Re: Wanda McClendon v. Brenda Bridges
Appellate Case No. 2020-001305

Dear Counsel and Ms. McClendon:

This Court has received the notice of appeal filed by Ms. McClendon. This will acknowledge receipt of a Notice of Appeal in the above entitled matter. However, it has come to the Court's attention that the Notice of Appeal was filed by Ms. Wanda McClendon herself. According to Rule 264 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules, the trial attorney is deemed to be the attorney of record on appeal until he/she has been relieved by an order of the Court. This case has been assigned the appellate case number that appears above. Please use this number on all future correspondence relating to this matter.

All parties to this matter are advised that all filings must comply with the requirements of Rule 267 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR). The SCACR are available online at www.sccourts.org/courtreg. Additionally, any filings submitted by counsel admitted in South Carolina must include counsel's bar number.

The attention of the parties is directed to the order relating to the inclusion of personal data identifiers and other sensitive information in documents filed with the Supreme Court of South Carolina and the South Carolina Court of Appeals. The order can be found at www.sccourts.org/courtOrders/displayOrder.cfm?orderNo=2014-04-15-02. Please note that the responsibility for insuring that information is redacted or sealed as required by this order rests with counsel and the parties. This office will not review filings for redaction or to determine if materials should be sealed.

Very truly yours,
