APPEAL FROM HORRY COUNTY
COURT OF COMMON PLEAS

SC Court of Appeals

CASE # 2020-000933

JAMES.G WILES- A DISBARRED ATTORNEY,

APPELLANT.

V:

CHARLES OTTWELL AND JAY SPECTER

RESPONDENT.

RESPONDENT JAY SPECTER HERBY MOVES THE HONERABLE COURT FOR AN ORDER TO DENY THE APPELLANTS MOTION TO EXTEND THE TIME FOR APPELLANT to file his opening brief until November 15, 2020.

The appellant has tried to continually delay, delay and delay the legal process. First the Appellant does not have standing to bring this action in the first place. He is not and never has been the owner of the subject property. He is not now, nor has he been the Executor of his parent's estate since this action commenced.

The Library in Horry County is open and has been for some time. Additionally, West Law is available online 24 hours a day 7 days a week. This is just another excuse to try and drag the litigation out. Granting an extension is totally up to the Courts. However, this is what gives the justice system a bad wrap. These delays and extensions only serve to delay the inevitable. The Appellant should have to post a bond since he is tying up the subject property from sale and has successfully done so for more than 3 years.

Appellant has been uncooperative throughout the duration of this litigation. He has refused to obey the Courts orders and has had at least two different Pro-Bono attorneys. Both of whom have parted ways with an uncooperative client.

Respondent has had numerous good offers on the subject property, Appellant has refused to cooperate and soured numerous deals.

The Respondents has been prejudiced by the past delays and will be further prejudiced by any further delays.

Wherefore, Appellant's motion should be denied.\
