vs.

Miguel Bryan

Plaintiff,
Defendant,

AMENDED

MOTION TO TERMINATE ATTORNEY

COMES NOW Miguel Bryan in his proper person under TITLE 42 SEC certifiable Knowledge of the law 1986 let it be known to the courts and all agents thereof, I waive no rights, I do claim and reserve all rights, remedies, defenses, statutorial or procedural, and I retain full constitutionally secured rights, under the due process clause.

I move to terminate my contract with my present private attorney of record and withdraw all appearances by said attorney of record and all so called pleas to the quasi in rem jurisdiction of the court by all general appearances. Made in the past by said attorney either by motion or application to this time. Attorney of record has a conflict of interest being an officer of the court. C.J.S V. 7 SEC 4

The reason for such termination of attorney of record is that, I believe the attorney of record is incompetent as there is no injured party 'corpus delicti' before the court to give the court subject matter jurisdiction over my person. Said attorney of record as of this time has not file one Motion to Discharge /Dismiss/ Challenge Subject Matter Jurisdiction of the court, as there is also no 'express' or 'implied' contract before the court under the statute of frauds SC CODE 32-3-10 (2)(5)(2013). That gives the court quasi in rem/personam jurisdiction over my person for specific performance under the restatement (third) of restitution & unjust enrichment to hold the under signed liable under equity jurisdiction.

I expressly reserve the right to represent myself Under the Farretta Doctrine. All future appearances either by motion or application, by me will be in my proper person as a man before the court by special limited appearances only without prejudice without waving any rights remedies or defenses statutorial or procedural. In a court of record with a competent court reporter under Griffin v. Illinois, 351 U.S. 12 (1956)

This Termination of the present private attorney of record is effective immediately

Respectfully submitted juris et de jure,

This 29 day of August 2020 (nunc pro tunc)
