SC Court of Appeals

COMES NOW Miquell Lutron Bryan ("appellant") is before this Ninth Circuit General Sessions Court who is with TITLE 42 SEC.1986 certifiable knowledge of the law and that I am before this court in my proper person, I am representing the name on the docket of the court. I am before this court by limited special appearance without prejudice without waving any rights remedies or defenses statutorial or procedural. I move this court under the authority of Rule 27 SCACR for the court reporter to prepare a certified, true and correct FREE copy of the 7th of January 2020 Trial Hearing of State of South Carolina v. Miquell Lutron Bryan. The appellant also hereby moves this court under the landmark United States Supreme Court Case Griffin v. Illinois, 351 U.S. 12 (1956) demanding that a free transcript of the 7th of January 2020 trial Hearing be provided immediately that will show that the undersigned Due Process was violated and that the Administrative Law Judge Perry M. Buckner III failed to give a Farretta Warning about the dangers of self-representation on and for the record, thus the appellant constitutional rights to self-representation was violated. The appellant filed a motion to terminate private attorney of record on the 31st of December 2019 and was sent via email and US MAIL to Stephanie B. Linder & Jason T. Mikell that shows the termination of the private contract BETWEEN THE APPELLANT AND Jason T. Mikell. Under the Griffin doctrine the Appellant is entitled to receive a free copy of the transcript for proper appellate review. See Exhibit A of Motion to terminate private attorney of record filed on the 31st of December 2019 that shows the express intent of the appellant.

I SO MOVE !

On this day 29 of August 2020 (nunc pro tunc)
