Appellant hereby moves pursuant to Rule 263(b), SCACR, for a 10-day extension of the time in which to serve and file the record on appeal. The grounds for this motion are that there is good cause to grant the requested extension, as the following shows:

1. The current COVID-19 pandemic and its attendant disruption of the ordinary functioning of business has disrupted Appellant's counsel's schedule and ordinary pace of work, affecting numerous matters, including the completion of the record on appeal in this case.
2. The undersigned has also sustained injury to his hand, the recovery from which has made even limited operation of it medically inadvisable. Consequently, the undersigned's ability to compile this record is severely hampered until the recovery is complete, which is anticipated before the requested due date.
3. The record on appeal is presently due today, November 14, 2020. If the request is granted, the record on appeal will be due on Thursday, November 24, 2020.
4. This is the third extension Appellant has requested in this appeal and first regarding service and filing of the record on appeal.
5. Opposing counsel consents to this requested extension of time.
6. The undersigned has served this document on opposing counsel by email to registered AIS email address on the date given below.

WHEREFORE Appellant prays for an order extending the time in which to serve and file the record on appeal by 10 days, to November 24, 2020.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Taylor Smith
