Greetings sir or ma'am

I, Justin Smalls, the defendant in the cause of action #2020-CP-14-00002, hereby request a full transcript copy for the hearing set on September 10th on or around 1:00 p.m. est. and all other transcripts in the custody of your office associated with this action, so that I, Justin Smalls, may preserve my constitutional right to appeal the judgment in error rendered against me in favor of the plaintiff and also that I may attempt to preserve my rights and interest held in the property in dispute.

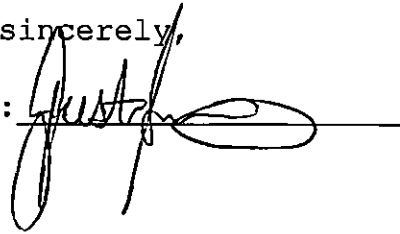

Let it be known that, I, Justin Smalls, have been financially injured by the COVID-19 pandemic which as cause several financial disabilities that have become extremely irreparable. Also let it be know that there is no constitutional law that states that "We the People" of the United States of America have to "pay" for justice. Therefore I request this copy to be free of charge due to me being indigent and financial disabled.

I, hereby request such copy without cost to me, Justin Smalls, for such cost will cause further extreme irreparable financial harm and violate my rights and interest to seek justice in which I, Justin Smalls , have provided proper notice to South Carolina Court of Appeals of my expressed intent to preserve and protect such rights and interest to the property rights in the above cause of action

Thank You sincerely,
