During the Covid-19 pandemic, we are committed to ensuring our insureds and their injured workers have uninterrupted, high-quality service while our employees remain in the safest environment possible. Many of our employees will remain in our offices to serve the needs of our agency, but our offices will be closed to non-employees. We are fortunate to have the technology to allow some of our staff to work remotely. During that time, these employees will remain fully functional and available to service all needs of our insureds and their injured workers. Additionally, we are working to ensure that all benefit checks and bill payments are sent out in a timely manner.
