Samuel Lee Jackson # 107,56
Appellate Case No. 2020-000949

RECEIVED

SC Court of Appeals

To whom it may concern,

I'm writing to let the courts know that I have submit a letter concerning my appeal. But there was a important fact that I forgot to make knowing I was arrest on May 8, 2020 and was sentence on June 9, 2020. So what I'm saying is there is no way I would have Olea guilty to Domestic Violence, First Degree, if I wasn't promise in patient drug treatment program, Like I stated in my first letter to the courts, I have receipt and my attorney David M. Mauldin have them also with a letter head showing that I was accept in the program at the Oxford House, were I also paid 500⁰⁰ dollors for a bed for a month, because you would have to paid 50000 for rent every month. Because The Honorable Frank R. Addy JR. and everyone else had agree to drug treatment not prison. So I feel Mr. David M. Mauldin should have never let me plea in the court of The Honorable Walton J. Meador and I also feel I wasn't treat fairly in my Case.

God Bless
Thank You
Vernon S. Jackson
