RE: Andrew Waldo et al. v. Michael Cousins et al.
Appellate Case No. 2018-001590

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

We are writing in response to the October 7, 2020 letter from the Court requesting notice of any conflicts for oral arguments taking place on February 1, 2, 3, 4, 9, 10, or 11 during its February 2021 Term of Court. Although the Court has not yet ruled on whether our client, National Association of Realtors, may participate as an amicus curiae in this matter, we nevertheless wanted to inform the Court that we have no known conflicts on any of the proposed dates.

If the Panel to which this case was assigned believes our participation would be helpful to the Court, we are happy to participate in oral arguments and stand ready to do so. Otherwise, we intend to rest on our brief filed on behalf of the National Association of Realtors to aid the Court in its decision on the dispute between the parties. In other words, we are not requesting any time for oral arguments.

Of course, should the Court have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact us. We appreciate the Court's time and careful attention to this matter.

Very truly yours,

Elizabeth Van Doren Gray
