RE: Robert Troy Taylor, #315084 v. State of South Carolina; 07-CP-22-476

Dear Mr. Shearouse:

My Reply Brief of Petitioner is due to be filed in this matter on June 11, 2012. Due to my heavy State and federal trial and appellate court schedules, I will be unable to complete my work on the Reply Brief of Petitioner by that date. In particular, I am scheduled to be counsel for Brandon Woodson in his joint murder trial in Richland County scheduled for the week of June 18, 2012. Inasmuch as a ten-day extension of time to file the Reply would cause the new filing date to fall within the dates of the trial, I am requesting that this Court grant both a second and a third ten-day extension of time in which to file the Reply, for a total of a twenty-day extension of time. I have consulted with opposing counsel regarding this unusual request, and she consents to this Court granting two extensions of time. Therefore, I respectfully request a twenty-day extension of time in which to prepare and file the Reply Brief of Petitioner on behalf of this client.

With my thanks for the Court's attention to this matter, and my best regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

Jeremy A. Thompson
