RICARDO DARGAN,

PETITIONER,

V.

STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA,

RESPONDENT

PETITION TO FILE
AMENDED APPENDICES

Pursuant to Rule 240 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules, the undersigned counsel requests leave in which to file amended appendices with this Court in the above titled case. In support of this motion, counsel submits the following facts.

1. The petition for writ of certiorari and copies of the appendix in the above titled case were filed with the Court on May 26, 2020.
2. However, it has recently come to my attention that some personal identifiers were inadvertently not redacted from the appendices filed in this appeal.

3. Therefore, in order to comply with this Court's Order of April 15, 2014 (Rule 41.2) requiring the redaction of personal identifiers, counsel requests leave to file amended appendices containing the appropriate redactions.

4. Opposing counsel for the state has graciously consented to this petition via e-mail.

WHEREFORE, counsel requests leave in which to file amended appendices in this case on appeal.

Respectfully submitted,

s/Wanda H. Carter
