars a 20 year.

21 Greenlight was the company that represents
22 Einstein, Steve McQueen, and others. And we had a great
23 two-year contract. Now, this would be in addition to all 24 the music. They had no part of the music. This would be 25 solely a publicity rights contract. And we wanted very

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 much for that money to come in during what everybody knew
2 would be an appeal of Judge Early's order no matter which 3 way it went.

4 So we had proposed that Mr. -- we were trying to 5 accommodate in every way we could and we proposed that 6 Mr. Levinson, if his client's consented, serve as special
7 administrator to cooperate and assist the PR/Trustees with 8 marshalling and managing assets and litigation, including,
9 but not limited to implementation of the CORBIS settlement
10 selecting a recipient of the right of first offer and due
11 diligence regarding a potential asset sell and related TIAA
12 and Pullman matters. So we were trying so hard to find an 13 agreement.

14 Now, what we did about Tomi Rae in that 15 agreement, by then we were very aware of the copyright
16 issue. Not exactly how it was going to come out, but we 17 were very aware that you do not want to create a wife when 18 there's a substantial likelihood there isn't one. And so 19 the settlement, out of the remaining 84 to 85 percent that 20 would be left after we provided for James B. and the 21 children, provided 7 percent of the residue to her, but did
22 not acknowledge her claim as a spouse, just didn't mention
23 it. Just said give her 7 percent. And it was a huge 24 concession, but it was an acknowledgment that we were about 25 to be run over by a train.

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 And so that and other matters that I can discuss
2 were very clearly outlined in the supplemental affidavit
3 which Mr. Buchanan and I made on July 13th, 2009 to support
4 our claim. And at which time I had a far better memory
5 than I have today of what happened.

6 BY MR. BUNDY:

7 Q And if the attorney general had agreed with your 8 proposed compromise and assuming Mr. Bauknight who was to 9 overlook this process also agreed, would you and Judge
10 Buchanan have joined in a petition to approve the set -- to 11 approve that settlement?

12 A That -- that was a proposed offer of compromise
13 that said there will be the following settlement. And it
14 should have been secret, but actually the settling parties
15 brought it before Judge Early shortly after that as 16 evidence that their settlement should be approved.

17 Q All right. But my point is, if there had been an 18 agreement at that time to accept this, you would not have 19 proposed a settlement which would have -- still had to have 20 been approved by Judge Early?

21 A Yes.

22 Q Okay. But you wouldn't have appealed that 23 approval?

24 A No.

25 Q Okay. All right. Now, Mr. Bauknight as I

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 understand it, since he was going to advise the judge
2 regarding the settlement in the prior order we looked at,
3 was he appraised of this proposal and/or did you discuss it
4 with him?

5 A I don't remember that I personally discussed it
6 with him, but it was talked -- and I haven't checked the 7 hearings, but it was talked about because as I said, it was 8 presented as an offer of compromise, but it was brought out
9 in the hearings. I would ask -- have to look to see 10 exactly how.

11 Q If you had been invited to the mediation, would 12 this have been your proposal in mediation to try to resolve
13 it?

14 A I can't say because the mediation had been a full 15 year earlier. But I can say that I have years of 16 experience of helping create, not a quick solution, but a
17 long-term good solution and this was what this estate
18 needed.

19 Q Okay. Let's --

20 MR. BUNDY: Then, Your Honor, I would like to draw
21 your attention to --

22 THE COURT: What do you mean by: This is what this 23 estate needed was a long-term solution.

24 THE WITNESS: Well --

25 THE COURT: And why did it need a long-term

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 solution?

2 THE WITNESS: It needed a long-term solution
3 because James Brown wanted his assets to be dedicated to 4 the education of needy students in perpetuity. In 5 perpetuity. And so we didn't -- we didn't need a quick fix
6 as had happened on August 10, 2008, 25 percent to Tomi
7 Rae, 25 percent to the clients of Levinson as they may 8 agree among themselves. The attorney general is going to 9 take over. This person is declared to be the wife.

10 The -- only the people who are in the agreement can 11 be heirs of James Brown. Oh my goodness, knowing that 12 there were at least three who had already passed DNA
13 testing. I mean, that was an attempt to have a quick fix
14 of something that needed a slow resolution that would last 15 a decade, two decades, three decades, four decades.

16 THE COURT: Was your proposal not a quick fix.

17 THE WITNESS: It was not a quick fix. It was a
18 slow fix.

19 THE COURT: Slow fix. Thank you.

20 Sorry, Mr. Bundy.

21 MR. BUNDY: All right. Your Honor, I'd like to now
22 turn to Tab 39 in Exhibit 1, your order entitled: Order
23 Approving Settlement Agreement.

24 THE COURT: That's where we were, wasn't it.

25 MR. BUNDY: It's Tab 39, Your Honor.

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 THE COURT: I said that's where we were when you
2 last asked me.

3 MR. BUNDY: Thank you, Your Honor.

4 BY MR. BUNDY:

5 Q Turn to page 14, please. I guess -- let's go to
6 13, please.

7 In this portion of the order entitled: Synopsis of 8 the Settlement Agreement, okay. What I'd like to do is to 9 just very quickly run through that.

10 Number 1, please, the purpose was to settling all 11 differences, settling parties concerning disposition by 12 will or otherwise and/or transfer assets under control by 13 James Brown whether by will or testacy, trust, or 14 nonprobate means, state or federal law and substantially --
15 significantly come together as a family to honor the legacy
16 of James Brown. That was the purpose of the settlement of 17 the estate, correct? As stated?

18 A Yes.

19 Q Okay. And Number 2, it says: The settling parties 20 intend for the -- of binding private settlement but are 21 also seeking Court approval of such.

22 Did you -- was Court approval necessary?

23 A That was -- there was a lot of discussion about 24 that. I -- I didn't think deeply about that.

25 Q Okay. But at any rate, they sought the Court

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 approval?

2 A They did.

3 Q Number 3, on the next page: Tomi Rae was the 4 legal wife of James Brown during his lifetime, at the time
5 of his death and qualifies as his surviving spouse.

6 We've discussed that your -- you disagree with that
7 agreement?

8 A Yes.

9 Q And in your opinion it had negative effects and 10 would have been contrary to Mr. Brown's wishes?

11 A Huge negative effects.

12 Q Number 4, children and grandchildren who are 13 parties to this agreement were and are lawful and/or 14 legitimate biological issue and heirs of James Brown during 15 his lifetime and were in life at the time of his death and 16 qualify as his surviving issue. No DNA testing would be 17 required of any child or any grandchild who is a party to 18 this agreement.

19 5, A professional fiduciary will replace Robert
20 Buchanan and Adele Pope as personal representatives of the 21 estate of James Brown and as trustees of the August 1, 2000
22 Irrevocable Trust of James Brown.

23 6, The charitable trust, substantially similar to 24 the --

25 THE COURT: Mr. Bundy, why are we --

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 MR. BUNDY: You're right, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: -- rehash -- I'm familiar with the 3 order, I signed it.

4 MR. BUNDY: I apologize.

5 BY MR. BUNDY:

6 Q Let's go to -- in Number 7, let's just go to Number
7 7. What was going to be done -- tell me -- explain this 8 settling entity -- settlement entity as you understand and 9 how that compared to what was in the will and trust?

10 A Well, it gutted the will and trust, what was known
11 as the settlement entity or the legacy trust and it put,
12 all of James Brown's assets under the effective control of 13 the attorney general of South Carolina, something that was 14 absolutely contrary to Mr. Brown's wishes.

15 Q Okay. Page 15. Okay. This just sets forth, I
16 think -- the agreement was to be 47.5 percent to charitable 17 trust, 23.75 percent to Tomi Rae and 4.79 percent to the 18 children, each child, right?

19 A Each of the children who was a party to the 20 settlement.

21 Q Let's go to page 16, paragraph 10. Can you explain
22 to me this issue here with Terry Brown and his right of 23 first refusal? What was your understanding of that
24 agreement?

25 A Well, that portion of the settlement happened

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 outside this courtroom on January 30th of 2009. Long after
2 the original settlement had been reached. And as I said
3 before, Terry Brown had been a vocal proponent of the 4 estate plan of James Brown. But he and his son, Forlando
5 were also seeking to reinstate the Cannon trustees. And he
6 was -- Mr. Brown had been present on November 19th and 20th
7 at the hearings in, I believe was the 19th and 20th, in the 8 hearings in the Forlando case. So he had a -- they had a
9 mixed history.

10 But they were very strong proponents of the estate
11 plan. And Forlando wanted to be part of the group that was 12 buying the James Brown assets. And he had been given a 39
13 percent ownership in a group called TJBL on December 5th of 14 2007 and TJBL was the entity that was looking to secure the 15 assets and float an IPO and do all of that.

16 So in order to induce Terry Brown to join the 17 attorney general's settlement, which dismembered James 18 Brown's "I Feel Good" Trust, Terry Brown was given an 19 exclusive due diligence period of six months during which 20 he could market the James Brown assets and apparently he 21 was to exercise that at some time over the next ten years.

22 But the settling parties had a right to not sell if 23 there were a two-thirds majority. And of course, what's 24 significant about the two-thirds is that that put the 25 attorney general and Tomi Rae in absolute control of

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 James Brown's assets because they held 75 percent of the 2 voting power under the McMaster settlement.

3 Q And do you have any ideas whether or not this
4 provision, whether there has been any offers or anything,
5 in this paragraph after that period of time?

6 A Well, there -- a lot -- a lot happened after that.
7 I know a lot about things that went on after that.

8 Q Okay. Let's go to page 21, please.

9 Page 21, the second paragraph, this authority.

10 This citation says: This authority allows the attorney
11 general to control litigation, also provides the attorney
12 has exclusive authority in order to protect public interest
13 to settle or compromise litigation and it cites the Homer
14 case. How does this compare, if at all, to the ultimate
15 decision by the Supreme Court regarding the attorney
16 general's right to engage in this activity?

17 A Well, it's entirely inconsistent with it and that 18 is the heart of the document which Judge Buchanan and I
19 filed on May 22nd, I believe it was, to ask the Court, is 20 the attorney general taking over and can he; and if he does 21 substitute his judgment for ours, may we go away with the 22 knowledge that we've done our job.

23 Q Okay. Page 23.

24 Under good faith controversy I find it is 25 uncontrovertible that a good faith controversy exists.

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 What did the Supreme Court find regarding the good faith of 2 this controversy?

3 A That it did not exist.

4 Q Now, I think that is -- hold on. Let's go to page
5 37. Second to last paragraph. Placement of the currently 6 severing fiduciaries is also just and reasonable. Last
7 paragraph: Moreover both fiduciaries have testified they 8 attended to appeal; that actually placed into possession of 9 irreconcilable conflict of interest. The Court was aware 10 you were going to appeal; correct? All parties were aware 11 you were going the appeal?

12 A I believe so and I believe there was a general
13 feeling that there would be an appeal either way.

14 Q Okay. Then the next sentence is: Settling parties
15 propose Mr. Bauknight be appointed as replacement personal 16 representative and trustee. And, in fact, did that occur?

17 A Yes.

18 Q Were you -- was this replacement as you understand
19 it for cause by the judge?

20 A Only that that we wouldn't sign the settlement
21 which contained provisions that we believed to be 22 materially incorrect.

23 Q Any other great rationale that you were aware of?

24 A I did not perceive that to be the case.

25 Q Okay. Has there ever been a hearing in the lower

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 court or any hearing to make a determination for -- that
2 you needed to be -- that Mr. Bauknight needed to replace
3 you for cause?

4 A No.

5 Q Have you ever had notice and an opportunity to 6 defend any allegations that --

7 MR. WILLIAMS: Your Honor, if I may?

8 THE COURT: You may.

9 MR. WILLIAMS: Your Honor, I believe what we're
10 doing here is having a legal discussion about Wilson v
11 Dallas and an order that was issued by this Court. I don't 12 believe that this is --

13 THE COURT: The order speaks for itself. The 14 Supreme Court order speaks for itself on dismissal for 15 cause, you know.

16 MR. WILLIAMS: Yes, yes, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: And Ms. Pope can tell us how she feels 18 about it if she wants to.

19 MR. WILLIAMS: Okay.

20 THE COURT: But I mean, I know what -- what
21 ultimately happened. We all do.

22 MR. WILLIAMS: Yes, Your Honor.

23 THE COURT: Thank you.

24 You may continue, Mr. Bundy.

25 BY MR. BUNDY:

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 Q Just to make sure I understand. You've never had 2 notice and an opportunity to defend yourself or 3 Mr. Buchanan in a court of record in this state for you to 4 be removed for cause?

5 A I don't know whether you are considering other
6 Counties, but --

7 THE COURT: Other what?

8 THE WITNESS: -- in front of Judge Early, never.

9 BY MR. BUNDY:

10 Q Okay. All right. Let's go to the last tab on 11 Exhibit 1. And this is an order of Judge Early dated 12 September 16, 2009. Let's go to page 7.

13 Number 1 here, The stay was lifted; is that 14 correct?

15 A Yes.

16 Q And the trust was going to be administered on an 17 ongoing basis, correct?

18 A Yes.

19 Q And what restrictions were placed on Mr. Bauknight
20 in this order?

21 A I have to look, but I think there were to be no --

22 Q Look at A.

23 A I think there were to be no distributions from the 24 estate or trust and no payments to current or former 25 personal representatives or trustees for commissions from

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 estate or trust assets without further order of this Court.
2 That would be Judge Early.

3 Q Okay. And that -- and that -- and B would include
4 you and Judge Buchanan, correct?

5 A Yes.

6 Q Okay. Now, I believe that's all I have on Exhibit
7 Number 1.

8 Ms. Pope, I'd now like to discuss with you your 9 claim which brings us here today.

10 THE COURT: And I think you handed me that. It was 11 exhibit what?

12 MR. BUNDY: We're going to start up here, Your 13 Honor, with Exhibit 7. May I approach.

14 THE COURT: Certainly. I had them up here
15 yesterday, I think. Somebody got them off of there.
16 Thank you.

17 MR. BUNDY: Yes, sir.

18 BY MR. BUNDY:

19 Q We have on the screen Exhibit 7, which was 20 previously attached to what was Exhibit 5? It's titled 21 Exhibit 5, so what was it attached to Exhibit 5?

22 A In June of 2009, after we were replaced, Judge
23 Buchanan and I filed a protective claim for commissions.
24 At that time, James B. had filed a petition asking Judge
25 Early to review our commissions. And we had responded by

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 saying we thought James B. Didn't have the authority to do
2 that, but we were under tremendous pressure to talk about
3 our commissions. And so Judge Buchanan and I had asked
4 Judge Early to please not force us to have to deal with 5 that issue right then and to either grant us our 6 commissions based on the record as it existed then or to 7 allow us to leave it until the conclusion of what we knew
8 then would be an appeal.

9 And so that didn't happen. And we filed a
10 protective claim in June and it was supported by 11 documentation then, but then further supported on, I think
12 July 13th, with this joint affidavit which contained 18
13 exhibits including the Exhibit 8 which was my time sheets
14 and 17 other exhibits in support of our claim.

15 Q Okay. I'd like to just briefly as possible, ask
16 you to explain to the judge how these numbers were 17 calculated and also is it not the case that Mr. Buchanan
18 has resolved his issue regarding his commission claim?

19 A He has.

20 Q So to the extent there is a request in here for 21 Judge Buchanan's commissions, that aspect of it is now
22 moot, correct?

23 A That is no longer my concern.

24 Q But you're -- but you're calculations as it relates
25 to Adele Pope and why we're here today remain the same?

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 A They do.

2 Q Okay. If you would explain your analysis to the 3 Court --

4 THE COURT: Okay. And let me make sure I'm clear.
5 This Exhibit 5, which is Plaintiff's Exhibit 7 in this case
6 is for the time period as noted on here November 21, 2007
7 through 5/26/2009; is that where we are?

8 THE WITNESS: That is for the minimum PR/trustee
9 calculation. The time calculation that has been up on the 10 board the entire time. Minimum PR trustee commission
11 calculation as per the payment order.

12 THE COURT: All right.

13 THE WITNESS: And that amount was 1,473,550 plus
14 interest at the legal rate as per the order.

15 BY MR. BUNDY:

16 Q Maybe I can make this a little bit easier and move
17 it along a little quicker --

18 THE COURT: I'm not restricting you from anything
19 you want --

20 MR. BUNDY: I know, Your Honor. I appreciate you
21 -- it will make it easier for me to understand.

22 Your Honor, Exhibit -- Plaintiff's Exhibit 11, and 23 maybe these two exhibits in conjunction with each other
24 will make it easier.

25 Plaintiff's Exhibit 11 -- May I approach, Your

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 Honor?

2 THE COURT: Yes, sir, thank you. Without
3 objection?

4 MR. WILLIAMS: Yes, sir.

5 BY MR. BUNDY:

6 Q Plaintiff's Exhibit 11, please. This is a summary
7 of your claim. This is why we're here today, correct?

8 A That's correct.

9 Q And yesterday, and however many days we're going to 10 be here?

11 A That's correct.

12 Q The one, Number 1 is the payment order and we've 13 discussed, this is based on Judge Early's order of January
14 8th, 2008; correct?

15 THE COURT: And that is Tab -- anybody remember
16 what tab that is?

17 MR. BUNDY: There's an index in front, Your Honor.
18 There should be an index in front of yours.

19 THE COURT: It is. It is. It is. And it looks
20 like January 8, 2008.

21 MR. BUNDY: Yes, Your Honor.

22 THE COURT: That's Tab 13. Okay.

23 THE WITNESS: That is the minimum deposit toward 24 commissions.

25 BY MR. BUNDY:

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 Q Is that the deposit the judge is referring to?

2 A It is. And that is the amount that had been earned
3 as a minimum commission deposit as of May 26th, 2009, plus
4 simple interest.

5 Q And if we go to page 4 of the order, it says there
6 that will be a deposit and without prejudice to their full 7 commissions as personal representatives and trustees?

8 A And the remainder of the full commission is, which 9 I requested, is on the other document you just handed Judge
10 Early. But the difference in the two -- if I --

11 Q If we look --

12 A -- could look at it, I could show you.

13 Q If we look at Exhibit 7, second page?

14 A If I could look at that, please.

15 Q Sure.

16 A The total commission --

17 Q Total commissions requested --

18 A -- which I requested that day in June of 2009 was 19 1,473,550 plus simple interest from that day, plus an 20 additional commission to be granted in the discretion of 21 the Court of 1,372,380. That would make a total
22 commission, rounding up to the nearest dollar shown there
23 on the bottom of page 2, total commissions requested, HAP
24 2,845,929.63, which has been rounded to 930, these two 25 components.

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 Q Is the 2 million -- is the total claim, the total
2 commission claim a percentage of a number? Is it a
3 function of a percent?

4 A Well, it is. We talk about up there the value of 5 the estate of 99 --

6 THE COURT: Before you go into that, just help me a
7 little bit. You're asking for 1,473,550 from the dates we 8 just discussed, 11/21 through 5/26/09, plus, obviously, the 9 interest. And that was based on your hourly rate of 3 and 10 some change. I forgot what it is.

11 THE WITNESS: Well, it was over three years. I
12 think we did it at 325 --

13 THE COURT: 325 over those years, plus your 14 ancillary help, et cetera.

15 THE WITNESS: Yes.

16 THE COURT: All right. And then when you go to 17 page 2 of Exhibit 7, you come down total commissions
18 requested AJP and you got 1,181, where is that figure 19 coming from?

20 THE WITNESS: That's me without my staff.

21 THE COURT: You without your staff.

22 THE WITNESS: Right.

23 THE COURT: That makes sense.

24 THE WITNESS: Right.

25 THE COURT: And then plus 1,664,484.67, and I guess

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 Mr. Bundy's getting ready to figure out how you come up
2 with that figure.

3 THE WITNESS: Well, well, Your Honor --

4 THE COURT: That's why I asked because that
5 1,664,383 is different in Exhibit 11, which says
6 discretionary commissions of 1,372,380.

7 THE WITNESS: Well, I have -- I -- for simplicity,
8 I guess, is the only way to say it, have asked for a full 9 commission of 2,845,930. And there are two components to 10 that: 1,473,550 and 1,372,380. These figures contain some 11 interest and staff and other things that I have --

12 THE COURT: These are --

13 THE WITNESS: For simplicity, this being the 14 commission claim that we filed.

15 THE COURT: Exhibit 7?

16 THE WITNESS: Right.

17 THE COURT: All right. Now, Mr. Bundy, I assume 18 you're going to ask her how -- how Ms. Pope comes up with a
19 million 372 or a million 664, which ever it may be. I want
20 to know how -- where that figure comes from, but I know 21 where the 1,473 comes from and that's from her time and 22 staff and the interest on top of that. But tell me how you
23 come up with the other one, 1 million 372.

24 THE WITNESS: Okay.

25 BY MR. BUNDY:

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 Q The total commission -- what is the total
2 commission you're claiming?

3 A 2,845,930.

4 Q Okay. And that's --

5 A Timely paid in two segments.

6 Q But that's the full commission you are --

7 A That's the total I'm asking for.

8 Q That's the number on page 2 of Exhibit 7?

9 A It is.

10 Q All right. And if you -- and then if you -- put 11 the other exhibit up, please, the 11, please. So --

12 THE COURT: Well, I understand what she's asking
13 for. My question is simple and after that, then you can 14 ask her what you want to.

15 BY MR. BUNDY:

16 Q How do you get to --

17 THE COURT: 1,372,380 or 1,664,383 --

18 MR. BUNDY: Right.

19 THE COURT: Whichever it is. Where does that come
20 from?

21 MR. BUNDY: Well, I think we first have to, Judge,
22 determine where the 285 came -- the 2 million 845 came 23 from. How did she calculate that?

24 THE COURT: However you want to answer it.

25 BY MR. BUNDY:

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 Q How do you calculate -- how did you calculate the 2 total, 2,845,929.63 commission you are asking for? What is 3 that based on?

4 A Well, it was based on several things. One, the 5 approximately $100 million value of the assets of the trust
6 and estate. Two, the reasonableness provisions of the will
7 and the trust. And -- and -- and then third, that Judge
8 Buchanan and I had requested approximately 2.1 million for 9 him and approximately 2.8 million for me, giving up
10 one-third credit for time and cost and another two-thirds
11 for the responsibility and extraordinary nature of our work
12 as PR's and trustees.

13 THE COURT: A third for time and costs and -- plus
14 two-thirds for the extraordinary responsibility?

15 THE WITNESS: Yes, Your Honor. And I had stated on 16 the stand when asked, well, what if your time went beyond
17 this because it was totally clear that I was never going to 18 ask for any other commission. I was going to ask for costs
19 and so forth, but no further commissions above this figure.

20 THE COURT: Above which figure?

21 THE WITNESS: 2 million 8 -- whatever it is, the 22 total of these two numbers.

23 THE COURT: Okay.

24 THE WITNESS: I was asked on the stand during the 25 settlement hearings, and as Your Honor may recall, I really

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 wasn't very interested in talking about commissions at that
2 time, but we were sort of being forced to. And I did say
3 that that commission, although earned that day would cover
4 every hour I ever spent for James Brown after that and that 5 certainly contemplated the appeal.

6 THE COURT: Okay. So make sure I understand. The 7 component that is not time and cost is arrived at from the 8 $100 million that you placed on the estate plus the 9 reasonableness provision of the trust and will, plus -- not 10 plus, but it's sort of a third of time and cost and 11 two-thirds for the responsibilities that you had for the 12 duties that you were --

13 THE WITNESS: Right. And that was intended to 14 favor Judge Buchanan because he had -- we both had shared
15 the responsibility for everything but his time and costs
16 were less than mine. And his staff was smaller than mine.

17 THE COURT: All right.

18 BY MR. BUNDY:

19 Q So is it then correct, to go back to Judge Early's
20 January 8 order -- the first number is the deposit?

21 A That is the way we perceived it.

22 Q The delta between the deposit and the total
23 commission that you are requesting is the 2 million 372 --

24 A That's correct.

25 Q -- which you acknowledge is discretionary and it's

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 within the Court's discretion to award?

2 A I do. It was then and it is now.

3 THE COURT: So actually, it's almost 5 million.

4 4,993,151 was the total commission that both you and Bob
5 Buchanan were seeking, of which your portion was 2 million
6 845 and change.

7 THE WITNESS: That's correct.

8 THE COURT: So that 5 million or 4993 is what
9 percent of 100 million.

10 THE WITNESS: About 5 percent.

11 THE COURT: And where are you coming up with the 5
12 percent, for the record, please, ma'am?

13 THE WITNESS: Well, reasonableness. The original
14 trustees had sought 15 percent.

15 THE COURT: 15 or 50?

16 THE WITNESS: 15. 15.

17 THE COURT: 15 of what -- 15 percent of what?

18 THE WITNESS: Well, they were working toward a sale
19 for $100 million and taking about, a little bit more than 20 15 million of it.

21 THE COURT: But that sale never was consummated or 22 either -- even came close to being consummated.

23 THE WITNESS: Well, if it hadn't been sold, they 24 were going to take it out slowly. They were looking for 15
25 percent of everything.

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 THE COURT: But didn't the -- I don't know whether
2 it's the trust document or the will and trust documents
3 gave them 50 -- is that 50 percent of everything that came 4 in and out of the trust?

5 THE WITNESS: Your Honor, that was a terrible
6 misconception.

7 THE COURT: Of --

8 THE WITNESS: That was never the case. It -- they 9 never --

10 THE COURT: Okay. Maybe -- let me rephrase it.
11 What did the trust documents say about the 50 percent?

12 THE WITNESS: Deep in the provisions in both James 13 Brown's 1999 and his 2000 will and the administrative 14 provisions was an acknowledgment that administrative costs
15 are sometimes up to 50 percent; which in the music industry
16 is, in fact, the case. Publishers take half of the music.
17 That was interpolated somehow to try to convince Your Honor
18 that -- I mean, as bad as they were, Mr. Buchanan and 19 Mr. Dallas and Mr. Bradley were trying to take 50 percent
20 of everything.

21 THE COURT: Not Mr. Buchanan.

22 THE WITNESS: I'm sorry. I apologize. Mr.
23 Cannon --

24 THE COURT: Bradley Dallas --

25 THE WITNESS: Mr. Dallas and Mr. Bradley were

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 trying to take 50 percent of everything. That was just --
2 the documents could not possibly have allowed that, but it
3 took on a life of its own.

4 THE COURT: Well, what does it say in the document?
5 Has anybody got that?

6 THE WITNESS: Reasonable, reasonable. That's all
7 it says. Both documents. Reasonable.

8 THE COURT: Well, either I've lost my mind or I
9 can't remember anything anymore. I read 50 percent
10 somewhere in the trust agreement that they would get 50
11 percent of the -- I don't think it was net, I think it was 12 gross.

13 THE WITNESS: I think I can find that, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: Okay. Please. Because I --

15 THE WITNESS: It was repeated to you over and over
16 and over again, but it was not the case.

17 THE COURT: Okay. Well, let me see the trust
18 document. Maybe I can read it and refresh my memory.

19 THE WITNESS: Yeah. And would you like me to find 20 it for you.

21 THE COURT: That would be wonderful.

22 THE WITNESS: It's -- it's -- it's under the 23 Article 10, which is the Powers for the Trustee.

24 THE COURT: Thank you. (Reading.)

25 Which small provision --

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 THE WITNESS: If I could look a minute, Your Honor?

2 THE COURT: Yes.

3 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

4 THE COURT: Isn't it Article 10, Number 2 up there
5 on the board?

6 Does not prevent my trustees from making up to 50
7 percent of the gross.

8 THE WITNESS: For the payment of administrative 9 expenses.

10 THE COURT: And managerial expenses.

11 THE WITNESS: Well, that read with the rest of the 12 will could not possibly have been read that way. That's 13 all I know how to say. I've been a trust law officer
14 forever. And that could not have been read that way.
15 Nobody could have claimed that who was a fiduciary under 16 that document. Because there are other savings clauses in 17 there that say no action may be taken which could 18 disqualify the trust. And I can tell you that that would 19 have disqualified the trust as a charitable trust in a 20 minute.

21 THE COURT: All right. So your 5 -- your 5 million
22 or 4,993,115 was about 5 percent of the hundred thousand -- 23 $100 million valuation that you and Mr. Buchanan put on the 24 estate.

25 THE WITNESS: My 2.8 and Mr. Buchanan's 2.1 were

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 approximately that.

2 THE COURT: Yes, ma'am. I thought that's what I
3 said.

4 Okay. I'm sorry, Mr. Bundy. Go ahead.

5 MR. BUNDY: I'm glad for the help, Judge.

6 BY MR. BUNDY:

7 Q All right. Ms. Pope, if we could, let's go back to 8 the exhibit, the 11, please.

9 So, Ms. Pope, I think hopefully we've explained the 10 two elements of your claim, right, which total the two 11 million number we've been discussing.

12 The third element of your claim is attorney's fees
13 and costs?

14 MR. BUNDY: And, Your Honor, just, if you don't 15 mind, I'd like to bring this up at this point. We're going
16 to be asking for attorney's fees and costs, but I've talked
17 to counsel and we've agreed that depending on your ruling
18 we could later take up the issue of attorney's fees and 19 costs --

20 THE COURT: I assume you're talking about
21 attorney's fees and costs to the prosecution of this -- her
22 commission?

23 MR. BUNDY: Yes, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: Sure. I don't have any problem doing
25 it that way. Just, I mean, that's obviously -- you won't

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 know what they all are until it's over with.

2 MR. BUNDY: Okay. That way I don't have to go into
3 all that now and we can forgo that. Okay.

4 BY MR. BUNDY:

5 Q Just a few more exhibits, Ms. Pope.
6 I'd like to now look at Exhibit 5, please.

7 MR. BUNDY: May I approach, Your Honor?

8 THE COURT: Certainly.

9 MR. BUNDY: In evidence without objection, Your 10 Honor.

11 THE COURT: Thank you.

12 BY MR. BUNDY:

13 Q All right. What is this document, Ms. Pope?
14 Exhibit 5?

15 A This is from Mr. Buchanan's deposition, but it is a
16 copy of our protective statement and notice of creditor's
17 claim which we filed, I think it was the 24th of June,
18 2009, just after we were replaced; and it is consistent 19 with the document we've just looked at that outlined our 20 time and claims.

21 Q Well, in fact, it says amount of claim: Full --
22 the full PR/Trustees commission in the amount of 4,993,151.

23 A It does. It -- the interest, we're doing it -- 24 we've got a little slightly different date for the 25 interest, but essentially it's the same.

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 Q Okay.

2 A The total claim.

3 Q And is this a requirement of -- a statutory
4 requirement to file such a document?

5 A We weren't sure whether we had to file it or not.
6 So we -- that's why we filed it as a protective claim. It
7 -- it has to do with when your service is terminated and we 8 didn't believe our service had been finally terminated, but 9 we filed a protective claim, just in case.

10 MR. BUNDY: Your Honor, may I approach?

11 Plaintiff's Exhibit 6 is in without objection.

12 BY MR. BUNDY:

13 Q All right. Ms. Pope, what is Plaintiff's Exhibit
14 6?

15 A Well, on May 29th of 2013, I was hand-delivered a
16 notice of disallowance with impending bar, asserting that I
17 was not entitled to any payment and that -- and there were 18 certain allegations made in there. But what was 19 significant about it is it did refer to impending bar,
20 which meant that if I did not file the lawsuit about which 21 we're here today, I would have lost all possible claim to 22 my earned commissions, the discretionary commissions and 23 perhaps even faced alleged discredachment of the modest
24 special administrator commission, partial special
25 administrator commission I had been paid in 2007.

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 Q So once you received the notice of disallowance,
2 you were statutorily required to file this lawsuit;
3 otherwise, you would have waived all of this or wouldn't 4 have been able to prosecute?

5 A The notice of disallowance forced me to do that.

6 Q And is the -- was there any time requirement within 7 which the notice of disallowance had to be filed?

8 A No. It -- our claim had been sitting since June of 9 2009.

10 Q Okay.

11 A And this was four years later.

12 Q Okay. All right?

13 THE COURT: Mr. Bundy was there an order? I'm 14 looking at the --

15 And Ms. Pope, you can help me out.

16 January 8, 2008, that's where -- ordered that you be paid
17 on the time basis. I thought there was some order,
18 somewhere that set the amount of time per hour. I think 3
19 -- or was there.

20 THE WITNESS: Well, Your Honor, I've tried to go
21 back and look at that and I -- what I found is we -- it is 22 discussed somewhat within the record, but my rate was $300
23 an hour in 2007, 325 in 2008, and 350 in 2009. But our 24 request just uses 325, although as you can --

25 THE COURT: Okay. So you went up from 3, to 325,

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 350 over a period of time, which is certainly --

2 THE WITNESS: And, you know, at the time Your
3 Honor, we had very -- Your Honor did find that our rate for 4 the special administrator had been fair and commensurate
5 with other attorneys and we had all of the information
6 about the other attorneys who were making claims. And at 7 rates of anywhere from about 275 to about $500 an hour.

8 THE COURT: But when we were talking about fees and 9 things during the course of the litigation, it went 325,
10 350, 300 as time progressed, it moved up.

11 THE WITNESS: Yes. And our claim is, again, based
12 on 325. The 1,473,550.

13 THE COURT: Excuse me. That 1 million 473 is on 14 325 an hour plus costs?

15 THE WITNESS: It is. Plus my staff --

16 THE COURT: I understand.

17 THE WITNESS: --- at rates that are shown on the 18 chart. Very modest rates shown on the chart.

19 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Bundy? You may move
20 forward. I didn't mean to interrupt.

21 BY MR. BUNDY:

22 Q All right. Ms. Pope, what I want to talk to you
23 now is this order, this payment order, your time ends in 24 May in terms of keeping up with your time, right?

25 A I felt that we had been replaced and certainly --

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 Q All right. But this is where the time stops per
2 the order of -- of --

3 A Well, I'm not sure about that. But, what I do know
4 is I would have gone way past what I've requested if I'd 5 continued to keep time.

6 Q So you no longer continued to keep time after June?

7 A I have -- I did sporadically during the period and 8 I certainly kept records of lots of what was happening, but 9 I didn't keep time sheets in the way that I had before.

10 Q As anticipated, once Judge Early issued his order
11 approving the settlement was there, in fact, an appeal?

12 A There was.

13 Q And did you -- you were the appellate?

14 A Mr. Buchanan and I were the appellants.

15 Q All right. Tell the Court what was involved in 16 that -- what was involved in that appeal. If you handled
17 the appeal, who helped you or who handled it or however 18 that went, if you would, briefly?

19 A In September the settling parties and the attorney
20 general had secured an order which said that we could not 21 be paid. And so we had the issue of conducting what we 22 knew would be a vitriolic appeal and that had already shown
23 its head in the September hearings. Judge Early had 24 quelled the discussion, but it was already there.

25 So I was --

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 MR. WILLIAMS: Your Honor, if I may make a quick
2 record objection?

3 THE COURT: You may.

4 MR. WILLIAMS: I apologize. We've got an order
5 that was issued by Your Honor in this case as an
6 administrative order dated September 1st, 2016. The Court
7 made a finding that this case that we're trying today
8 regards fees and commissions for Ms. Pope. She is owed for 9 her prior fiduciary service which is included with her
10 court costs remitted on May 26, 2009. For the record I
11 would like to object to any testimony elicited that speaks
12 to assert or argue that Ms. Pope may be compensated for any 13 conduct after May 26, 2009.

14 THE COURT: Well, I'm not sure that -- are you
15 making a claim for after 5/26/09?

16 MR. BUNDY: No, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: So why are we going into the appeal and 18 all that.

19 MR. BUNDY: It goes to special circumstances of her
20 -- and extraordinary services she offered. Her services --
21 and it goes to -- it's one more element that you could 22 consider in your discretion as it relates to the 23 discretionary fees. Because her fee -- her fee is based on 24 the commission, the total commission.

25 And so one bucket of damages is the January 8

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 order. That's the down payment. The remainder of it is
2 that delta which is in your discretion and I believe it
3 would be appropriate for you in your discretion to consider
4 the services she provided; which obviously benefitted the 5 estate because she was successful in the appeal. So I was 6 just simply trying to put that in the record.

7 THE COURT: But doesn't the Supreme Court rules
8 provide that you can go to them for attorney's fees? Let 9 me see that order.

10 If you're successful, and the other party pays?

11 MR. BUNDY: Well I'm not seeking attorney's fees.

12 THE COURT: I haven't done an appeal in a long
13 time, I've forgot.

14 MR. WILLIAMS: You're talking about the appellate 15 court rules for --

16 THE COURT: Yeah.

17 MR. WILLIAMS: Yes, Your Honor.

18 For the losing and winning parties.

19 MR. WILLIAMS: Yes, Your Honor.

20 MR. BUNDY: Keep in mind, Your Honor, I'm not 21 seeking attorney's fees, I'm seeking commissions.

22 THE COURT: Well, what's the difference? I mean I
23 know the difference between -- obviously, a special
24 fiduciary, that she would have had both PR and trustee as 25 well as providing legal -- I don't know if she provided

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 legal services, but she certainly used her keen legal mind
2 to maneuver this mine field that she went through while she
3 was serving in that capacity. But I do have -- my order
4 does cut it off on the date in question, May 26, 2009. I'm 5 not sure -- I will allow you since we're doing this nonjury
6 to make a record if you'd like, but I'm not saying that I'm 7 going to consider that.

8 I may consider the commission and the 9 reasonableness all up to May 26, 2009. But I will 10 certainly allow you, over his -- over the objection of the 11 other side, to sort of as a proffer and to make the record
12 complete --

13 MR. BUNDY: Thank you, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: -- in the event this goes any further 15 than whatever decision I may make.

16 You may continue.

17 MR. BUNDY: Thank you, Your Honor. And I
18 understand that what we're doing now is a proffer.

19 THE COURT: You may continue.

20 MR. BUNDY: Thank you.

21 BY MR. BUNDY:

22 Q All right. Ms. Pope, what -- you knew you weren't
23 going to get paid because there was an order nothing else
24 was to be paid pending the appeal or whatever. So tell me
25 what happened. How did the appeal -- what did you do

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 during the appeal to prosecute this appeal which ultimately
2 was successful?

3 A Well, our commission claim which we do believe was 4 earned on May 26, 2009 included working on the appeal. And 5 during the period from May 26, 2009 until May 8, 2013, the 6 Supreme Court had found that Mr. Bauknight's appointment
7 was void, so in traditional terms there was no personal
8 representative in -- of the estate of James Brown and no
9 trustee of the James Brown 2000 Trust during that period.
10 During that period, we performed half of what is 11 the function of a PR and the trustee and that is to defend 12 that document. And I could say in terms of James Brown 13 that was greater than half because his sole desire was to 14 save the James Brown "I Feel Good" Trust and we did that.
15 And the Supreme Court found that we were the prevailing
16 party in that litigation and awarded me certain little 17 costs under the appellate rules.

18 THE COURT: Which is not very much as it used to be 19 when I was prosecuting trials.

20 THE WITNESS: They are not.

21 THE COURT: $7 an hour.

22 THE WITNESS: They were not, but they were an 23 acknowledgment that we were the -- that we were the 24 prevailing parties. By that time through the failure to 25 report to the Supreme Court, the settlement with Bob

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 Buchanan, there were no costs awarded to Mr. Buchanan
2 because he was prohibited from filing a petition for 3 rehearing. So there was confusion there.

4 But essentially the appeal was as hard as any
5 appeal I've ever seen. And I have conducted a fair number
6 of appeals. It was hard principally because the attorney
7 general of South Carolina was working against the PR's and 8 the trustees who were trying to save this charity and did
9 put the Court in a position to save this charity.

10 There were in addition to numerous vitriolic and 11 false claims, there was a strong challenge to standing.
12 There was a troublesome motion to supplement the record
13 after the closing of the record. And there were numerous
14 things that made this appeal the most difficult I've ever
15 seen.

16 Q Who handled the appeal?

17 A Because we were prohibited from having any funds, I
18 -- we were using Tressa Hayes and my husband said why don't 19 you call Jim Richardson. He likes to work on important
20 things. And I had budgeted from my own pocket because I
21 knew that Judge Buchanan couldn't take anymore, about
22 $40,000 a year to conduct the appeal and I told my husband
23 I could not budget that into it. I couldn't do that. I
24 didn't want to be a million dollars in debt at the end of 25 this. And he said call him any way. And I did --

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 Q Let me stop you here. Who is Jim Richardson?

2 A Jim Richardson is a wonderful appellate lawyer.
3 According to his testimony, he has hired -- I mean, he has 4 conducted more appeals in South Carolina than anyone other
5 than Charles Carpenter who also helped me some pro bono
6 publico.

7 Q Okay.

8 A But Jim -- I called Jim Richardson and I asked if
9 he would help Tressa Hayes and he immediately says -- said
10 he would take the appeal. And he did. And we never had 11 any discussion of what I would pay him. I just trusted my 12 husband and did it. I helped him tremendously because I
13 wanted to make the burden and the costs less. Tressa
14 helped him a lot. It was only in -- sometime in the 15 appeal, I think in 2010 when Mr. Richardson announced in a 16 filing without telling us that he was handling it pro bono
17 publico. That was the first I knew. And so it was hard..
18 It was a terribly hard appeal.

19 Q All right.

20 THE COURT: Did I hear you correctly a while ago, I
21 think you said -- you testified that you were not seeking 22 any commissions beyond 5/26/09, when I said you could 23 proffer all this? Is that what you testified?

24 THE WITNESS: I --

25 MR. BUNDY: I didn't hear.

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 THE COURT: I thought I heard Ms. Pope say that she 2 was not seeking any commission beyond 5/26/09.

3 BY MR. BUNDY:

4 Q Are you seeking commissions beyond 5/26/09?

5 A Yes.

6 THE COURT: Okay.

7 BY MR. BUNDY:

8 Q All right. Now, were you at the oral arguments?

9 Did you attend the oral arguments in Columbia?

10 A And if I could say one other thing?

11 Q Certainly.

12 A After that administrative order, Your 13 Honor denied summary judgment to the defendants when they 14 asked to cut off my commissions after May 26, after that 15 administrative order.

16 THE COURT: Very well.

17 BY MR. BUNDY:

18 Q Were you in attendance in Columbia at the Supreme 19 Court hearings in Wilson versus Dallas?

20 A I was.

21 Q Okay. Do you recall an inquiry by the chief
22 justice of Mr. Jones about what investigation he had done
23 regarding looking into the validity of the claims to set
24 aside the will? Do you recall?

25 A I do. And I've read the transcript of that

Adele Pope - Direct Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 hearing, listened to the transcript of that hearing
2 multiple times and it's a part of the record in this case.
3 In the deposition of Mr. Jones or Ms. Jowers, I'm not sure
4 which one. But the transcript, which was critical is in 5 the record somewhere in this case.

6 Q Well, what was the chief justice's inquiry of 7 Mr. Jones related to his investigation into the will 8 contest?

9 A Well, she didn't seem pleased with his 10 investigation.

11 MR. BUNDY: Your Honor, now would be good time to 12 break for lunch if that's satisfactory.

13 THE COURT: Well, no, I'm going until one. I said
14 that -- I've already announced that all along. We'll go to 15 one.

16 MR. BUNDY: The witness is with you. Is yours.

17 THE COURT: Ms. Pope, you need a break before we go 18 on?

19 THE WITNESS: No.

20 THE COURT: All right. Let's go until one o'clock.

21 MR. WILLIAMS: May it please the Court.

22 THE COURT: Certainly.

23 ///

24 ///

25 ///

Adele Pope - Cross-Examination by Mr. Williams

1 A Absolutely not correct.

2 Q Okay. Will you tell the Court what you had done?

3 A I've been talking about it all day and yesterday.

4 But I'll talk about it again, if you'd like.

5 We had -- we had stabilized the clearance process.

6 Q That's the one where you told them you'd have to 7 get back to them next month?

8 A No, that was the other 198 clearances.

9 Q Okay.

10 A We had learned about the need to protect the 11 copyrights from improper or premature attempts to terminate 12 the -- the $3 million plus royalty stream coming to the 13 James Brown "I Feel Good" Trust, and we had secured an 14 order from Judge Early on March 8th or 9th, of 2008 to have 15 the proper heirs determination, which is absolutely
16 essential to the protection by a charity of its copyright
17 royalties.

18 We had gotten a handle on -- on the assets. We had 19 just done many, many, many other things. I mean maybe I
20 just ought to refer you to the supplemental affidavit of 21 Robert L. Buchanan Jr. and Adele Pope, which we did the 22 following year, which gives a chronology -- or to my time
23 sheets, which would give you information. We worked on 24 this every single day.

25 THE COURT: Where is that affidavit? Is it in the

Adele Pope - Cross-Examination by Mr. Williams

- 1 A The global gaming?
- 2 Q Yes, ma'am.
- 3 A You know, I think it was, although they were having
- 4 to do music clearances too. Because he was going to go
- 5 (sound) and I don't -- that wasn't music, that was probably
- 6 image. And then they were going to play a little sound;
- 7 and they were working on the clearances too. And my
- 8 recollection -- I had forgotten that. My recollection in
- 9 trying to investigate what was going wrong, we checked with
- 10 the publishers and -- and they had reserved, I think, tried
- 11 to reserve some songs, but then, you know, I don't know.
- 12 It's been a long time. But they were going to be -- that
- 13 was going to be both royalties and publicity rights.
- 14 Q Okay.
- 15 A Yes. As -- as -- as contrasted with CORBIS, the
- 16 Greenlight contract, which would have been solely publicity
- 17 rights, although I'm sure they would have worked, but they
- 18 wouldn't have gotten a percentage for the -- for the music
- 19 rights.
- 20 Q Okay. So then there's that one, the global gaming,
- 21 then the other one what you would have been involved in for
- 22 the entire time that you were involved in the estate and
- 23 trust would have been what you just mentioned, the CORBIS
- 24 Greenlight; is that correct?
- 25 A No, no, we were not involved in the CORBIS

Adele Pope - Cross-Examination by Mr. Williams

1 Greenlight until January of 2009 when we began to negotiate
2 it. James Brown had been involved since 2002, but we only
3 became involved in the possibility of the Greenlight
4 publicity rights deal starting with negotiations in January
5 of 2009, and culminating on March 23rd, 2009 when we filed
6 an emergency petition asking the attorney general to please
7 approve that so that we could get that two year contract in 8 place by May 1, 2009. And he refused to do it because he 9 said it would interfere with Terry Brown's right of first 10 refusal.

11 Q Okay. Would it have interfered with anything else?

12 A I don't think so. It was a very clean contract.
13 And there was no chance that any portion of it would have 14 had to have been paid to Buddy Dallas or -- or David Cannon
15 or Greenberg Traurig or all the other people who were 16 claiming a percentage under the October 18 letter.

17 So we were so pleased that it was so clean and so 18 we didn't think so. I mean if somebody had analyzed it and 19 called it to our attention, we certainly could have worked
20 on modifying it, but the truth is, nobody wanted to do
21 that. They didn't want it because they said it interfered
22 with Terry Brown's right to buy these assets.

23 Q Okay. You had mentioned on direct that you said it
24 was going to generate a million dollars a year --

25 A We believed --

Adele Pope - Cross-Examination by Mr. Williams

1 give away half of this $91 million and further agreed to
2 declare that she would be stipulated to be the wife,
3 threatening 900 American copyrights over her lifetime.

4 Q Why did the Christies sale go forward in July of 5 2008 versus September or October? Why in July?

6 A Judge Early, in his order, found that the estate
7 was in a desperate financial crisis in his first order and 8 that the Christies sale should take place, if possible,
9 before August 1, 2008. No one appealed that order. No one
10 sought reconsideration of that order. The reason was that 11 the estate, because $17 million had been stolen, was in 12 desperate financial straits.

13 Q Okay. Did you propose the August date?

14 A Well, I am sure that when we had the hearing, we 15 told the Court that we needed to do it as soon as possible.
16 I'm guessing that the actual proposal for before August
17 came from Christies itself saying what the appropriate time
18 frame would be to do it. I'm guessing that it was from 19 consultation with them because everybody consulted with 20 them.

21 Q Okay. So --

22 A So I'm thinking that -- that it was what they said
23 was a schedule to get it done. We, of course, wanted it
24 done as soon as could be reasonably done, but properly
25 prepared.

Adele Pope - Cross-Examination by Mr. Williams

1 A He instead made an alliance with a person -- with 2 persons who had virtually no claim to set aside the will
3 and a person who was claiming to be the spouse but whose 4 own admission showed she was not.

5 Q Okay. I bring your attention to the next page and 6 I'll read it to you: Request that attorney general and 7 family explore settlement.

8 A Right.

9 Q You're asking for that, correct?

10 A That was related, as I believe I said yesterday,
11 that they work on the issues that they had trouble with,
12 which was the -- who owned the tangible personal property.
13 Whether it was owned or -- at part of the tangible personal
14 property, whether it was part of the personal and household
15 effects which were going to go to the children or whether 16 it was part of the general TPP which went into the 17 charitable fund.

18 Q If you'll read the very last paragraph --

19 A Sure.

20 Q -- to the Court, Was respectfully submitted by you?

21 A Sure. Yeah, it's --

22 Q Please, will you publish it to the Court?

23 A Right. It says while the PR/Trustees are occupied
24 with these necessary suits and the defense of Mr. Brown's
25 estate plan, they urge the family members and the attorney

Adele Pope - Cross-Examination by Mr. Williams

1 Q In the context of your prior testimony, if you
2 would publish starting with B?

3 A Well, I have to read a half of a sentence, so we 4 don't understand the context of it?

5 THE COURT: You can read the whole sentence.

6 THE WITNESS: The PR/Trustees believe that if they 7 are joined by the attorney general in a vigorous defense of 8 the estate plan and rejection of the spousal elective share
9 claim, the estate/trust will, within six months be in a
10 posture to evaluate and perhaps enter into a full
11 settlement.

12 And we could have done it.

13 Q Okay. Full settlement? That's what you're 14 recommending?

15 A After we do what was necessary to have a fair
16 evaluation of Ms. Hynie's claim, looking at her own 17 admissions and a fair evaluation of the claims against the 18 estate plan which were baseless.

19 Q Okay. But you're telling them to settle aren't 20 you?

21 A No. I'm telling them, Let's get this thing
22 prepared. We can do it in six months and then we'll all
23 know enough to have a settlement which is fair to this $80
24 million charity.

25 Q So you are telling them to settle?

Adele Pope - Cross-Examination by Mr. Williams

1 THE COURT: That's workable.

2 THE WITNESS: Thank you.

3 (A brief recess was observed.)

4 MR. WILLIAMS: May it please the Court.

5 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

6 BY MR. WILLIAMS:

7 Q Ms. Pope, at the time of the settlement, did you
8 understand the inner workings of termination rights?

9 A I was vaguely familiar with the notion.

10 Q Okay.

11 A I certainly knew enough to know that you did not 12 want to declare someone a spouse who had only a weak
13 argument that she was.

14 Q And by the time of the settlement, I mean during 15 the settlement hearings, we saw that graph on the screen
16 earlier?

17 A During the settlement hearings, I had become a
18 little more familiar because I had spoken with Professor 19 Tritt and done a little research on my own and was 20 certainly thinking about the damage that was being caused 21 by letting someone who had substantial problems with 22 proving she was the wife, be stipulated to be the wife,
23 naming five children, two of whom were not legal children
24 of the decedent be declared as the sole heirs, adding a --
25 and others were added later; declaring as an heir, a child

Adele Pope - Cross-Examination by Mr. Williams

1 who had refused to take a $350 DNA test, and specifically
2 excluding as heirs the only three DNA proven heirs who had 3 already been identified and acknowledged by the estate and 4 refusing to give a DNA test to an incarcerated known son.

5 Q At the time of the settlement hearings, did you
6 understand that the heirs, whoever they may be, would have 7 the ability to redirect royalty revenues in the future as 8 each copyright came up for termination?

9 A No. I knew they had certain rights, but not the 10 right to redirect -- that was not correct. They had 11 certain rights with respect only to certain aspects of the 12 copyright portfolio.

13 Q Okay. However the law works. I understand where 14 you're coming from. At the time, you did not understand
15 that the heirs, whoever they may be would have the ability
16 to redirect certain royalties to themselves?

17 A I don't believe that now the way you're putting it.
18 I believe they -- I believe that there are numerous
19 strategies to avoid that and we had four years to implement
20 those strategies and we were working on it as early as June
21 2008 and -- and the Ray Charles case has certainly proven
22 to us all that the charity has a place at the table and 23 should never be excluded. And certainly that the attorney
24 general, whose duty it is to protect a charity should not 25 align himself with the people trying to siphon off the

Deposition Designations of William Sellers

1 you will, flip to the next page. It's not the complete
2 document, but you'll see you're listed as an expert
3 witness'.

4 A Uh-huh.

5 Q And there are certain opinions listed. I want to 6 go over those opinions with you. First, did you prepare 7 these opinions?

8 A No.

9 Q Have you seen this document before?

10 A I don't recall.

11 Q Okay. Do you recall discussing it with Ms. Pope?

12 A Not really, may have, but I don't recall.

13 Q All right. The first opinion says in the fall of 14 2007 Mr. Buchanan and Ms. Pope as SA's, which I believe is 15 special administrators were being pressured by Mr. Dallas
16 to sign and endorse certain tax returns prepared by Phil
17 Farr, CPA with no documentation as to their accuracy. He,
18 which I assume means Mr. Sellers, advised them not to sign
19 the returns. Mr. Farr's unauthorized tax returns added to 20 the tax problems of the James Brown estate.

21 What do you recall about that?

22 A I really don't recall that.

23 Q Okay. Paragraph 2. Mr. Sellers supports and holds
24 the opinions of Mary Jo Coal, CPA. Do you know what 25 opinions Mary Jo Coal has in this case?

Deposition Designations of William Sellers

1 A No.

2 Q Okay. So do you support her opinions?

3 A I do support her opinions.

4 Q You just don't know what they are.

5 A Because I trust her, yes.

6 Q Okay. You trust her.

7 A Uh-huh.

8 Q So if she has opinions and you trust that they're 9 valid.

10 A They're valid?

11 Q But you don't know what they are and you have to 12 know before you could support them, right?

13 A Uh-huh.

14 Q Okay. You may have additional opinions related to 15 his service, to the service of the defendants by

16 appointment of Judge Early. Do you have any expert

17 opinions that you haven't disclosed?

18 A No.

19 Q Do you have any expert opinions in the case?

20 A No.

21 MR. NEWSOME: Page 52, line 7.

22 Q Okay. Let me refer you to exhibit --

23 THE COURT: Hold on a second.

24 MR. NEWSOME: I'm sorry, Judge.

25 THE COURT: 50 what?

W. Thomas Ellison - Direct Examination by Mr. Newsome

1 field.

2 MR. NEWSOME: Thank you, Your Honor.

3 BY MR. NEWSOME:

4 Q Let me ask you, Mr. Thomas, have you had the 5 opportunity to review the probate accountings that Ms. Pope
6 filed in this estate?

7 A Yes.

8 Q Okay. And let me ask you, have you prepared any 9 summaries of her accountings?

10 A Yes.

11 Q Okay. And is that what Slide 1 here represents?

12 A Yes, sir.

13 Q Okay. If you will, please explain to the Court
14 what this -- this spreadsheet does?

15 A Sure. This is basically the cash flow --

16 THE COURT: Basically what?

17 THE WITNESS: It's, I'm sorry, I'll try to speak
18 up.

19 THE COURT: Well you've got a problem. You've got 20 a lawyer over there, a judge, Ms. Pope's husband and --
21 well y'all -- we all -- I'm not going to say hearing
22 impaired, but you have to speak up for us.

23 THE WITNESS: Okay. So what I've basically done is 24 taken the first three probate accountings that were filed
25 and I think they were -- and it's on the prior slide, but

W. Thomas Ellison - Direct Examination by Mr. Newsome

1 it was Number 1, 1A. And then one was called final with --
2 I think it had some disclaimer on it as well. But the --
3 the period that is being done is from 11/22 to 11/07 --
4 mean 11/22/07 to 5/22/09. And that was the dates that the 5 -- there were transactions in those three probate
6 accountings.

7 So on the left-hand side you can see a date and 8 then there's a description, a reference number when there
9 was one, a column called receipts, a column called 10 disbursements, and then the running total. So this is to 11 take a look, if you will, at the daily running balance or 12 the running balance per transaction for the items that went 13 through the checking account that, my understanding, that 14 Ms. Pope had.

15 Q Okay. And what is the beginning cash? What is 16 that?

17 A Beginning cash, I've got it in the receipt column
18 because it's -- this is a little bit unusual, but anyway,
19 the beginning cash is what she started with. So it came 20 from the prior PR's and trustees.

21 Q Okay. And let's see, how do you want to walk
22 through this?

23 A Well, if you just go down by slide, the only
24 observation I would have is that you see the running cash,
25 so if you keep going and you get to about March of 2008 --

W. Thomas Ellison - Direct Examination by Mr. Newsome

1 Q All right. Tell us about the totals at the bottom
2 there?

3 A Okay. So the totals at the bottom are -- of 4 course, we've already talked about beginning cash plus
5 receipts. So there was -- the funds that came in that went 6 through -- as I -- the easiest way to say it they went 7 through the checking account. There were other funds that 8 did not go through the checking account. But the funds
9 that went through the checking account and the receipts
10 were $855,430. The disbursements were $843,038 and that 11 leaves the balance of 12,331.

12 THE COURT: But you started with 151,000, so
13 really --

14 THE WITNESS: Yes, sir.

15 THE COURT: Okay.

16 BY MR. NEWSOME:

17 Q Okay.

18 A Okay. Now, this --

19 Q Tell us about this slide.

20 A This slide takes the disbursements and sorts it by 21 name. So on the left-hand side you see the top is Law
22 Office of Adele Pope and for this period of time she was 23 paid $159,438, which represented 18.91 percent of the 24 disbursements. The Buchanan Law Firm was paid 153,000
25 which represented 18.15 percent of the total disbursements.

W. Thomas Ellison - Direct Examination by Mr. Newsome

1 I won't read them all. You can see them. So I
2 summarized the -- the -- four of the law firms where -- 3 that's Ms. Pope and then the Buchanan and then Bailey and 4 then Shipley and Hayes, which comes up to a total of 5 $458,624, which is 54.39 percent of the disbursements.

6 Q Okay. So all of the money that ran through the 7 account include -- does that include the beginning cash?

8 A That's -- this summary includes the beginning cash,
9 yes.

10 Q Okay. All right. So over half of it went to 11 Ms. Pope and Counsel?

12 A 54.39 percent, yes.

13 Q Okay.

14 A And then that's a continuation page, so we sorted
15 everything. So that third page -- so that's just three 16 pages of the exhibit we just talked about.

17 Q Okay. What is this slide?

18 A So this is the same -- same sort of drill for the 19 -- for the receipts, if you will. So we've got a
20 description column. We've got an amount and we've got them
21 as a percentage. So the Christies deposit is $554,077 and 22 it's 64 percent of this total, which is the beginning cash
23 and the receipts. And then, of course, there's beginning
24 cash, which is the next line. And then the rest of this is 25 just by category, highest to lowest of where the funds came

Russell Bauknight - Direct Examination by Mr. Newsome

1 personal property, business personal property, in addition
2 to the regular personal property, such as uniforms and that 3 type of property; what was a little bit of cash. There was 4 $12,000 in the bank; $12,300 some odd in the bank. There
5 were bills currently due and payable that exceeded the 6 amount of cash I had in the bank.

7 And the largest asset of the estate, which I --
8 when I was appointed, certainly based on the information I
9 had, the largest asset would have been the royalty streams
10 for the various copyrights, the royalties derived from the 11 masters, et cetera. There was not even a list of what 12 those copyrights were, so the biggest asset of the estate,
13 there was no documentation pulled together that would even 14 tell you what was in that group of assets.

15 Q Prior to your appointment, did you have any 16 experience with musical copyrights?

17 A I had none whatsoever and I testified to that in 18 2009.

19 Q What did you do with regard to those copyrights?

20 A Well, the first thing I did, was to have a -- an 21 intellectual property expert assist me with pulling 22 together a complete list of all the assets that created the 23 royalty stream. In addition, since that was a musical type
24 asset, I immediately began the process of finding an 25 appropriate person to advise me with respect to how to best

Russell Bauknight - Direct Examination by Mr. Newsome

1 Mr. Gonzales, but as a result of what he said, you can tell
2 us what you did.

3 THE WITNESS: Yes, sir.

4 Can you restate the question, please.

5 BY MR. NEWSOME:

6 Q Sure. Did the estate have an intellectual property
7 attorney retained to advise on musical copyrights prior to 8 your appointment?

9 A To my knowledge they did not retain an attorney or 10 an intellectual property attorney to advise on copyrights.

11 Q Okay. What was the estate's cash position on May 12 26, 2009?

13 A As I have just testified, there was approximately 14 $12,300 in the bank. I had an insurance bill on the Beech
15 Island home coming due for approximately $12,200. And I
16 had regular bills coming due for Mr. Washington, who is 17 handling the day-to-day upkeep of the Beech Island
18 property. I had his weekly paycheck to take care of and I
19 had certain other regular bills that had to be paid such as 20 electric bills and storage fees.

21 Q What actions did you take based on the financial 22 condition of estate at the time of your appointment?

23 A Well, with respect to the generating cash, I
24 borrowed on an unsecured basis $25,000 from Merrill Lynch
25 to allow me to have a little bit of cash to be able to pay

Russell Bauknight - Direct Examination by Mr. Newsome

1 bills and protect the estate assets. I looked at the 2 insurance bill that was due on the Beech Island residence
3 and I found that Ms. Pope had, the previous year, paid for 4 the insurance premium on that home using a value that was 5 nearly a million dollars in excess of what the appraisal on 6 the home showed, so I was able take that appraisal and 7 negotiate a much lower insurance cost, which would insure 8 the home for what it was appraised at.

9 That was something that saved us thousands of 10 dollars -- us being the estate -- saved the estate and 11 trust thousands of dollars of insurance fees.

12 With respect to cash, that's -- I was able to 13 borrow to money from Merrill Lynch.

14 Q Okay. Did you retain any advisors to advise you
15 about the cash condition of the estate?

16 A I retained advisors on a number of fronts, all on a
17 deferred-pay basis, by the way, because I had no money to 18 pay them. But one of the advisors I consulted was a 19 bankruptcy attorney. I knew that the vast majority of the 20 money coming into the estate was being paid directly to M&T
21 Bank as trustee of the bond collection account and there
22 was very little available cash coming to the estate from 23 other sources of revenue.

24 Q And how did you hire experts with no money?

25 A Mr. Newsome, this is the James Brown estate,

Russell Bauknight - Direct Examination by Mr. Newsome

1 Godfather of soul. I don't know much about music, but I
2 know who James Brown is. People were happy to work on the 3 James Brown Estate, I think for their own personal
4 satisfaction and professional resume; so to walk into your 5 law firm for instance, yes, I was able to hire attorneys on 6 a deferred-pay basis. I was able to hire accountants on a
7 deferred-pay basis. I was able to hire a business
8 valuation investment banking firm on a deferred-pay basis.

9 I was able to hire InAudible Productions or could 10 have hired, since they were one of the final lists applying
11 for the job, Rhino Records at the Warner Music Group, all 12 on a deferred-pay basis because this is the James Brown
13 estate.

14 Q Okay. Based on your review of the estate records,
15 did Ms. Pope retain any experts on a deferred-pay basis?

16 A I'm not aware of the agreements she had with the 17 people she worked with. I know there were people who were 18 owed money at the time she was removed from office. I
19 don't know that her agreement with them was on a 20 deferred-pay basis because she did use money from the 21 accounts to pay herself and her attorneys.

22 Q Okay.

23 MR. BUNDY: Your Honor, move to strike. Question's
24 not responsive. The answer's not responsive to the 25 question.

Russell Bauknight - Direct Examination by Mr. Newsome

1 THE COURT: Overruled. Go ahead.

2 THE WITNESS: Your Honor, can I ask a question,
3 please?

4 THE COURT: Well, normally, the rules are that he
5 asks you the questions and --

6 THE WITNESS: Just about the setting. I -- can we 7 ask Mr. Bundy to move a little bit further over here. It's 8 distracting to me.

9 (Mr. Bundy moved.)

10 THE COURT: Mr. Bundy has my problem.

11 THE WITNESS: As I do too.

12 THE COURT: We have a problem hearing. Those kind 13 of things just let me know. He's just trying to get closer
14 so...

15 THE WITNESS: That's good. Thank you.

16 I understand and I'll speak loud for you.

17 THE COURT: Thank you. Move along.

18 BY MR. NEWSOME:

19 Q What was the condition of the house at Beech Island
20 when you were first appointed?

21 A The house -- well, I brought in a contractor to 22 help me assess the condition of the house. It was leaking.
23 The roof leaked. The plumbing leaked. There were a lot of 24 structural issues according to my -- what I was advised,
25 mainly caused by water.

Russell Bauknight - Direct Examination by Mr. Newsome

1 The -- there's a structure that I refer to as the
2 pool house next to Mr. Brown's pool that contained a lot of 3 business/personal property such as band uniforms, some 4 instruments, lots of costumes, lots of posters advertising
5 concerts, and that type of material. In -- in the pool
6 house, which had no working heating or air, the roof and 7 the ceiling, you could stand in that structure and look up
8 and see the sky. It had holes all the way through and 9 there was mold growing on the property that was in that 10 structure.

11 Mr. Washington, part of his daily tasks that were 12 assigned to him were to wipe down the walls of the home
13 itself because the home did not have properly working
14 heating and air and the structure was in the summertime too
15 hot and the humidity too high that mold would grow on the 16 walls. So his task every day was to -- to remove that and 17 take care of the property inside.

18 Q Okay.

19 A But the structure itself was not being kept up.

20 Q And did you find in the estate records any written
21 plan to deal with the house?

22 A I found no plan whatsoever to deal with the house.
23 In fact, I believe previous testimony was that if --

24 MR. BUNDY: Your Honor, I object.

25 THE COURT: Just what you found, please.

Russell Bauknight - Direct Examination by Mr. Newsome

1 BY MR. NEWSOME:

2 Q Did you find anything in the estate records
3 demanding Ms. Pope take action?

4 A Yes, I did. I found a letter from Louis Levinson
5 to Ms. Pope telling her --

6 MR. BUNDY: I object, Your Honor. Hearsay.

7 THE COURT: I'm going to allow that now. It's a
8 record in the --

9 Go ahead.

10 THE WITNESS: I found a letter from Louis Levinson
11 to Ms. Pope telling her of the issue of mold on the 12 uniforms in this pool house and asking her to remedy that 13 situation.

14 BY MR. NEWSOME:

15 Q And had the situation been remedied prior to your 16 appointment?

17 A No, it had not.

18 Q Okay. What's the condition of the house today?

19 A The house is secure from the elements. I've spent 20 in excess of a half million dollars putting in a new roof, 21 putting in all new heating and air for the house. I've put 22 in underground drains to take all water coming off of the 23 roof at least 100 feet away from the structure itself.
24 I've mentioned the new roof. I've secured the home from 25 damage by the elements.

Russell Bauknight - Direct Examination by Mr. Newsome

1 the tires. I did purchase a compressor and part of 2 Mr. Washington's job is to make sure that the vehicles are 3 started up on a regular basis and air maintained in the 4 tires, just the basics of keeping a vehicle up.

5 In addition, I was able to secure two of the -- of 6 Mr. Brown's touring buses that were being held at Lewis Bus
7 Service for a storage lien. I was able to negotiate a
8 payment of -- of a nominal amount of money to the Lewis Bus
9 Service and have those buses delivered to the property. So
10 they are now stored on the property as well.

11 Q Okay. What about the estate liabilities?

12 A When I came on board, there were liabilities,
13 potential liabilities, for in excess of two dozen claims, I
14 believe against the estate. The largest liability would be 15 what's been termed the Pullman Bond. I call it a Bowie
16 Bond.

17 THE COURT: Call it a what?

18 THE WITNESS: Bowie Bond after the artist David 19 Bowie, who I understand was one of the first people to 20 secure his borrowings with the stream of music -- stream of 21 royalties from his music.

22 BY MR. NEWSOME:

23 Q Okay. How did the Bowie Bond affect the estate?

24 A Well, all of the revenues from royalties paid by 25 Warner Chappell, the royalties paid by Carlin America, the

Russell Bauknight - Direct Examination by Mr. Newsome

1 royalties paid by Universal Music and the royalties paid by 2 BMI were pledged as collateral on the loan that Mr. Brown
3 obtained in 1999. Those dollars did not come to me through 4 the estate accounts, they were paid directly by those
5 entities to M&T Bank as trustee of the bond collection
6 account.

7 Q Okay.

8 A So we did not get the revenues in the estate
9 accounts whatsoever. However, those revenues are taxable
10 income and the effect to the estate was we had a lot of 11 cash coming in to M&T Bank for bond servicing that created
12 taxable income but no money in the estate accounts
13 necessarily to pay taxes.

14 Q Okay. Did you have any familiarity with this type
15 of bond before you were appointed?

16 A This is the first time I've encountered that bond
17 situation.

18 Q What action did you take?

19 A I hired a commercial loan attorney to review the 20 bond and advise me as to how the bond worked.

21 Q Did you obtain any other advisors?

22 A I hired accountants to analyze the payments that
23 came into M&T Bank and based on the information I obtained 24 from the commercial loan attorney and the description of 25 how the bond worked, the accountants then traced the

Russell Bauknight - Direct Examination by Mr. Newsome

1 dollars going to M&T Bank to determine for me whether or
2 not the dollars were properly applied to the bond
3 principal, interest, and other accounts.

4 Q If you would, tell Judge Early just generally how 5 the -- the mechanics of how the bond works.

6 A The bond had four accounts. There was a bond
7 collection account where all the dollars that came in from 8 royalties were collected and then the way the bond would 9 divvy up that money, it was called a waterfall; where first 10 and foremost, the interest on the bond was taken from the 11 total collections. So there was an amortization schedule
12 in the bond documents that showed how much interest was 13 due, tot -- how to calculate the interest due for the 14 period which was every June 15 and December 15, so they 15 would calculate interest for the six months and pull that 16 off first from the bond collection account.

17 The second thing that came out was the bond had to 18 hit certain principal targets, according to the 19 amortization schedule. It had to have a minimum principal
20 amount paid down each six months. So if at June 15, 2006, 21 if the principal pay down needed to be $17 million, they 22 would pay down to that $17 million figure with -- from the 23 bond collection account.

24 If there's still money left over after the interest
25 has been paid and after the principal, minimum principal

Russell Bauknight - Direct Examination by Mr. Newsome

1 payments had been drawn out, they then apply money to the 2 expense account, which M&T maintained to pay trustee fees;
3 to pay audit fees; to pay legal fees associated with the 4 administration of the bond. The expense escrow account was 5 capped at $300,000.

6 Then there was a tax escrow account and if you
7 still had money left after funding your expense escrow
8 account, the trustees or the fiduciaries of the estate
9 could request that monies be applied to the tax escrow.
10 Now, any business person looking at a bond deal like this
11 would know that as taxable income is paid to M&T Bank, you
12 had to have money available in some mechanism to pay the 13 taxes on those funds. So they had a tax escrow available
14 for the fiduciaries to request money to be paid to.

15 Then finally there was what we call the Warner
16 Chappell escrow.

17 THE COURT: Warner what?

18 THE WITNESS: Warner Chappell.

19 BY MR. NEWSOME:

20 Q And who is Warner Chappell?

21 A Warner Chappell is the copyright administrator for 22 the vast majority of the copyrights that Mr. Brown held.
23 At the time the bond deal was done in 1999, this was a
24 dispute as to who owned approximately 9 percent of the 25 publishing revenue. There was a man named Reggie Simmons,

Russell Bauknight - Direct Examination by Mr. Newsome

1 and I don't recall the other man's name, who owned 6
2 percent and 3 percent --

3 THE COURT: Who is Reggie Simmons?

4 THE WITNESS: He was one of Mr. Brown's advisors
5 during his lifetime. I've met him. I don't do business
6 with him, but he was one of Mr. Brown's acquaintances or 7 advisors.

8 But there was a dispute as to who owned the 9
9 percent of the revenue from publishing. The dispute was so
10 great that to close a bond deal they had to agree to put 5
11 percent of the proceeds, the original bond amount was $26
12 million, so $1.3 million was placed into the Warner
13 Chappell escrow and each and every time Warner Chappell
14 made a payment to M&T Bank, they took the amount of that 15 payment -- they were supposed to take the amount of that 16 payment and multiply it by 9 percent and draw that amount
17 of money and add it to the bond collection account.

18 So in effect every time Warner Chappell paid a 19 dollar, there should have been a dollar and 9 cents applied
20 to the collection account.

21 THE COURT: I know I frowned already. You said
22 Reggie Simmons. I just -- news came out there was a music
23 mongol called Russell Simmons. They're two different
24 people, obviously.

25 THE WITNESS: To my knowledge, they would be two

Russell Bauknight - Direct Examination by Mr. Newsome

1 different people.

2 BY MR. NEWSOME:

3 Q Did you find anything in the estate records
4 indicating a written plan to deal with the Pullman Bond
5 prior to your appointment?

6 A No, I did not. I did not even find a copy of the 7 bond documents in the records I was provided.

8 Q Did you find -- was there any experts hired prior
9 to your appointment to advise them on the Pullman Bond?

10 A I'm not aware of any experts whatsoever that were 11 advised to -- that were hired to advise with respect to the 12 bond.

13 Q I hand you a document and ask you to take a look at 14 it and see if you recognize it.

15 (The attorneys were conferring.)

16 MR. NEWSOME: Your Honor, I've got a copy for your 17 clerk to, it's just a one page exhibit.

18 BY MR. NEWSOME:

19 Q I've handed you what's labeled Defendant's Exhibit
20 42. Do you recognize this document?

21 MR. BUNDY: Excuse me, what number is it?

22 MR. NEWSOME: 42.

23 MR. BUNDY: Is it -- it's not in evidence, is it?

24 MR. NEWSOME: Not yet.

25 MR. BUNDY: So it's ID?

Russell Bauknight - Direct Examination by Mr. Newsome

1 MR. NEWSOME: Yeah, for ID purposes, Defendant's
2 42.

3 (Defendant's Exhibit Number 42 was marked for
4 identification.)

5 THE WITNESS: I do.

6 BY MR. NEWSOME:

7 Q Okay. What is this document?

8 A This is a document I had prepared as part of the 9 analysis of being sure that payments were properly applied 10 according to --

11 (Mr. Bundy stood.)

12 THE WITNESS: I'm sorry.

13 MR. BUNDY: I think he said he -- he had it
14 prepared.

15 THE WITNESS: I don't know if I'm supposed to keep 16 talking or if I'm waiting for him.

17 THE COURT: Hold on a second. Just go ahead and 18 identify the document and tell us what it is. Don't just 19 -- how it was prepared and -- don't tell us anything about 20 the document. Who prepared it and what's it from. ID.

21 MR. BUNDY: Okay. We'll deal with it as such.

22 BY MR. NEWSOME:

23 Q What is that document?

24 A This document is an analysis of the royalties paid
25 by Warner Chappell to M&T Bank from 1999 to 2009.

Russell Bauknight - Direct Examination by Mr. Newsome

1 MR. BUNDY: Who prepared -- found -- objection,
2 foundation.

3 THE COURT: Who prepared it?

4 BY MR. NEWSOME:

5 Q Who prepared this document, Mr. Bauknight?

6 A My accountants.

7 Q Okay. Was that done in the ordinary course of your 8 management of the estate?

9 A Yes, it was.

10 Q Was it based upon the M&T Bank statements?

11 A Yes, it is.

12 Q And those are estate records regularly kept in the 13 regular course of managing the estate?

14 A Yes, they are.

15 THE COURT: You moving to introduce it?

16 MR. NEWSOME: I'd move to introduce it, Your Honor.

17 THE COURT: Any objection?

18 MR. BUNDY: Yes. Object. Lack of foundation. The 19 witness didn't prepare the document and it's hearsay. And 20 it doesn't qualify as a business record based on the 21 foundation we just heard.

22 THE COURT: Overruled.

23 MR. NEWSOME: Thank you, Your Honor.

24 (Defendant's Exhibit Number 42 was entered into 25 evidence.)

Russell Bauknight - Direct Examination by Mr. Newsome

1 BY MR. NEWSOME:

2 Q Tell us what Defendant's 42 shows, please. If 3 you'd explain it.

4 A Well, the statement date on the left, as I
5 mentioned, the bond statements and the calculations were 6 done every six months on June 15 and December 15 of each
7 year. The second column is the amount of royalties from 8 Warner Chappell paid to M&T Bank for the period shown in 9 column one. So you can see that in June 15 of 2000, there
10 were three payments from Warner Chappell, three separate 11 payments.

12 And then the third column is the date those 13 payments were received by M&T Bank. The fourth column is 14 what I was describing as 9 percent of the Warner Chappell
15 royalty that came to M&T Bank was to be calculated. So the 16 fourth column represents 9 percent of the Warner Chappell
17 royalties in column two here. If you simply take 59,159
18 from that item, multiply it times 9 percent, you would come
19 to the 53 -- 5,323.49.

20 And it was applied 9 -- the 9 percent was to be 21 applied to the collection account as an additional 22 collection. What this document shows and what I found in 23 my analysis was that the calculation was not always done
24 and the monies not always moved from the Warner Chappell
25 escrow to collection account.

Russell Bauknight - Direct Examination by Mr. Newsome

1 Q Let me stop you just to make sure for my
2 understanding. So using that first item, you mentioned the 3 Warner Chappell royalties and the 9 percent. So in 4 addition to the 59,000 that came in, the 5,323.49 amount
5 you show was taken from the escrow and applied on top of 6 the 53?

7 A It was taken from the Warner Chappell escrow and 8 applied to the bond collection account as an additional 9 Warner Chappell collection.

10 Q Okay.

11 A What I found in the column that is the fifth
12 column, that's the amount that came from the Warner
13 Chappell escrow and was deposited to the bond collection
14 account. So you can see for the first two payments the 15 bond collection account was increased by those two 16 calculated amounts, however June 15, 2000 the third item
17 they did not move the $9,603 to the bond collection
18 account, it remained in the Warner Chappell escrow and then
19 again starting in 2002 and really going through June 15,
20 2008 they failed to move money from the Warner Chappell
21 escrow to the bond collection account. So M&T Bank had the 22 money in the escrow, but they failed to move it over as a
23 -- an additional collection on the bond royalties.

24 The total amount over that period of time that was 25 not moved is approximately $485,000.

Russell Bauknight - Direct Examination by Mr. Newsome

1 Q And when you discovered that, what did you -- what 2 action did you take?

3 A Contacted M&T Bank, discussed the workings of the 4 bond with them and reviewed the fact that 9 percent of the 5 Warner Chappell money was supposed to be transferred to the 6 collection account each time Warner Chappell paid to M&T
7 Bank. And the administrator at M&T Bank that was assisting
8 with this particular account agreed and moved the money
9 from the escrow to the bond collection account.

10 Q Okay. And did this issue exist prior to your 11 appointment?

12 A Yes, it did.

13 Q Did it exist prior to Ms. Pope's appointment?

14 A Well, as I said, the items in yellow, the 15 highlighted area, it started in 2000 and then it correct --
16 they corrected it for a period of time and then it picked 17 up again as an error in 2002 and they continued that 18 through June 15, 2008. So quite a bit of it is before 19 Ms. Pope was in her position as fiduciary and some was 20 during her position at the time -- in her position as 21 fiduciary.

22 Q How would it have impacted the estate if Ms. Pope
23 had caught this issue?

24 MR. BUNDY: Objection. Asking him to speculate.

25 THE WITNESS: I --

Russell Bauknight - Direct Examination by Mr. Newsome

1 THE COURT: If you know.

2 THE WITNESS: I do know, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: Well, tell us. Overruled.

4 THE WITNESS: $485,000 would have been applied to 5 the bond collection account. It would have then been 6 applied according to waterfall, which would be first to pay
7 the interest and then to pay the principal to the minimum
8 principal amounts and then it would have fully funded the 9 expense escrow, which when I came on board was $296,000.
10 It was capped at 300,000. So 4,000 of these dollars would 11 have fully funded the expense escrow, then Ms. Pope would 12 have had an opportunity to ask M&T Bank to place money into 13 the tax escrow or she could have chosen to reduce the 14 principal even further which would have saved just under 8
15 percent according to bond of additional interest being 16 charged.

17 BY MR. NEWSOME:

18 Q Okay.

19 A So we had $481,000, approximately, available to 20 make a choice: To pay tax -- into the tax escrow or to 21 reduce principal, which would have saved us almost 8
22 percent interest each year.

23 Q Would these funds have been available to pay estate
24 taxes?

25 A I believe they would. I've been advised with

Russell Bauknight - Direct Examination by Mr. Newsome

1 respect to the workings of the bond document --

2 MR. BUNDY: Objection, hearsay.

3 THE WITNESS: -- and I have personally read --

4 THE COURT: All right. Hold on.

5 THE WITNESS: -- the bond document.

6 THE COURT: I'll sustain that. If you know of your 7 own personal knowledge, not on somebody's advice.

8 BY MR. NEWSOME:

9 Q Based on your --

10 A My personal knowledge --

11 Q -- dealings with M&T Bank --

12 A -- in dealing with M&T Bank with respect to taxes
13 is I could have had -- or the fiduciary could have had this 14 money available to pay estate taxes attributable to the 15 royalties which were pledged to M&T Bank.

16 Q All right, sir. Did you find any evidence in the 17 estate records of a written plan by Ms. Pope to deal with 18 the Warner Chappell escrow?

19 A I did not.

20 Q Did you find any evidence of any experts advising
21 her about the Warner Chappell escrow?

22 A I did not.

23 Q Okay. Did you find any evidence that she was aware 24 of the tax escrow?

25 A I did not.

Russell Bauknight - Direct Examination by Mr. Newsome

1 there's a group of cases under one heading and then there's
2 the Buddy Dallas case, so there's still -- the Dallas case
3 is still moving forward.

4 THE COURT: The other ones are resolved?

5 THE WITNESS: Yes, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: Except perhaps for David Cannon.

7 THE WITNESS: We're still discussing David Cannon
8 issues.

9 So between the two cases, yes, they're still open;
10 portions of them have been resolved.

11 THE COURT: All right.

12 BY MR. NEWSOME:

13 Q And at the time of your appointment, which is now
14 nine years ago, what was the status back then of those 15 cases?

16 A Those cases -- the Morgan Stanley case I believe
17 was being mediated literally the day I was down meeting
18 with Ms. Pope in Aiken within days of my appointment. As a
19 fiduciary, I immediately contacted the lawyers handling
20 those cases and I asked for their evaluations of the cases.
21 The mediation with Morgan Stanley, for instance, had gone
22 miserably. I had been, at the beginning of the day, lead
23 to believe that could be a $13 or $14 million case and as I
24 said it went miserably, which prompted my immediate request
25 for an assessment by the attorneys.

Russell Bauknight - Direct Examination by Mr. Newsome

1 BY MR. NEWSOME:

2 Q Did you find any evidence in the estate records
3 that Ms. Pope requested the file prior to filing suit
4 against Greenberg Traurig?

5 A I know there was an order for them to turn them
6 over to the estate. I don't know who requested that order.

7 Q Okay.

8 A But that was in place. They were simply not 9 following the order.

10 Q Okay.

11 A I had to press ahead myself to get that done.

12 Q Okay. What is CORBIS Greenlight?

13 A CORBIS Greenlight is an entity that I would --

14 THE COURT: Hold on a second. CORBIS, C-O-R --

15 MR. NEWSOME: CORBIS, it's all caps, C-O-R-B-I-S,

16 CORBIS.

17 THE COURT: Greenlight?

18 MR. NEWSOME: Greenlight.

19 THE COURT: Okay. Go ahead.

20 THE WITNESS: CORBIS is a company that I, for ease
21 of description, I would compare it to Getty images. They 22 sell images online for use in commercial purposes or 23 personal purposes. You can buy all kinds of paparazzi
24 pictures from CORBIS. They're a company that during 25 Mr. Brown's lifetime, I think he felt -- I don't know what

Russell Bauknight - Direct Examination by Mr. Newsome

1 he felt. He filed suit against them for not paying him for
2 the use of his image and that was one of the suits that I
3 inherited when I came on board.

4 BY MR. NEWSOME:

5 Q Okay. And is that a suit Ms. Pope inherited as 6 well?

7 A Yes, it is.

8 Q Okay. And what happened -- what action did you
9 take with regard to CORBIS Greenlight?

10 A I consulted with an intellectual property attorney.
11 The attorney handling the case was in Chicago, but I needed
12 somebody to advise me whether or not that was a case we 13 needed to pursue and how I should handle it from my 14 perspective as a fiduciary.

15 Q Okay. Had Ms. Pope taken any action with regard to 16 CORBIS Greenlight prior to your appointment?

17 A Ms. Pope invited me to New York prior to my coming
18 on board as a fiduciary to attend the settlement
19 discussions with respect to this litigation, but I did not 20 go. I do believe she had worked on this case and was 21 recommending to me that I accept the settlement.

22 Q Okay. And did you follow that recommendation?

23 A I did not.

24 Q Okay. Why not?

25 A I -- again, I consulted with my intellectual

Russell Bauknight - Direct Examination by Mr. Newsome

1 point in time and no dollars changed hands between the
2 parties. I was able to work out an agreement with CORBIS
3 to imprint on Mr. Brown's image that if it were to be used
4 for commercial purposes that my name and contact was made
5 available to potential buyers of the use of the image.

6 THE COURT: Thank you.

7 BY MR. NEWSOME:

8 Q Did the estate have tax liabilities?

9 A I'm going to ask when you're talking about.

10 Q Does a PR have income tax responsibilities?

11 A The personal representative is responsible for 12 filing all relevant income tax returns due from the estate,
13 for the final 1040 for the decedent, as well as any 14 entities that they are handling for the estate.

15 Q Okay.

16 A In addition to that tax liability, there -- at the 17 time I came on board, there was an estate tax liability.

18 Q Okay. What about -- what was the status of 19 Mr. Brown's final income tax return?

20 A As I mentioned earlier, I found the copy of a form
21 1040 that was prepared by Phil Farr and signed by David 22 Cannon purporting to be the final income tax return for 23 Mr. Brown. However, the IRS informed me that --

24 MR. BUNDY: Objection. Strike.

25 THE COURT: Don't tell us what the IRS said. As a

Russell Bauknight - Direct Examination by Mr. Newsome

1 Q Okay. And were any of those returns due to be
2 filed during Ms. Pope's tenure?

3 A Yes.

4 Q Okay. Did you find any evidence of Ms. Pope filing
5 any income tax returns?

6 A I found no evidence whatsoever of Ms. Pope filing
7 any income tax returns.

8 Q Okay. What action did the IRS take with regard to 9 the income tax returns?

10 A The IRS audited the estate and I was able to have 11 returns produced that were then subjected to audit and 12 negotiate settlements with the Internal Revenue Service of 13 all the entities and years in question.

14 Q Okay. And what are the status of those returns
15 now?

16 A Those are closed years now. And we are current 17 with respect to all income tax returns that are due on a
18 regular continuous basis.

19 Q Okay. Was there any other IRS audits?

20 A We had the audit of the Estate Form 706 going on at 21 the time I took over this position. The 706 is the, in 22 layman's terms, the transfer tax return that's due when a
23 person dies and that was a return that Ms. Pope filed.

24 Q Okay.

25 MR. NEWSOME: Your Honor, I want to enter in the

Russell Bauknight - Cross-Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 A They were provided estate documents and had free
2 access to all the documents. So they pulled their numbers
3 from estate documents.

4 Q Okay. So whatever -- you didn't tell them that, it
5 just came from the documents?

6 A It came from the documents.

7 Q Okay. Now, Mr. Afterman, you hired him, I believe,
8 you discussed earlier, to help you, right? Help the 9 estate?

10 A He's an expert that I use to advise me with respect
11 to the intellectual property.

12 Q Mr. Afterman also has a contract with Tomi Rae
13 Brown, does he not?

14 A I'm not aware of a contract with Tomi Rae Brown.

15 Q You're not?

16 A No, I'm not.

17 Q Are you aware of the fact that Mr. Afterman
18 approached Mr. Levinson's clients, other members of the 19 Brown family, to represent them?

20 A I'm not aware of that.

21 Q Okay. All right. Do -- if -- let's assume that 22 Mr. Afterman does represent Tomi Rae Brown and I'd like you
23 to just assume that's the case. Would that present a
24 conflict of interest for Mr. Afterman to be representing 25 the estate with regard to music and at the same time be

Russell Bauknight - Cross-Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 representing Ms. Brown who claims and is receiving part of 2 his royalties?

3 A Well, Mr. Afterman is an independent contractor.
4 That aside -- and he can do these things you're asking me
5 to assume -- I would not take kindly to that.

6 Q Okay. So while he is free to do it, because he is 7 an independent contractor, you would expect him to disclose
8 to you so you could make an independent fiduciary judgment
9 as to whether or not that's in the best interest of the 10 estate?

11 A I would.

12 Q Okay. And isn't it more likely than not if he came 13 to you and told you that you would tell him either get rid 14 of Ms. Brown or we're getting out?

15 A I can't possibly answer that, sir.

16 Q That's a possibility, isn't it?

17 A I said I can't answer that question.

18 Q Okay. All right. Isn't it true that your 19 attorney, Mr. Black, on June 5, 2009 instructed Mr. Few and 20 Mr. Gilreath to have no further confidential conversations
21 with Judge Buchanan or Ms. Pope?

22 A I don't know about dates. I know I had 23 conversations with Mr. Gilreath and Few at some date to 24 quit providing information to Adele Pope. And to my 25 knowledge no one's ever instructed Mr. Gilreath and Few to

Russell Bauknight - Cross-Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 not get information from Ms. Pope. There's a huge
2 difference in my mind in calling Adele to -- Ms. Pope to 3 give her an update versus writing to her asking for 4 records.

5 Q Well, my question's a little more specific. My 6 question was no conversations. In other words, no contact.
7 Do you know whether or not your lawyer, your speaking agent
8 at the time on or about June 5, 2009 instructed Mr. Few and 9 Mr. Gilreath to have no further confidential communications
10 with Mr. -- with Judge Buchanan and Ms. Pope? If you don't 11 then that's fine.

12 A I don't know.

13 Q Okay. If you would, let's look at exhibit --
14 Defendant's 9 admitted over objection, please.

15 MR. BUNDY: Judge, do you have a copy of that?
16 Exhibit 9.

17 THE COURT: What is it?

18 MR. BUNDY: It's the December 23rd, 2010 letter
19 with attachments to Mr. Bauknight from --

20 THE COURT: I've got it.

21 MR. BUNDY: -- Mr. Stewart --

22 THE COURT: I do have it.

23 MR. NEWSOME: Your Honor, I'm sorry, that's a
24 confidential document and so if we want to go into that --

25 THE WITNESS: It's not -- what he's --

Russell Bauknight - Cross-Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 Q Okay. So when you got involved, you were first
2 involved as a special administrator, right?

3 A Well, I was involved as a special administrator for 4 the sole purpose of reviewing the settlement agreement and 5 advising the Court as to whether it was fair and 6 reasonable.

7 Q And that charge or order from the judge has never
8 changed has it? As it relates to your duties as special
9 administrator and special trustee?

10 A My assumption is that the special administrator
11 position ended upon my service to the Court.

12 Q And when did your service to the Court end? Wilson
13 versus Dallas?

14 A No, that was sometime in January is when I
15 testified, January of 2009 when I testified as to whether I
16 thought the settlement agreement was fair and reasonable.

17 Q Okay. So your tenure as special administrator
18 began -- when in 2009?

19 A Well, it depends on what you're talking about when 20 you say special administrator. There are two different
21 special administrator positions that I've held.

22 Q Okay.

23 A The first being that for the sole purpose of 24 looking at the settlement agreement.

25 Q Okay.

Russell Bauknight - Cross-Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 the litigation that she was trying to handle herself, plus
2 I had a litigation from Ms. Pope. So I actually had more
3 going on than she did.

4 Q Okay. So what it boils down to is you're just a
5 much better administrator than Ms. Pope?

6 A Well, I am. Yes, I am.

7 Q Absolutely.

8 A Absolutely.

9 Q And you've testified --

10 A I am a better administrator because this is what I
11 do for a living, Mr. Bundy.

12 Q Right.

13 A I'm not here to berate Ms. Pope, but she testified
14 she'd never even served as a fiduciary. I am a better
15 administrator. That's what I do for a living, yes.

16 Q Okay. And you also have testified under oath in a
17 deposition in the Forlando case that Ms. Pope is dishonest, 18 haven't you? Under oath, you have testified Adele Pope is 19 dishonest?

20 A I have not said she's dishonest that I recall.

21 Q Okay.

22 A If you could put that in front of me, I'll tell you
23 what was said and the context of it.

24 Q We'll get it for you.

25 A Okay.

Russell Bauknight - Cross-Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 issues outlined in this e-mail?

2 A I don't know. It's not in this e-mail.

3 Q The house. Is it your testimony that when James

4 Brown died that that house was in pristine condition and by

5 -- and all the conditions you discovered when you got

6 involved occurred between the date of his death and the 7 time you fixed it up?

8 A I never testified to such a --

9 Q I'm just asking if that's your position?

10 A I don't know what condition it was the day he died.

11 Q How much would it have -- tell me -- you spent how

12 much money to fix this house?

13 A I've spent over $500,000 over my tenure.

14 Q Okay. And tell me how much money -- if Ms. Pope

15 had done what you allege she should have done it would have 16 cost?

17 A I don't recall. She --

18 Q So isn't it a fact --

19 A Had --

20 Q -- whether Ms. Pope was able --

21 THE COURT: Hold on, hold on both of you.

22 MR. BUNDY: I'm sorry.

23 THE WITNESS: I'm sorry.

24 MR. BUNDY: I'm sorry.

25 THE COURT: Gentlemen. Let him finish his answer

Russell Bauknight - Cross-Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 of the water damaging the property.

2 But in this case I haven't asked her to repay that
3 to the estate.

4 Q Pardon me?

5 A In this case I have not asked her to repay the 6 estate. I'm simply pointing those items out to show that 7 she was not doing a good job on her administration.

8 Q As it related to the house.

9 A As it related to the estate property, trust
10 properties.

11 Q Now, it's true, isn't it, that Ms. Pope -- let me
12 ask you -- I'll withdraw the question.

13 Is everything you're saying about Ms. Pope as 14 co-trustee and co-personal representative true of Judge
15 Buchanan since they were co-trustees and co-personal 16 representatives?

17 A They were responsible for the estate administration
18 together.

19 Q Okay. And you have made no attempt to 20 differentiate the conduct of one from the other because 21 they're essentially one entity and they're both jointly 22 responsible and they jointly had the same obligations to do
23 whatever it was they were supposed to do.

24 A Is there a question?

25 Q Is that correct? Is that true?

Russell Bauknight - Cross-Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 A I've not differentiated one versus the other since
2 they were co-fiduciaries.

3 Q Okay. And yet you can't differentiate them but you
4 found it prudent to pay Judge Buchanan a half million
5 dollars and you say Ms. Pope's not entitled to anything?

6 A Well, I said Judge Buchanan -- Bob Buchanan was 7 entitled to nothing for the same service. He got nothing,
8 zero, for his service as personal representative and as 9 trustee. Zero. So I'm very willing to pay your client the 10 same thing.

11 Q All right, sir. Now, isn't it true -- who sent the 12 documents up to Nashville to be stored? The music stuff.
13 Tapes and --

14 A Ms. Pope did.

15 Q Ms. Pope did.

16 A Ms. Pope and/or Mr. Buchanan.

17 Q And of course, that was the wrong thing to do,
18 right?

19 A No, I never said that.

20 Q Okay. So we can agree that at least they did one
21 thing right, which was to get all the music, put it in a 22 secure location in a city, okay, that is a music type of 23 city. That was a pretty good idea, wasn't it?

24 A On it's face it was a good idea if it had -- well,
25 there was no list of -- detailed list of what she took up

Russell Bauknight - Cross-Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 a list didn't prevent you from doing any of that, did it?

2 A Their failure to do their job did not prevent me

3 from doing my job.

4 Q Okay. So where's the damage?

5 A I didn't claim any damage in this case, Mr. Bundy.

6 Q I got you.

7 A I just said she simply didn't do her job,

8 Mr. Bundy. That's all I've said about her. The amount of 9 money we talk about in terms of lost interest, the amount

10 of money in lost opportunities is simply to show the 11 magnitude of the bad job she did.

12 Q Well, how much money was lost in lost

13 opportunities?

14 A I don't know. I just told you I couldn't from this 15 e-mail determine that.

16 Q This is all about the process, isn't it? You don't 17 like the way she processed it but you can't prove that any

18 damages were caused by it. Isn't that true?

19 A She -- she did not have the process that properly

20 administered the estate. She wanted to litigate.

21 Q This is about putting things on the wrong schedule,

22 but still getting them on the return and not being

23 processed properly, but they're still on the return, right?

24 A No, it's not -- not at all. That -- that assumes

25 that if you put something as you refer to the return in the

Russell Bauknight - Cross-Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 THE COURT: I'll allow it.

2 BY MR. BUNDY:

3 Q Bottom line, nobody lost $485,000?

4 A Nobody's ever claimed it was lost.

5 Q So once again the complaint is about the process.

6 While nothing was lost, you don't like the way she did it?

7 A No, the way she did it was negligent, Mr. Bundy.

8 Q Okay.

9 A That's not a matter of me not liking it. She did a

10 bad job. That's all I've said.

11 Q How much money has the estate collected from 12 revenues, et cetera since you took over?

13 A I don't know, I didn't --

14 Q Is it tens of millions of dollars?

15 A I'm not going to speculate.

16 Q You don't have any idea?

17 A I'm not going to speculate.

18 Q You're the trustee, you're the personal

19 representative and you don't have any idea, can't even give

20 us a ballpark figure about how much money has been brought 21 into this estate since you took over?

22 A Mr. Bundy, I have all those records available. I

23 did not come here with having gone back nine years and 24 adding up all of those numbers anticipating a question like

25 that.

Russell Bauknight - Cross-Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 claims, any amounts of money from anybody who settled with 2 this estate that's not confidential that you can tell us as 3 the trustee or personal representative how much has been 4 paid into the estate?

5 A I don't know of any that are not confidential.

6 Q They're all confidential?

7 A Yes.

8 Q Okay. So those claims were the very same claims
9 that were listed by Judge Buchanan and Ms. Pope in Schedule
10 F, correct?

11 A I don't know what she was referring to in Schedule
12 F, but it did list claims.

13 Q Okay. And by name some of those claims were 14 against people who have since settled, correct?

15 A I don't know how you would gather that from 16 Schedule F.

17 Q Okay. Well have you asked her?

18 A Asked who?

19 Q Ms. Pope or Judge Buchanan?

20 A No, I asked my attorneys about claims.

21 Q Okay.

22 A And my attorneys told me that the value was zero.

23 Q So when you became the PR or the special
24 administrator, you never picked up the phone and called 25 Judge Buchanan or Ms. Pope to say, Look I'm in now. I need

Russell Bauknight - Cross-Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 Q Okay. What I'm trying to get to is there were 2 assets in the estate, James Brown's copyrights, his music,
3 his memorabilia and all of it. That is what makes the 4 value of the James Brown estate, correct? That's the basis
5 of it.

6 A The musical assets, the intellectual property is 7 one of the very valuable assets of the estate of James 8 Brown.

9 Q Can we compare James Brown's estate sort of like a
10 gold mine? Can we -- for purposes of my question, can we 11 just look at it as an asset, a gold mine. Will you indulge
12 me a moment so I can ask you a question?

13 A You can say whatever you want, Mr. Bundy. I'm not 14 going to speculate on that front, but --

15 Q Regardless of how good a gold miner you are, you
16 don't change the amount of gold in the mine, do you? You
17 might be able to extract more than the next guy, but the 18 mine contains what it contains, correct?

19 A I don't know anything about that.

20 Q Okay. The value of the James Brown estate, the 21 assets in the estate remained the same, the physical items, 22 the copyrights, the memorabilia, the persona never has 23 changed, has it, from the day that he died?

24 A Well the image of a person can change over time.
25 If you go back in time and think about the early days after

Russell Bauknight - Cross-Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 in court she said it's worth $40 million. So she lost $40
2 million in six months according to that. I don't think
3 that's an accurate picture. I think her $84 million is 4 clearly in error. It was not based on anything and my 5 valuation was based on clear documents and records done by 6 a professional valuation firm. It's not that I've done
7 something that shows that she lost $80 million. It was 8 never worth what she said it was to start with. You can't 9 lose something you don't have.

10 Q And you can't take credit for something you didn't 11 do, can you?

12 A Well, she didn't do anything so she cannot take 13 credit, Mr. Bundy. That's why I've asked the Court to 14 award her no fee.

15 Q But you're taking credit for the increase in value?

16 A Mr. Bundy, I have done a very good job. This Court
17 has said I have done a good job. The Supreme Court said
18 I've done a good job. I have done a good job and I've done
19 the things necessary to properly administrate this estate
20 and trust. I have done the things that caused it to go up 21 in value, Mr. Bundy, so yes, I'm not patting myself on the 22 back, that's just my job. That's what I do.

23 Q Are you aware that this same Court has also held 24 that Mr. -- that Judge Buchanan and Ms. Pope did a good
25 job?

Russell Bauknight - Cross-Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 A I don't know when they held that. I'm not -- I
2 don't recall that.

3 Q You don't recall that. Okay.

4 A But I do recall that Judge Buchanan, Bob Buchanan
5 renounced his right to a fee in this case and he renounced
6 his right to a trustee fee as well as the PR fee. Zero
7 dollars.

8 Q What's the estate worth today?

9 A I don't know.

10 Q No idea?

11 A I personally have not completed that work. I have 12 engaged professionals to assist me in advising on that 13 front on a regular continuous basis, but I don't have a 14 professional valuation in hand that's current. I've had 15 no --

16 Q Well --

17 A -- reason to value it.

18 Q Have you done any since the Philpott valuation?

19 A I've had people advise me on a regular continuous
20 basis, but I've not done another valuation.

21 Q What's the last one you can remember?

22 A The last formal valuation was the Philpott
23 valuation.

24 Q So you haven't done one since then?

25 A I just said that.

Russell Bauknight - Cross-Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 Q Okay. And you don't have an opinion about what 2 it's worth now?

3 A I don't have an opinion about what it's worth now,
4 but I know it's increased in value.

5 Q Well, you know it's at least worth $8 million
6 because you've got $8 million in the bank.

7 A Precisely.

8 Q Okay. And you know that it's got a revenue stream
9 because the -- the TIAA debt's been paid off for how long?

10 A I forget the date it was paid off.

11 Q Are you also getting royalties on all those songs?

12 A We get royalties on all but five songs.

13 Q Pardon me?

14 A We still continue to receive royalties on all but 15 five songs.

16 Q Okay. And how much do you receive in -- on an 17 annual basis for those royalties?

18 A It varies, but I don't know the amounts, sir.

19 Q Well, can you give me a range?

20 A I'm not going to speculate on that.

21 Q Well, is it less than what is shown in Plaintiff's
22 Exhibit 15? Is it less than these royalties?

23 A I'm not going to speculate on that, Mr. Bundy.

24 Q All right. These royalties are exactly the same
25 royalties that you're getting now with the exception there

Russell Bauknight - Cross-Examination by Mr. Bundy

1 are five fewer songs, correct?

2 A It depends on what you mean by royalties. I don't
3 know -- I'm not going to speculate on the dollars, but the 4 songs are the same songs except for the five that 5 termination rights were exercised on. There are a few
6 additional songs because I now own portions of new 7 copyrights because of certain sampling that we've approved
8 over the years.

9 Q Isn't it true you're getting at least $3 to $4
10 million a year on a regular basis from royalties,
11 copyrights, and all the rest of it at a minimum?

12 A Mr. Bundy, I just said I'm not going to speculate 13 on that.

14 Q Okay. And you aren't prepared to answer that 15 because it never occurred to you I was going to ask it?

16 A It didn't.

17 MR. BUNDY: Your Honor, I think it's now time to 18 clear the courtroom and I can move to the next -- I don't 19 know if I'll go all the way to five, but I'll get pretty 20 close.

21 THE COURT: All right. We're going back into a
22 confidential thing. It's going to take us through the 23 conclusion of the testimony today. I'll ask the same
24 people to leave, exit the courtroom. We're going to start
25 at 9 o'clock sharp in the morning. Everyone is welcome.
