

The Supreme Court of South Carolina

Quincy A. McCants, Petitioner,

v.

State of South Carolina, Respondent.

Appellate Case No. 2019-001436

ORDER

Respondent moves to file a second supplemental appendix to include certain documents respondent contends are required to be included under Rule 243(f) of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules. Petitioner consents to the motion. Respondent further moves to withdraw its motion to compel petitioner to file a supplemental appendix including these documents.

The motion to file a second supplemental appendix is granted, and the second supplemental appendix is accepted as filed. The motion to compel is denied on the basis that it is moot.
