RE: McIntosh v State
Appellate Case No. 2020-000741

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

Court Administration has advised me that Rule 602(4) does not allow anybody to receive a transcript free of charge. Since I'm indigent, this denies me the ability to contest what took place at trial — a denial of due process. (The court's order contains lies about what took place at trial.)

Anyway, I'll file my Initial Brief within 30 days of this notice. Please notify the respondent? At present, I do not have writing materials to do so. I'm awaiting a request for more legal supplies to be filled by SCDC.

It's ironic that respondent forces me to beg for parchment and quill, and litigate as if I was done 100 years ago; yet, respondent spends $75 million when it goes to court against the United States.

Boo-hoo!
