THE SOUTH CAROLINA COURT OF APPEALS

Richard h. Coleman 186795 APPELLANT,
V.
South Carolina Department of Probation
Parole and Pardon Service RESPONDENT.

CASE NO 2020-00074

Today October 8, 2020 I received order from the Court dismissing my appeal Proclaiming I failed to pay filing fee. Also the Court mention an order dated August 19, 2020. Now prior to August 19, 2020 I sent the Court an letter requesting that my appeal be held due to the institution being on lock-down due to Covid-19 cases etc. Now on August 24, 2020 I received a letter from the Court, however I never had the opportunity to read the letter, because the same day I was placed in the institutional lock-up, because I was assaulted and attacked by another incarcerated individual. I have been in the institutional lock-up every since August 24, 2020, and in addition I was never provided opportunity to pack my personal property thereby meaning I still have not read the letter I received from the Court August 24, 2020 because I now don't have no legal documents in my possession. SCDC officials never issued me my legal box containing my legal mail. Currently my legal boxes are being held in the institutional Property Control Room.

I would like to hereby Request to be given the opportunity to comply with the order dated August 19, 2020, but first I need to know the contents of the order.

Also I need to know did the Court received an $100.00 money order, sent to the Court by Deborah Trapp on my behalf. I asked the Court such said question before, however I never received an response.

EXECUTED ON: October 8, 2020

Sincerely
Richard Coleman
