Good morning Ms. Burns –

Thank you for your email and correspondence. I would note we have NOT been served with any recent pleadings by Ms. Brooks and her counsel, including a brief. The last documents served on us were the attached letters from your office, one of which extended the brief deadline to September 8, 2020. By copy of this email to counsel for Ms. Brooks, we are requesting immediate service of the brief and recent filings. We would also request the Court make note of the lack of service, thus affording my client equitable time within which to file a reply brief.

If we need to take additional action, then please let me know. I will also reach out directly to counsel for Ms. Brooks regarding this issue.

Chris.
