Dear Clerk of Court,

Please know that the transcript in this matter was ordered and in my possession before the appeal was filed in this matter. I have attached the letter I submitted to the Court on September 22 which was clocked in and provides the same. It was my understanding that Rule 207 does not provide for a required filing in such a situation. If I am incorrect I apologize for the oversight and I will gladly provide the appropriate documentation per your guidance.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Regards,
Paul
