Appellate Case No. 2020-008741

Billy Wayne McIntosh Appellate
v
State of South Carolina Respondent

MOTION FOR EXPANSION OF TIME

September 21, 2020, Appellate received notice from SC Court Administration that R.L. 607(h) does not allow an indigent litigant to obtain the Bench Trial Record free of charge. This affects Appellate's ability to challenge the process — denies Appellate due process of law. Appellate is requesting an additional 30 days to research this issue and assess its effect on the appeal as a whole.

Further, a COVID-19 lockdown at Lee Correctional Institution affects Appellate's ability to access the institution's law library. Although Appellate expects the lockdown to end soon, social distancing issues may still affect Appellate's access to the law library — I have CML Leinkemia and must exercise an overabundance of caution. However, GIL is completing installation of the Wi-Fi network necessary to operate a tablet that will provide Appellate unlimited access to Westlaw. I will eventually perfect this appeal.
